Kenny Perry Wins the 2017 Championship

When Kenny Perry discussed the challenges facing him in Sunday's final round of the 38th U.S. Senior Open Championship at Salem Country Club, he pointed first to his playing partner, Kirk Triplett, who held a one-stroke lead.

"Kirk is down the middle, he's very controlled, and he doesn't get flustered," said Perry, 56, of Franklin, Ky. "He's going to be a tough guy to beat because he doesn't make too many mistakes."

Perry, the 2013 winner of this championship, turned the tables on his adversary, playing a bogey-free final round of 2-under-par 68, capped by a string of 12 consecutive pars to finish. Perry, who admitted that he began his second round on Friday "amped up" and opened with two bogeys, was much more settled in at the start on Sunday, and it showed with a birdie on the first hole.

"I had a good warmup session that told me I was in the game, I'm ready to go," said Perry. "My swing was better today than the other three days. I knew my irons were going to be good, my driver was going to be good."

Perry followed up his opening birdie with four straight pars and his only other birdie of the day, on the par-5 sixth hole. By that point, he held a two-stroke lead on Triplett, which would grow to four by the turn after Triplett made his third and fourth bogeys of the day. He had made only two bogeys in the first three rounds combined as he built a championship record 15-under total of 195.

"He had control of his ball right from the get-go and I did not, so it was a real struggle for me," said Triplett, 55, a native of Moses Lake, Wash. "Quite frankly, after the middle of the round, I'm thrilled that I had a chance to force him to make that putt on the last hole."

Triplett's rebound that made things interesting began with a birdie on No. 10, his first of three on the day, even as Perry was salvaging a par from out of the woods. Triplett went bogey-birdie on Nos. 13 and 14, so when Perry missed a short birdie putt on the par-5 14th, Triplett still trailed by three. Then came the 224-yard, par-3 15th, Triplett's best chance to close the gap.

"Fifteen was probably the hardest hole of the day, with the wind in our face," said Perry. "I just didn't commit to the 4-iron, because I didn't know where to hit it on that hole."

Perry hooked his tee shot short and left of the green, leaving himself no realistic play to the back-left hole location. "I was pretty much dead," he admitted. He pitched his second shot onto the right side of the green, 24 feet from the hole, in an effort to take double bogey out of play, and then rolled the putt in for par.

"It was a putt that I practiced a lot in the practice round, so I knew what it was going to do," said Perry. "That putt won me the tournament, by far."

"He missed the short putt [for birdie on 14] and then he had a poor shot on 15, and there was a little glimmer of hope," said Triplett. "Then to hole that putt, that was a champion's putt right there. He was doing the things you need to do to win golf tournaments, and I wasn't."

There was one last bit of drama on the final green, as Perry ran his first putt from the fringe 5½ feet past the hole. Triplett had a 25-footer for birdie, and if he made it and Perry missed his par putt, they would be tied. But Triplett ran his bid past the hole, and Perry converted his par to maintain the two-stroke margin.

"It was looking for a time like I was heading down into the pack," said Triplett, who was seeking his first senior major victory. "So I was glad to kind of resurrect it and at least make him earn it."

The rest of the field was playing for third on Sunday, and Brandt Jobe – who had leaped up the leader board with a 62 on Saturday – took that spot by one stroke over Tom Lehman and Fred Couples at 9-under 271 with a closing round of 70. Glen Day was sixth at 274, while Scott Verplank, Stephen Ames and Vijay Singh tied for seventh at 5-under 275.

Perry became the sixth multiple champion of the U.S. Senior Open, and the first winner since Bernhard Langer in 2010 at Sahalee Country Club to play a bogey-free final round. His total of 264 (16 under par) bettered by three strokes the championship scoring mark of 267, set by Hale Irwin in 2000 at Saucon Valley in Bethlehem, Pa., and matched by Perry in 2013. Triplett also topped the previous record as runner-up.

After his Senior Open win at Omaha, Perry won twice more in 2014 and once in 2015, but a two-year drought ensued.

"I thought that might have been my last," Perry admitted of the 2015 3M Championship. "I didn't think I'd ever be holding the trophy again. That's how golf is. When you win, you don't think you're ever going to lose. And when you're losing all the time, you think you're never going to win. That's just how brutal our sport is. Thank goodness it showed back up again."

Championship History

The first U.S. Senior Open Championship was played June 26-29, 1980, on the East Course of Winged Foot Golf Club in Mamaroneck, N.Y. The championship was conducted for golfers 55 and older, with a handicap limit of eight strokes for amateurs.

Established as a result of the remarkable growth in senior golf, both at the professional and amateur levels, the championship attracted 631 entries. The final two rounds of the U.S. Senior Open were broadcast live on national television beginning with the inaugural championship, and it has been telecast nationally ever since.

The 1980 field included former U.S. Open champions Lew Worsham, Julius Boros, Ed Furgol, Jack Fleck and Tommy Bolt. Former U.S. Amateur champion William C. Campbell was also a competitor. Roberto De Vicenzo, a national hero in his native Argentina, won with a 1-over 285, four strokes ahead of runner-up Campbell.

In 1981, the USGA lowered the age minimum to 50 to make the championship more competitive. The USGA also believed that lowering the minimum age would place the Senior Open in the mainstream of other senior competitions.

The second Senior Open was won by another national hero, Arnold Palmer, 51, at Oakland Hills Country Club in Birmingham, Mich. Palmer won in an 18-hole playoff with Bob Stone and Billy Casper. With his victory, Palmer joined JoAnne Gunderson Carner as the only players to win three different USGA championships (Jack Nicklaus, Carol Semple Thompson and Tiger Woods have since accomplished this feat).

In 1982, at Portland (Ore.) Golf Club, Miller Barber won the first of his three Senior Open titles. Barber shot a final-round 65 and set the 72-hole scoring record of 282. He also won the 1984 and 1985 championships.

Dale Douglass broke Barber's record in 1986 with a 72-hole score of 279. In 1987, Gary Player lowered Douglass's record by a remarkable nine strokes when he shot a 72-hole score of 270 at Brooklawn Country Club in Fairfield, Conn., to win. He was the only player to shoot four rounds in the 60s until Tom Weiskopf turned the trick in his 1995 victory on the Blue Course of Congressional Country Club in Bethesda, Md.

Don Pooley and Tom Watson staged the first three- or four-hole playoff in 2002, after the format was installed in 1999. Pooley won with a birdie on the fifth hole. His 63 in the third round was the lowest score in Senior Open history until Loren Roberts shot a 62 in the third round at Prairie Dunes Country Club, in Hutchinson, Kan., in 2005. Kirk Triplett and Brandt Jobe matched also carded 62s in the first and third rounds, respectively, of the 2017 Senior Open at Salem Country Club, in Peabody, Mass.

U.S. Open champions have performed extremely well in the U.S. Senior Open, winning 10 of the 30 championships. U.S. Open champions who have also won the Senior Open are Arnold Palmer (1960 U.S. Open; 1981 Senior Open), Billy Casper (1959, 1966 U.S. Open; 1983 Senior Open), Gary Player (1965 U.S. Open; 1987, 1988 Senior Open), Orville Moody (1969 U.S. Open; 1989 Senior Open), Lee Trevino (1968, 1971 U.S. Open; 1990 Senior Open), Jack Nicklaus (1962, 1967, 1972, 1980 U.S. Open; 1991, 1993 Senior Open) and Hale Irwin (1974, 1979, 1990 U.S. Open; 1998, 2000 Senior Open).
