

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SATURDAY SELLOUT:
LIMITED TICKETS REMAIN FOR THE 116TH U.S. OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP
AT OAKMONT COUNTRY CLUB

FAR HILLS, N.J. (May 11, 2016) – The United States Golf Association has announced that all third-round daily ticket options for the 116th U.S. Open Championship at Oakmont (Pa.) Country Club have sold out, including Saturday gallery and upgraded Trophy Club tickets.

The 2016 U.S. Open Championship, conducted annually by the USGA and considered golf's ultimate test, will be staged at the historic Pittsburgh-area course from June 16-19. An international field of the world's top golfers will begin formal practice rounds at Oakmont starting on Monday, June 13.

Tickets for Thursday, Friday and Sunday championship rounds remain, but are expected to sell out quickly. The full list of purchasing options, starting with $50 practice-round tickets Monday through Wednesday, can be viewed exclusively at usopen.com or usga.org/tickets.

Each buyer can purchase up to four tickets for each day. All tickets include access to complimentary parking and shuttle transportation to and from the championship entrance.

Juniors age 12 and younger will be admitted free of charge any day when accompanied by an adult ticket holder. Gallery tickets for juniors ages 13 to 17 will be available for purchase on-site at a reduced rate of $20 for practice rounds and $40 for championship-round days. See usopen.com for complete details and restrictions.

Active military personnel receive complimentary gallery tickets for Monday-Wednesday practice rounds; retired military and their family members can purchase tickets at a reduced rate on-site. Military tickets cannot be purchased in advance.

The U.S. Open has sold out for 29 consecutive years, and the 2016 U.S. Open, the record ninth to be conducted at Oakmont Country Club, promises to be no exception.

About the USGA

The USGA conducts the U.S. Open, U.S. Women's Open and U.S. Senior Open, as well as 10 national amateur championships, two state team championships and international matches, attracting players and fans from more than 160 countries. Together with The R&A, the USGA governs the game worldwide, jointly administering the Rules of Golf, Rules of Amateur Status, equipment standards and World Amateur Golf Rankings. The USGA's reach is global with a working jurisdiction in the United States, its territories and Mexico, serving more than 25 million golfers and actively engaging 150 golf associations.

The USGA is one of the world's foremost authorities on research, development and support of sustainable golf course management practices. It serves as a primary steward for the game's history and invests in the development of the game through the delivery of its services and its ongoing "For the Good of the Game" grants program. Additionally, the USGA's Course Rating and Handicap systems are used on six continents in more than 50 countries.

For more information about the USGA, visit www.usga.org.

# #

Contact: Janeen Driscoll, director, Public Relations; jdriscoll@usga.org; 908-326-1978