

SPONSORED HANDICAP COMPETITIONS
APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL
(RULE 4-2g of THE RULES OF AMATEUR STATUS)

An amateur golfer may receive expenses (e.g., travel and accommodation costs) to take part in a golf competition only in specific circumstances. Rule 4-2g permits an amateur golfer to accept expenses, not exceeding those actually incurred, to take part in an individual handicap or team handicap competition, provided the competition has necessary approval of the Amateur Status Committee. Approval is dependent upon the structure of the competition and its adherence to the Sponsored Handicap Competitions: Guidelines for Approval.
