Quick Quotes From:
JUSTIN ROSE

Q. Not too terribly bad.

JUSTIN ROSE: I threw my round away at the end. I could or should have been 3-under par, probably through -- by about 12 or 13. But I just couldn't get the ball in the hole and just a really weak finish, some poor clubs and some tired, lazy swings at the end. All in all, a little bit disappointed. I felt like I finished poorly, but I felt like I could have gotten a lot more out of the day.

Q. You mentioned tired swings, is it a result of the terrain, maybe?

JUSTIN ROSE: It's a long day, it's a long golf course. Yeah, I mean, obviously it's been a long week trying to prepare for it, too. But same for everybody, you know. I think more just the time. It feels like it's getting dark. It feels like it's a late night. It's more a body clock thing more than a physical tiredness thing.

Q. Tomorrow, new day, body regroup. What's the strategy?

JUSTIN ROSE: I really hope the greens roll better in the morning because it wasn't a lot of fun out there in the afternoon. I couldn't see a putt staying on the line I hit it on and makes it a little frustrating at times. I'm hoping I can get some good looks at it tomorrow and the ball rolls a little truer, so I feel like I can make some birdies.
