David Toms Wins the 2018 Championship

After making a birdie on No. 16 to take a one-stroke lead, David Toms channeled some positive thoughts from his previous major championship victory, the 2001 PGA Championship, to make a critical up-and-down par on the 71st hole and capture the 39th U.S. Senior Open Championship at The Broadmoor.

Toms was paired with third-round leader Jerry Kelly and held the solo lead by one stroke early on the incoming nine. But he bogeyed the par-4 13th hole from a bunker to fall into a five-way tie at 2 under par with Kelly, Paul Goydos, Brandt Jobe and Tim Petrovic.

Goydos, a five-time winner on the PGA Tour Champions, knocked in a 31-foot birdie putt on the par-4 15th hole to briefly break the logjam and take the solo lead at 3 under. But he missed the 17th and 18th greens and failed to get up and down each time to slip to 1 under par, into a tie for fifth place with Jobe and Paul Broadhurst, who closed with a 1-under 69.

Then it was Toms' turn to break the deadlock for good. He and Kelly both hit the green on the 162-yard, par-3 16th, and after Kelly missed his 21-foot birdie bid, Toms lined up his 16-footer.

"I knew there were a bunch of guys at 2 under," said Toms. "I had a straight uphill putt, a good look at it. I got it going on line and it went straight in the middle. I think speed is very important when you're putting on these greens, and my speed got better and better as the week went on."

When he knocked his drive on the difficult par-4 17th into a fairway bunker, leaving himself no chance to reach the green in two because the ball sat near the bunker's face, he recalled the up-and-down par he made on the 72nd hole to edge Phil Mickelson by one stroke at Atlanta Athletic Club in 2001.

"That was the first thing that popped into my mind after I had to hit the shot out of the bunker," said Toms, who laid up his second shot to 93 yards from the hole. "I was in the middle of the fairway, I'm still in good shape. It's normally a par 5, just like No. 18 at the Athletic Club was. I just said I need to go make a birdie."

Toms admitted that he "didn't hit a very good third shot at all," leaving himself 19 feet above the hole. But once again, he rolled it into the heart of the hole.

"That was just an unbelievable putt I made for par," said Toms, 51, who missed the cut in his previous U.S. Senior Open start last year. "Certainly that was the key to victory."

Kelly, who held the solo lead the first three days and was seeking to become just the second wire-to-wire winner in championship history, made the turn in even-par 36 to retain his one-stroke advantage. But he stumbled with back-to-back bogeys on holes 11 and 12 as Toms took the lead for the first time.

"It was a great championship," said Kelly who closed with a 2-over 72 to tie for second with Jimenez and Petrovic, one stroke behind Toms' 3-under total of 277. "It always comes down to those putts. He makes birdie on 16. And let me tell you, that par putt on 17 – I had a front-row seat. That was just a pure putt and that's why he's a major champion."

Jimenez and Petrovic both made birdie on No. 18, with Jimenez's 11-footer capping an up-and-down round that included five birdies and a damaging double bogey-bogey combination on the par-3 eighth and par-5 ninth. It was the Spaniard's second runner-up finish in this championship in four starts.

Petrovic, Kelly's college teammate at the University of Hartford, knocked his approach to 2½ feet on No. 18 to give himself a second straight runner-up finish in a senior major, after losing by one stroke to Broadhurst in the Senior PGA Championship in late May.

Jimenez and Broadhurst, who both finished with 1-under 69s, were two of only three players to break par on Sunday, joining Duffy Waldorf, who shot 68. It was the fewest under-par rounds in the fourth round of a U.S. Senior Open since 1991 at Oakland Hills Country Club, when two under-par rounds were recorded.

NOTABLE

Statistical Wrapup: Toms led the way with the fewest putts over the weekend: 27 in Round 3 when he tied for the day's low round with a 66, and 26 on Sunday. Broadhurst, Goydos and Jobe were among a large group of players who were tied for sixth among the 60 players who made the cut with 28 putts in the final round. Toms was tied for fourth in putts for the week with 117. Philip Golding, who finished in a tie for 28th, led the way in putts with 112.

Kelly led the way in fairways hit for the week with 48, 10 more than Toms, who was T21 in that category. Kevin Sutherland led in the greens in regulation for the week with 61 of 72, with Jimenez and Gene Sauers a distant second with 54 apiece. Toms was tied for 21st with 48.

Kirk Triplett made 16 birdies, one more than Tom Pernice Jr. Toms made 12 for the week, tying him for eighth-most. Davis Love III, who tied for 10th place, led in driving distance for the week with a 321.1-yard average. Toms was 21st with a 296.5-yard average.

Wilson Earns Low-Amateur Honors: Jeff Wilson shot a final-round 73 to capture low-amateur honors and join Vinny Giles III as the only golfers to be low amateur in both the U.S. Open and the U.S. Senior Open. Wilson, of Fairfield, Calif., led Mike Finster, of St. Petersburg, Fla., by one stroke entering the final round and defeated him by three.

Attendance Highest Since 2013 at Omaha: The attendance for the week totaled 134,500, including 28,700 fans on Saturday and 31,000 on Sunday. The weekend totals and the weekly numbers were the highest since the 2013 championship at Omaha (Neb.) Country Club. That championship posted more than 157,000 in total attendance with nearly 33,000 on Saturday and 34,354 on Sunday.

Championship History

The first U.S. Senior Open Championship was played June 26-29, 1980, on the East Course of Winged Foot Golf Club in Mamaroneck, N.Y. The championship was conducted for golfers 55 and older, with a handicap limit of eight strokes for amateurs.

Established as a result of the remarkable growth in senior golf, both at the professional and amateur levels, the championship attracted 631 entries. The final two rounds of the U.S. Senior Open were broadcast live on national television beginning with the inaugural championship, and it has been telecast nationally ever since.

The 1980 field included former U.S. Open champions Lew Worsham, Julius Boros, Ed Furgol, Jack Fleck and Tommy Bolt. Former U.S. Amateur champion William C. Campbell was also a competitor. Roberto De Vicenzo, a national hero in his native Argentina, won with a 1-over 285, four strokes ahead of runner-up Campbell.

In 1981, the USGA lowered the age minimum to 50 to make the championship more competitive. The USGA also believed that lowering the minimum age would place the Senior Open in the mainstream of other senior competitions.

The second Senior Open was won by another national hero, Arnold Palmer, 51, at Oakland Hills Country Club in Birmingham, Mich. Palmer won in an 18-hole playoff with Bob Stone and Billy Casper. With his victory, Palmer joined JoAnne Gunderson Carner as the only players to win three different USGA championships (Jack Nicklaus, Carol Semple Thompson and Tiger Woods have since accomplished this feat).

In 1982, at Portland (Ore.) Golf Club, Miller Barber won the first of his three Senior Open titles. Barber shot a final-round 65 and set the 72-hole scoring record of 282. He also won the 1984 and 1985 championships.

Dale Douglass broke Barber's record in 1986 with a 72-hole score of 279. In 1987, Gary Player lowered Douglass's record by a remarkable nine strokes when he shot a 72-hole score of 270 at Brooklawn Country Club in Fairfield, Conn., to win. He was the only player to shoot four rounds in the 60s until Tom Weiskopf turned the trick in his 1995 victory on the Blue Course of Congressional Country Club in Bethesda, Md.

Don Pooley and Tom Watson staged the first three- or four-hole playoff in 2002, after the format was installed in 1999. Pooley won with a birdie on the fifth hole. His 63 in the third round was the lowest score in Senior Open history until Loren Roberts shot a 62 in the third round at Prairie Dunes Country Club, in Hutchinson, Kan., in 2005. Kirk Triplett and Brandt Jobe also carded 62s in the first and third rounds, respectively, of the 2017 Senior Open at Salem Country Club, in Peabody, Mass.

Kenny Perry became the sixth player to win multiple U.S. Senior Opens in 2017 when he established the championship scoring record of 16-under 264. He joined Barber, Player, Nicklaus, Hale Irwin and Allen Doyle on the list of multiple winners.

U.S. Open champions have performed extremely well in the U.S. Senior Open, winning 10 of the 30 championships. U.S. Open champions who have also won the Senior Open are Arnold Palmer (1960 U.S. Open; 1981 Senior Open), Billy Casper (1959, 1966 U.S. Open; 1983 Senior Open), Gary Player (1965 U.S. Open; 1987, 1988 Senior Open), Orville Moody (1969 U.S. Open; 1989 Senior Open), Lee Trevino (1968, 1971 U.S. Open; 1990 Senior Open), Jack Nicklaus (1962, 1967, 1972, 1980 U.S. Open; 1991, 1993 Senior Open) and Hale Irwin (1974, 1979, 1990 U.S. Open; 1998, 2000 Senior Open).
