Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 19

Fully exempt into the 2015 U.S. Senior Open by way of being a top-50 money leader on the Champions Tour all-time money list.

With an English father and Portuguese mother, he is the first professional to play on the European and PGA Tour from Trinidad and Tobago. His Canadian wife was a former flight attendant who he met on a flight. Was a torchbearer for the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Winter Games and is part owner of several restaurants in Calgary, including the Vintage Chophouse & Tavern.

Has four PGA Tour wins, including the 2006 Players Championship and 2004 Cialis Western Open. Has amassed more than $19 million in career earnings. Surpassed the $2-million mark in season earnings four years in succession (2006 to 2009), but enjoyed his best year in 2004 when he earned $3,303,205 and was eighth on the money list, his highest finish. His best known win was in 2006 when he closed with Sunday's low round, a 5-under par 67, and cruised to a six-stroke win at The Players Championship for his second career victory. Broke through for his first win two years earlier at the 2004 Cialis Western Open at age 40. He won his 166th start on the PGA Tour, becoming the first player over 40 to capture initial TOUR win since Brad Bryant at the 1995 Walt Disney World.

Won twice in Europe and once on the Web.Com Tour. Member of the PGA Tour since 1997, he played on the European Tour from 1993 through 1997 and had three consecutive stints on the Web.Com Tour starting in 1990.

1990 Nationwide Summary: Tournaments entered - 24; in money - 20; top-10 finishes - five; scoring average 71.09 (ranked 11th); money $32,226 (ranked eighth); Best finish, T4th Dakota Dunes Open.

1991 Nationwide Summary: Tournaments entered - 23; in money - 14; top-10 finishes - five; scoring average 71.25 (ranked 18th); money $58,415 (ranked 8th); won the Pensacola Open.

2009 Nationwide Summary: Tournaments entered - 20; in money - 10; top-10 finishes - three; scoring average 71.53 (ranked 32nd); money $25,906 (ranked 58th); Best finish, fourth at the Greater Greenville Open.

After attending Qualifying School several times without success, he got his card by finishing T-3rd at the 1997 PGA Tour Qualifying School final stage.

2011 Notes: He finished outside of the top 125 (No. 139) on the official money list for the first time since joining the PGA Tour in 1998 and failed to finish inside the top-70 on the FedExCup points list for the first time in five years (No. 138). Only had two top-ten finishes, T-3rd at Puerto Rico Open and T-8th at the FedEx St. Jude Classic, which, to this date, was his 58th and last PGA Tour career top-ten.

2012 Notes: Made the cut in seven of 20 events, with a T-16th at the Mayakoba Golf Classic, his best finish. Only had one other top-25 finish, T22nd at Humana Challenge. This was his first season on the PGA Tour without a top-10 showing and the first year of his career without double-digit made cuts.

2013 Notes: Made seven of 19 cuts on the PGA Tour, finishing 173rd in the FedExCup standings and 185th on the money race. It was his second consecutive season without a top-10 finish after recording at least one for 15 straight seasons (1997 to 2011). Best finish was a T-20th in his first start at the Sony Open in Hawaii.

2014 Notes: Played primarily on the PGA Tour for the first eight months of the year before turning his attention to the Champions Tour. Made his Champions Tour debut with a T-15th at the Senior PGA Championship in late-May, but did not play again until late-August when he teed it up in his hometown of Calgary at the Shaw Charity Classic. Posted his only top-10 finish of the Champions Tour season in October when he was T-6th at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic, thanks, in part, to a final-round, 6-under-par 65. Best finish in 18 PGA Tour starts was a T-16th at the Valero Texas Open.

In 2015, he had his best career finish on the Champions Tour, T-6th at the rain-shortened Greater Gwinnett ionship. He posted 69s in both the first and final rounds to move into a T-9th at the Insuperity Invitational.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 18, 21

Began playing at age 5 with his grandmother. He played most sports, but his passion in high school was basketball. Though he was named all-state in basketball in high school, he knew he wasn't tall enough to play basketball in college, so he started to concentrate on golf. At Wake Forest University, he won four collegiate events and led the Deacons to the 1986 NCAA Championship title. He was an All-American choice three times and played on the 1987 Walker Cup Team.

When he joined the Tour in 1988, he improved every year until 1992, going from 134th place in the money race in his rookie year, improving to 69th in 1989, placing 64th in 1990, and jumping up to 14th in 1991. In 1991, he broke through with his first win, at the Kemper Open, and then picked up his second seven days later at the Buick Classic. It was more than seven years before he won again, when he captured the Canadian Open in a playoff over Bob Friend. He captured his fourth and final PGA Tour win at the 2000 Invenys Classic at Las Vegas. He had an 18-year streak between 1989 and 2006 in which he finished in the top-125 of the money list, finishing in the top-100 16 of those 18 years. His last full year on the PGA Tour was 2009 when he finished 245th in the FedEx Cup playoff race and 242nd on the money list after only making two cuts in 17 starts. After that, he joined Golf Channel as a part-time on-course reporter.

2014 Notes: Turned 50 in January and joined the Champions Tour, finished T-46th in his Champions Tour debut, at the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton. Earned his first top-10 the following week, finishing T-8th at the ACE Group Classic. Finished second at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic just two shots behind winner Jeff Maggert. He had his second runner-up at the Shaw Charity Classic, losing a playoff to Fred Couples. He was 27th in the Schwab rankings.

2015 Notes: He and teammate Joe Durant used a blistering 9-under-par 45 on the par-3 Top of the Rock Course at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf, and the pair had a three-stroke victory. It was the first Champions Tour victory for both players. He also had top-10s at the Mississippi Gulf Resort (T-7th), Constellation Senior Players (T-7th) and T-10th at the Principal Charity Classic.

Along with Brad Faxon, he runs Billy Andrade/Brad Faxon Charities for Children, Inc., which has raised more than $15 million for children in Rhode Island and Southeastern Massachusetts, largely through the CVS Caremark Charity Classic, which the duo co-hosts at Rhode Island CC each summer.

Other Victories: 1983 Mexican Open. 2007 Callaway Golf Pebble Beach Invitational. 2008 Callaway Golf Pebble Beach Invitational. 2014 Callaway Pebble Beach Invitational.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: He shot 69 and lost a playoff for one of the spots South Bend, Indiana qualifier at Warren Golf Course. Was alternate and got in when Larry Mize withdrew.

Grandson of World Golf Hall of Famer Tommy Armour who won the 1927 U.S. Open, 1930 PGA Championship and 1931 Open Championship.

Began playing golf at age 10, joining his mother and father. Qualified for the Tour in the 1982 season, but won only $4,254. He kept trying to get his card back, but didn't make it until the fall of 1987. Meanwhile, he traveled the world, spending most of his time on the European and Asian Tours, gaining the experience and patience he needed to play on the PGA Tour. The highlight of his career was victory at the 2003 Valero Texas Open, where he shot the lowest 72-hole score in PGA Tour history, 254, a record that still stands.

Attempted to regain playing privileges on the PGA Tour for 2012 by going through the fall qualifying process. After being the medalist at the second stage in Panama City, Fla., he advanced to the final stage in La Quinta, Calif., but withdrew after five rounds of the six-round event when he was out of contention. In his PGA Tour career, he played in 617 events, with two wins, seven runner-up finishes and 41 top-tens. He made 314 cuts and won $9,458,248. Played on the Web.Com Tour full time in 1994, winning twice and finishing seventh on the money list, which got him back to the PGA Tour in 1995. Has played a total of 33 Web.Com events, posting two wins and five top-10 finishes.

Started his Champions career at the ACE Group Classic in 2010, where he was runner-up. His first year was a big success as he won $1,121,220 to finish 13th on the money list. It was his second best season in his entire career, along with three runner-up finishes. He also had a third-place finish and 10 top-10 finishes.

2011 Notes: Started slowly and was 50th on the money list after the U.S. Senior Open. Finished strong in his last eight starts with three top 10s, including a second-place finish at the Insuperity Championship. He finished the year 28th on the money list.

2012 Notes: Troubled by bone spurs early in the season, he missed almost two months following arthroscopic surgery for bursitis in April. He eventually returned to the Champions Tour in June, at The Principal Charity Classic, but did not record his first top-10 finish until late in the season when he closed with a 6-under par 66 to finish T4 at the SAS Championship in October.

2013 Notes: Health issues limited his season to just 15 appearances, and he did not record a top-10 finish in those starts. Missed nearly three months over the summer with a back problem, which forced him to withdraw from June's Regions Tradition after just one round. His best finish was in late May at the Senior PGA Championship, where he was T-13th.

2014 Notes: Had his best finish of the season when he put together three straight sub-par rounds to finish T-8th at the Boeing Classic in late-August. Was on the leader board throughout the final round, but fell out of contention with a 1-over par 37 on his back nine. Teamed with Billy Andrade for a T-10th finish in the Champions Division at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf in June. Following the official season, he won the Calloway Invitational at Pebble Beach for the third time defeating Lee Janzen in a playoff.

To date in 2015, he had a T-6th at the Allianz Championship and T-8th Greater Gwinnett ionship.

During that Qualifying School, however, he tore tendons and cartilage in his left knee and was injured and out of action for two years. Austin first injured that knee as an 11 year old playing Little League Baseball.

Austin qualified for the Web.com Tour in 1994. The next year, he succeeded to get on the PGA Tour when he was the medalist at the 1994 Qualifying School. He wasn't able to regain his card at Qualifying School and played on the Web.com Tour in 1998. He had success, finishing eighth on the money list and regaining his tour card for 1999.

He finished 44th on the money list in 2003 with earnings of $1,518,707. Season was driven with a runner-up finish at the Heritage, where he lost a four-hole playoff to Davis Love III. The next year, Austin won the 2004 Buick Championship and had his best year in 2007 winning the St. Jude Championship and finishing 15th on the money list with earnings of $2,887,596. His great season earned him a spot on the Presidents Cup team. TOMMY BRENNAN (a)

Birth Date: November 01, 1960

Birthplace: New Orleans, La.

Age: 54 Ht.: 5'11" Wt.: 195

Home: Covington, La.

College: University of Alabama

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot 70 at Wynlakes Golf and Country Club in Montgomery, Ala., which put him in first alternate position. He earned a spot in the field when more became available. Began playing golf at age 7 and credits his parents for introducing him to the game. Says some of his most memorable golf experiences include playing in Scotland in 2012, playing in a practice round with Tom Watson at the 2013 U.S. Senior Open and making a hole-in-one to win a match in the Mid South Cup Matches. He is married to Connie, and they have three children, John Thomas II, Blakely and Cooper. He works as a Merrill Lynch senior financial adviser and has spent 26 years with the company. When he's not playing golf, enjoys hunting and fishing with his children, watching his 11-year-old son, Cooper, play football and basketball, and Alabama Crimson Tide football.

Played collegiate golf at the University of Alabama with future PGA Tour pros Steve Lowery and Lee Rinker. Has competed in more than 20 USGA Championships. Won seven Louisiana Golf Association Mid-Amateurs, including three consecutively in the 1990s and four more consecutively in the 2000s, the most recent in 2008. This will be his third U.S. Senior Open after playing in 2013 and 2014.

Was runner-up at the 1994 U.S. Mid-Amateur at Hazeltine National, losing to Tim Jackson, 1 up, in the final. Brennan held a 1-up lead through 13 holes, but Jackson squared the match at No. 16 when Brennan's drive rolled into the rough and he made a bogey on the hole.

In 2000, he finished 27th at the U.S. Mid-Amateur, falling to Vincent Hamilton in the Round of 64, 1 up. Also recorded two top-10 finishes that year.

In 2001, finished 36th at the U.S. Mid-Amateur during stroke play, but lost to Titus Harris III during the first round of match play in 19 holes.

Placed fourth at the 2006 Birmingham Invitational, one spot higher than his finish in the tournament the previous year.

Finished third at the 2007 Coleman Invitational, and 10th the following year.

Also competed in the 2012 U.S. Mid-Amateur at Conway Farms. This will be Brennan's second U.S. Senior Open after playing last year at Omaha, Neb.

Played full time on the PGA Tour in 1992, 1994 and from 1996 through 2009. In 451 events played, he won three times, had 25 top-10 finishes and earnings of $8.5 million.

2011 Notes: Began the Champions Tour season with five consecutive top-10 finishes, rounding out the year with eight, including a win at the U.S. Senior Open Championship at Inverness.

2012 Notes: Made 23 starts and had seven top 10s including two third-place results at the Constellation Senior and 3M Championship. Finished 21st on the money list with $773,896 in earnings.

2013 Notes: Season was limited to just 14 starts after he missed five months of the campaign due to a stress fracture in his back. Had two top 10s, and his best finish was T-2nd at the Greater Hickory Classic, where he lost a playoff to Michael Allen. Finished 39th on the money list with $385,113 in earnings.

2014 Notes: Turned in his strongest season since 2011. In four events, he finished among the top-six finishers. Made a strong run in Sunday's final round at The ACE Group Classic, firing a 6-under par 66 to get himself into position to win. However, despite birdies on two of his final three holes, made a bogey at No. 14, which would later prove costly as he finished T-2nd, one shot short of Kirk Triplett's winning total of 16-under par 201. He had another strong showing at the Regions Tradition where he shared the first-round lead and was among the leaders all four rounds before eventually finishing T-3rd, two behind winner Kenny Perry. Capped his season with a solo sixth at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Arizona, finishing 21st in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Won the rain-shortened Greater Gwinnett ionship, his second career victory on the Champions Tour. His 6-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole Saturday proved to be the difference over Bernhard Langer as heavy rain wiped out the final round at TPC Sugarloaf. Victory ended a drought of 3 years, 8 months, 18 days since his initial Champions Tour triumph at the 2011 U.S. Senior Open.

Birth Date: September 22, 1959

Birthplace: Manhattan Beach, Calif.

Age: 55 Ht.: 6'0" Wt.: 195

Home: Phoenix, Ariz.

College: Arizona State

Turned Professional: 1985

Joined PGA Tour: 1990

Web.Com Tour Victories: 1992 Ben Hogan New England Classic

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot 69 at Encanterra Country Club in San Tan Valley, Ariz., to earn one of three qualifying spots from the site. Was in a playoff for the final two spots.

Started playing golf with his dad and friends on a par-3 course near his home. Before gaining exempt status in 1990 after failing three previous times, Bruckner played on the Asian Tour where he was fourth on the 1988 Order of Merit with $68,000. After winning the Singapore Open, he received his $33,000 prize in cash, and spent a sleepless night with it stuffed in his hotel room mattress before mailing it home in a check.

Bruckner's shining moment came at the 1988 British Open, when he became the early leader, with a front-nine 31, thanks to back-to-back eagles at the sixth and seventh and a birdie at the eighth. His moment ended, however, with a 41 on the back nine. He did make the 36-hole cut, but finished T-67th.

Played on the PGA Tour between 1990 and 1992. Had a total of 72 PGA Tour starts, and his best finish was T14th in the 1990 Texas Open. He made 34 cuts and had career earnings of $140,356.

Played the Web.com tour from 1992 to 1999 and in 2004. Throughout this time, he played in 208 events, winning once at the 1992 New England Classic - his only win of four top-three finishes. Had 20 top 10s, made 108 cuts and earned $307,132. Best year on the Web.com Tour was 1992 when he finished 30th on the money list with $45,725 in earnings.

Since turning 50, he has attempted Champions Tour Qualifying School each year, finishing T53rd in 2010, T25th in 2011 and T25th in 2012. In 2013, he earned a conditionally-exempt spot for 2014 after finishing sixth. He was among five players T-4th after 72 holes. Missed on earning one of the two fully-exempt spots in overtime, settling for sixth after making par on the third extra hole.

2014 Notes: Played in 11 events with only one top-25 finish - T-25th at the Senior PGA Championship. At the end of the year, he went back to Champions Tour Qualifying School where he finished T-21st.

Older brother, Brad, is also a member of the Champions Tour, and they are one of only 12 winning brother combinations on the PGA Tour.

Played full-time on the PGA Tour in 1991, 1992, 1995 and 1996, and again from 2002 to 2012. In 317 starts, he won three times, was runner-up twice and had 16 top-10 finishes. He made 197 starts and earned a total of $9.7 million. Also played on the Web.com Tour in 1993.

1993 Web.com Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 21; rank on money list - ninth; top-10 finishes - one; stroke average - 72.33 (82nd); money earned - $10,255 (ranked 108th); best finish - T10 at the Yuma Open.

Throughout his time on the Web.Com Tour, he played in 43 events with five top 10s. His best finish as T-5 at the 1990 Dakota Dunes Open. He earned a total of $77,616.

Bryant underwent rotator cuff surgery in 1992, and in 2001 missed the first half of the season due to elbow surgery. Suffered a wrist injury near the end of the 2009 season and had a pair of subsequent surgeries that kept him out of action for almost three years. He returned midway through the 2012 season.

2013 Notes: Started the year playing at the PGA Tour Sony Open in Hawaii, where he finished T-41st. Finished T-33rd in his Champions Tour debut at the Allianz Championship. Was a late addition to the field at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in April, and after being added just one day before the start of the event, he teamed with Ian Baker-Finch to win the Raphael Division crown. The pair went three extra holes before Baker-Finch's 10-foot birdie putt ended the playoff against Blaine McCallister and Keith Fergus in Savannah, Ga. Finished 18th on the money list thanks to 10 top-10 finishes.

2014 Notes: Was among the top-10 finishers in more than a third (eight) of his 22 starts, but he did not have a performance better than fifth place in any event. Played his best golf in the first half of the season and, in one stretch, was among the top seven in four of seven starts. In late-May, he was a co-leader after 36 holes of the Senior PGA Championship and was in contention early on the front nine Sunday, before eventually finishing T-5th at Harbor Shores - his best finish of the year along with a fifth-place finish at the Encompass Championship. He finished the year 25th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: After opening his year with a pair of T-9th finish at the Mitsubishi Electric and Allianz Championship, he lost to Lee Janzen at the ACE Group Classic. He made another bid for a victory in his next start at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March, trailing Marco Dawson by just one shot after 36 holes. He closed with a 2-under par 70, but fell two strokes short Sunday for his second straight runner-up finish.

Fully exempt into the 2015 U.S. Senior Open by way of his victory at the 2007 U.S. Senior Open at Whistling Straits.

Started playing golf at age 10, going to the course with his father. Obtained his PGA Tour card in 1978, and in the 1982 Players Championship, was tied for the lead after three rounds with Bruce Lietzke. Eventually tied for second with Scott Simpson behind Jerry Pate. Later in the year, he was runner-up at the Quad Cities Open. The following year, he was runner-up in the Byron Nelson Classic.

In 1984, he injured his left shoulder. Though he tried to play through it, he eventually underwent surgery in December 1985. His recovery was long and slow, but he returned to form in 1988.

In 1989, he finished 84th on the money list. Credits his success in part to work done with David Leadbetter. His nickname on tour is "Dr. Dirt" because of his "five o'clock" beard. In 1995, he recorded his first win after 474 tournaments at the Walt Disney Classic.

Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1978 and 1997 and again in 1999. Throughout this time, he played in 560 events, had one win, 49 top-10 finishes and earnings of $3.6 million.

Joined the Champions Tour in 2005, after finishing third at the National Qualifying Tournament. In 2006, he lost a three-hole playoff to Jay Haas in the Senior PGA Championship at Oak Tree National Golf Club. Then in 2007, he won the U.S. Senior Open at Whistling Straits with a final-round 68 and 6-under-par total to defeat Ben Crenshaw by three strokes.

2011 Notes: Finished among the Champions Tour's top-30 money-winners for a seventh consecutive season, placing 30th for a second straight season. His best finish was T-2nd at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

2012 Notes: Despite battling foot problems for much of the year, he again finished among the top 30 on the money list, the eighth consecutive season he's earned a spot in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Had nine top 10s in 19 starts, including a pair of third-place finishes and a runner-up at the Montreal Championship.

2013 Notes: Played in 17 events, with a pair of top-10 finishes. Teamed with Tom Purtzer for a T-4th at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. The pair was among the leaders of the week-end after rounds of 65-64. Registered a fourth-place finish at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic after tying for the lead in the latter part of the front nine in the final round. Was 62nd on the money list with $230,516.

2014 Notes: Played in 10 events, his fewest starts since joining the Champions Tour in 2005. Best finish was during his first start of the season. Though he trailed Michael Allen by four strokes after 36 holes, he used a final-round 68 to finish T-5th in the Allianz Championship. Effort in first start of the season was his best since he was fourth in the fall of 2013, at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 11

Byrum and older brother, Curt, were a talented and proven team on the PGA Tour. With his win in the 1989 Kemper Open and Curt's win seven weeks later in the Hardee's Golf Classic, they became the first brothers to win in the same year since Dave and Mike Hill performed the feat in 1972. He's involved with a nine-hole course, The Training Station, where golfers of all ages play three, six or nine holes. A full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1986 to 2008, he played in 603 events and made 330 cuts, including 41 top-10 finishes and six runner-up finishes. Competed on the Web.Com Tour off and on, making 52 career starts, 26 cuts and 5 top 10s. His best finish was T-2nd at the 1995 Tallahassee Open.

Has not yet qualified for the Champions Tour, in Qualifying School, he was T-28th at the end of 2010, T-25th at the end of 2011 and again T-25th at the end of 2012.

2012 Notes: Open-qualified for five of the nine events he played during the year, with a pair of top-10 finishes. Three straight sub-par rounds led to a Champions Tour career-best T-6th finish at the Boeing Classic in August. Was T-9 at the Insuperity Championship in May and missed the cut at the True South Classic in his only PGA Tour start.

2013 Notes: Did not make his first start until late May, at the Senior PGA Championship, however, he played 11 events (three as an open-qualifier) over the final five months of the year, finishing 45th on the money list. Had a great showing at the inaugural Shaw Charity Classic when he open-qualified and then finished second overall in Calgary. Posted three straight rounds in the 60s, including a closing-round, 7-under par 64, for his best career finish in a Champions Tour event.

2014 Notes: Played in a career-high 21 events during the year, including three as an open-qualifier, finishing 39th on the money list, six spots higher than in 2013. His season earnings totaled $452,801, a Champions Tour personal best. Best finish was at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, where he finished second to John Cook by one shot after making bogey at the par-3 17th hole from the back of a greenside bunker. Performance on the Monterey Peninsula equaled his career-best Champions Tour finish. His other top-ten of the year happened when he received a sponsor exemption for the Insuperity Championship and finished T-9th at The Woodlands C.C. He finished 42 in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: After shooting a 2-over par 74 in his opening round at The ACE Group Classic, he rebounded with rounds of 67-68 on the weekend to finish T-10th.

Played golf every day as a teenager after his family moved from Laurel, Neb., to Palm Beach, Fla. During the summer, he played as many as 72 holes a day. He turned professional in 1981 and qualified for the PGA Tour, but struggled during his first four years and had to return to Qualifying School after every year. When he failed to qualify for the 1986 season, he caddied for his friend, Ken Green, in a handful of tournaments and practiced more than ever. He qualified for the Doral tournament that year, leading the first round with a 65 and tying for eighth. By the end of the summer, he had a conditional card and ended the season 58th on the money list.

The highlight of his career, which included 13 PGA Tour victories, was in 1989 when he won the Open Championship at Royal Troon Golf Club by defeating Greg Norman and Wayne Grady in a four-hole playoff. His daughter, Britney, was born three weeks after that victory.

A member of the 1987, 1989, 1991 and 2002 Ryder Cup Teams and a member of the 1998 Presidents Cup Team, he finished in the top-50 on the money list every year from 1987 through 2001 and finished 53rd on the 2002 money list. He retired from the PGA Tour at the Memorial right before his 50th birthday and plays full-time on the Champions Tour. A full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1982-2010, he played in 756 events, made 527 cuts and posted 142 top-10 finishes with 27 runner-up finishes.

He turned in a stellar first complete full season on the Champions Tour in 2011, earning the Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest stroke average (69.04). He won once and finished second in official earnings with more than $1.8 million.

2012 Notes: Enjoyed another successful year, adding another victory at the Montreal Championship along with 11 top-10 finishes and a sixth-place finish on the season-ending money list with earnings of $1,361,067 - topping the $1-million mark for the second consecutive year. He was T-9th in his 26th Open Championship start, making his 19th cut in the event - his first top-10 at that championship since a T-10th in 1997.

2013 Notes: Missed playing in just one Champions Tour event despite battling a series of nagging injuries most of the season. Best run during the year was in the first half when he was among the top-five for four out of five tournaments, concluding with a T-3rd at The Principal Charity Classic in early June, his best performance of the season. He ended the season ranked 24th on the money list.

2014 Notes: Saw his string of top-30 finishes come to a close at four when he finished 32nd on the final money list. Was 28th with two full-field events remaining, but was forced to withdraw at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic and then finished 72nd at the AT&T Championship, falling four spots. In 23 starts had three top-ten finishes all in the spring. Best finish was second at the Regions Tradition, and he was the 36-hole leader before falling three back after 54 holes following a 2-over par 74. Battled his way back into contention with birdies on four of his first eight holes on Sunday before seeing his chances slip away with costly bogeys on No. 9 and 13, which left him one shot behind Kenny Perry. Made six of eight PGA Tour cuts while utilizing his one-time exemption in the top 50 on the Tour career money list. Best finish was a T-34th at the Zurich Classic. Finished 39th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Suffered a serious injury during a fall on Thanksgiving (2014) morning when his hand went through a plate-glass window, cutting a tendon on top of his hand. Underwent surgery to reattach the tendon in early December, unable to play in a tournament until the end of March at Tucson. Teamed with Steve Lowery at the Bass Pro Shop Legends of Golf for a T-3rd finish at Big Cedar Lodge. The pair was 12-under par over the weekend. His comeback was completed when he ended nearly a three-year victory drought winning The Principal Charity Classic by one stroke over Brian Henninger and Joe Durant. Using a store-bought putter for the first time in an event, he managed to hold off a string of challengers Sunday. His only bogey on Sunday was on No. 14, and it dropped him back into a tie for the lead with Davis Love III at 11-under par, but he immediately chipped to two feet for a birdie on the following hole and never relinquished his lead. The victory came in his 67th start since his previous win on the Champions Tour in Montreal.

PATRICK CARRIGAN (a)

Birth Date: August 16, 1956

Birthplace: Sacramento, Calif.

Age: 58 Ht.: 6'0 Wt.: 225

Home: Walnut, Calif.

College: Claremont McKenna College

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: He shot 73 at Crystallaire Country Club in Llano, Calif., to earn one of three spots at the qualifier.

Carrigan played golf "a little" as a kid, but didn't start playing regularly until his parents moved to a golf course when he was 13. His dad was a scratch golfer and got Patrick and his brother started. The 2015 U.S. Senior Open will be Carrigan's 10th USGA championship (three U.S. Amateurs, four U.S. Mid-Amateurs, one U.S. Senior Amateur, and two U.S. Senior Opens). His best result was making it to the Round of 16 at the 2006 U.S. Mid-Amateur. Carrigan says he has won, "about 10 tournaments, such as city amateurs," but didn't earn his first until he was 44. His good friend, Ron Mueller, will be his caddie for the championship. An unusual thing in amateur golf, Mueller has been on his bag for 20 years.

His immediate family members include his wife, Carmen; sons, Patrick and Casey; and daughter, Megan. His sons are both in their mid-30s. Megan, who he and Carmen adopted, is 10, and Carrigan says, "she is going to be the best golfer of all my kids." He had a third son who died four years ago.

Carrigan has been an insurance broker for 35 years. His hobbies include playing basketball, watching movies and doing crossword puzzles. He played baseball and softball until he was about 35.

In the summer of 2010, a small plane crashed into his golf cart when he was playing at Los Serranos Golf Course in Chino, Calif.

Carrigan says this about the crash: "Fortunately I was able to exit the cart about three seconds prior to impact." He was getting ready to start a round with his friend when he noticed a group of people running from the nearest green. At first he thought maybe a golf ball was heading for the green, but he knew people wouldn't run like that from a shot. Then he thought maybe it was an animal like a coyote. Then he saw the plane's wing. It was about 100 yards away at that point (it had run out of gas). Instead of driving the cart away, Carrigan got out of the cart and ran. The plane touched down just in front of the green and bounced over the green shearing a tree completely before crashing into the front left of the cart and then into a flagpole, about 20 feet behind the cart, that ultimately stopped the plane. He was roughly about 40-50 feet from the cart when the plane made contact. The pilot of the small one-engine plane had no injuries. Carrigan's clubs weren't damaged, so he and his friend got another cart and teed off immediately to avoid a delay.

Birth Date: June 24, 1961

Birthplace: Spring Lakes, N.C.

Age: 54 Ht.: 6'0" Wt.: 185

Home: Scottsdale, Ariz.

College: Arizona State

Turned Professional: 1985

Joined PGA Tour: 1987

Joined Champions Tour: 2012

PGA Tour Victories: 1 - 2000 Chrysler Classic Tucson

Web.Com Tour Victories: 1994 New Mexico Charity Classic.

Other Victories: 1989 Arizona Open. 1996 Arizona Open

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot 69 at Encanterra Country Club in San Tan Valley, Ariz., earning one of two spots from a playoff. He was one of three qualifiers from the site.

Started playing golf at age 13 when a friend took him to a golf course, and he got hooked. His father then started taking him to junior tournaments, and his golf career took off from there. Attended Arizona State, joining the golf team as a walk-on, and in 1983 won the NCAA Championship. He was twice named first-team All-American and named the school's Athlete of the Year in 1984. He was also won the Arizona State Amateur in 1981 and 1984, Southwest Amateur in 1983 and 1984 and the Arizona Open in 1989 and 1996.

Played the PGA Tour on a full-time basis from 1987 to 1990 and again from 1995 to 2005. Made 460 starts with earnings of $4,766,514 and 26 top-10 finishes. Finished among the top 50 on the PGA Tour money list twice (1989 and 2000) and won his lone event during the 2000 season. Earned a PGA Tour victory in his 13th year and in his 292nd Tour start, a two-stroke win at the Touchstone Energy Tucson Open. A closing-round 66 brought him from four strokes back of third-round leader, Tom Scherrer, for the win.

During the 2000 MCI Classic, he needed only 95 putts in four rounds at Harbour Town Golf Links, tying for third-lowest total at the time since the Tour began keeping stats in 1980. A victory at the 1994 Web.Com Tour's New Mexico Charity Classic and three runner-up finishes that year helped him finish fourth on the Web.Com Tour money list, good for a spot on the PGA Tour in 1995.

Became eligible to join the Champions Tour in June 2011 when he turned 50. Only played twice, missing the cut at the British Senior and tying for 50th at the U.S. Senior Open.

At the end of 2011, finished T-6th at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament in Scottsdale, Ariz., and then claimed the sixth spot with a birdie on the second playoff hole to receive conditional exemption.

In 2012, made a dozen starts, with three top-25 finishes. Best finish was in May when he was T-12th at the Senior PGA Championship. Was also T-16th at the ACE Group Classic in Florida and made two starts on the PGA Tour, missing the cut at the Sony Open in Hawaii as well as the True South Classic.

2013 Notes: Started the year at the Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid, finishing T-28th. Played in six events, and his best finish was T-17th at the Montreal Championship. Attended Champions Tour Qualifying School at the end of the year, but finished T-31st and didn't get his card.

2014 Notes: Only played in seven events, best finish was T-5th at the Quebec Championship. Finished 77th on the money list with $146,703 and was 65th in the Schwab Rankings. Went to Champions Tour Qualifying School at the end of the year and didn't get his card after finishing T-27th.

Turned Professional: 1981

Joined PGA European Tour: 1981

PGA European Tour Playoff Record: 1-2

Joined Champions Tour: 2012

PGA European Tour Victories: 1 - 2000 Brazil Rio De Janeiro 500 Years Open

Champions Tour Victories: 2 - 2012 Senior PGA Championship, U.S. Senior Open

Other Victories: 1979 English Amateur Championship. 1981 Lytham Trophy, Lake Macquarie Amateur. 1998 Zimbabwe Open. 2000 Brazil Rio de Janeiro 500 years Open, King Hassan II Trophy.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 1, 2, 9

In 2012, he made history by becoming the first Englishman to win the Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid, earning a two-stroke victory over John Cook at Harbor Shores, in Benton Harbor, Mich. Barely two months later, returned to Michigan to capture the U.S. Senior Open title at Indianwood in Lake Orion, becoming the first Englishman to win a USGA event since Tony Jacklin in the 1970 U.S. Open. He became only the fourth player after Gary Player (1987), Jack Nicklaus (1991) and Hale Irwin (1998) to collect the "senior major double" in the same season. Those were his maiden Champions Tour titles after multiple runner-up finishes.

On the European Senior Tour in 2011, Chapman was runner-up in the Mauritius Commercial Bank Open and joint runner-up in the Travis Perkins Senior Masters. He also posted two top-10 finishes to end the 2011 season in 11th position on the Order of Merit.

After working as a Tour Rules Official in 2007 and 2008, he joined the Senior Tour in 2009 and began by leading both the Son Gual Mallorca Senior Open and Irish Seniors Open in association with Fáilte Ireland and AIB Bank going into the final round, before finishing third and tying for third, respectively. Had a hole-in-one on his Senior Major Championship debut and just missed out on the Rookie of the Year award, when Mike Harwood won the final event of the season.

Won his maiden European Tour title on his 472nd start, defeating Pádraig Harrington at the second hole of a playoff for the 2000 Brazil Rio de Janeiro 500 Years Open. A six-time runner-up on the European Tour before winning in Brazil, he then went into the winner's circle late in 2000, capturing the Hassan II Trophy in Morocco. Reached the milestone of 600 European Tour appearances in the 2005 Jazztel Open de Espana en Andalucia.

When he turned professional in 1981, it was with an impressive amateur pedigree, including an English Amateur Championship and a Walker Cup appearance in 1981, when he beat Hal Sutton twice in one day at Cypress Point.

2009 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 13; top-10 finishes - six; Euro97,663 (ranked 12th); Best finish - third at the Son Gual Mallorca Senior Open.

2010 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 17; top-10 finishes - five; Euro127,426 (ranked 13th); Best finish - T-2nd at the Handa Senior Masters.

2011 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 11 top-10 finishes - four; Euro129,816 (ranked 15th); Best finish - second at the Mauritius Commercial Bank Open.

2012 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - nine; top-10 finishes - four; Euro356,751 (ranked first); Best finish - won the Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid and the U.S. Senior Open.

2013 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - four; top-10 finishes - one; Euro25,717 (ranked N/A); Best finish - T-4th at the MCB Tour Championship.

2013 Notes: After becoming the biggest surprise story on the Champions Tour of all time, he went from being a conditionally-exempt player to now having fully exempt status through 2014. He took advantage of that status by playing in 25 of the Champions Tour's 26 2013 events, posting one top 10 - a T-10th at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic - and he finished the year 50th on the money list.

In 2014, he had one top-10 - T-6th at the Encompass Championship.

2014 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - three; top-10 finishes - none; Euro 21,827 (ranked N/A); Best finish - T-19th Senior Open Championship.

2014 Notes: After finishing 50th on the money list in 2013, bounced back with a much-improved season. Made a late run for a spot in the top 30, but fell short, finishing 34th on the money list and 49th in the Schwab Rankings. Got as high as 32nd with two full-field events remaining after a T-3rd at the Nature Valley First Tee Open, his best finish of the year and best Champions Tour effort since winning the 2012 U.S. Senior Open.

2015 Notes: Finished T-5th with partner, Russ Cochran, at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April. A month later, he finished T-13th at the Senior PGA Championship.

Other Victories: 1983 Magnolia Classic, Greater Baltimore Open. 1991 Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic. 2011 Lime Jamaica Open.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 10, 11, 18, 22

Started playing golf when he was 10 by going to a neighboring golf course with his older brother. Naturally left-handed, he started using women's clubs because they were the only left-handed clubs he could find.

After playing for the University of Kentucky golf team, his goal was to play on the PGA Tour. Went to the Qualifying School, but didn't make it until his third try in 1982. With the advent of the Tournament Players Series in 1983, he had another avenue to gain professional experience. In 18 starts on the TPS, he won two tournaments (Magnolia Classic and Greater Baltimore Open) and led the series in money won with $100,863. In 1984, he won $133,342, which placed him 51st on the money list. He was in the top 125 every year between 1984 and 2000, except 1995 and 1999.

Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1983 and 2004, making 598 career starts, 356 cuts and recording 58 top-10 finishes. Best finish was a win at the 1991 Western Open.

Has found success on the Champions Tour, finishing third at the 2009 U.S. Senior Open at Crooked Stick and T-3rd at the 2010 Senior British Open. Recorded wins at the Posco E&C Songdo Championship and the SAS Championship in 2010.

2011 Notes: Made 18 appearances and was sidelined from late April until early July with a right wrist injury, returning to action at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Still managed to finish among the top-five money-winners for a second consecutive year, thanks to top-5 finishes in five of his first seven tournaments and eventually the biggest victory of his career in late July at the 2011 Senior British Open in England.

2012 Notes: Despite back problems, which caused him to miss nearly three months of the season, he posted six top-10 finishes, earning a spot in the top 30 for the fourth consecutive year. His best finish was in June when he was the opening-round leader at the Montreal Championship before eventually finishing T-3rd. Withdrew after two rounds at the U.S. Senior Open with a back problem, which subsequently kept him out of the British Open as well as the opportunity to defend his Senior British Open title. Did not return to the Champions Tour until the SAS Championship in early October.

2013 Notes: Won multiple titles in a season for the first time since 2010, finishing fifth on the final money list - the third time in the last four years he's placed among the top five in single-season Champions Tour earnings. Ended an almost-two-year victory drought at The Principal Charity Classic in Iowa. Edged Jay Don Blake by one stroke when Blake three-putted the 17th green to fall out of a tie for the lead at the Wakonda Club in Des Moines, Iowa. Victory ended a run of 35 tournaments since his last triumph in England at the 2011 Senior Open Championship. Added a second win in mid-October when he edged David Frost by one stroke at the SAS Championship, the same event he won three years earlier.

2014 Notes: Was one of only two players (David Frost) to play in every tournament. In the 26 events he played, his best finish was third at the Constellation Senior Players when he missed a playoff spot with Bernhard Langer and Jeff Sluman by a shot. Finished 17th on the money list, it was the sixth time he has been in the top-30. Also finished 18th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Finished T-5th with partner Roger Chapman at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April. Closed with a 4-under par 68 for a T-6th finish at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March. Also finished T-9th at the Insperity Invitational, thanks to a 69 on Sunday at Woodlands C.C. outside Houston, Texas. Finished third at the Constellation Senior Players for the second consecutive year, thanks to four rounds of par or better at Belmont C.C.

He was born in Ohio, but grew up in Southern California. His high school sporting interests included golf, basketball and football. After deciding he was too light for football and too short for basketball, he began concentrating solely on golf. In 1974, he won the World Junior, and, on the advice of Jack Nicklaus and Tom Weiskopf, chose to play college golf at Ohio State. Was an All-American selection there for three years, leading the team to the 1979 NCAA title. In 1978, won the U.S. Amateur, 5-and-4, over Scott Hoch at Plainfield (N.J.) Country Club. In the 1979 U.S. Amateur, he lost in the finals to Mark O'Meara.

Turned professional after that championship and won the 1981 Crosby in his second year on tour. After several years of playing through hand pain, he had an operation on his right hand in 1989. He returned slowly to competition, losing playoffs twice in 1990. In 1992, he won three times, finished second at both the Open Championship and PGA Championship, and ended up third on the money list. Was a member of the 1993 Ryder Cup Team. Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1980 and 2007 in 704 events. He won 11 times, finished in the top 10 98 times and notched earnings of more than $12.6 million.

2011 Notes: Finished third in his only PGA Tour appearance of the year at the Mayakoba Golf Classic at Riviera Maya-Cancun. He also finished third on the official Champions Tour money list for the third consecutive season and was among the top-5 money-winners for a fourth straight year. Won three official events in a year for the first time since the 1992 PGA Tour season, tying Tom Lehman for most Champions Tour victories. .

2012 Notes: Surpassed the $1 million mark in yearly earnings for the fifth-consecutive year, but his five-year streak of winning at least one event in a season was halted.

2013 Notes: Started his season with a playoff victory over David Frost at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship. Started his final round two strokes behind Frost and trailed throughout the final round before finally pulling even with a 15-foot birdie on No. 18 to set up the playoff, which he won on the second hole with a birdie. After that, he had eight additional top 10s, including a runner-up finish at the Boeing Classic. Finished 11th on the Champions Tour money list, marking the first time in his six years playing on the Tour that he failed to finish inside the top 10.

2014 Notes: Despite missing 10 weeks and five events throughout the season due to an injury (left-rib fracture to his ninth rib), he managed to rebound and secure a spot among the top-20 on the final money list for a seventh straight year. Ended a 20-month victory drought by edging Tom Byrum by a shot at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. It was one of his five top-ten finishes for the year. Finished 18th on the money list and 22nd in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Teamed with former college teammate, Joey Sindelar, to claim a T-5th finish at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April. The pair led after the opening round and trailed by two after 36 holes, but could not maintain their momentum in the final round, finishing five shots back. Was also T-5th at The Principal Charity Classic.

Was introduced to golf by his father, Tom, who worked for the Seattle Parks and Recreation Department. He attended the University of Houston, earning All-American honors in 1978 and 1979, counting five-time PGA Tour winner, Blaine McCallister, and current CBS Sports announcer, Jim Nantz, as teammates. Earned his PGA Tour card at Qualifying School in 1980 and secured his first victory at the 1983 Kemper Open in a playoff over T.C. Chen, Barry Jaeckel, Gil Morgan and Scott Simpson. In 1984, he won the Players Championship and finished seventh on the PGA Tour money list. In 1987, he won the Byron Nelson Classic and finished 19th on the money list. He dropped to 21st in 1988, but in 1989 improved to 11th, then ninth in 1990 and third in 1991.

In a span of 10 weeks in 1992, he won the Los Angeles Open, Nestle Invitational and the Masters, ultimately finishing the year as the Tour's leading money winner with $1.34 million in earnings. Plagued by back spasms in 1994 and 1995, in 1996, he won the Players Championship for a second time. In 1998, won the Bob Hope and Memorial.

He was a member of the 1989, 1991, 1993, 1995 and 1997 Ryder Cup Teams as well as the 1994, 1996, 1998 and 2005 Presidents Cup Teams. He then captained the USA Team to Presidents Cup victories in 2009 at Harding Park in San Francisco, Calif.; 2011 in Australia; and 2013 at Muirfield Village G.C. in Dublin, Ohio.

He won the Vardon Trophy, given to the player with the PGA Tour's lowest scoring average, in 1991 and 1992. He also won the 1991 and 1992 PGA Tour Player of the Year and 1992 PGA of America Player of the Year awards. A full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1981 to 2009, he has played in 611 events and has made 489 cuts, recording 162 top-10 performances, including 17 runner-up finishes and 15 victories.

2010: Finished second in his first official Champions Tour appearance at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai before winning three consecutive starts - The ACE Group Classic in Naples, Fla., Toshiba Classic in Newport Beach, Calif., and The Cap Cana Championship in the Dominican Republic. Shot a 66 to take the first-round lead at the Masters before finishing sixth. Captured his fourth win of the year at the Administaff Small Business Classic.

2011: Made only one start from early May through late July and entered only 10 events overall. After undergoing Orthokine therapy during the summer to help with his ailing back, he won two of his last six starts, including the Senior Players Championship, surpassing $1 million in earnings.

2012 Notes: Despite making just 11 Champions Tour starts, Couples still surpassed the seven-figure mark in earnings, finishing third in the Charles Schwab Cup race, thanks to a pair of victories. Claimed the second major championship of his Champions Tour career when he birdied the final two holes of the Senior British Open at Turnberry to turn back a late charge by Gary Hallberg for the win.

2013 Notes: Won the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship and notched runner-up performances in the Toshiba Classic, Regions Tradition, Encompass Championship and Constellation Senior Players Championship. Had another strong showing at the Masters, finishing T-13th. Made the cut for the 27th time at Augusta National, tying him with Raymond Floyd for third place on the all-time list in that category, behind Jack Nicklaus (37) and Gary Player (30). Tied for 46th in his 31st appearance at the PGA Tour's Northern Trust Open at Riviera C.C. in Pacific Palisades, Calif., breaking the record for most starts by a player in the event, a mark he previously shared with Gene Littler. He was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in May 2013.

2014 Notes: Finished in the top-five in seven of his 11 starts on the Champions Tour. Began the year with a T-2nd at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai before winning the Toshiba Classic for the second time in his career. He then finished fifth at the Mississippi Gulf Resort, fourth at the Greater Gwinnett ionship and second at the Insuperity Invitational. Was forced to pull out of the Senior PGA Championship and U.S. Senior Open because of issues with his back. Later in the summer, he defeated Billy Andrade in a one-hole playoff to win the Shaw Charity Classic. Despite the limited schedule, he finished eighth in the Schwab rankings and on the money list.

2015 Notes: Started the year finishing third at the Mitsubishi Electric. Made his 33rd start at the Northern Trust and missed the cut for only the fifth time. Made his 31st start at the Masters, missing the cut for only the third time. He was planning to play in the Senior PGA Championship, but a sore back forced him to withdraw, the same injury that forced his withdrawal from the 2014 U.S. Senior Open.

JERRY COURVILLE

Birth Date: February 14, 1959

Birthplace: Norwalk, Conn.

Age: 56 Ht.: 6' Wt.: 200

Home: Westport, Conn.

Turned Professional: 2004

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot 72 to earn one of two spots at the Lake Presidential Golf Club qualifier in Upper Marlboro, Md. Started playing golf around age 7 and credits his father for introducing him to the sport. Says his most memorable golf experience was winning the 1995 U.S. Mid-Amateur with his ailing father in attendance. He holds the USGA record for most match play wins in U.S. Mid-Amateur history and consecutive years qualifying for match play in the U.S. Amateur.

In addition to winning the 1995 championship, he was the 1996 medalist, 1999 and 2002 finalist, and 1993 and 1997 semifinalist at the U.S. Mid-Amateur. At the U.S. Amateur, he was the 1989 semifinalist, 1995 medalist, and 2000 and 2003 quarter-finalist. Played in the Masters in 1996.

Took a brief break from the game, but wanted to pass his passion for the game to others by instructing them. To do so, he teamed with Jo Rasmussen of FitnessWorks to provide an indoor training and practice site for his clients. In 2007, he started playing in tournaments again and has tried to qualify for the Champions Tour since that time. He made the finals of Qualifying school in both 2008 and 2009.

Courville's best finish in five U.S. Senior Open starts is T-28th in 2009 at Crooked Stick Golf Club. He competed in the 1995 U.S. Open at Shinnecock Hills G.C. in Southampton, N.Y., and was a semifinalist in the 1989 U.S. Amateur. He was also a member of the 1995 and 1997 USA Walker Cup Teams. He missed the cut at the 2014 U.S. Senior Open after shooting 76-78.

MARCO DAWSON

Birth Date: November 17, 1963

Birthplace: Freising, Germany

Age: 51 Ht.: 6'0" Wt.: 190

Home: Lakeland, Fla.

College: Florida Southern

Turned Professional: 1985

Joined PGA Tour: 1991

Joined Champions Tour: 2014

Champions Tour Victories: 1 - 2015 Tucson Conquistadores Classic

Web.Com Tour Victories: 2002 LaSalle Bank Open.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 11, 18, 21, 22

Started playing golf at age 9 after his family moved to a house on a golf course in Coral Springs, Fla. He was a teammate of two-time U.S. Open champion, Lee Janzen, and six-time PGA Tour winner, Rocco Mediate, at Florida Southern, graduating in 1985 before turning professional. Dawson has enjoyed a long career playing both the PGA and Web.com Tours. Competed on the PGA Tour from 1991 to 1997, 2000 to 2001, 2003 to 2008 and 2012, making 413 starts. Was runner-up in the 1995 Greater Milwaukee Open, finishing three strokes behind Scott Hoch. Also posted a third-place finish in the 1996 Buick Invitational, one of 18 career top-ten performances on the PGA Tour, earning a total of $4,321,879. He has competed in 161 Web.Com Tour events, winning the 2002 LaSalle Bank Open, on 29 career top-10 finishes on the developmental circuit. He finished third on the money list in 1999 and eighth in 2002. Competed in Champions Tour Qualifying School in November 2013, finishing tied for 31st.

2013 Notes: Went to the Champions Tour's National Qualifying Tournament, but did not earn any exempt status for 2014 after finishing T-31st at TPC Scottsdale. Made eight of 17 cuts on the Web.com Tour, posting both of his top-20 finishes within his first four starts on the Tour. Was T-13th at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open and T-19th at the Colombia Championship.

2014 Notes: Started the season as a non-exempt player, but open-qualified for four events early in the season and eventually played his way into fully-exempt status for 2015. Key to his season was a stretch just past the mid-point in the year when he was among the top five in four of five tournaments. Easily earned the most he's ever made in a single season in professional golf, his $952,814 surpassing the 2003 PGA Tour season when he earned more than $600,000. It appeared he was headed for his first victory in late-October when he was the 36-hole leader, ahead of Michael Allen by three strokes with four holes remaining at the AT&T Championship. However, bogeys at No. 16 and 18 derailed his chances, leaving him in second place, two shots back. Prior to his finish in San Antonio, he was T-3rd in August at the 3M Championship after open-qualifying for the event, the fourth time during the season he successfully played his way into the field. He then finished T-4th at the Dick's Sporting Goods and T-5th at the Boeing Classic. He finished the year 15th on the money list and 11th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Broke through for his first career win on the Champions Tour with a two-stroke victory at the inaugural Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March. Made a key 18-foot birdie putt on No. 16 which resulted in a two-shot lead over Bart Bryant, who eventually finished second. Posted three rounds in the 60s to end a victory drought of 12 years, 7 months, 11 days since his Web.com Tour victory in 2002. Since the win, he's added a pair of top 10s - first a T-9th at the senior PGA Championship and a T-7th at the Constellation Senior Players.

Web.Com Tour Victories: 2001 Fort Smith Classic, 2002 Omaha Classic.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot 71 to earn one of two qualifying spots from Belle Meade Country Club in Nashville, Tenn.

His father, Jim Delsing, was an MLB outfielder for the Yankees, White Sox, Tigers, St. Louis Browns and Kansas City A's. Even though Delsing loved baseball, he took up golf at 14 because he wanted to play a non-team sport. He was an outstanding prep basketball player, but UCLA recruited him for golf. Delsing played on the same team with Corey Pavin and Steve Pate. After receiving his bachelor's degree in economics, he played the mini-tours, until he qualified to play on the PGA Tour in 1985. His early years on tour were a struggle and poor seasons in 1988 and 1989 sent him back to Qualifying School, where he had to re-qualify to play the Tour. Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1985 and 2009. In that time, he only finished in the top-125 of the money list six times. Played a total of 565 events, making 276 cuts. His best finish was second at the 1993 New England Classic and 1995 FedEx St. Jude. Had 30 top-10s, earning $3,608,666.

Played 117 times on the Web.Com Tour, made 55 cuts, had nine top-10 finishes and won twice. He tried to qualify for the Champions Tour, in November 2010, but finished T23rd; he withdrew in 2013; and T-50th in 2014. He has only played in six PGA Tour events, posting a best finish T-10th in his only 2014 start at the Quebec Championship.

Dunlap was born in Pittsburgh, Pa. He received an athletic scholarship to attend the University of Florida, where he played for the Gators men's golf team from 1982 to 1985, helping them to the 1985 Southeastern Conference championship. The same year, he was recognized as a first-team All-SEC selection, All-American and Golf Week Male Amateur of the Year. He received his bachelor's degree in finance in 1986, the same year his younger sister, former LPGA player and Vanderbilt head women's golf coach Page Dunlap now Halpin, won the NCAA Women's Golf Championship as a member of the Gators women's golf team.

Dunlap played on the Web.com Tour in 1990, 1998 and from 2003 to 2013, notching two victories - the 2004 Mark Christopher Charity Classic and 2008 Panama Movistar Championship. He played on the PGA Tour in 1996, 1997, 1999 to 2002 and 2012. In 204 starts, his best performances on the PGA Tour include a trio of third-place finishes at the 1996 Bell Canadian Open, 1999 Doral-Ryder Open, and 2000 The Players Championship. His performance in the 2000 Players Championship helped propel him to a career-best 44th-place finish on the PGA Tour money list. He has notched 10 top-10 finishes in his career on the PGA Tour, collecting $2,930,471 in earnings.

2013 Notes: Open-qualified for the AT&T Championship, the Champions Tour's final full-field tournament. Finished T-15th in San Antonio. Had 22 starts on the Web.com Tour with a trio of top-10 finishes. Two of those were in his first four starts when he was T-4th at the Panama Claro Championship and T-6th at the Brasil Classic. Earned fully-exempt status for the Champions Tour in 2014 by virtue of his fourth-place finish at the National Qualifying Tournament at TPC Scottsdale. Closed with a 1-over par 73, and was one of five players to finish T-4th through 72 holes on Friday. Returned to the course on Saturday morning and secured one of the two remaining fully-exempt positions by making par on the first playoff hole.

2014 Notes: Earned Rookie of the Year honors on the Champions Tour, thanks to a victory and pair of second-place finishes all within a four-event stretch in the latter third of the season. Earnings of $1.1 million were a personal best, surpassing his 2000 PGA Tour season ($1,040,244). The highlight of his year was in August when he defeated Mark Brooks in a one-hole playoff at the Boeing Classic. His win at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge came in his 16th start on the Champions Tour, and ended a victory drought of more than six years since a title in Panama on the Web.com Tour. For the win, he earned a check for $300,000, the largest of his career. Two weeks after winning the Boeing event, he nearly won again in Quebec City with an eagle on the last hole to appear to earn at least a playoff spot, but saw Wes Short, Jr., finish fast with a birdie-birdie-eagle run to edge him by a shot at the Quebec Championship. His strong play continued in his next outing in Hawaii two weeks later. Had birdies on six of his first 12 holes Sunday to take the lead at one point at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship. However, a bogey at No. 13 would prove costly and lead to an eventual T-2nd finish with Fred Funk, one stroke behind Paul Goydos. Finished the year 10th on the money list and 14th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Finished fourth at the ACE Group Classic and T-9th at the Mississippi Gulf Resort and Insuperity Invitational.

Durant was born in Pensacola, Fla. He attended Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Ala., where he majored in marketing and graduated in 1987. At Huntingdon, he was a three-time NAIA All-American and won the 1987 NAIA Championship.

Durant turned professional in 1987. He has won four times on the PGA Tour, including the 2001 Humana Classic with a score of 324 (36-under), setting the tournament record which stands today. His best finish in a major is T-18th at the 2007 PGA Championship. In 2007 and 2008, he finished No. 129 on the PGA Tour's official money list, and began playing on the Web.com Tour. By 2009, he was down to No. 131st and lost his PGA Tour card; however, he rebounded in 2010, finishing 115th on the money list to earn a spot on the Tour for 2011.

After the 1991 Web.com Tour season, he took six months away from golf and received a license to sell insurance. He also took job at a golf equipment retail house, filling orders and stacking boxes. He then returned to professional golf after receiving a stern lecture from his wife, Tracey, about changing his outlook on the golf course.

He was the 1992 T.C. Jordan Tour Player of the Year.

Turned professional in 1981 and ventured to the United States to play on the mini-tours, but didn't find much success. Went back to South Africa and finished second in the South African Order of Merit in the 1982-1983 season. Played on the 1983 and 1984 European Tour, winning the Cannes Open in 1984, thanks to two 20-footers on the final two holes. Planned to play in Europe for four years, but was so successful in his first two that he moved on to get his PGA Tour card for the 1985 season. Was winless in his first three years on tour, but twice lost in playoffs, to Tom Kite in the 1986 Western Open and to Seve Ballesteros in the 1988 Westchester Classic. Broke through in 1988, winning the Southern Open in a playoff over Bob Tway and then the Tucson Open a month later. That same week, he won the unofficial Merrill Lynch Shoot-out Finals. Ended the 1988 season with 11 top-10 finishes in 25 starts.

Won the 1989 NEC World Series of Golf, and in 1990 won the USF&G Classic in rather spectacular fashion. Needing a par on the final hole to tie Greg Norman, he hit his second shot in a greenside bunker, some 50 feet from the hole. From there, he holed his shot for a birdie and a one-stroke win. Since then his best year was 1993, when he won twice and passed $1 million in earnings. Dropped back to 20th on the money list in 1994, 50th in 1995, 54th in 1996, 50th in 1997 and 148th in 1998.

A full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1985 to 2005, he played in 531 events, made 333 cuts and posted 84 top-10 finishes with 13 runner-up finishes. From 1987 to 1996, he was ranked among the top-25 players in the world every year but one, and won nine of his 10 PGA Tour titles and nine of his 12 international events during that span.

Prepared for the Champions Tour by playing on the European Tour in 2007, 2008 and 2009. Has a 300-acre estate in South Africa with a 100-acre vineyard.

2010 Notes: Broke through for his first Champions Tour victory when he lapped the field by seven strokes at the 3M Championship in August. Closed his rookie year on a high note when he finished T-3rd at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Earned $194,500, which pushed him past the $1-million mark in season earnings, with $1,186,992.

2011 Notes: Did not earn a victory in his second full Champions Tour season, but was in contention on the last day several times and managed to register seven overall top-10s among his 23 appearances. Best finish was T-2nd at the Mississippi Gulf Resort. Also defended his MTB Tour Championship title at the end of the year and finished second to Tom Lehman in Mauritius.

2012 Notes: Enjoyed his finest year since joining the Champions Tour in late 2009. Recorded multiple victories in a season for the first time since 1993 on the PGA Tour and had his highest finish on the money list (ninth) in his three full-time seasons on the circuit. The first of his two wins came in April when he teamed with Michael Allen to win the Legends Division at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. Late in the year, he won the AT&T Championship in San Antonio, making a 10-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole to defeat Bernhard Langer. Closed out his competitive season by claiming the MCB Tour Championship in Mauritius on the European Senior Tour in December. Survived a double bogey and triple bogey in his final round en route to a one-stroke win over Barry Lane and Peter Fowler.

2013 Notes: Had his best season on the Champions Tour, with more than $1.8 million in earnings and a fourth-place finish in the final Charles Schwab Cup standings. Was among the top three six times in 25 appearances and won twice, including his first major win - the Regions Tradition.

2014 Notes: Went winless for the first time since 2011 and was the only player with more than seven figures in single-season earnings who did not have a victory. Joined Russ Cochran as the only other player to appear in all 26 events. Still managed to record nine top 10s, with five of those performances coming in the latter third of the season. Had his best outing of the season in July when he finished T-3rd at the U.S. Senior Open. Ended the year 13th on the money list and in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Won for the first time in almost two years at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, his sixth career Champions Tour victory. Despite incurring a one-stroke penalty on the 17th green when he dropped his ball and it moved his coin, he sunk a key 6-foot par putt on the last hole to preserve a one-stroke margin over Tom Lehman and Kevin Sutherland. Finished T-10th at the Principal Charity Championship.

Started to play golf at about age 10, picking up the game on his own. By 14 he knew he wanted to play on the PGA Tour. He tried for his Tour card in 1984, 1985 and 1986 with little success, and his dream of playing on the Tour suffered a serious setback when he tore a rotator cuff in 1987. He became the golf coach at the University of Maryland, and was successful competing as a PGA club professional, winning the 1984 FootJoy National Assistants Championship and the Maryland State Open in 1984 and 1987.

In 1988, he finally succeeded at Qualifying School, and then succeeded again the next year. In the 1990 season, had three top-10 finishes, and continued to improve, winning for the first time in 1992 at the Houston Open. Led the PGA Tour in driving accuracy in 1995, 1996, 1999, 2000 and 2003. Between 1990 and the end of the 2006 season, he played in 534 PGA Tour events, more than any other player in that time period.

In 2007, found success on both the PGA Tour and Champions Tour. Became just the second Champions Tour player (the first was Craig Stadler) to win an event on the Champions Tour and PGA Tour in the same season; at 50 years old he had his eighth PGA Tour victory at the Mayakoba Golf Classic in Mexico and won the Champions Tour's Turtle Bay Championship that year.

In 2008, was plagued by knee problems through much of the year, and he underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee in mid-May before returning to action in early June. At the end of 2008, he suffered a staph infection in his right knee, which forced his 2009 season to start late.

Won the 2009 U.S. Senior Open at Crooked Stick when he blew away the field, winning by six shots. Fired a bogey-free 7-under par 65 on Sunday to win the title, the largest victory margin in the championship since 1987. Victory occurred after he lost two Champions Tour events in the playoffs at The Principal Charity Classic and Senior British Open.

Won the Champions Tour's 2010 JELD-WEN Tradition, defending his 2009 JELD-WEN title. At the end of 2010, he underwent a clean-up procedure on his right knee.

2011 Notes: His season was cut short by injuries, with his last start coming in late July at the U.S. Senior Open. Days later, he underwent surgery to repair a torn ligament in his left thumb at the Cleveland Clinic. Three days later, he had surgery in Jacksonville, Fla., to repair scar tissue in his right knee. Regardless, he had four top-10 finishes, including a runner-up at the ACE Group Classic in Naples.

2012 Notes: Won multiple Champions Tour titles, finishing fourth on the money list and claiming the fifth spot in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race, along with its $100,000 annuity. Birdied four of the last five holes to win the Insperity Championship and became the first player since Tom Watson, at the 2007 Senior British Open at Muirfield (Scotland), to win a PGA Tour and Champions Tour event at the same venue, the Tournament Course at The Woodlands C.C. in Houston, Texas. Five months later, he won the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn.

2013 Notes: Battled through a case of vertigo during the year, but still played in 24 events and had three top-three finishes. He and his teammate, Mike Goodes, finished T-2nd at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. Was the only player to record four consecutive par-or-better scores at the U.S. Senior Open, but still finished second and five strokes behind the winner, Kenny Perry, at Omaha (Neb.) C.C. It marked his second consecutive runner-up finish in the event and along with his victory in 2009 and a runner-up finish in 2009, he has finished either first or second four times in the last six years. Late in the year, he closed with a 67 to finish T-3rd at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio, Texas, and ended the season 15th in the money race.

2014 Notes: Turned in six of his eight top-10 performances on the season starting in early June when he teamed with Jeff Sluman to win the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf. In September, he nearly won a second when he battled Scott Dunlap and eventual winner Paul Goydos throughout the final round at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship before finishing T-2nd, one shot back. He finished 38th on the money list and 35th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Closing with a 66 at the Allianz Championship, including an eagle on the last hole, he finished T-3rd. He finished T-9th at the Regions Tradition.

He earned his card during his fourth trip to Qualifying School, and in his second tournament in 1976 won the Phoenix Open. His best season on tour came in 1982 when he won three times (Byron Nelson, Westchester and Bank of Boston) and earned $308,648. He finished sixth on the money list and played on the 1983 Ryder Cup Team.

One of his most memorable moments includes a double-eagle two he made on the 18th hole, on national TV, during the third round of the 1983 Manufacturers Hanover Westchester Classic. Won the Phoenix Open again in 1983, defeating Rex Caldwell, Johnny Miller and Mark O'Meara in an eight-hole playoff. In 1988, he won the Kapalua International, defeating John Mahaffey by two strokes.

2013 Notes: Played in all 25 events for which he was eligible and reached a career milestone in October when he played in his 1,000th event (PGA Tour and Champions Tour) at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn, becoming just the 19th player in history with as many combined starts on both circuits in his career. His best finish during the year was in his final start when he was T-22nd at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio. He finished the year 84th on the money list. Played in all five major championships, extending his all-time record for consecutive starts in senior majors to 63 straight events.

2014 Notes: Played in all 24 events for which he was eligible, best finish was T-12th at the Constellation Seniors Players Championship and final-round 7-under 63 at Fox Chapel matched his age. Wales Senior Open, 2014 French Riviera Masters

Golding was born in Luton, England, and was a promising cricketer for the Middlesex Colts before starting golf at age 17. He turned professional in 1981, becoming an assistant at his local golf club at Arkley in his home county of Hertfordshire. Golding has been a regular fixture at the European Tour's Qualifying School, where in 2008 he stretched his record to 19 appearances. He has often won a tour card, but up to the age of 40, he had never done well enough on the Tour to retain his card automatically.

In 2003, Golding won the Open de France, one of Europe's most prestigious events, on his 201st tour start. Golding claimed the emotionally-charged victory at Le Golf National, birdieing the final hole to beat David Howell by a shot. His prize of Euro 416,660 was more than twice as much as he had ever won in a complete season before that year, and he finished the season with a career best 32nd place on the Order of Merit. After falling away again in 2004 he had a solid season in 2005, with a pair of top-10 finishes. He returned to Qualifying School again in 2006 and 2007. In 2008, he was again unable to retain his place on the elite tour, and dropped to the Challenge Tour in 2009. He played full-time on the European Tour between 1994 and 2008 and has played 341 events with 10 top-10 finishes and earnings of Euro 1,700,054.

After a promising start to his Senior Tour career in 2012, with two runner-up finishes, Golding claimed his first title in June 2013, overcoming tough conditions at Royal Porthcawl with a superb closing 66 to win the Speedy Services Wales Senior Open. It was at the same tournament in 2012 that he rewrote the record books, carding an opening round 64 to match the weekend rounds he posted the previous weekend in the SSE Scottish Senior Open – the first time a hat-trick of 64s had been achieved on the European, Senior or Challenge Tour. However, on both occasions he missed the title, finishing runner up to Anders Forsbrand in Scotland and Barry Lane in Wales, respectively. He ended the 2013 Senior Tour season in sixth on the Order of Merit, with eight top-10 finishes. He was consistent throughout 2014 with seven top-10 finishes. After losing a three-way playoff at the WINSTONgolf Senior Open, he went one better in the following event by winning the French Riviera Masters for his second Senior Tour victory. He came close again with his third T-2nd of the season at the Dutch Senior Open, the very next event.

2012 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 7; top-10 finishes - 2; €95,302 (ranked 17th); Best finish - second at the Speedy Services Wales Senior Open and SSE Scottish Senior Open.

2013 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 14; top-10 finishes - 8; €152,166 (ranked 6th); Best finish - won the Speedy Services Wales Senior Open.

2014 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 14; top-10 finishes - 7; €189,117 (ranked 4th); Best finish - won the French Riviera Masters.

Turned Professional: 1988

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot 67 to earn medalist honors and one of two spots from Cherry Creek Country Club in Denver, Colo.

Started playing golf at age 8 when his dad introduced him to the game. Grob enjoyed many years on the golf course with his parents and two brothers. Grob's biggest inspiration growing up was Tom Watson. Says Grob of Watson, "He continues to be incredibly inspiring to this day, and I still enjoy every chance I get to see him play."

Grob attended the University of Arkansas, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in business. He was in a car crash in 1985 and had injuries that led to him getting a right hip replacement in January 2000.

He won the Montana Amateur in 1983, 1984 and 1985 before turning professional in 1988. Grob is a member of the Montana State Golf Association Hall of Fame. He enjoys listening to classic rock and is a big fan of the Oakland Athletics as well as the Miami Dolphins. He also enjoys fly fishing and being on the Montana River every chance he gets.

Grob owns 10 professional wins, six of which he earned on the Canadian Tour. He spent 1999 to 2001 on the Web.com Tour and played on the Canadian Tour in 2002, before earning his PGA Tour card for 2003 after a tie for 34th at Qualifying School. He collected two top-10 finishes and made 14 of 27 cuts to finish 150th on the 2003 money list, which gave him conditional status for the 2004 PGA Tour season. Grob made five of 13 cuts and failed to retain his card for 2005.

Grob returned to the Canadian Tour in 2005, and over the next eight years, he won five times. He is the all-time money leader on the Canadian Tour.

His immediate family members include his wife, Kristi, and their daughters, Dana and Holly.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 9, 18, 19, 22

His uncle, Bob Goalby, won the 1968 Masters. At age 5, Haas took his first swings with a short, broken club that Goalby had regripped. Under Goalby's watchful eye, he placed third in the first tournament he ever entered, the National Pee Wee championship. Had a successful amateur career, capped off by playing on the 1975 Walker Cup USA Team and winning the 1975 NCAA Championship.

Earned his PGA Tour card in the fall of 1976 and won $32,326 his first year on tour. In 1978, won the Andy Williams-San Diego Open by three strokes. Would have big seasons in both 1981 and '82, winning twice each year and moving up to 15th and 13th on the money list. He was a member of the Ryder Cup Team for the first time in 1983 (he would play again in 1995 and in 2004).

In 1987, he won the Houston Open. Since joining the tour in 1977 and up to 2004, has finished in the top 60 on the money list 21 times and the top 100 every year but one (2000). In his PGA Tour career, which spanned from 1977 to 2005, he played in 799 events winning nine times, runner-up 14 times and third 12 times. He has career earnings of $14.4 million.

Became a full-time member of the Champions Tour in 2005. Owns 15 Champions Tour victories and was the Tour's leading money winner in 2006 and 2007.

2011 Notes: He won the 3M Championship in Minnesota. This was his 15th career victory, but his first in 22 months, and ended a winless streak of 41 events.

2012 Notes: Finished among the top-30 money winners for a seventh consecutive year, and his seventh-place showing in earnings marked the fifth time in eight full-time Champions Tour seasons he was among the top 10. Surpassed the $1-million mark for the sixth time in eight years. Won for the 16th time in his Champions Tour career at The Principal Charity Classic in June. Teamed with Morgan Pressel in June to win the CVS/Caremark Charity Classic by one stroke over Corey Pavin and Lexi Thompson. Teamed with his son, Bill, in late August to post an eight-stroke victory at the Umpqua Bank Challenge in Portland, Ore.

2013 Notes: Was among the top-30 money winners on the Champions Tour for a ninth consecutive year finishing 21st and six of his seven top-10 efforts during the season came in the first half of the season. Played his best golf during a stretch of four events when he was not outside the top seven. Best effort during that run was a T-2nd at the Senior PGA Championship at Bellerive. Shared the first-round lead and was in contention all four rounds in May in St. Louis. The week after, he finished T-7th in defense of his Principal Charity Classic title. He and teammate Fred Couples finished T-4th at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in April. One week later, he matched the low Sunday round at the Insuperity Championship, and his 67 jumped him to a T-6th. Other than that four-event stretch, he played well starting in mid-March when he closed with rounds of 66-67 at the Toshiba Classic to finish T-3rd. Was also T-4th at the 3M Championship, thanks to a final-round 65. Served as a captain's assistant to Fred Couples on the victorious Presidents Cup USA Team at Muirfield Village.

In 2014, going into the Constellation Senior Players Championship, he played 11 events with only one finish outside of the top 10. Of his 10 top 10s, his best finish was T-2nd at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf in which he teamed with Peter Jacobsen - they missed a playoff by one shot.

2014 Notes: Had perhaps the most remarkable season by a player over age 60, finishing third in both earnings and Charles Schwab Cup points, thanks to 17 top-10s, the most he's had in a single season since 2007 (18). Was among the top-30 money-winners for a tenth consecutive year. Incredibly, only two of his 64 rounds during the season were over par, the fewest ever by a player in a full Champions Tour season. Ranked second only to Bernhard Langer in scoring (68.39) and birdie average (4.41), while being the leading player in the All-Around category (91). Went from the final day of the Regions Tradition (May 18) through the second round of the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship (October 31) without an over-par round. His 38 scores of par or better during this stretch set an all-time Champions Tour mark, eclipsing Loren Roberts' previous record of 37 consecutive during the 2006-2007 seasons. During this run, he also had a season-best streak of 28 consecutive sub-par scores. After several brushes with victory early in the year, he won the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at the Rock Barn. It was his third victory in the event, making him just the 18th player in Champions Tour history age 60 or older to win a tournament. At 60 years, 10 months, 17 days, he also became the 10th-oldest winner in Champions Tour history. Nearly added a second win two weeks later when he fell in a four-hole playoff to Tom Pernice, Jr., at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship on the Cochise Course at the Desert Mountain Club. Was also a second-place finisher in June when he teamed with Peter Jacobsen to finish second by one shot at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf. Prior to his Legends performance, had been among the top five in nine of his first 10 starts in 2014, finishing third in five events.

In his 1,000th combined-career Tour start, shot rounds of 65-66 on the weekend to move into a T-6th finish at the Constellation Senior Players Championship. During the week of the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf, was named captain for the 2015 Presidents Cup USA Team.

2015 Notes: Has one top-10, to date, T-6th at the Allianz Championship.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot 70 to earn medalist honors and one of three spots at Wilshire Country Club in Los Angeles, Calif. Played on the PGA Tour in 1985, 1989, 1990, 1996, 1997, 2001 and 2005. In 181 starts, he finished in the top-10 once, T-4th at the 1988 Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic. Regained his PGA Tour card by virtue of his career-best 15th-place finish on the 2000 Web.Com Tour money list. Had nine top-25 finishes that year, including his first career win at the inaugural Steamtown Classic. Opened with rounds of 72-70 at Glenmaura National and then tied the course record with a 5-under par 65 in Saturday's round to join three others in first place. Posted a 68 on Sunday to win by one over Ian Leggatt. He won his 209th professional event (129 PGA Tour, 80 Nationwide). First-place check of $81,000 vaulted him from No. 31 to No. 8 on the season money list.

On the Web.com Tour in 2004, finished 85th on the money list in 14 starts. Two top-10 finishes were a T-5th at the Rheem Classic and T-4th at the Cox Classic. Had a double eagle during the third round in Omaha, Neb., one of five posted during the season.

Rejoined the PGA Tour in 2005 after his fourth successful trip through PGA Tour National Qualifying Tournament in 2004. Ended the season with nine made cuts in 23 starts. A T-25th finish at the Buick Championship represented his only top-25 finish. Made one cut in three starts in 2009 on the Web.com Tour and finished T-11th at the Soboba Classic.

On the Web.Com Tour, he played in 179 events, winning once and recording 22 top-10 finishes and earnings of $538,633.

Returned to Champions Tour Qualifying School and finished T-11th, not enough for his card in 2013.

2013 Notes: Started the season conditionally exempt. However, parlayed solid play during a three-event run in the early summer, which netted him nearly half his season earnings and helped him in the late-season reshuffle. Finished the year 40th on the money list with two top-10 finishes. Matched his best career Champions Tour finish when he was T-6th at the Constellation Senior Players Championship in Pittsburgh, Pa., followed by a T-14th at the U.S. Senior Open in Omaha, Neb., where he shot 65 in the final round.

Was T-8th at The Senior Open Championship at Royal Birkdale, closing with 3-under 67. Regardless, he was forced back to Champions Tour Qualifying School, and was among five players at T-4th by the end of regulation. By making par on the first playoff hole, which earned him the fifth spot, he became fully exempt for the 2014 season.

2014 Notes: Finished 42nd on the money list, but posted career-bests for earnings in a season ($417,513) and notched four top-10 finishes in 22 starts. ROGER HOIT (a)

Birth Date: December 03, 1963

Birthplace: Merion, Pa.

Age: 51 Ht.: 6'3 Wt.: 190

Home: Summit, N.J.

College: Amherst College

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot 70 to share medalist honors and earn one of four qualifying spots at Arcola Country Club in Paramus, N.J.

Graduated from Amherst College in 1986 with a bachelor's degree in economics and was elected to the Phi Beta Kappa honor society (top 10 percent of his graduating class).

Hoit was born in Merion, Pa., and grew up in Hingham, Mass. He was a three-sport athlete and captain of the basketball and tennis teams at Milton Academy, where he graduated in 1982. Hoit was the tennis captain at Amherst College and No. 1 singles player for four years, earning Division III All-American recognition. After college, Hoit moved to the New York area to start a career on Wall Street, while switching his athletic attention from tennis to golf.

Hoit is a managing director at Moelis & Company, a leading global investment bank where he is responsible for Moelis' business with Private Equity firms. Hoit joined Moelis after spending 10 years with Morgan Stanley in New York to help founder and CEO Ken Moelis build the New York office.

Hoit began his competitive golf career in 1996 when he qualified for the U.S. Amateur at Pumpkin Ridge. The U.S. Senior Open will be Hoit's first professional major championship, and his 10th USGA Championship. Hoit is returning to the Northern California area for the second time in two months having just made match play at the inaugural U.S. Amateur Four-Ball Championship at the Olympic Club in San Francisco, Calif., in May 2015. Hoit has also competed in five British Amateur Championships.

Hoit has become one of the leading amateur golfers in the New York area, winning numerous tournaments, including the 2006 MGA "IKE" Stroke Play Championship. Hoit plays out of Baltusrol Golf Club in Springfield, N.J., where he is an eight-time Club Champion; Eastward Ho! in Chatham, Mass., where he is 14-time Club Champion; and Old Sandwich Golf Club in Plymouth, Mass. Hoit was ranked in the top five in a Golf Digest survey of the Wall Street's Top-150 golfers.

The U.S. Senior Open will be Hoit's third USGA Championship in the last nine months having competed in the 2014 U.S. Mid-Amateur in Birmingham, Ala., in addition to the U.S. Amateur Four-Ball in May 2015. Following a hip injury in the fall of 2014, Hoit rededicated himself to fitness and has worked hard over the last nine months at Drive 495 in New York City. "Last fall I was headed for hip surgery before the amazing team at Drive 495 put together a rehab and exercise plan for me. Today I am in the best condition in my life, and I am about to play in a professional golf championship. I cannot tell you how grateful I am for their guidance and encouragement. They are the best in the business."

Hoit is also an avid photographer (www.rogerhoitphotography.com; rhoit on Instagram). He had his first gallery exhibition at the de Castellane Gallery in Brooklyn, N.Y., in 2010 with his show titled "Eyes of Africa," the proceeds of which benefited AMREF (an organization committed to improving the health of women and children in Africa). His current work is focused on pictures taken with his iPhone while running, and Hoit aspires to showcase a selection of this work in New York in 2016.

Hoit lives in Summit, N.J., with his wife of 27 years, Gentry; daughter, Morgan, who is senior at Duke University; and son, Jackson, who is a senior at The Pingry School. Hoit is grateful for the support of his loving family, friends and colleagues. "Without the support of these people, none of this would have been possible," said Hoit.

He is playing in his first U.S. Senior Open.

Champions Tour Victories: 1 - 2011 Dick's Sporting Goods Open

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 19

Medalist at the 1987 Qualifying Tournament. Earned first Tour title at windswept 1990 Honda Classic. Won the Walt Disney World/Oldsmobile Classic in 1992, where his winning total of 26-under 262 was one off the Tour record for most strokes under par in a 72-hole event. Earned his third victory at the 1994 Doral-Ryder Open.

His sister, Julie Jones, caddied for him during his record-breaking performance at the 1998 United Airlines Hawaiian Open. With his daughter, Jessica, he won the Father-Daughter tournament at the 1997 National Car Rental Golf Classic at Walt Disney World Resort. Suffered from bursitis in his left shoulder in 1997.

Overcame serious shoulder injuries to claim a pair of titles in 1998 and finished 10th on the money list that season, his highest standing ever. His best four-day performance, at the time, by any player on Tour was at the 1998 United Airlines Hawaiian Open. Broke the 72-hole scoring record in relation to par with a 28-under 260 at Waialae, cruising to a seven-stroke triumph over Tom Watson.

Closed his 1998 season with a victory at the National Car Rental Golf Classic at Walt Disney World Resort. Sixth PGA Tour victory was in 2000 at the Tampa Bay Classic, his fifth title in the state of Florida; the win occurred on his home course, Innisbrook Resort's Copperhead Course. His most recent victory was in 2003 at the Southern Farm Bureau Classic, where he birdied three of the final four holes to defeat Brenden Pappas, who shot a final-round 62, by one stroke.

Played on the PGA Tour full-time from 1988 to 2009, winning seven titles. Joined the Champions Tour in 2011 and won the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in late June with a final-round 65 and a three-stroke victory over Nick Price.

2012 Notes: Due to an injury-plagued year, he fell from 17th to 36th on the final money list. Hand and wrist problems forced him out of the Principal Charity Classic after just one round, and it led to a subsequent withdrawal from the following event at the Regions Charity Classic. Later in the year, an elbow problem forced him to withdraw after just one round in his final two starts. Was in contention early on the front nine of the final round of the U.S. Senior Open, but made consecutive double bogeys on No. 8 and 9 at Indianwood to derail his chances. He finished T-6th with John Cook. He also earned a T-8th finish at the Toshiba Classic.

2013 Notes: His season was limited to 12 events due to health-related issues (back, neck and elbow), and he did not play after the Boeing Classic in August. His top performance was in late-June when he strung together four consecutive rounds in the 60s, leading to a T-4th finish at the Constellation Senior Players Championship. Was also T-4th in his final start of the year, at the Boeing Classic.

2014 Notes: Due to a cervical dystonia, did not play an official event for the first time in his Champions Tour career. Cervical dystonia is a movement disorder of the neck.

2015 Notes: Made his first Champions Tour start since the 2013 Boeing Classic, shooting 66 in the final round of the Allianz Championship to finish T-3rd. It was his best performance in an event since a T-2nd at the 2011 SAS Championship. Was out of action for almost 18 months due to cervical dystonia, a nerve disorder in his neck.

Full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1968 to 1995, he played in 662 events, made 526 cuts and recorded 165 top-10 finishes with 25 runner-up finishes.

Joined the Champions Tour in 1995 and owns 45 Champions Tour victories, the most all-time and 16 more than the next player on the list (Lee Trevino, who has 29). Champions Tour's all-time money leader, with more than $26.8 million; was that Tour's money leader in 1997, 1998, and 2002, when he earned $3,028,304, the most money earned by a player in one season on the Champions Tour.

2012 Notes: Just seven days shy of his 67th birthday, he played his last four holes in 4-under par to move into sole possession of third-place at the Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid, his best performance in a senior major since finishing second at the 2005 Ford Senior Players Championship. Overall, it was his 207th top-10 finish of his Champions Tour career and 26th top-five performance in senior majors. At 66 years, 11 months, 24 days, he extended his record as the oldest player to record a top-five finish in a senior major. It was his only top 10 on a year that he played in 19 events and finished 73rd on the money list. Had a masterful final round at the Shaw Charity Classic in early September when he bettered his age by four strokes, shooting a 7-under 64 at the first-year event. It was the second time in his career he had bettered his age.

2014 Notes: Completed his 20th season as a Champions Tour member. Three consecutive rounds in the 60s helped him to a T-9th finish at the 3M Championship (best finish on the year) in August, his 210th career top 10. Highlight of the event was bettering his age in all three rounds (68-66-68) to become the first player to do so in all three rounds since Gary Player at the 2009 Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Bettered his age eight times during the year, finishing 72nd on the money list.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 3

Started playing golf at age 12 and was taught fundamentals by his father, receiving additional instruction from his older brother, David. Won the 1974 PAC-8 Conference Championship at Oregon, where he was a three-time All-American selection.

Turned professional in 1976 and joined the PGA Tour in 1977. Won his first PGA Tour event at the 1980 Buick-Goodwrench Open. In 1984, earned victories at the Colonial National Invitation and Sammy Davis Jr.-Greater Hartford Open.

Had a ruptured disc in his back in 1987, which required back surgery, and also suffered from severe sinus trouble. In 1992, lost his exempt status and was thinking of cutting back his golf schedule to become a television commentator. Joined the ABC Sports announcing team in 1993, but as he spent more time in the booth, he knew his true love was playing on the PGA Tour. In 1994, devoted his time to playing the PGA Tour full time, but was hampered when he started the year with an injury after cutting two fingers on his right hand while playing with his children. The injury required surgery and kept him out of competition until the Phoenix Open. Later in the year at the Memorial, he pulled rib muscles, requiring five weeks of rest.

Had two PGA Tour victories in 1995 at age 41, winning the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am and Buick Invitational of California. His last PGA Tour victory was in 2003, at the Greater Hartford Open.

A full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1977 to 2005, he played in 659 events, made 463 cuts and recorded 77 top-10 finishes with seven victories and 15 runner-up finishes. Joined the Champions Tour in 2004 and won that year's U.S. Senior Open at Bellerive Country Club in St. Louis, Mo., defeating Hale Irwin by one stroke. Only other Champions Tour victory was at the 2005 Ford Senior Player Championship.

In 2011, underwent surgery on his lower back in late October to remove bone spurs. Also did analyst work for NBC Sports during the year.

In 2012, played in 15 events during the year while continuing his broadcasting work with NBC Sports. Best finish was a T-17th at the U.S. Senior Open, an event he won in 2004.

2013 Notes: In 15 tournaments, had a trio of top-25 finishes and finished 79th on the money list. His best showing was in his second start when he was T-18th at the ACE Group Classic in Naples, Fla., on the strength of three sub-par rounds. Was forced to withdraw prior to his third round at the Regions Tradition in June with a foot injury. Also withdrew from the 2013 U.S. Senior Open from heat-related symptoms. Continued his broadcast work with NBC Sports/Golf Channel.

2014 Notes: Continued to split his time between playing on the Champions Tour and his broadcast work with NBC/Golf Channel. Played in 14 events overall. Along with Jay Haas, finished second to the team of Jeff Sluman-Fred Funk by one shot at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf. The duo led by one stroke after 36 holes and battled the winners down to the final hole on the par-3 Top of the Rock Course before falling one shot shy. Finished the year 69th on the money list and 56th in the Schwab Rankings.

Janzen was born in Austin, Minn., and spent most of his childhood in Baltimore, Md., where he played Little League baseball. When Janzen was 12, his father's company transferred him to Florida, and his parents started him in golf and tennis, and he continued playing baseball. Janzen liked golf best and started playing that sport exclusively. He won his first tournament at age 15 as a member of the Greater Tampa Junior Golf Association. Janzen chose to attend a small college - Florida Southern. In 1985 and 1986, Florida Southern won the Division II national team championship. Janzen was the individual medalist in 1986 and was first-team all-American in 1985 and 1986. He turned professional later that same year. For two years played in mini-tour events, was the leading money-winner on the U.S. Golf Tour in 1989. At the end of 1989 finished T-10th at PGA Tour Q-School, which help get him on the PGA Tour in 1990. Was good enough to keep his tour card, winning for the first time at the 1992 Northern Telecom Open.

Won eight times in his PGA Tour career, with a pair of U.S. Open titles and a Players Championship to his credit. Claimed his first U.S. Open title in 1993 in a head-to-head battle with Payne Stewart at Baltusrol G.C. Shot 67-67-69-69 to equal the U.S. Open scoring record set by Jack Nicklaus in 1980. Went on to defeat Stewart by two strokes. Won his second U.S. Open title, in 1998, by recording the best final-round comeback in an Open in 25 years, coming from five strokes back of Stewart, the 54-hole leader. Closed with 68 to win by one over Stewart, who closed with 74 at The Olympic Club. Five-stroke comeback was the best in the tournament since Johnny Miller came from six back to win in 1973. It was his first victory on Tour since 1995 and eighth career win. Victory at the 1995 Players was the first of three titles that season and led to his career year, eventually finishing third on the money list ($1,378,966). Janzen played on the PGA Tour between 1990 and 2014 and in 627 events made 407 cuts, finished in the top-ten 66 times, was third eight times and was runner-up seven times. He earned $16,038,979.

2014 Notes: Debuted on the Champions Tour in early September at the Quebec Championship. A final-round 72 led to a T-23rd finish. In his third Champions start had his best finish for the year with a T-6th finish at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Following the official season, finished second in the Cal-laway Invitational, losing in a playoff to Tommy Armour III at Pebble Beach.

2015 Notes: Returned to the winner's circle for the first time in nearly 17 years when he won in a one-hole playoff with Bart Bryant at The ACE Group Classic in February. Made a clutch, 8-foot birdie putt on the 54th hole to force a playoff and then two-putted from 40 feet on the first extra hole for the win after Bryant's second shot landed in the water. The victory was his first since winning the 1998 U.S. Open at The Olympic Club, and it came in his 413th start since that win in San Francisco. The Naples victory ended a drought that lasted 16 years, 7 months, 25 days. He finished 6th at the Constellation Senior Players.

Janzen played his way back into the U.S. Open, winning medalist honors with a 4-under total of 137 during sectional qualifying at Old Oaks and Century.

One of seven brothers, Jimenez started playing golf at age 15 while picking up balls at the range and caddying. Inspired by watching the likes of Seve Ballesteros, Sandy Lyle and Sam Torrance when he was caddying at the 1979 Spanish Open at Torrequebrada (Malaga), Jimenez decided to compete seriously. Has represented Spain 14 times in World Cups and has played in the Ryder Cup four times — 1999, 2004, 2008 and 2010. Is nicknamed “The Mechanic” for his preference for driving, rather than repairing, high-performance vehicles, especially his gleaming red Ferrari. He is also a lover of fine wines and Havana cigars. Jimenez first played on the European Tour in 1988 and improved steadily over the next few seasons. His first win on the tour came at the Piaget Belgian Open in 1992. During a fairly up-and-down career, he has so far had four main periods of success. He has finished inside the top-100 on the European Tour Order of Merit every season since 1989. In 1994, he finished 5th on the list. One highlight was scoring an exceptionally rare double eagle during the 1994 Volvo Masters at Valderrama when he holed his 3-iron second shot on the par-5 17th hole.

After some weaker seasons, he bounced back in 1998 and 1999, finishing fourth on the Order of Merit in consecutive years and winning four tournaments, including the prestigious Volvo Masters.

In 1999, he finished runner-up to Tiger Woods at the WGC-American Express Championship and made his Ryder Cup debut. The next year, he again finished runner-up to Woods, this time at the U.S. Open at Pebble Beach.

In 2004, he emerged as the season’s most prolific champion when he claimed four titles en route to finishing 4th on the European Tour Order of Merit. That mark matched his highest position.

The 2008 season was productive, too, with a pair of wins, including the BMW PGA Championship at Wentworth, where he defeated Oliver Wilson in a playoff. His performances earned a spot on the 2008 Ryder Cup team. He finished the season ranked 4th on the Order of Merit once more.

In February 2010, Jimenez won the Omega Dubai Desert Classic, defeating Lee Westwood in a playoff, and in July, added the Alstom Open de France title, defeating Alejandro Canizares and Francesco Molinari on the first playoff hole. He won his third event of the year at the Omega European Masters, finishing three strokes ahead of Edoardo Molinari.

Jimenez became the oldest winner in European Tour history when he won the 2012 UBS Hong Kong Open at age 48 and 318 days. That was his 19th European Tour victory and first since the Omega European Masters in 2010.

2013 Notes: While skiing in southern Spain on Dec. 29, 2012, Jimenez fell and suffered a right tibial-plateau fracture, which required surgery and kept him out of competition for several months. He played in the Open de Espana in April 2013, but missed the cut and returned to the European Tour in late May, finishing T-4th at the BMW PGA Championship. He was the second-round leader at the Open Championship before finishing T-13th.

2014 Notes: Turned 50 in January, then got married in April just after finishing fourth at the Masters. That performance placed him behind Sam Snead for best finish of a player over 50. Snead finished T-3rd in 1963. A week after his Masters finish, Jimenez played in his first Champions Tour event, winning on his first try at the Greater Gwinnett ionship. A month later, won the Open de Espana and at the age of 50 years and 133 days became the oldest champion in European Tour history. At the Lyoness Open, he finished T-5th, and at his second Champions Tour event, the Senior Open Championship, he finished T-8th. On the European Tour, started the year winning the Hong Kong Open. In 25 events, had two wins and seven top 10s. Ended the year 21st in The Race to Dubai and was one of European Ryder Cup captain Paul McGinley’s vice-captain.

2015 Notes: Started the year with a sixth-place finish at the Nedbank Golf Challenge, then in only his third Champions Tour event, won the Mitsubishi Electric Championship. In five career Champions Tour starts, the Spaniard has won twice. Had a two-week stretch in May where he was runner-up at the Open de Espana and the next week at the BMW PGA Championship.

Started playing golf at age 12 at a nine-hole course in Yuma, Colo. In high school, he played golf, ran track and earned all-state honors in basketball.

Won the 1996 U.S. Open at Oakland Hills C.C. with a one-shot victory over Tom Lehman and Davis Love III, one of his eight PGA Tour victories, his last at the 1998 Quad Cities Classic. His win at the 1996 U.S. Open was after reading a biography of Ben Hogan, which inspired him to practice more. He was the first sectional qualifier to win the U.S. Open since Jerry Pate in 1976. His win at Oakland Hills was his first since a three-year absence from the tour following a dirt bike accident in November 1991 that produced ligament and joint damage in his left ring finger and another accident, from pulling up carpet, which injured his left index finger. To compensate for the problem with his fingers, he uses a reverse overlapping grip.

In 1999, he suffered from an irregular heartbeat the first two months of the season and was then sidelined for nearly three months after the Masters with a shoulder injury. His totals on his PGA Tour are 446 starts, 279 cuts made, 44 top-10 finishes and $6.5 million in earnings.

Made his long-awaited Champions Tour debut at the 2011 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, teaming with Doug Tewell to finish T-10th in the Raphael Division. Followed that by playing in 10 events, his best finish a T-16th at the British Senior Open. At the end of the year, he finished T-25th at Champions Tour Qualifying School, which didn't give him any status for 2012.

In 2012, he finished in the top 25 five times in 12 official starts, highlighted by a T-13 at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach when he shot 70-69 on the weekend at the Monterey Peninsula. Earned conditional status for the 2013 season by virtue of his T-11th finish at the Champions Tour's National Qualifying Tournament in mid-November.

2012 Notes: Was in the top-25 five times in 12 official starts, highlighted by a T-13th at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Was also T-17th at the SAS Championship. Earned conditional status for the 2013 season by virtue of his T-11th finish at the Champions Tour's National Qualifying Tournament in mid-November.

2013 Notes: Played in 15 events, and his best finish was T-20th at the Insperity Championship. Finished 74th on the money list.

2014 Notes: Played in 11 events, including three as an open qualifier. Best finish was a T-40th at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship. Opened with rounds of 68-67, closing with a 74.

In 2015, he had his first Champions Tour top-10 with a T-9th finish at the Senior PGA Championship.

Has played in a number of Nike Tour events and national club professional championships. Turned 50 last year, and on a whim "because it fit my schedule," he entered the SOPGA Senior Championship and qualified for his first Senior Professional Championship last fall. The U.S. Senior Open will be his first major.

Currently the executive director of the Miami Valley Golf Association, a position he has held since 1997. Prior to this role he was the head professional at three municipal courses in Cincinnati, Ohio, and has worked as an assistant professional in New Jersey and Florida. SKIP KENDALL

Birthplace: Milwaukee, Wis.

Age: 50 Ht.: 5'8" Wt.: 150

Home: Windermere, Fla.

College: UNLV

Turned Professional: 1987

Joined PGA Tour: 1990

PGA Tour Playoff Record: 0-3

Joined Champions Tour: 2014

Web.Com Tour Victories 4 - 1994 Inland Empire Open, Carolina Classic. 2007 Chitimacha Louisiana Open. 2012 Pacific Rubiales Colombia Championship.

Player Notes: Shot 66 to earn medalist honors and one of three spots from Vinoy Golf Club in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Kendall was born in Milwaukee, Wis., and after getting a business education degree from UNLV, he turned pro. Bounced around mini-tours until he started playing the Web.Com Tour in 1991. Played that tour for two years with limited success until the end of 1992 when he was medalist at PGA Tour Qualifying School. That finish earned his PGA Tour card for 1993, but he wasn't able to hold on as he finished 129th on the money list, so he returned to the Web.Com tour. In 1994, he won twice and finished fifth on the money list, getting his PGA Tour card for 1995.

The next few years were a revolving door, playing one year on the Web.com Tour, then the next on the PGA Tour until 1997 when he had a good year and finished 74th on the money list. He stayed on the PGA Tour until 2006 when he had to return to the Web.Com tour. Between the two tours, he played in 659 events. On the PGA Tour, he was in 422 tournaments, making the cut in 265. He had 26 top-10 finishes, and was runner-up four times, finishing third, twice. He earned $8,087,631 on that tour. On The Web.Com Tour, he played in 237 events and won four times, finished second, three times and third eight times. He won $1,053,327 on that tour.

While playing at the 2003 Memorial, Kendall sliced off part of his left index finger while cutting a bagel. His finger was surgically repaired, and Kendall was able to return four weeks later. Still, the finger never healed, and he had to change several parts of his game. One thing he is credited for is coming up with the "claw" putting grip, which he taught Chris DiMarco who made it famous. Despite all of the lean times when he was in his 40s, he stuck it out playing mostly on the Web.Com Tour until he turned 50 in September 2014.

2014 Notes: Played in five Champions Tour events after turning 50 in September. Made his Champions Tour debut at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship and was T-40th at Kapolei. Open-qualified the next week at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach and was in contention down the stretch before finishing T-3rd. Thanks to rounds of 65-66 on the weekend at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic, he posted a T-6th finish in October, and it helped him secure a berth in the AT&T Championship the following week as a top-10 finisher not previously exempt. Even though he played in just five events, he was able to earn $206,658 and finish 63rd on the money list and 50th in the Schwab Rankings. Prior to joining the Champions Tour, he competed in 18 Web.com Tour events, making nine cuts. His best finish was T-35 at the Cleveland Open. He finished T-30th at Champions Tour Qualifying School, which gives him no status on the Champions Tour for 2015.

2015 Notes: Open-qualified for the Allianz Championship where he finished T-32nd. Played at the PGA Tour's Puerto Rico Open in early March, but missed the cut.

Turned Professional: 1985

PGA Tour Playoff Record: 1-1

PGA Tour Victories: 1 - 1994 EDS Byron Nelson Classic

Other Victories: 1989 Pine Tree Open. 1999 Utah Open.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot 66 to earn medalist honors and one of two qualifying spots from High Point Country Club's Wil-low Creek Course in High Point, N.C.

Started playing golf as a youngster when he learned to play on a 9-hole course located in his grandfather's backyard. He never took lessons and learned how to play the game looking at pictures in golf magazines. In 1992, he finally took his first lesson from PGA Professional L.B. Floyd, Raymond Floyd's father. Won the 1989 Utah Open, receiving his tour card in 1989. He had a poor season in 1990, forcing him to Qualifying School where he regained he card. Enjoyed his best season in 1994 when he won the Byron Nelson. The tournament was shortened to 36 holes and Lancaster got into a six-man playoff when he birdied the last two holes. In sudden death, Lancaster won with a birdie on the first hole. In the 1995 U.S. Open, he became the first man in the 100-year history of the championship to shoot 29 for nine holes. His final round, 65, shot him from a T-46th to a fourth-place finish.

A full-time member of the PGA Tour between 1990 and 2007, he played in 571 events with one win, one runner-up and 28 top-10s. He made 325 cuts and earned $6.3 million.

2012 Notes: Turned 50 in mid-September and played in just one event, finishing T-25th in his Champions Tour debut at the SAS Championship in October. Earned conditional exemption for 2013 after securing the ninth position at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament. After he and Anders Forsbrand made birdies on the first extra hole, he lost on the eighth position with a bogey on the second extra hole. Also played eight times on the PGA Tour and made two cuts (T-70th at the FedEx St. Jude Classic and T-76th at the Travelers Championship) and made one cut on the Web.com Tour (T-62th at the News Sentinel Open).

2013 Notes: Played in nine events on the Champions Tour, with a trio of top-20s and finished 85th on the money list. Open qualified and finished T-18th at the Greater Gwinnett ionship. Open qualified and was T-19th at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. Was also T-20th at the Senior PGA Championship. Made six starts on the PGA Tour and made three cuts, with a best finish of T-53rd at the Valero Texas Open. Returned to Champions Tour Qualifying School, but withdrew.

2014 Notes: Played twice, missing the cut at the Senior PGA Championship and finishing T-33rd at the SAS Championship. At Champions Tour Qualifying School, he was T-14th, which doesn't get him his card.

In 2015, he only played three times, once on the Champions Tour, where he finished T-46th at the Allianz Championship, and on the PGA Tour, where he missed the cut at the Zurich Classic and FedEx St. Jude Classic.

Started playing golf at age 14 with his father in a field in Bracknell. His dad bought him clubs from a newspaper advertisement and he managed to break three of them the first week. Turned pro at 16 and worked as an assistant pro at Downshire Golf Club for eight years mostly teaching and repairing clubs. Played in many Pro-Ams and one-day events in South England.

Attended European Tour Qualifying School seven times, receiving his card after the third of seven attempts. Did not have a sponsor for the first two years, so only played UK tournaments.

In 1986, finished seventh at Qualifying School and played the European Tour until 2011. Played in 684 events, including five wins, 84 top-10s and earnings of euro 6,974,637.

First win was the 1988 Scottish Open, and then it took four more years to win for the second time - 1992 Mercedes German Masters. He then won three more European tournaments. In the United States, he won one World Match Play Championship.

Finished runner up on the Senior Tour Order of Merit in consecutive seasons, first to Peter Fowler in 2011 and then Roger Chapman in 2012. Won his fourth Senior Tour title in the Speedy Services Wales Senior Open and also finished tied for third in the Senior Open Championship presented by Rolex at Turnberry. In 2011, he successfully defended the Scottish Senior Open where he eagled the closing hole to finish two shots clear of American Gary Koch, before claiming the Casa Serena Open the following month. Won his maiden Senior Tour title in Scotland in 2010, just four events into his Senior Tour career, having finished joint runner-up in his Senior Tour debut in the De Vere Collection PGA Seniors Championship. That victory, at Fairmont St. Andrews Resort, was 22 years after also winning his first European Tour title on Scottish soil in the 1988 Scottish Open. Has been balancing life on the Senior Tour with his continued career on The European Tour, where he reached a major milestone of 600 appearances at the 2008 Commercialbank Qatar Masters presented by Dolphin Energy. He is second on the all-time list behind Sam Torrance, who has played in 706 European Tour events.

In 2004, he won the British Masters title at the Marriott Forest of Arden – his first victory in 10 years. His previous four victories were between 1988 and 1994, including the 1993 European Masters, which cemented his place in that year's Ryder Cup at The Belfry. Won $1 million in the 1995 Accenture World Championship of Golf – a far cry from his early days as a professional, when he went to the Qualifying School on seven occasions before finally making the breakthrough.

Langer's Czech-born father settled in Bavaria after jumping from a Russian train filled with prisoners of war bound for Siberia. Started golf at age 9 as a caddie in Anhausen, Germany, and spent the next seven years practicing and playing as much golf as he could between caddie duties. At 15, took a job as an assistant pro at the Munich Golf and Country Club. Joined the European Tour at age 18, winning for the first time in 1980 at the Dunlop Masters. In 1981, he led the Order of Merit and won three times, including the German Open, where he was the first native to win in the event's 70-year history. After 1985, he split his time between Europe and the United States, having his best year on the PGA Tour in 1985 with wins at the Masters and the Heritage Classic seven days later.

Captained the 2004 European Ryder Cup team. A member of 10 European Ryder Cup teams (1981, 1983, 1985, 1987, 1989, 1991, 1993, 1995, 1997 and 2002). Was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 2002, shortly before claiming his 42nd title on the European Tour at the Volvo Masters Andalucia at Club de Golf Valderrama. There, he tied with Colin Montgomerie following a superb final-round, 67, becoming the only player in Tour history to share a victory in two events. He had a similar playoff experience with Seve Ballesteros in 1986, when the Trophee Lancome was abandoned due to darkness.

Led the European Tour Order of Merit twice (1981 and 1984) and was among the top-30 money-winners every year except one (39th in 1996) from 1980 to 2002.

Finished as the Champions Tour's money leader in 2008, 2009, 2010, 2012, 2013 and 2014. His 2010 season was highlighted by wins at the Senior British Open at Carnoustie and the U.S. Senior Open at Sahalee Country Club in Sammamish, Wash., where he defeated Fred Couples by three strokes.

In 2011, he made 14 Champions Tour appearances due to left-thumb surgery that kept him out of action from late March until mid-June. Highlight of his year came in his third start when he won The ACE Group Classic. His career was marred with putting yips, and to combat them, he has used a variety of putting grips, most recently going to a long putter that he began using at the end of 1996. As for the ban on long putters in 2016, Langer says he will worry about it when the Champions Tour year ends Nov. 8.

2012 Notes: Became the Champions Tour's first four-time winner of the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner when he passed the $2 million mark ($2,140,296) for the fourth time in the last five years. Finished in the top 10 in 14 of his last 15 starts, and placed second to Tom Lehman in the year-long Charles Schwab Cup race, losing by 435 points, though he took two titles that season. Won the Nedbank Champions Challenge in November in South Africa.

2013 Notes: Returned to the winner's circle at the ACE Group Classic and Gwinnett Championship, winning his fifth money title in the last six years, earning $2,448,428 in official money, $200,000 more than runner-up Kenny Perry. In 24 starts, had 18 top-10 finishes.

2014 Notes: Earned Player of the Year honors for an unprecedented fourth time (2008-2010 and 2014). On the strength of five victories, the most by a player in a season since he won five in 2010. Two of the wins were in majors, at the British Senior Open and then defeating Jeff Sluman to win the Constellation Senior Players. With fellow countryman Martin Kaymer winning the Players Championship a month before, it was the first time professionals from the same country other than the United States have held both tours' Players Championship titles in the same year. Also won the Mitsubishi Electric Championship, Insuperity Invitational and the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. In 21 Champions Tour starts, had 18 top-10 finishes, winning the Charles Schwab Cup and the money race. Ended his year in fine fashion in December when he teamed with his son, Jason, to win the PNC Father/Son Challenge in Orlando, Fla., by two strokes over Davis Love III and son, Dru.

2015 Notes: Received his 24th victory when he successfully defended his Constellation Senior Players title at Belmont C.C. near Boston, with a six-shot win over Kirk Triplett. Became the first player since Arnold Palmer (1984-1985) to win consecutive Constellation Senior Players. Also tied Miller Barber for fourth place on the all-time victory list. Shot four consecutive rounds in the 60s and went wire-to-wire, joining Palmer (1985) and Jack Nicklaus (1990) as players to win the Constellation Senior Players leading from start to finish. His fifth career major title came in his 157th start and extended to nine, his streak of consecutive years winning at least one Champions Tour event, matching the second-longest streak in Champions Tour history. At 57 years, 9 months, 18 days, he became the second-oldest winner of the Constellation Senior Players (Raymond Floyd, 57 years, 10 months, 12 days in 2000). Victory ended a win drought of just over nine months, and it was the first time since 2012 that he had not won a title before the start of June. Finished T-5th at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship, five shots behind winner Miguel Angel Jimenez. Earned his second top 10 of the year with a T-9th finish at the Tucson Conquistadores. He was runner-up at the Greater Gwinnett ionship and finished T-5th at the Regions Tradition and sixth at the Senior PGA Championship.

Started playing golf at age 5 in a small farm town north of Minneapolis. He was a walk-on at the University of Minnesota, earning his tour card after college in 1983.

Played on the PGA Tour for three years, returning to Qualifying School after each season. Unable to get back on the PGA Tour for the 1986 season, he played in Asia and South Africa and in a variety of mini-tour events he could qualify for in the United States. His game finally started showing stronger promise in 1990 and 1991, when he was able to play regularly on the Ben Hogan Tour, winning four tournaments, three of them in 1991. That year he was the Hogan-leading money winner with $141,934, thereby securing his PGA Tour card for 1992.

He had nine top-10 finishes in 1992, six more in 1993, and finished third, and then second at the Masters before he finally broke through with his first win. Won the 1994 Memorial Tournament with four rounds of 67. His best year was 1996, when he won the British Open at Royal Lytham & St. Annes and the Tour Championship at Southern Hills. He also swept the year-end honors, winning the Vardon Trophy, the money list and Player of the Year. In April 1997, he was, for one week, the No. 1-ranked player in the world.

Injured his shoulder at the 1998 British Open, requiring surgery in November of that year. Made a successful return from the shoulder surgery. Member of the 1995, 1997 and 1999 Ryder Cup Teams. Captain of the 2006 Ryder Cup Team and member of the 1994, 1996 and 2000 Presidents Cup Teams.

A full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1983 to 1985 and then between 1992 and 2009, playing 481 events, making 344 cuts, and recording 97 top-10 finishes with five victories and 19 runner-up finishes. Competed on the Web.com Tour in 1990 and 1991 and made 47 career starts, making 39 cuts with 16 top-10 finishes including four victories.

In 2010, marked his second victory on the Champions Tour by capturing the Senior PGA Championship at the Colorado Golf Club, defeating David Frost and Fred Couples in a one-hole playoff.

2011 Notes: Was the Champions Tour Player of the Year, making him the first to collect top honors on not only the Champions Tour, but also the Web.com Tour (1991) and PGA Tour (1996). Also earned his first Charles Schwab Cup, holding off Mark Calcavecchia by just 74 points at the season's final event. Took the Schwab Cup lead after the second event of the season (Allianz Championship) and never relinquished it. Was also the tour's only $2-million man, earning the Arnold Palmer Award with a personal-best $2,081,526. Along with John Cook, led the Champions Tour with three victories and claimed all three of his wins within the first seven of his 21 starts last year. Highlight of his year was winning his second career major championship on the Champions Tour, and third title of the season, at the Regions Tradition.

2012 Notes: Capped another highly successful campaign by winning the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in his hometown by six strokes over Jay Haas, adding a second consecutive Charles Schwab Cup title to his career record. Became the first player to win successive Charles Schwab Cup titles, as well as being the fifth to win that honor twice, joining Hale Irwin (2002 and 2004), Tom Watson (2003 and 2005), Jay Haas (2006 and 2008) and Loren Roberts (2007 and 2009). Earlier in the year, he won his first tournament in just over a year when he repeated at the Regions Tradition by two shots over Bernhard Langer and Chien Soon Lu. For the year, he played in 19 events and had 12 top-10 finishes. He was 2nd on the money list.

2013 Notes: Didn't win for the first time as a member of the Champions Tour, but was still among the top-10 in nine of his 17 appearances. Best effort of the season was in late April when he closed with a bogey-free 67 that included birdies on three of his last four holes to finish T-2nd at the inaugural Greater Gwinnett ionship, three strokes behind Bernhard Langer. Finished the year 20th on the money list.

2014 Notes: Scattered seven top-10 finishes over his 20 starts, the highlight of his year coming midway through the season when he claimed his first Champions Tour victory in almost 18 months, holing a 12-foot birdie putt to win the Encompass Championship. Had a chance to pick up a second victory late in the season when he played in the final group at the SAS Championship and got within two strokes of eventual-winner Triplett before finishing solo second, three shots back. Finished the year 12th on the money list and 15th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Was T-2nd, along with Kevin Sutherland, at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, one shot back of David Frost. Again finished T-2nd, at the Insuperity Invitational, losing in a playoff to Ian Woosnam, an overtime that also included Kenny Perry. Also was T-5th at the Regions Tradition and at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf along with teammate Jeff Sluman.

2011 Notes: He made 20 starts in his Champions Tour rookie season and had three top-10s. Flirted with the top of the leaderboard in the final round at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach before eventually finishing T-5th after a final-round, 73.

MICHAEL MCCOY (a)

Birth Date: November 21, 1962

Birthplace: Des Moines, Iowa

Age: 52 Ht.: 6' 1" Wt.: 205

Home: Des Moines, Iowa

College: Wichita State

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 13

Began playing the game of golf around the age of 7 and credits his uncles for introducing him to the game. Says his most memorable golf experience was winning the U.S. Mid-Amateur and playing in the 2014 Masters. Has four children: Nate, Megan, Danny and Erin and enjoys collecting golf books. Works at Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. Insurance.

The insurance executive was 50 years old and playing in his 38th USGA event without a title before he defeated Bill Williamson, 8 and 6, in the 36-hole final of the 2013 U.S. Mid-Amateur Championship at the C.C. of Birmingham. The victory made him the second-oldest U.S. Mid-Amateur champion behind Randal Lewis, who was 54 when he won in 2011. It was the championship's third-largest margin of victory since adopting the 36-hole final format in 2001. McCoy had advanced to the semifinals twice, in 2005 and 2008.

The Iowan has played in 41 USGA championships, including 16 U.S. Amateurs and 15 U.S. Mid-Amateurs. His best finish in the U.S. Amateur was in 1998, when he advanced to the third round. In 2005 and '08, he advanced to the semifinals of the U.S. Mid-Amateur, and in '09, he earned co-medalist honors in stroke play.

McCoy, a six-time member of the Iowa Men's State Team, has won the Iowa Amateur five times and the Iowa Mid-Amateur six times. He has triumphed at the Trans-Mississippi Championship twice (2000 and '08), and is a four-time winner of the Crump Cup at Pine Valley Golf Club in New Jersey. He is also a four-time winner of the Herman Sani Invitational, and three-time champion of the Fort Dodge Amateur.

In 2012, McCoy won the Iowa Masters Championship, as well as the Trans-Miss Four-Ball Championship with Gene Elliott.

Since the inception of the Iowa Golf Association Player (IGA) of the Year award in 1960, no other competitor has won it more than three times. McCoy won his first in 1983 and his 10th 27 years later, in 2010, he now owns that award 11 times. McCoy is also a member of the IGA Hall of Fame.

McCoy's son, Nate, also is an accomplished golfer who has reached the second stage of qualifying on the Web.com Tour. He played on the Canadian Tour in 2014. The caddieing tradition works both ways in the McCoy family. Mike carried the bag for Nate's appearance at the 2009 U.S. Amateur, but his most successful loop was in the finals of PGA Tour Canada Q-School in 2014. There, he helped Nate get through the stage and launch his pro career.

McCoy has multiple victories to his name besides the big U.S. Mid-Am including: five-time Iowa Amateur Champion, 2-time Trans-Miss Champion, 2-time Coleman Champion, four-time Crump Cup Champion and most recently in 2014, victories at the Lupton Invitational and the George C. Thomas Invitational, where he finished with a three-day total of 211. Also had a T-10th at the Sunnehanna in Johnstown, Pa.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 19, 21, 22, 25

Took up golf while in high school after years of playing baseball. His game did not come together until he was in college, when Champions Tour member Jim Ferree helped get him started. Florida Southern coach Charlie Matlock then became the main influence for Mediate. He started using the long putter to save his back, and became the first player to win on the PGA Tour with a long putter, at the 1991 Doral-Ryder Open. Missed most of 1994 season with ruptured disk, which was surgically repaired in July 1994.

In 2008, he fought to become the oldest U.S. Open champion at age 45. Lost in a playoff to Tiger Woods at Torrey Pines. Finished regulation at 1-under-par 283 and held the clubhouse lead as Woods and Lee Westwood, both one stroke back, played the par-5 18th hole. Woods made birdie to force an 18-hole playoff. In the Monday playoff, made three consecutive back-nine birdies to take a one-stroke lead to the last hole. Woods made birdie to tie and force sudden death as both players shot even-par 71s. Woods parred the par-4 seventh hole, the first sudden-death hole, as Mediate made bogey after driving into a fairway bunker and missing a 20-foot par putt.

His career totals on the PGA Tour are 640 starts, with six wins, 10 runner-ups and six third-place finishes. Had 64 top 10s and made 412 cuts with earnings of $16.8 million dollars.

2013 Notes: Became the 16th player in history to win his first Champions Tour event, when he was a two-stroke winner over Tom Pernice Jr. and Bernhard Langer in the 2013 Allianz Championship. Led after 36 holes by three following a career-best and tournament-record, 11-under-par 61. Then held off a final-round charge by Pernice and Langer. Was tied with Pernice heading to No. 17 but took the lead for good when Pernice made a bogey on the second-to-last hole. He added a birdie at No. 18 to finish with a 54-hole total of 17-under-par 199, matching the tournament mark set in 2010 by Langer and John Cook. Coincidentally, his first PGA Tour win also came in south Florida, at the 1991 Doral-Ryder Open. Added a second title during the latter part of the summer, in Canada, when he blitzed the field at the inaugural Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary. Played in 23 events and finished with the two wins, one 3rd and had seven top 10s. Finished the year 10th on the money list with $1,341,098 in earnings.

2014 Notes: Narrowly missed a berth in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, finishing 31st in single-season earnings. Was among the top 30 through the first eight months of the season but slipped outside after the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach in late September and was never able to regain a spot. At one point in Sunday's final round at the AT&T Championship, the year's final full-field event, it appeared he'd climbed back into the top 30 after finishing with birdies on five of his final six holes. Fired a 9-under 63 in the opening round of the year to take the first-round lead at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Eventually finished fifth, his best finish of the year. Married Jessica Somers the day after the tournament at Hualalai. Was T-7th in his next start in defense of his title at the Allianz Championship. At the Regions Tradition, solid play on the weekend, with rounds of 69-70, led to a T-6th finish at Shoal Creek. Made three starts on the PGA Tour, missing the cut at the Frys.com Open and the Wyndham Championship. Also withdrew at the Farmers Insurance Open after one round.

2015 Notes: Was third at the Greater Gwinnett ionship after rounds of 68-67 at TPC Sugarloaf. Was three strokes back after 36 holes before heavy rain canceled the final round. Got his season off to a nice start at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Was the 18-hole leader and shared the 36-hole lead with eventual winner Miguel Angel Jimenez. Saw his chances slip away in a four-hole stretch Sunday, with bogeys on Nos. 8, 9 and 11 and eventually, finished fourth.

Reveled in his debut season on the 2014 Champions Tour, being crowned rookie of the year. Became just the second South American to win the coveted award since it was launched in 1998, after Brazilian Priscillo Diniz in 2000. Highlights of his 2014 included victory at the English Senior Open at Rockliffe Hall and two second-place finishes in the SSE Scottish Senior Open and the French Riviera Masters. Victory in England meant he became the fifth player to win an event on all three of The European, Challenge and Champions Tours after Antonio Garrido, John Bland, Constantino Rocca and Philip Golding also achieved the feat. Secured his maiden European Tour title when he charged through the field to win the 2006 Aa St Omer Open and secure a priceless European Tour exemption. Had won the previous year on the Challenge Tour when he captured the Abierto Telefonica Moviles de Guatemala but finished outside the top 20 in the rankings and, after also missing out at the Qualifying School, looked destined for another season on the Challenge Tour until his victory in France. In 2003, came agonizingly close to securing a card through the Challenge Tour Rankings but missed out by one place. Instead, took the trip to Northern Spain for The European Tour Qualifying School Finals and exacted revenge for missing out via the Challenge Tour route by graduating with the 18th card. Was unable to hold his card and returned to the Challenge Tour in 2005. Played on the European Tour between 2003 and 2011, in 102 events made 44 cuts. Had five top 10s and with his win in France had one third-place finish (T-3rd, 2011 Bankia Madrid Masters).

2014 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 12; top-10 finishes - 8; €: 173,249 (ranked fifth); winner English Senior Open.

In 2015 playing on the European Senior Tour, missed the cut in the Senior PGA Championship, T-37th SSE Enterprise Wales Open and T-19th Honda PGA Seniors Championship.

Was one of the most consistent players on the PGA European Tour. Montgomerie led the Order of Merit for a record eight years, and seven years in a row between 1993 and 1999 (Also led it in 2005). He played college golf in the United States at Houston Baptist University, and enjoyed a fine amateur career, winning the 1987 Scottish Amateur and the 1985 Scottish Stroke Play Championship. He also was a member of the 1985 and 1987 Great Britain & Ireland Walker Cup Team. Named the 1988 Rookie of the Year in Europe and recorded his first victory in 1989 at the Portuguese Open, winning by 11 strokes. Moved up the European Order of Merit every year between 1987 and 1999 with a 164th-place finish in 1987, 52nd-place finish in 1988, 25th-place finish in 1989, 14th-place in 1990, fourth place in 1991, third place in 1992 and then seven straight first-place finishes. He had a slow start in 1991 after the death of his mother, then narrowly lost the Volvo PGA Championship, when Seve Ballesteros beat him in a playoff. After that he won the Scandinavian Masters and finished in the top 10 10 times and finished third on the Order of Merit.

The Ryder Cup is in his blood and as a player he represented

Europe eight times, in 1991, 1993, 1995, 1997, 1999, 2002, 2004 and 2006. In 2006, he became the second European to win the contest five times. Was top scorer at the The Belfry in 2002 with 4½ points out of five, and holed the winning putt at Oakland Hills in 2004. Victory over David Toms at The K Club in 2006 ensured he remained unbeaten in eight Ryder Cup singles matches stretching back to 1991. In total he has secured 23½ points from 36 matches and is the third-highest points scorer in European history. His total Ryder Cup record is 20 wins, 9 losses and 7 halves.

To top off his Ryder Cup career, he captained Europe to a Ryder Cup win against the United States at The Celtic Manor Resort in October 2010. He inspired his team to a 14½-13½ victory as The Ryder Cup spilled into Monday for the first time in its history after torrential rain in Wales, and called it the finest moment of his career.

In 71 majors, Montgomerie has five runner-up finishes, two of them being losses in playoffs. He has at least one runner-up in every major except for the Masters where his best finish was T-8th.

In 138 career PGA Tour starts, he never won and only has two unofficial wins in the United States, the 1998 Andersen Consulting World Championship and the 2000 Skins Game. That changed with his win at the 2014 Senior PGA Championship.

But on the European Tour he holds the record as the most prolific Scottish winner in European Tour history, with 31 titles. His historic success came in July 2007, when he ended a 19-month winless streak with victory in the European Open at The K Club to surpass Nick Faldo's previous Tour record of 30 wins. Went on to cap the season in style by partnering with Marc Warren to victory in the Mission Hills World Cup in China, securing Scotland's first victory in the team event.

One of his proudest moments came in May 2013 when he was inducted in the World Golf Hall of Fame. After never wanting to move to America and join the PGA Tour, he says that he will play a full schedule on the Champions Tour.

2013 Notes: Joined the Champions Tour in late-June, making his debut at the Constellation Senior Players Championship and finishing T-9th after weekend rounds of 69-65. Went on to compete in 10 events and was 47th on the final money list with his best finish being a T-3rd at the AT&T Championship.

2014 Notes: Had a great first full season on the Champions Tour. Was second only to Bernhard Langer in both Charles Schwab Cup points (3,307) and single-season earnings ($2,064,381). Notched 11 top 10s in his 18 starts, claiming the two biggest events in senior golf with wins at the Senior PGA Championship and the U.S. Senior Open. Got his first official win in the U.S. and first major championship when he won the Senior PGA Championship at Harbor Shores, Mich. Pulled away from Tom Watson down the stretch to win by four strokes, shooting 65 in the final round. Victory ended a American drought of 138 PGA Tour events and 17 Champions Tour appearances without a victory. Became the first Scot to win on the Champions Tour and became the third Scottish champion in the 75-year history of the Senior PGA Championship, joining Jock Hutchison (1937 and 1947) and Fred McLeod (1938). Got his next major championship victory in July when he defeated Gene Sauers in a three-hole aggregate playoff in the U.S. Senior Open at Oak Tree National in Edmond, Okla. Became the first player since Roger Chapman in 2012 to record his first two Champions Tour wins in major championships. He became the fifth player to win the Senior PGA Championship and the U.S. Senior Open in the same year, joining Chapman (2012), Hale Irwin (1998), Jack Nicklaus (1991) and Gary Player (1988). Victory earned him a berth in the 2015 U.S. Open at Chambers Bay. Birdied the last two holes to nail down second at The Senior Open Championship at Royal Porthcawl, 13 strokes back of Langer. Earlier in the season, was among three players who finished T-2nd at the Toshiba Classic. Also enjoyed success on the European Senior Tour. Defended his Travis Perkins Senior Masters title in late August, winning by a tournament-record 10 strokes at Woburn G.C. One week later, added a second title to his list of accomplishments on that tour when he fired a final-round 7-under-par 65 to win the Russian Open Golf Championship in Moscow. Won that circuit's John Jacobs Trophy as leading player on the Senior Tour Order of Merit. Later in the year made his 600th career start on the European Tour at November's Turkish Airlines Open, where he finished 70th.

2015 Notes: Kicked off his Champions Tour campaign with a T-5th at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship. Was the 18 and 36-hole leader at The ACE Group Classic but saw his chances slip away when he made three bogeys on his back nine Sunday and finished fifth. Was T-5th at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic and T-9th at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic.

Won his third major championship with a second consecutive Senior PGA Championship on The Pete Dye Course at French Lick Resort. Made three birdies in a four-hole stretch midway through the final round to pull away from the field and eventually win by four over Esteban Toledo. Became only the second player in Champions Tour history, and first since Jack Nicklaus, to claim his first three victories in all major championships. Nicklaus won the 1990 Regions Tradition and 1990 Constellation Senior Players Championship before claiming his third career title at the 1991 Regions Tradition. Became the 15th multiple winner of the Senior PGA Championship and first since Hale Irwin to not only repeat at the Senior PGA Championship (1996-1998) but also win in each of his first two appearances in the championship. Additionally became the first Scot to win multiple Senior PGA Championships since Jock Hutchison (1937,1947). Became the first player to defend a title on the Champions Tour since Kirk Triplett won back-to-back titles in the 2012 and 2013 Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Is the first player to defend a title on two different courses since John Cook won back-to-back Charles Schwab Cup Championships at Sonoma Golf Club (2009) and TPC Harding Park (2010). Was in contention throughout at the Constellation Senior Players. Despite suffering chest pains overnight prior to the final round, managed a 69 Sunday to finish T-3rd at Belmont C.C. near Boston.

O'Meara, who played in his 30th Masters this year, started the game when he was 13, after his family moved to a house in California on a golf course. Would slip onto the course to play and quickly became hooked on the game. As a freshman at Mission Viejo High School, he made the golf team, and in his junior year, the team won the state championship. Earned a scholarship to Long Beach State and was an All-America selection in 1979. Won the California State Amateur that year, defeating Lennie Clements in the final. Also won the Mexican Amateur, defeating Gary Hallberg on the last day. But his biggest victory, in 1979, came at the U.S. Amateur in Cleveland, where he defeated defending champion John Cook, 8 and 7, in the final.

Turned professional the next year and was the 1981 PGA Tour Rookie of the Year. Between 1984 and 1992, he placed in the top 30 in earnings. With his win at the 1994 Argentine Open, he became the fifth player to win in the U.S., Europe, Japan, Australia and South America (the others are Gary Player, David Graham, Hale Irwin and Bernhard Langer).

Member of the 1985, '89, '91, '97 and '99 U.S. Ryder Cup Teams. Member of the 1996 and '98 Presidents Cup teams. Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1981 and 2006, won 16 times in 658 events, was runner-up 22 times, third 18 times and recorded 119 top-10 finishes. Best season was 1998, when he won the Masters and the British Open. Has earnings of more than $14.1 million.

In 2010, won the Champions Tour's fifth major, the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship, in a playoff over Michael Allen. Teamed with Nick Price to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

2011 Notes: On the Champions Tour, had nine overall top 10s in 20 starts. Played his best golf in the second half of the year when he posted five top-10 efforts in his last nine starts, including a pair of runner-up showings. Waged a head-to-head weekend battle with Olin Browne in the U.S. Senior Open at Inverness before eventually finishing second, three shots back.

2012 Notes: Tore cartilage in his rib cage while preparing for the 2012 Masters and missed four months of the season. In his abbreviated year, was able to finish in the top 10 at five Champions Tour events. Best finish was second at the Boeing Classic, where he lost in a playoff to Jay Don Blake.

2013 Notes: Had nine top 10s in his 22 starts, the most appearances he's made in a Champions Tour season. Best result came in his final start of the season when he finished T-2nd at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Also had a T-3rd at the Encompass Championship. Ended the year 17th on the money list. Had finished in the top 30 five straight years.

2014 Notes: Highlight of his season was being voted into the World Golf Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2015. Received notification in mid-October and will be inducted at St. Andrews next month along with David Graham, Laura Davies and A.W. Tillinghast. Despite recording only four top-10 finishes, the fewest he's had in a year on the Champions Tour since 2008, he earned a spot among the top-30 money-winners for the fifth time in the last six years. Best finishes in 22 events was a T-2nd at Dick's Sporting Goods, T-5th at Toshiba Classic, T-6th at Mitsubishi Electric and a T-6th at the Constellation Senior Players. Finished 30th in the Schwab rankings and 25th on the money list. Made his 30th start at the Masters in April, but didn't make the cut.

2015 Notes: Started his year with a runner-up finish at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship, one shot behind winner Miguel Angel Jimenez. Thanks to a closing 6-under-par 66, the day's low round, he finished 3rd at the inaugural Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March. Also finished T-4th at the Greater Gwinnett Classic.

The next year he won the Colonial National Invitation and won back-to-back Hawaiian Open titles in 1986 and 1987. He added the Greater Milwaukee Open in 1986 and the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic in 1987, when he made a dramatic birdie putt on the final hole. Home: Nashville, Tenn.

College: UCLA

PGA Tour Victories: 2 - 1999 Buick Open; 2001 The International

Champions Tour Victories: 4 - 2009 SAS Championship; 2013 3M Championship; 2014 Principal Charity Classic, Charles Schwab Cup Championship

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 18, 19, 21, 22

His first love in high school was wrestling where he earned all-conference honors. Was an All-American golfer in 1981 and '82 and was the Pac-10 Conference Player of the Year in 1981. Teammates at UCLA included Jay Delsing, Corey Pavin, Steve Pate and Duffy Waldorf. Daughter Brooke suffers from a retinal disease (Leber's congenital amaurosis) and is legally blind. Brooke released a country/Christian recording in 2007 titled "Help From Above."

As a full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1986-1990 and 1997-2010, he played in 588 events and made 317 cuts, with two victories (1999 Buick Open and 2001 The International) and four runner-up finishes among his 47 top 10s. In 1989, went into the final round of the U.S. Open with a chance to win and shot 74 to finish T-14th. At age 51 was 2nd in the 2011 Viking Classic. Competed on the Web.com Tour periodically, with 79 career starts, making 42 cuts, recording seven top-10 finishes with his best finish being a T-3rd at the 1992 Hawkeye Open.

In 2009, became only the 15th player in Champions Tour history to win in his first start. Won the SAS Championship and didn't play again on the Champions Tour. Victory came 22 days after he turned 50, tying him with Gary Player as the ninth-youngest winner in Champions Tour history.

Had a stellar 2010 campaign on the Champions Tour, with nine top-10 finishes in 10 starts.

2010 Notes: He played the majority of his golf on the PGA Tour, competing in 22 events compared to 10 on the Champions Tour.

2011 Notes: Split his time between the PGA Tour and Champions Tour. On PGA Tour, claimed two top-10s in just 12 starts, including one at year's end which altered his plans for 2012. Beginning the week of the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic as the fifth alternate and ranked 143rd on the money list, he capitalized on his opportunity in the season's final official event. Had a final-round, 3-under 69 and waited until virtually the last putt dropped Sunday to see if it was good enough to elevate him to within the top 125. Finished T-3rd at the tournament, worthy of a 121st place money-list finish and fully exempt status for 2012, at age 52, the oldest to ever earn exempt status from the top-125 category the previous year. He was last exempt on the PGA Tour in 2009 after finishing No. 80 on the 2008 money list. In mid-July, nearly became the second-oldest winner of a PGA Tour event when he finished T-2nd at the Viking Classic in Mississippi.

Enjoyed a solid Champions Tour season, garnering six top-10 finishes in 16 starts.

2012 Notes: Played just 10 Champions Tour events due to fully exempt status on the PGA Tour, where he played 23 times. Missed the PGA Tour Playoffs for the fourth consecutive season, finishing No. 186 in the FedEx Cup standings. Best Champions Tour effort was a T3rd at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, his first Tour start of the season. Played in the final grouping Sunday, with Bernhard Langer, at the U.S. Senior Open at Indianwood, but a final-round 75 dropped him into a T-15th. Posted his only PGA Tour top-10 of the year in his 18th start, a T-8th at the Reno-Tahoe Open, the first PGA Tour event to use the Modified Stableford scoring format since 2006. Finished with 30 points, 13 behind J.J. Henry's winning total. Competed at the PGA Tour's National Qualifying Tournament, where he finished T-87th. Was T-17th after 90 holes, but a final-round 79 dropped him 70 places and he failed to earn his 2013 card.

2013 Notes: Played his first full season as a Champions Tour member and finished seventh on the money list, with more than $1.4 million in earnings, thanks to 12 top-10 finishes that included six performances where he placed third or better including a win at the 3M Championship. He was runner-up at Allianz Championship and the Greater Gwinnett ionship. Was third at the ACE Group Classic, Mississippi Gulf Resort and Encompass Championship.

2014 Notes: Had perhaps his finest season in professional golf, claiming multiple titles in a season for the first time. Winnings of over $1.5 million were a Champions Tour personal best, and he secured the fifth spot on the Charles Schwab Cup points list, earning a $100,000 annuity. Became the last of seven multiple winners when he won the season ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, defeating Jay Haas on the fourth hole of a sudden-death playoff at Desert Mountain Club in Scottsdale. In early June, won his third career victory at The Principal Charity Classic, defeating Doug Garwood on the second hole of a playoff. Was the low American at The Senior Open Championship in Wales. After shooting 78 the first day, improved by 14 shots in Round 2 with a course-record 64 at Royal Porthcawl. Steady play on the weekend moved him into a T-3rd, his personal best in a senior major. Shot the low round of his career in the opening round at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship, a 12-under-par 60 at Kapolei G.C. The round included 12 birdies, which matched the Champions Tour 18-hole record. However, followed with rounds of 72-70 to finish T-7th.

2015 Notes: Had another nice showing in Arizona just months after capturing the 2014 Charles Schwab Cup Championship when he finished T-4th at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March. Also T-4th at the rain-shortened Greater Gwinnett ionship. Was T-9th at the Regions Tradition, T-7th at the Senior PGA Championship and T-5th at the Principal Charity Classic.

Started playing golf when he was seven years old, when his father first showed him the game. He played his first competitive competition at 11, and went on to win the 1978 Kentucky State High School Championship. In 1995, Perry bought 142 acres of land and borrowed more than $2.5 million to design and build the only public course in his hometown, called Country Creek. He designed it for mid-to-high handicappers and has kept it affordable. Member of the 1996, 2003, '05 & '09 Presidents Cup teams and the 2004 & '08 Ryder Cup teams. Member of the PGA Tour from 1987 to the present, playing 613 events and making 451 cuts, having 104 top-10 finishes with 10 runner-up finishes. Has earned $31.7 million on just the PGA Tour. Since 1987 has never been out of the top 125 of the money list and only outside of the top 100 once, in 2006, when he had surgery on his right knee.

2011 Notes: Split time between the PGA Tour and Champions Tour, making 10 appearances on the senior circuit. Was among the top-10 seven times and late in the year, experienced a bittersweet first career win on the Champions Tour when he won the SAS Championship one day after his sister Kay passed away from breast cancer. Win in Cary, N.C., came in his 11th career Champions Tour start and made him the fourth player in SAS history to claim his first title at the event. Also became the fifth of six first-time winners on the 2011 Champions Tour. Made 13 PGA Tour appearances, making five cuts. Best finish T-38th at Viking Classic, also finished T-39th at The Players Championship in May and was T-39th at The Greenbrier Classic during the summer.

2012 Notes: Finished in the top 10 in half of his 18 starts on the Champions Tour but registered just one victory early in the season. Ran away from the field at The ACE Group Classic, claiming his second career Champions Tour title by five strokes over Bernhard Langer. Finished second to Michael Allen at the Encompass Insurance Pro-Am in Tampa. Closed with a 64 at TPC Twin Cities to finish T-3 at the 3M Championship, three strokes back of Bernhard Langer. At Harbor Shores in Benton Harbor, Michigan, set the 18-hole Senior PGA Championship scoring record with a 62 in the final round, finished ninth. Made only five PGA Tour starts, the first time he had less than 13 appearances on that tour since 1987. Best effort was a T-29th at the Transitions Championship. Teamed with Sean O'Hair to win the Franklin Templeton Shootout by one stroke over Charles Howell III and Rory Sabbatini. It was his third victory in the event. He was a 2005 winner with John Huston and a 2008 winner with Scott Hoch.

2013 Notes: Was a banner year which led him to win the Champions Tour Player of the Year. Played in 20 events, winning three times with two of them the U.S. Senior Open and the Constellation Senior Players being majors. The last win was at the end of the year in a playoff at the AT&T Championship. Also had three runner-up finishes and was second in earnings. Also played three times on the PGA Tour making two cuts, best finish T-33rd at the HP Byron Nelson. Making the year even more powerful was the fact that after the ACE Group Classic in February underwent surgery on his left-knee for a torn meniscus and was out of action until mid-April.

2014 Notes: Continued his streak of winning senior majors with a victory at the Regions Tradition. The streak was broken the next week when he finished T-13th at the Senior PGA Championship. Finished fourth at the Constellation Senior Players Championship, his six top-ten finish of the year. Broke that streak with a T-14th at the U.S. Senior Open. Won again at the 3M Championship he finished the year with nine top-tens, 4th in the Schwab Rankings and fifth on the money list.

In 2015 lost a playoff to Ian Woosnam at the Insperity Invitational and was T-5th at the Regions Tradition. Played in more events on the PGA Tour, best finish T-16th at the AT&T Byron Nelson.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 22

Grew up in Southern Illinois, across the Ohio River from fellow Champions Tour player Russ Cochran, who lives in Paducah, Ky. Member of the Web.com Tour in 1991, 1994, 1999, 2000 and then again between 2007 and 2011. Played in a total of 168 events, making 96 cuts and finishing in the top-10 21 times. His best year was in 2000 when he finished 10th on the money list to get his PGA Tour card for 2001. Won twice, was runner-up twice and finished third three times that season.

Played full-time on the PGA Tour in 1987, '92, '98, 2001, '02, '03, '04, '06 and '08. Played in 224 PGA Tour events, making 109 cuts. Finished in the top 10 three times and his best finish was T-5th in the 2006 John Deere Classic. In his nine PGA Tour seasons, his best year was 2001, when he finished 140th on the money list.

2012 Notes: Was among four players who finished T-4th at the Champions Tour Q-School. After Jim Rutledge claimed the fourth position on the first extra hole of the overtime, he secured the fifth spot with a birdie on the third playoff hole, edging Chie-Hsiang Lin and Esteban Toledo. Lone appearance on the PGA TOUR was a T-54th at the Reno-Tahoe Open. Also made two starts on the Web.com Tour, missing the cut at the Albertson's Boise Open and finishing T-37th at the Winn-Dixie Jacksonville Open.

2013 Notes: Prepped for the Champions Tour by playing in four Web.com Tour events. Missed the cut at both the Panama Claro Championship and Columbia Championship before finishing T-22nd at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open. Also withdrew from the WNB Golf Classic in Texas after an opening-round 75. Made his Champions Tour debut at the inaugural Encompass Championship and finished T-26th. Did not gain a full exemption to the Champions Tour until midway through the season but made an impact quickly, winning the Boeing Classic near Seattle in just his fifth start. Then, despite only playing 12 events, he finished 28th on the money list with three top 10's, including a pair in October. Used an 8-under-par 64 on Saturday to forge a three-stroke lead at the Boeing Classic and his final-round 68 included birdies on three of the last four holes for his two-stroke victory over John Cook. Vaulted into the top 30 for good when he placed fifth at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic in late October. One week later, sealed a spot in the top 30 when he posted a closing-round, 5-under-par 67 at the AT&T Championship to earn a T-6th finish.

2014 Notes: A year after finishing in the top 30 and earning his first victory, he slipped 17 spots on the final money list, from 28th to 45th. Best showing came in March when he posted three consecutive sub-par scores to finish T-6th at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. Went back to Champions Tour Q-School and managed to earn conditional status for 2015. After tying for the sixth spot with Jim Rutledge, one stroke out of the all-important top five, he placed seventh when Rutledge made birdie on the first playoff hole.

In 2015 started the year with a T-17th at the Mitsubishi Electric, his only top-25 finish of the year.

Did not start to play golf seriously until he was 16 years old. In high school he played a lot of tennis and baseball until his golf coach convinced him to concentrate on golf. After high school, attended Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo, where he played varsity golf for two years before the school dropped its golf program. He then turned professional and worked as an assistant at San Luis Obispo Country Club. Credited his victory in the 1979 FootJoy PGA Assistant Professional Championship for jump-starting his career.

Regarded as one of the hardest workers on tour, as well as one of the best putters, he had been in the top 100 of the money list every year between 1988 and 2005. Prior to his win in the 1994 Nestle Invitational, he was the leading money-winner on the PGA Tour without a victory. Almost pulled a double victory in 1994 when he lost in the playoff for the U.S. Open. He is nicknamed "Boss of the Moss" for his great putting skills. Roberts has had to deal with problems with a bulging disc in his back the last several years. Missed the Masters in 1998 when he broke ribs while sneezing.

Member of 1995 Ryder Cup Team and 1994 and 2000 Presidents Cup Teams.

Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1981 and 2005, in 633 events played won eight times, was runner-up 10 times, third, 10 times and finished in the top 10 94 times. Had earnings of $15.2 million.

When he turned 50 he made a smooth transition to the Champions Tour, where he has won 13 times in 144 events. Since his first full season on tour in 2006, has finished in the top 10 in yearly earnings every year but 2011 when he finished 21st in a season when he suffered trouble with shoulder and upper back.

2012 Notes: Showed that he is healthy again won in 2012 at the Toshiba Classic. Also had 15 other top-25 finishes to go with the win for the year.

2013 Notes: Saw his string of top-30 money-list finishes end at eight consecutive years when he slipped to 35th. Posted just two top 10s in 21 starts and was in the top 25 just eight times, fewest in his Champions Tour career. Played in the final group Sunday at the In斯perity Championship in May. His even-par 72 in the final round led to a T-4th finish, his best effort since winning the 2012 Toshiba Classic. His other top-10 finish did not come until September when he finished eighth at the Montreal Championship.

2014 Notes: Slipped to 48th on the final money list, with earnings totaling $347,083. Had three top 10s, was two strokes off the lead after 36 holes of the Quebec Championship and carded a final-round 71 to finish T-7th. Had his initial top-10 finish in his fourth start of the year when he was T-10th at the Toshiba Classic. Also T-10th at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach when he birdied four of his last six holes to post a 7-under 65, equaling the low round of the tournament.

2015 Notes: Teamed with Mark Wiebe to finish T-3rd at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April. The pair was 12 under par on the par-3 Top of the Rock Course.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 11

Senior hosts an annual Pro-Am to raise funds for the cancer research unit at the Royal Brisbane Children's Hospital. The event has raised more than $1.2 million. While living in Singapore, his dad introduced him to golf with a starter set to keep him out of trouble.

Earned exempt status for the 2010 Champions Tour after claiming medalist honors at the 2009 National Qualifying tournament at the TPC Scottsdale in Arizona. Trained Steve Haskins by five strokes after 54 holes, but his final-round 66 earned a three-stroke win on the Champions Course. After making double bogey on the ninth hole, he fell out of the top five. Five birdies over his last nine holes was good enough to best Haskins, Ronnie Black and Joe Ozaki. Was the first Australian to claim medalist honors at the Qualifying tournament and the eighth international player to finish first at the event.

After turning 50 at the end of July, made three appearances on the European Senior Tour and posted top-five efforts in all three events. Finished second to Tony Johnstone at the Travis Perkins Senior Masters and tied for second behind England's Peter Mitchell in the Casa Serena Open in Prague, Czech Republic. Debuted on the circuit with a fourth-place finish in the Scottish Senior Open. Also lost in a playoff to Michael Harwood at the Australian Senior Open at Royal Perth after being up four strokes after 54 holes. His biggest accomplishment was perhaps in November of 2010 when he won the Australian PGA Championship for the third time.

2011 Notes: Came close to earning his first Champions Tour win, finishing as runner-up three times (twice in playoffs) and third once, one stroke out of a playoff. Along with Tom Lehman, finished second in top 10s, with 12 in his 22 appearances. As a result, he made $600,000 more than he made in his Champions Tour rookie year, finishing seventh on the final money list. Earnings of $1,434,119 marked the third highest money total in a season without the benefit of a victory and he became the first player ever to register two bogey-free events in the same season's Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn (T-29) and the AT&T Championship (fifth).

2012 Notes: Played in all 23 Champions Tour events and went over the seven-figure mark in official money for the second straight year. Was among the top-10 10 times, including his fifth career second-place finish (third loss in a playoff) as well as two third-place showings. A year after failing to hold on to his 36-hole lead at the Allianz Championship, suffered further frustration at the event, losing in a one-hole playoff to Corey Pavin in Boca Raton. Was among the early leaders at the Encompass Insurance Pro-Am and then closed with a final-round 67 at the TPC Tampa Bay to finish third, five strokes in back of Michael Allen. Was the 18-hole leader in the inaugural Pacific Links Hawaii Championship and used four straight birdies to close out his final round Sunday and move up into a third-place finish. Finished with a career-low 63 in the final round of the Senior PGA Championship to place T-4th at Harbor Shores. His back-nine score of 28 was a Senior PGA nine-hole record. Also was T-4th at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, where he was in the mix on the back nine until a double bogey at No. 14 ended his chances. Among four players tied for the first-round lead at the 3M Championship after a 65 that saw him card nine birdies and he eventually was T-7th in Minnesota. Was 3 over after the first 36 holes of the U.S. Senior Open but shot 66-68 on the weekend at Indianwood to move into a T-9th. Went a stretch during the summer and fall season where he had four top 10s in five events and also had a stretch where he was only over par once in six tournaments (18 rounds).

The Aussie claimed one of the prized events in his homeland when he survived gale-force winds in his final round for a one-stroke victory over Brendan Jones at the Emirates Australian Open at The Lake G.C. in Sydney. The win at age 53 made him the oldest winner of the tournament, breaking Peter Thomson's mark set in 1972 when he was 43. It was his second victory in the event, with the first coming in 1989. One month earlier at the Talisker Masters in Melbourne, opened 74-74 at Kingston Heath G.C. then came back strong on the weekend with a 68-68 to finish T-6th. Won the Australasian Tour's Order of Merit, which earned him berths in the 2013 WGC-Cadillac Championship and the British Open at Muirfield.

2013 Notes: Was in the top 10 in nine of his 25 Champions Tour starts. Was the most prolific active player without a win on the senior circuit. In his first four years he had won just over $4.5 million without a victory. Each of his four years on the Champions Tour has had a runner-up finish. In 2013 it came in the year's final event the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Also finished T-3rd in The Senior Open Championship. At the end of the year came back and played in Australia, finishing T-45th at the Australian PGA Championship, T-16th at the Talisker Masters and missing the cut at the Emirates Australian Open. Also played in the Ned-bank Challenge finishing 30th.

2014 Notes: Suffered through a somewhat frustrating year after several ailments. First came at the beginning of the year with a foot injury which forced him to ride a cart. Saw his string of top-30 money-list finishes come to an end when he dropped from 13th to 44th on the earnings' chart. Earned $383,551 after three consecutive years of pocketing more than $1 million and four straight seasons in the top 30. Only had two top 10s, first when he finished T-9th in the U.S. Senior Open at Oak Tree National in Oklahoma. After that week his second injury started popping up as he felt soreness in his shoulder. A month later, added another T-9th finish at the 3M Championship. Ended the season as the player with the most career earnings without a victory ($4,867,528). Missed the three major events in his native Australia (Masters, Open and PGA) for the first time in 30 years due to his shoulder bothering him and even though he didn't need surgery to fix the shoulder he hurt over the summer lifting suitcases he wasn't able to play golf the last two months of the year to heal a torn muscle.

2015 Notes: Made his comeback in the ACE Group Classic finishing T-67th. Best finish of the year T-10th Principal Charity Classic.

Short was born, raised and has lived his entire life in Austin, Texas. He attended the University of Texas and he is married to Gail Elizabeth Hardy. They have one daughter together, Elizabeth Ann Short.

Short became a professional golfer in 1987. He worked as a club pro in the Austin area before becoming a tour professional in 1997. He started out on the mini-tours and eventually qualified for the Web.com Tour for the 1998 season. He was a member of the Web.com Tour again in 2002-03 and has played a total of 96 events on that tour. His best finish on that Tour was a T-2nd at The Reese's Cup Classic in 2003. After that year, he went and finished T-7th at the PGA Tour Q-School.

Finally earned the opportunity to play on the PGA Tour in 2004 as a 40-year-old rookie. That year wasn't very successful as he finished 222nd on the money list. Since he didn't go back to the qualifying tournament, he had to play in Monday qualifiers in 2005. His only PGA Tour win came in 2005 at the Michelin Championship at Las Vegas, where he defeated Jim Furyk at the second hole in a sudden-death playoff. The win was also notable because Short was an alternate and it was only his 26th PGA Tour event. After the victory he struggled, finishing 161st on the money list in 2006 and then 232nd in 2007. At this time he started to educe back problems which hampered him from playing to any degree of perfection between 2007 and 2012.

He attempted to restart his PGA Tour career in 2013. Short made the cut in the 2013 Shell Houston Open, his first on the PGA since 2007. He was unable to satisfy his medical extension, making five cuts in 15 events, and was demoted to Priority Ranking 32, which represents past champions and veterans outside the top 150 on the previous season's money list. The good news of 2013 was that he went to Champions Tour Q-School and tied the 72-hole record of 20-under-par 264 and waltzed to a five-stroke win over Jim Rutledge and Mike Reid on the Champions course, thus becoming fully exempt on the Champions Tour in 2014.

2014 Notes: Had seven top-10 finishes, six of them coming after July. Finished his rookie season 18th on the money list, with earnings of more than $900,000. Had his three best performances of the season in consecutive events in late summer. After shooting 65-64 on the weekend in Calgary and finishing fifth at the Shaw Charity Classic, won the Quebec Championship the following week, becoming the fourth of five rookies to win during the year. Came from three strokes back with a birdie-birdie-eagle finish to overtake Scott Dunlap by a shot. His hybrid second shot from 251 yards and subsequent eagle putt from 8 feet made him the first player since Bernhard Langer at the 2010 Allianz Championship to eagle the final hole for victory. Win was his first in almost nine years. Put together three more rounds in the 60s in his next start to claim a sixth-place finish in the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship. In 2015, started off finishing T-5th at the Mitsubishi Electric, then was T-4th at the Tucson Conquistadores.

Got started in golf through his father, Joe, who was an accomplished amateur player. Father lost to Bo Williams in the final of the 1989 USGA Senior Amateur at Lochinvar in Houston. Played on victorious USA Walker Cup Team in 1977 and was an NCAA champion and All-American selection at USC in 1976 and '77. Was one of the first PGA Tour players to live in Hawaii and commute, but travel got to be too much and he moved back to San Diego in 1994.

Played on the PGA Tour regularly from 1979-2005. Had 600 career starts with seven wins, 15 runner-ups, 10 third-place and 77 top-10 finishes. Accumulated earnings of over $6.8 million. One of the most consistent players on tour, he finished in the top 125 on the money list between 1979 and 1996 and in 11 of those years was in the top 50.

His biggest victory came at the 1987 U.S. Open, where he trailed Tom Watson by one stroke heading into the final round at The Olympic Club. He closed with a 68, which included three birdies on the back nine and that was good for a one-stroke victory. Also won the Greater Greensboro Open that year on way to a fourth-place finish on the money list, his highest ranking ever.

Lost an 18-hole playoff to Payne Stewart in the 1991 U.S. Open at Hazeltine National. Last Tour victory came in the 1998 Buick Invitational, when he defeated Skip Kendall with a birdie on the first playoff hole. Posted a final-round 64 and came from eight strokes back entering the final round, at the time matching the PGA Tour's best comeback since 1970. Victory came with former San Diego Chargers quarterback Stan Humphries on his bag.

His first tour victory came in 1980 Western Open, by five strokes over Andy Bean. Won second tournament on Tour by five strokes as well at the 1984 Manufacturers Hanover Westchester Classic. Defeated Bob Tway in playoff to win the 1989 BellSouth Atlanta Classic. Was unable to play on the PGA Tour in 2000 due to a broken ankle he suffered while skiing during the New Year's holiday. Underwent surgery in August 2000, which involved placing seven screws into the ankle.

Earned first and only Champions Tour victory at the 2006 Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. In 2011, played in all 21 official events for which he was eligible but did not post a top-10 finish for the first time for six full Champions Tour seasons.

2012 Notes: Played in 20 events, finishing in the top 25 twice. Teamed with Loren Roberts to finish T-13th in the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. Was T-24th at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn.

2013 Notes: Was 64th on the money list in 23 starts. Only top 10 came in March when he closed with a 65 on Sunday at the Toshiba Classic to move into a T-8th. It was his best Champions Tour finish since a T-6th in the 2010 First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

2014 Notes: Top-10 finish in 21 starts came in September when he was on the leaderboard through 36 holes of the Quebec Championship. Contended early in the final round at La Tempete before eventually posting a 71 and placing T-10th. Teamed with Wayne Levi for a T-15th finish at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 19

Born in Fort Knox, Ky., where his father was serving in the Army. Has lived in New York for most of his life. He was a childhood friend and high school golf rival of fellow Champions Tour player Mike Hulbert. As an 18-year-old in 1976, teamed with Hulbert to defeat newly appointed Syracuse University basketball coach Jim Boeheim and his partner to win the C.C. of Ithaca best-ball event. Struck up a lasting friendship with Boeheim and remains a huge Syracuse fan.

Attended Ohio State and while there was a distinguished member of the school's golf team. A three-time All-America selection, member of the 1979 NCAA Championship team, and Ohio State's Athlete of the Year in 1981. He was inducted into the Ohio State Varsity Hall of Fame in 1992. Son Jamie plays golf at Ohio State.

Won the last of his seven PGA Tour titles in the 2004 Wachovia Championship in a two-hole playoff over Arron Oberholser. This win ended a span of 370 events since his previous Tour win, the 1990 Hardee's Classic. Collected the winner's check of $1,008,000 to surpass the $1-million mark in a single season for the first time in his 22-year career. Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1984 and 2007. In 699 events played, he won seven times, was runner-up nine times, third eight times and finished in the top 10 83 times. Had accumulated earnings of $11.2 million.

Had a banner season on the Champions Tour in 2009, going over the $1 million mark and falling just short of $2 million in earnings. Was runner-up in the 2009 U.S. Senior Open at Crooked Stick and earned a spot in the Champions Tour's season-ending event, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, but was forced to withdraw early in the third round with a pulmonary embolism.

2010 Notes: Teamed with former Ohio State teammate John Cook to finish second to Mark O'Meara and Nick Price in the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April. The two teams finished the 54-hole event tied at 28-under-par 188, but despite not making a bogey in regulation, the pair each bogeyed the second playoff hole to finish second.

2011 Notes: Finished among the top-30 money-winners for a fourth consecutive year and played his best golf in the middle part of the season when he was among the top eight four times in a stretch of five appearances. Was in contention on the back nine at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open and eventually finished T-4th at En-Joie GC. Followed his effort the next week with three more rounds in the 60s and a third-place finish at the Montreal Championship. He enjoyed a successful return to Ohio for July's U.S. Senior Open at Inverness, finishing T-4th on the strength of four straight under-par scores. The following week, was T-8th in the 3M Championship on the strength of a final-round 65 at the TPC Twin Cities. Was out of action for just over a month with a lower-back injury. Initially was forced to withdraw from the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf after the first round and teammate John Cook subsequently withdrew from the better-ball team event. Did not return to the circuit until early June at The Principal Charity Classic in Iowa where he finished T-16th.

2012 Notes: Made just 15 starts during the year, the fewest in a season on the Champions Tour, and missed on a chance to finish in the top 30 because of chronic back trouble. Last appearance of the year came at the SAS Championship where he withdrew prior to completing the first round. Underwent back surgery on Nov. 1 at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York. Came close to posting his first career Champions Tour win when he and teammate John Cook finished one stroke shy of the winning team of Michael Allen-David Frost in the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in Savannah.

2013 Notes: Spent most of the season working to regain his form after undergoing back surgery in November 2012. Made two starts early in the year before missing more than four months with the back issue. Returned in late June, at the Constellation Senior Players Championship, and played a dozen events after his return. Best showing came near his home when he was T-30th at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open after successive rounds of 70.

2014 Notes: Played his first full season in more than a year as he continued his comeback following back surgery in November 2012. His 23 starts were the most since 2010. In those 23 starts, his lone top 10 came in October, finishing T-10th at the SAS Championship. Was 55th on the money list and 77th in Schwab rankings.

2015 Notes: Teamed with his former Ohio State teammate John Cook for a T-5th finish at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf.

Started playing golf with his family at the young age of 4. Turned professional after his senior year at Florida State when he won the Metro Conference title. Earned his Tour card in fall of 1982, but finished 171st on the money list in 1983 and was forced to return to Q-School. Regained his Tour card in 1984 and won the 1985 Tallahassee Open when it was part of the Tournament Players Series. Finished in the top 100 of the money list between 1985 and 2006. In 1987, lost the Tournament Players Championship in a three-hole playoff with Sandy Lyle and finished the year winning $335,590 (ranked 27th). In 1988, shot a final-round 65 to win the PGA Championship by three strokes over Paul Azinger, propelling him to his fourth-best season to date, winning $503,321 (ranked 18th). Before his win in the 1998 Tucson Classic, he had won more money than anybody else in the 1990s, without a win. Has been a Chicago Bulls season ticket holder since 1996 and loves Formula 1 auto racing. Is a big fan of the Florida State Seminoles, Chicago Bears and Chicago Cubs. Serious wine collector, owns about 2,000 bottles, dating back to 1957. Co-owner with Dudley Hart of Lakeshore Golf Club in Rochester, N.Y., a course he played regularly growing up. Good friend of 1986 Indianapolis 500 winner Bobby Rahal.

Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1983 and 2007 and in 700 events played, won six times, was runner-up 15 times, finished third 10 times and finished in the top 10 105 times. Had accumulated earnings of $18.2 million.

In 2011, reclaimed a spot among the top-10 money-winners after a year's absence, finishing sixth on the money list for the second time in the last three seasons. Along with Rod Spittle, played in all 24 official events. Won his fourth career title overall and his third in the last four years in early July, at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Victory was his third in the last four years on the Monterey Peninsula.

2012 Notes: For the second consecutive year, played in every event and was among the top 10 in a third of his 24 appearances, highlighted by two third-place efforts in a span of three tournaments during the spring. Best finish was T-3rd at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. Then the following month he and teammate Brad Faxon earned a T-3rd finish at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in Savannah.

2013 Notes: Won his fifth career Champions Tour title when he and teammate Brad Faxon were one-stroke victors over the teams of Fred Funk-Mike Goodes and Kenny Perry-Gene Sauers in the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in Savannah in April. With his $230,000 first-prize check, he surpassed the $25-million mark in career earnings in PGA Tour event. For the third straight year, played in every Champions Tour event and was among the top-20 on the money list for the fifth consecutive season as he finished the year 16th on the money list.

2014 Notes: Missed just one event during the year and it came late in the season in the AT&T Championship, ending a streak of Champions Tour appearances at 102 consecutive dating to when he skipped the 2010 Ensure Classic. Had a victory and two second-place finishes during the season, earning more than $1.2 million, the largest amount he's made in a season since 2011. Had a big month in June that extended into mid-July when he was among the top six in four straight events. Started stretch with the highlight of his season when he was able to defend his title at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf, teaming with a new partner (Fred Funk) to prevail in a tight battle with Jay Haas-Peter Jacobsen. Later in the month, finished second to Bernhard Langer in the Constellation Senior Players Championship losing on the second hole of a playoff. Was T-5th in his next start in mid-July, at the U.S. Senior Open at Oak Tree National in Oklahoma, site of his 1988 PGA Championship victory. For the year finished ninth on the money list and seventh in Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Fell short in his bid for a third consecutive title at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. He and teammate Tom Lehman finished T-5th at Big Cedar Lodge. A closing-round 5-under-par 67 led to a T-6th at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic. Was T-7th at the Senior PGA Championship.

The California native lives in Denver and is an ardent fan of the NHL's Colorado Avalanche. Son Kevin turned professional and won the 2002 Colorado Open in a playoff with his father as his caddie. After playing on the Web.com Tour in 2004 and 2006, Kevin is now a PGA Tour member. Kevin won the 2006 Johnnie Walker Classic on the European Tour and, at one time, was exempt on that tour as well. Younger son, Chris, played college football at Lake Forest College in Illinois and served as his father's caddie when Craig won the B.C. Open in 2003.

Craig was a two-time All-American selection at USC. Defeated David Strawn to win the 1973 U.S. Amateur at Inverness and was a member of the 1975 U.S. Walker Cup team. Won 13 times on the PGA Tour, with his biggest triumph coming at the 1982 Masters. After opening with a 75, came back to win at Augusta National in a playoff over Dan Pohl. His B.C. Open win came seven years after his previous win at the 1996 Nissan Open. In 1992, captured the NEC World Series of Golf by one stroke over Corey Pavin, 10 years after winning the same event. In 1982, made up five strokes with a closing 65, then defeated Raymond Floyd in a playoff. Was the PGA Tour's leading money-winner in 1982, thanks to four victories, his personal best for a single season. Finished second on the money list in 1991 after winning the Tour Championship in a playoff with Russ Cochran at Pinehurst No. 2. Shot the low round of his career, an 11-under 61, on the final day of the 1990 Scandinavian Enterprise Open to win by four strokes over Craig Parry.

Played full time on the PGA Tour between 1976 and 2003. In 651 events, he won 13 times, was runner-up 19 times, finished third 16 times and finished in the top 10 137 times. Had accumulated earnings of $10 million. Best year was in 1982, when he was the leading money-winner ($446,462).

Has eight career victories in 218 career Champions Tour events.

2012 Notes: Made 17 Champions Tour starts and had a pair of top-10 finishes for the first time since 2010: a seventh at Montreal Championship and a T-7th at the 3M Championship. Finished the season 57th on the money list with $223,253 in earnings.

2013 Notes: Earned a spot among the top 30 (27th) on the money list for the first time since 2008, thanks largely to a surprise victory midway through the year at the inaugural Encompass Championship. The victory in Illinois was his ninth career Champions Tour title and ended a winless drought of 8 years, 8 months, 28 days, an all-time Champions Tour record for longest time between victories (previous mark was held by J.C. Snead, at 6 years, 11 months, 7 days between the 1995 Ford Senior Players and the 2002 Greater Baltimore Classic). Also became the 21st winner over age 60 and the first since Bob Gilder, at the 2011 Principal Charity Classic. It was the biggest of his four top-10 finishes, the most he's had in a year since 2008.

2014 Notes: Competed in his 38th Masters, but did not make the cut. Said that his Masters start was his last. His son Kevin, who won earlier in the year, also played in the Masters, making it the last major championship to have a father-son duo play in the same event (only time to happen at the Masters). Had a top-10 finish, third, when he teamed up with Kirk Triplett at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf.

2012 Notes: Played the season on a Major Medical Extension. Made only four starts before shutting his season down due to a neck injury in February after AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. 2013 Notes: Made six of 13 PGA Tour cuts but failed to clear his Major Medical Extension. Did not have a top-10 for a third consecutive season. Finished 186th in the FedExCup standings and 176th on the money list. He will again be playing 2014 under the past champion category.

2014 Notes: Joined the Champions Tour midway through the season after turning 50 in July and made his debut at the U.S. Senior Open finishing T-38th when he played on a special exemption from the USGA. Made Champions Tour history when in his ninth career round, he carded a 13-under-par 59 on Saturday at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, the first sub-60 score in the history of the Champions Tour. Was 11-under for his first 11 holes, eventually making 12 birdies and an eagle along with a bogey at the final hole. Shot 9-under 28 on the first nine, tying the all-time Champions Tour record in relation to par (Jay Sigel, 9-under 27 at the 1998 Bell Atlantic Classic). His run of seven birdies and an eagle on the first nine also tied Sigel's all-time mark for the best birdie-eagle stretch in Tour history. Took a one-stroke lead into the final round but shot 74 Sunday to eventually finish T-7th. Best finish of the year came at the SAS Championship he finished T-5th. Ended the year 46th on the final money list and Schwab rankings in just 10 starts.

2015 Notes: Made a brief run up the leader board during Sunday's final round at The ACE Group Classic, finishing 6 under par on his front nine. Could not maintain his momentum and finished with a 6-under-par 66 to finish sixth. At the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic was the 36 hole leader but fell back on the back nine to finish T-2nd along with Tom Lehman one shot back of David Frost. Has played great in the senior majors this year, at the Regions Tradition was runner-up losing a playoff to Jeff Maggert. The next week finished T-13th at the Senior PGA Championship and T-10th at Constellation Senior Players.

TAL TARTAGLIA (a)

Birth Date: July 16, 1963

Birthplace: San Luis Obispo, Calif.

Age: 51 Ht.: 5'10" Wt.: 210

Home: Kingsburg, Calif.

College: College of the Sequoias

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: He shot 72 at Crystallaire Country Club in Llano, Calif., to earn one of three qualifying spots.

Tartaglia attended the College of the Sequoias in Visalia, Calif., where he played football and golf. He met his wife, Stacy, a cheerleader at that time, there.

Tartaglia learned to play golf at 5 years old. The local pro at Morro Bay Golf course gave free lessons to kids every Saturday.

Tartaglia says his brother was always better at golf than he was. His brother played one year at the University of Nevada with Kirk Triplett. Tartaglia says he cared more about football and wrestling and jokingly says "I guess the cheerleaders." Tartaglia added that he admired how good his brother was at the game and how hard he worked. "It still inspires me today as I play golf," Tartaglia says.

Tartaglia said he didn't start playing competitive golf until 2010, because he was too busy raising a family. He qualified for the 2013 U.S. Mid-Amateur, but didn't advance to match play.

He has a family farm where he grows peaches, plums and jokingly adds "children."

He loves to hunt and fish. He has enjoyed teaching all seven of his children to do both.

Family: Stacy Tartaglia (wife), Tarin Brown (daughter, 28), Todd Brown (son-in-law), Ford Brown (grandson, 2), Poppy Brown (granddaughter, 7 months), Shelby Jackson (daughter), Wade Jackson (son-in-law), Will Jackson (grandson, 1), Tyler Tartaglia (son and caddie, 22), Shae Tartaglia (daughter, 19), Josh Tartaglia (son, 12), Frankie Tartaglia (son, 10), Alex Tartaglia (son, 8).

He is playing in his first U.S. Senior Open.

LANCE TEN BROECK

Birth Date: March 21, 1956

Birthplace: Chicago, Ill.

Age: 59 Ht.: 6'3" Wt.: 195

Home: Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

College: Texas

Turned Professional: 1977

Joined PGA Tour: 1980

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 11

Ten Broeck was born in Chicago and grew up in Beverly, Ill., a community on the southwest side. He attended the University of Texas, and was a member of the golf team from 1975 to 1976. He was a two-time All-America selection and winner of the Mas-sengill Trophy in 1975. He turned pro in 1977.

Broeck played in 349 PGA Tour events in his career, making the cut 159 times and added 10 top-10 finishes. His best finish in an official PGA Tour event was a stand-alone second in the 1991 Chattanooga Classic. His best finish in a major was a T-31st in the 1991 U.S. Open. He won the 1984 Magnolia State Classic before that tournament became an official PGA Tour event.

After his playing days were over, he began work as a caddie. His clients have included several big-name players, notably Robert Allenby and Jesper Parnevik. Since he made more than 150 cuts in his career on the PGA Tour, Broeck is exempt from qualifying, although near the bottom of the list in eligibility. He frequently commits to playing in events in which he is scheduled to caddie, just in case the unlikely happens and more players drop out than there are alternates at the course. In 2008, he returned to the PGA Tour for the first time since 1998 in the Legends Reno-Tahoe Open, a tournament played opposite the WGC-Bridgestone Invitational. In May 2009, he caddied for Jesper Parnevik and also played in the Valero Texas Open, where he missed the cut but finished ahead of Parnevik. He attempted to repeat the feat in February 2010 at the Mayakoba Golf Classic at Riviera Maya-Cancun. He caddied for Richard S. Johnson in the morning then played in the afternoon (replacing Notah Begay III). After shooting 5-over-par, he withdrew from playing the second round.

Broeck says that he has earned more in his best season working as a caddie ($235,000) than in his best season as a player ($146,568 in 1989).

Began playing on the Champions Tour in 2008, entering just one event in both '08 and '09. Entered two events in 2010 and his best finish was a T-29th at the Home Care & Hospice First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Did not play in 2011, but entered seven events in 2012, recording one top-10 finish, a T-9th at the U.S. Senior Open. Also added one additional top-25 finish, a T-16th at the 3M Championship.

2013 Notes: He competed in four events with his best finish a T-61st at the U.S. Senior Open. Went back to Champions Q-School and unfortunately didn't get his card after finishing T-18th.

2014 Notes: Played in three Champions Tour events, T-14th at the U.S. Senior Open, T-77th at Nature Valley First Tee and T-47th at AT&T Championship.

Finished 72 holes in a T-4th but he first lost out with a par on the first playoff hole and then lost out for the sixth spot in a playoff.

2013 Notes: On Cinco de Mayo, became the first player from Mexico to win on the Champions Tour when he claimed the Insuperity Championship near Houston. Defeated Mike Goodes and Gene Sauers in a playoff, and the win came in his ninth career Champions Tour start. Added a second title in early September when he chipped in from 35 feet on the third playoff hole to defeat Kenny Perry at the Montreal Championship. Started the final round four strokes behind 36-hole leader Bernhard Langer and trailed Perry by two late in the final round. Playing in a group one ahead of Perry, he made a birdie at No. 16 to pull within one, and minutes later, Perry dropped into a tie after a bogey at No. 17, leaving the pair tied at 5-under-par 211 at the end of regulation. After each made pars on No. 18 twice, he chipped in for the win at No. 10 for the win. Played 25 times and had nine top-10's. Finished 12th on the money list with earnings 2014 Notes: Managed to sneak into the top-30 money-winners at the final full-field event of the season, the AT&T Championship. Birdied his final three holes to shoot 68 and move into the top 30 on the money list to claim a spot at the season finale, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, bumping Rocco Mediate from the field.

His best finish came in early September when he was the 36-hole co-leader at the Quebec Championship but carded a final-round 71 to finish T-3rd in defense of his title. At the Insuperity Invitational finished 4th and a T-6th finish at the Encompass Championship. For the year was 27th on the money list and 24th in Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Birdied four of his final six holes in the final round and with a bogey-free, 6-under-par 66, finished 3rd at The ACE Group Classic. Turned in his best performance in a senior major when he finished second at the Senior PGA Championship. Battled Colin Montgomerie for most of the final round, getting within a stroke of the lead twice, before eventually finishing four back on The Pete Dye Course at French Lick Resort. Performance in Indiana was his best since winning in Canada in 2013.

When he was going to college, his goal was to be an engineer and he never thought about being a professional golfer. He earned his degree in civil engineering but decided to try golf for a while. It was a tough haul after he turned professional in 1985, since he didn't make it through Q-school and was forced to play on the Australasian, Asian and Canadian Tours before getting his PGA Tour card in 1989. Between 1990 and 2004 never dropped out of the top-125 and in 10 of those years, never finished higher than 65th. Problems arose in 2005 when an elbow injury required surgery on damaged tendons. This led to other injuries that hampered him in 2009, some of the reasons why he hasn't finished in the top 125 of the money list since 2007.

Best season was in 2000, when he finished 11th on the money list with just over $2 million in earnings. He got his first of three wins at the Nissan Open in Los Angeles. Also was a member of the 2000 Presidents Cup Team.

Played on the PGA Tour between 1990 and 2011 with 501 starts and making the cut 330 times along with finishing in the top-10 67 times. Won three times, was runner-up eight times and finished 3rd eight times; ultimately earning $14.1 million.

Highlight of his 2011 season was making history with his first Web.com Tour victory in late August at the News Sentinel Open in Knoxville. At 49 years, 4 months, 25 days, became the oldest player to win on that circuit, and his 21-under 267 total was two strokes better than Marco Dawson. Only other top-15 finish in 10 Web.com Tour appearances was a T-12th at the BMW Charity Pro-Am near Greenville, S.C. Made eight overall starts on the PGA Tour and finished among the top 25 in back-to-back starts in July. Put together four consecutive sub-par scores and was T-18th at the Viking Classic. The week prior at the John Deere Classic, he was T-22nd thanks to a final-round 67 at the TPC Deere Run.

In getting ready for the Champions Tour, played in 18 Web.com Tour events in 2010, '11 & '12. Had four top-10 finishes including a win in the 2011 News Sentinel Open.

Turned 50 in March of 2012 and made his first start at the Encompass Insurance Pro-Am and was in contention on the back nine on Sunday until a pair of double bogeys dropped him into a T-8th finish. Recorded five top 10s in his 18 starts. Got his first Champions Tour victory in his eighth start, coming from four strokes back on the final day to win the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. The victory made him the sixth player to win events on the PGA Tour, Web.com Tour and Champions Tour, becoming the first since Olin Browne joined that group in 2011.

2013 Notes: Teamed up with Craig Stadler for a T-4th finish at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in April. The pair was among the leaders all three days before falling two strokes shy Sunday. Three straight rounds in the 60's led to a T-5th finish to start his year in Hawaii at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship. Later in the year, successfully defended his Nature Valley First Tee Pebble Beach title. With his second straight win at Pebble Beach, it made him the first player to successfully defend a Champions Tour title since Tom Lehman went back to back at the 2011 and 2012 Regions Tradition.

2014 Notes: Earned multiple titles in a season for the first time in his career and also had three other top-three finishes. Earnings of more than $1.4 million were the most he's made in a season since 2004 on the PGA Tour. That year, collected a personal-best $1.5 million. In his second start of the year, won The ACE Group Classic, making a key 6-foot par putt on the 18th hole Sunday to edge Bernhard Langer, Duffy Waldorf and Olin Browne by one shot. In mid-October, became the fifth of seven multiple winners on the 2014 Champions Tour when he recorded a three-shot victory over Tom Lehman at the SAS Championship. His runner-up finishes came at the Encompass Championship and the Greater Hickory Kia Classic.

2015 Notes: Opened the year with a T-11th finish at the Mitsubishi Electric, so far his highest finish for the year.

In 2015 had a T-10th at the Principal Charity Classic, the next week shot a final round 64 at the Constellation Senior Players to finish runner-up six back of winner Bernhard Langer.

Introduced to golf at age 5, following his father and grandfather around course. Played his first tournament at age 7. His son Kevin, the 2005 U.S. Junior Amateur winner, played at Oklahoma State, and has since turned professional. Bob caddied for Kevin in the 2008 U.S. Open at Torrey Pines, where he missed the cut. Has a brother, Scott, who caddies for Scott Verplank.

Longtime member of the PGA Tour, with 683 career starts, eight wins, 11 runner-ups, 10 thirds, and 103 top-10 finishes to his credit from 1981-2009. One of the busiest players on Tour, with at least 20 starts per season from 1985-2008. His best year was 1986, when he won four times and earned PGA Player of the Year honors. Captured the 1986 PGA Championship at Inverness Club in Toledo, Ohio, where he holed a greenside bunker shot on the 72nd hole to defeat Greg Norman, and finished the year second on the PGA Tour money list with $652,780. For the next four years he stayed in the top 50 of the money list, but a slide started in 1991. Finished 52nd in 1991 and the next year dropped to 179th. After another poor year in 1994, Tway came back the following year to record his best year financially. He won his first event in five years, an emotional playoff victory at the MCI Classic. Three-time All-American selection at Oklahoma State and member of two national championship teams in 1978 and 1980, he joined the Champions Tour in 2009.

2011 Notes: Made a strong bid for his first Champions Tour career victory win in June when he was the 18 and 36-hole leader at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn before a closing-round, 1-under-par 71 left him T-8th. The week included an opening-round 9-under-par 63.

2012 Notes: Lone top-10 finish in 21 events was a T-3rd at the Montreal Championship. Was the 36-hole leader at Richelieu Valley after a second-round, 7-under 65 that included a run of six straight birdies, matching the Champions Tour's longest birdie run of the season. Final-round 70 wasn't good enough to hold off a streaking Mark Calcavecchia (64) and he eventually finished five strokes back.

2013 Notes: Played another full schedule and finished 53rd on the money list. Best finish came in June when he played in the final grouping at the inaugural Encompass Championship. But a closing-round 73 at North Shore CC dropped him to a T-10th, his only top-10 of the year.

2014 Notes: Played in 23 of the 24 events for which he was eligible and finished 53rd on the money list. Was second after the opening round at The Senior Open Championship and hung in to eventually finish T-6th at Royal Porthcawl. Performance in Wales was his best in a stroke-play event in more than two years. Also finished T-5th in June at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf along with teammate Tom Pernice, Jr.

In 2015 has played in 11 events, only one top-25 finish T-14th in the Bass Pro Shops Legends.

GRANT WAITE

Birth Date: August 11, 1964

Birthplace: Palmerston, New Zealand

Age: 50 Ht.: 6'0" Wt.: 185

Home: Ocala, Fl.

College: Oklahoma

Turned Professional: 1987

Joined PGA Tour: 1990

PGA Tour Playoff Record: 0-1

Joined Champions Tour: 2014

PGA Tour Victories: 1 - 1993 Booz Allen Classic

Other Victories: 1992 New Zealand Open, Trafalgar Capital Classic. 1992 Utah Open.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot 74, and edged Dwayne Pearman in a 2-for-1 playoff, to earn one of three qualifying spots at Trump International Golf Club in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Waite was born in Palmerston North, New Zealand, but has played most of his golf in America. A three-time All-American at the University of Oklahoma, was twice the Australian Junior champion. A veteran on the PGA Tour, playing full-time on the circuit in 1990 and again from 1993-2004 he has played in 411 events. He has made 205 cuts, been in the top-ten 22 times and along with his win in the 1993 Kemper Open has been runner-up five times. He got his card at Q-School at the end of 1989, finishing T-20th. He played poorly on tour in 1990 and spent the next couple of years roaming the world for a place to play. At the end of 1992 he again finished T-20th at Q-School and in 1993 had a very successful year on tour winning the Kemper Open and finishing 35th on the money list. After 1993 it was a struggle to keep his card but had his most successful year on tour in 2000, he earned $1.15 million and finished 38th on the money list. He came close to winning twice in back to back weeks first at the Air Canada Championship. He finished second on shot back of Rory Sabbatini. The next week at the Canadian Open he again finished 2nd when Tiger Woods pulled off an incredible shot on the final hole from a fairway bunker to beat Waite by a shot. After that Waite struggled and was forced on the Web.Com Tour in 2005. In 106 starts on that tour never finished higher than his T-3rd finish at the 2006 BMW Charity Pro-Am.

At about that time Waite was becoming more popular on tour as a swing guru, helping players like Mike Weir. Waite open up some academies to help folks with their swings, but he decided to give the Champions Tour a run when he turned 50 in August of 2014. He played in three events, in his debut was T-49th at the Quebec Championship, then open-qualified to make the field at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, where he finished T-10th. Then he finished T-38th at the AT&T Championship. After that went to Champions Tour Q-School and finished second, four strokes back of eventual winner Frank Esposito Jr. so he can play on the Champions Tour in 2015.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 18, 19

Received his nickname, "Duffy," from his grandparents when he was small because he tagged along on the golf course, so they called him "Little Duffer." An avid wine collector, Waldorf can often be spotted on the course by his colorful Hawaiian shirts and hat. His family and friends write good-luck wishes on his golf balls that he uses.

As an amateur, won the 1984 California State Amateur and the Broadmoor Invitational. Earned first-team All-America honors at UCLA in 1985 and was the Pac-10 Conference's Player of the Year that same season. Was a member of the 1985 USA Walker Cup Team.

While competing on the PGA Tour from 1987-2012, played in 592 events, winning four and finishing runner-up eight times. He made 369 cuts, finishing in the top10 62 times and earning $11,902,599. His PGA Tour career was sidelined in 2008 with knee problems, which required surgery and forced him to miss the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

2012 Notes: Waldorf made appearances on all three tours, joining the Champions Tour in late August at the Boeing Classic, where he tied for eighth. His best finish was at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, where he finished second. He rallied from four strokes back that Sunday to catch Fred Funk late on the front nine, but Funk birdied the final hole to win the event. Played 11 events on the PGA Tour on a Major Medical Extension (knee surgery). Best effort was a T-21st at the True South Classic. Also made 11 appearances on the Web.com Tour and was in the top 10 twice. Finished tied for second in the TPC Stonebrae Championship, closing his week with a 31 on his final nine holes to challenge for the win. It was his first top 10 in a PGA Tour-sponsored event since a tie for third at the 2006 Chrysler Classic of Tucson on the PGA Tour and his highest finish since finishing runner-up at the 2003 FBR Capital Open.

2013 Notes: Played in 24 events, was the only player among the top 10 on the Charles Schwab Cup points list without a victory, and his 12 top 10s were also the most by a player during the season without a victory. Best finish was a T-2nd at the Constellation Senior Players Championship where he finished two shots back of winner Kenny Perry.

2014 Notes: Registered five of his six top-10 performances before mid-June and had his two best weeks of the season in his first two starts in Florida in February. First lost in a playoff to Michael Allen at the Allianz Championship when he couldn't get up and down from a greenside bunker for birdie on the second extra hole after Allen two-putted for birdie. Missed a 7-foot birdie putt to extend the overtime. Made another run the following week at The ACE Group Classic. Posted three rounds in the 60s and was among four players who battled down the stretch before his chances ended with a bogey on the final hole. Was T-2nd along with Olin Browne and Bernhard Langer, one shy in the final standings to Kirk Triplett, who sank a six-foot par putt on the final hole for the win. Had three more top-tens, first at the Greater Gwinnett ionship with a T-5th finish.. Then finished T-10th at the Principal Charity Classic followed by the following with a T-7th when he joined forces with former UCLA teammate Corey Pavin at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf. He finished the year 24th on the money list and 31st in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Was T-5th with former UCLA teammate Corey Pavin at April's Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. In the next week had a final-round 67 to move into a T-6th finish at the Insuperity Invitational.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 9, 19

Began playing golf at age 6 through the influence of his father. Was coached by Byron Nelson through the 1970s and '80s, then by PGA Club Professional Stan Thirsk. Ranks T-11th on the PGA Tour's all-time victory list, with 39 official titles. Had a remarkable run from 1977 through 1982, when he won at least three titles per year. Has been a runner-up 32 times in his PGA Tour career. After numerous close calls, including almost winning the 1974 U.S. Open, Watson started working with Nelson, and that helped him immediately with his first victory at the 1974 Western Open. Winner of eight major championships (1975, '77, '80, '82, and '83 Open Championships; '77 and '81 Masters, and '82 U.S. Open). In 1982, became one of only six players to win the U.S. Open and the Open Championship in the same year (Bobby Jones, Gene Sarazen, Ben Hogan, Lee Trevino and Tiger Woods are the others). Was the PGA Tour's leading money-winner five times, including four years in a row (1977-80, '84). In 1980, became the first player to earn $500,000 in a season when he captured six PGA Tour events to go along with a third Open Championship crown. In 1987, won the season-ending Tour Championship and earned $360,000. After a nine-year absence from the winner's circle, claimed the 1996 Memorial Tournament. Finished 25th on the money list, his highest ranking since 1987, and made his first trip to the Tour Championship since winning it in 1987. Earned 39th PGA Tour title with a victory at 1998 MasterCard Colonial. At 48, became the oldest player ever to win the event (previous oldest: Ben Hogan was 46 when he captured his last of five Colonial titles). The stretch between his first victory (1974) and last victory (23 years, 11 months, 24 days), is the third-longest in tour history. Winner of three Vardon trophies (1977-79). Six-time PGA Tour Player of the Year (1977, '78, '79, '80, '82 and '84). Played on four U.S. Ryder Cup teams (1977, '81, '83 and '89) and captained the 1993 squad to victory at the Belfry. Captained the American team again in 2014, but this time his team lost in Scotland. Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1972 and 1999. In 615 events, won 39 times, was runner-up 32 times, third 23 times and finished in the top 10 219 times. Had earnings of $11,069,517. Became a member of the Champions Tour in 1999. In 2004, was troubled by hip and shoulder problems throughout the season. Did not register an official victory for the first time in his Champions Tour career and also finished outside the top 30 money-winners for the first time. Was planning on having both his left hip and right shoulder operated on at the end of the year, but reconsidered and opted for rehab instead. Played in his 31st Masters, learning about the death of his longtime caddie, Bruce Edwards, just hours before his scheduled first-round tee time. Had his left hip replaced in October 2008, and nine months later, almost pulled off one of the all-time greatest stories in sports when he lost a four-hole playoff to Stewart Cink at the Open Championship at Turnberry, Scotland. Had problems with his right arm in 2012, which made gripping the club difficult since the hand was weak. Was forced to miss defending his title at the 2012 Senior PGA Championship. In December 2012, was named Captain of the 2014 U.S. Ryder Cup Team. Turns 65 prior to the Ryder Cup, making him the oldest to be named a Ryder Cup Captain for either an American or European Team. At his appointment, surpassed British legend J.H. Taylor, who was 62 when he guided Great Britain to victory in 1933. Watson passed Ben Hogan for the longest period between Captain roles, at 21 years. Hogan served in 1947, '49 and '67.

2013 Notes: Played in his 40th Masters, 36th Open Championship and 32nd PGA Championship. Played a limited schedule on the Champions Tour. In eight starts, had two top 10s, a T-4th at the Legends of Golf (playing with Andy North) and a 5th at the Toshiba Classic.

2014 Notes: Battled Colin Montgomerie down the stretch before finishing second at the Senior PGA Championship at Harbor

Shores, Mich., despite a final-round 65. The performance was his best Champions Tour effort since winning the same championship at Valhalla in 2011. It was also his 17th top-3 finish in a senior major. Played a total of seven events and had four top-10 finishes. Played in his 41st Masters, his 40th in succession, tying Nicklaus in that category. Did not make the cut after rounds of 78-81. Captained the U.S. Ryder Cup team for a second time, with the U.S. losing to the European team at Gleneagles in Scotland.

In 2015 has had a slow start, best finish T-13th at the Regions Tradition. Made his 42nd start at the Masters missing the cut. Next month will make his 38th and final start at the British Open at St. Andrews.

Birth Date: October 11, 1961

Age: 53 Ht.: 6'1" Wt.: 205

Home: Derby, England

Turned Professional: 1985

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 23

Born in Liverpool, Wesselingh turned professional in 1985 but opted for a career as a club professional rather than attempting a touring career, due to his desire to stay close to his young family. His club career culminated in a position as senior professional at Kedleston Park Golf Club in Derbyshire, where he succeeded former European Tour player David J. Russell. During this stage of his career, Wesselingh won the European Club Professionals Championship and played three times in the British Open. He would go on to compete on six Great Britain & Ireland teams against the USA in the PGA Cup, the Ryder Cup for the club professional.

Capped a remarkable rise from longtime club professional through to the summit of the Senior Tour ranks when he claimed the John Jacobs Trophy after winning four times in 2013 en route to topping the Order of Merit. Sealed the top spot in style after ending the season with back-to-back victories in the Fubon Senior Open followed by the MCB Tour Championship. Also won twice in four events at the start to the 2013 season, successfully defending his title in the ISPS Handa PGA Seniors Championship with a magnificent final-round 64, before triumphing in the Bad Ragaz PGA Seniors Open, defeating compatriot Kevin Spurgeon in a playoff. Was named rookie of the year in 2012 after finishing fifth on the Order of Merit. Finished runner-up in the Mallorca Open Senior on his debut before winning the ISPS Handa PGA Seniors Championship, holding off the challenge of defending champion Andrew Oldcorn. After what was looking like a very poor season in which his best finish was a T-14th in his first ten starts he got hot and won his sixth Senior Tour event by beating Philip Golding and Bernhard Langer in a three-way playoff at the 2014 WINSTONgolf Senior Open. After finishing T-14th at the French Riviera masters, he won the last event of the year, at the MCB Tour Championship beating Barry Lane on the sixth hole of a playoff.

Had spent five years preparing for the Senior Tour, and claimed the second card at the Qualifying School with an impressive performance at Pestana Golf Resort's Vale da Pinta. Took over from Senior Tour Committee Chairman David J. Russell as the head professional at Kedleston Park, near Derby, in 2001. Opted not to try full-time tour life in the '90s as he wanted to be around his young family, and represented Great Britain & Ireland in the PGA Cup between 1998 and 2009. Winner, 2002 European Club Professionals Championship and the 2006 Glenmuir Club Professionals Championship.

2012 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 14; top-10 finishes - 8; € 191,663 (ranked 5th); Winner Handa PGA Seniors Championship.

2013 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 16; top-10 finishes - 9; € 311,644 (ranked 1st); Winner Handa PGA Seniors Championship, Bad Ragaz PGA Seniors Open, Fubon Senior Open and MCB Tour Championship.

2014 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 13; top-10 finishes - 2; € 170,183 (ranked 6th); Winner WINSTONgolf Senior Open and MCB Tour Championship.

In 2015 finished T-69th at the Senior PGA Championship, his only Champions Tour start.

On the European Tour got the year off to a great start with a win at the SSE Enterprise Wales Senior Open as he was two shots better than Peter Fowler and Ian Woosnam. Also finished T-20th at the Acorn Jersey Open and T-27th at the Handa PGA Seniors Championship.

PGA Tour Victories: 2 - 1985 Michelob Championship at Kingsmill; 1986 John Deere Classic

Champions Tour Victories: 5 - 2007 SAS Championship; 2008 Cap Cana Championship; 2011 Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn; 2013 Senior Open Championship, Pacific Links Hawaii Championship

Other Victories: 1989 Colorado Open

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 10, 22

Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1984 and 2002, playing in a total of 499 events. Won two times, was runner-up eight times and finished in third five times. Finished in the top 10 47 times and made 288 cuts. Had career earnings of $4,314,460.

Joined the Champions Tour in 2007 and made history in his first week on Tour, winning in his first start at the SAS Championship. Became the 12th player on Tour to win in his debut and the first since Mark McNulty in the 2004 Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. The SAS win matched Bobby Wadkins' mark as the youngest winner ever, claiming the title 10 days after turning 50. Became the first player to win on a sponsor's exemption since Christy O'Connor Jr. in the 1999 State Farm Senior Classic.

In 2010, was the only player to tee it up in all 26 official Champions Tour events.

In 2011, won the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in a playoff over James Mason. He was also runner-up at the Toshiba Classic and recorded third-place finishes at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf and the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Underwent back surgery on November 7 in Denver, the day after the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. The microdiscectomy was done to alleviate a herniated-disc issue that was causing discomfort in his lower right leg.

2012 Notes: Played his best golf in the second half of the season, recording four of his five top-10 finishes after the first week of July. Posted two third-place efforts in back-to-back weeks in October to lock up a spot among the top 30 money winners for the fifth straight season. Was 34th on the money list but posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s to claim a solo third-place finish at the SAS Championship, an event he previously won in his first Champions Tour start in 2007. As the defending champion at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, birdied the final hole to finish solo third. Performance in Hickory earned him a six-figure check that sealed a spot among the top 30, and he went on to finish 23rd on the money list.

2013 Notes: Spent the first part of the season recovering from elbow and lower-back issues and had not registered a top-10 performance all season prior to the Senior Open Championship. There, he claimed the first of two titles on the year and it was the biggest of his career. Came from four shots back on Sunday at Royal Birkdale with a final-round 66 and then outlasting Bernhard Langer in a five-hole playoff. Got into the playoff when Langer double-bogeyed the 18th hole. Won the playoff Monday morning with a par when darkness forced the suspension of play Sunday night after both players halved two holes with pars. After both made a par and a bogey on the third and fourth extra holes, Wiebe two-putted from 35 feet for his par on the fifth while Langer chipped 12 feet past the hole and then missed his par effort. Seven events later, defeated Corey Pavin in a playoff for the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship. Holed a 20-foot par putt on the second extra hole and then watched Pavin miss his 10-foot par attempt moments later. Went on to finish 22nd on the money list in his 25 starts.

2014 Notes: Suffered through an injury-plagued season as he still has pain from his 2011 back surgery. So he played in just 18 events without a top-25 finish on his record and dropped from 22nd to Pain was so bad at the Senior Open Championship that he only played four events the rest of the year and finished 98th on the final money list. Teamed with Loren Roberts to finish T-28th in the Champions Division at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf, his best finish on the year.

2015 Notes: Teamed with Loren Roberts to finish T-3rd at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April.

Says his most memorable golf experience was playing St. Andrews in the 1981 British Amateur and shot 29 on the front nine, then was forced off the course after being 8 under par to prevent him from going for the course record. Also mentioned the time he was living in France and was asked to caddy for Jack Nicklaus in a special two-day head-to-head match against Seve Ballesteros in 1982 and serve as interpreter at his golf clinic. Lives in Hong Kong but spends his summers in Honolulu. Graduated from Stanford in 1980 and then went to UCLA to get his MBA. Has lived mostly in Asia since 1985 and recently retired from developing golf courses in Southeast Asia. Worked closely with Gary Player for five years to help spearhead the development of a public course in Hong Kong. In addition to his diverse background, Williams has enjoyed a very successful amateur golf career. Has won many different tournaments, including: the 2010 and '11 Hawaii Golfer Senior Championship, the 2011 and '12 Hong Kong Golf Association Spring Tournament, the Macau Amateur in 2001, '05 and '09, the San Diego City Senior in 2013, the Hong Kong Mid-Amateur in 2006, '08 and '09, the Hong Kong Senior Championship in 2013 and '14, the Oceanside City Senior in 2012 and '13, the Hong Kong Kau Sai Chau International Amateur Open and the Hawaii State Open Senior Amateur in 2011. Has multiple other victories and dozens of runner-up finishes.

He recently fell short at the 2014 Hawaii State Match Play Championships, where he lost in the semifinals and was runner-up at the Long Beach City Men's Senior Championship after he shot 4 under par.

Played in 2014 U.S. Senior Open, but missed the cut after 84-91.

In 2015, finished 15th at SOS Senior Masters, a tournament run by the Society of Seniors.

Wood was born in Kingsville, Texas. He had an outstanding junior career, winning the 1977 U.S. Junior Amateur, the 1978 PGA Junior, and the 1979 Western Junior, and was named the 1978 AJGA Rolex Player of the Year. He attended Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, Okla., and was a star member of the golf team, where he played alongside Bob Tway, Scott Verplank and Tommy Moore. Semifinalist at the 1981 U.S. Amateur, where he lost to Nathaniel Crosby.

In 1983, he played on the USA Walker Cup Team, and later that same year joined the PGA Tour by earning medalist honors in the PGA Tour Qualifying Tournament (Q-School).

Sister, Deanie, was a member of the LPGA Tour. Willie was a full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1984-2006, playing 492 events and making 263 cuts, posting 23 top-10 finishes with a victory at the 1996 Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic along with four runner-up finishes. Competed on the Web.Com Tour off and on, made 105 career starts, making 57 cuts and recording 12 top-10 finishes with his best finish being a T-3rd in the 1996 Buffalo Open and the 1995 Mississippi Open.

In 2010, made his Champions Tour debut at the AT&T Championship, finishing T-13th at Oak Hills. Also played in the National Qualifying Tournament and finished T-23 at TPC Eagle Trace.

In 2011, made seven starts, with his best showing a T-29th in the U.S. Senior Open. Attended the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament and finished T-25th at TPC Scottsdale.

2012 Notes: Good second half to his season, made more than 80 percent of his seven-figure earnings' total in the last seven of his 14 starts. In mid-August, ended a victory drought of more than 16 years when he won the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in a playoff with Michael Allen, becoming the 12th open qualifier in Champions Tour history to do so and the first since Rod Spittle at the 2010 AT&T Championship. Claimed the Dick's Sporting Goods Open title with a par 4 on the first playoff hole after Allen found the water off the tee. In his only 2012 PGA Tour start, finished T-18 at the True South Classic in July, his first top-25 finish on Tour since 2004.

2013 Notes: Dropped from 15th in 2012 to 42nd on the final money list. Did not post his first top-10 finish until September when he was T-9 at the Montreal Championship. Two starts later was T-6 at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Forced back to Champions Tour Q-School in November in an attempt to improve his status for 2014 by earning one of the five fully-exempt spots. Was one of five players tied for fourth place at 12 under par and vying for the two fully-exempt positions through 72 holes. After Scott Dunlap and Jeff Hart earned the final two exempt positions, he finished seventh, making bogey on the third playoff hole.

2014 Notes: Had just one top-10 finish in 24 starts and finished 51st on the money list...Posted a 6-under-par Sunday at the Greater Gwinnett ionship, the day's best round, and finished T-8th.

In 2015 got his first top 10 with a T-10th finish in the Constellation Senior Players.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 21, 22

Became the first player to win the Order of Merit on both the European Tour (1987 and '90) and the European Senior Tour, earning 320,120 euros in his rookie year of 2008 to land the John Jacobs Trophy. Almost defended the European Senior Tour Order of Merit crown, but was pipped to the post by his old friend, Sam Torrance, in 2009. Missed most of the 2007 season recuperating from a viral ailment, as well as continuing to battle the rheumatic disease, ankylosing spondylitis, a condition he was first diagnosed with in 1987. It says a lot for his tenacity that it did not stop him being one of Europe's greatest golfers, with 29 official European Tour titles to his name, including that memorable day in April 1991 when he won the Masters. The Ryder Cup Matches have also been a huge part of his career. He has played eight in total. In 1993, he became the first European to claim the maximum four points from the two foursomes and two four-ball matches, a feat matched by Sergio Garcia at The K Club in 2006.

That was the year Woosnam captained Europe to a nine-point victory, his team winning all five sessions for the first time in the biennial contest. Received the OBE in 2007 in recognition of the feat. Both parents are Welsh and he learned the game on the local Llanmynech course (15 holes in Wales, three in England) on the border. Worked on family farm for six months after leaving school.

Credits his stocky but powerful physique to lifting heavy hay bales. A rival of Sandy Lyle in Shropshire County golf.

In his youth, Woosnam was more devoted to sport than school. He was torn between soccer and golf, and did not know what profession to choose. When he left school at 16, he picked golf because it was physically less destructive than soccer. When he was 18, he traveled the European Tour in a borrowed Volkswagen Caravanette, existing on fast food and borrowed money because he did not have a sponsor. He promised himself five years to make it in golf, and months away from that self-imposed deadline, the 5-foot, 4-inch Welshman did well on the Safari Tour. He played solid golf on the 1982 European Tour, too, winning his first tournament (Swiss Open) and placing eighth on the Order of Merit. Between 1983 to 1986, he won three other tournaments on the European Tour and placed between fourth and ninth on the Order of Merit. In 1987, he found the winner's circle five times and led the Order of Merit. His best year was 1990, when he won five tournaments and again placed 1st on the Order of Merit. Member of eight European Ryder Cup teams (1983, '85, '87, '89, '91, '93, '95 and '97), captain of the 2006 team in Ireland.

2015 Notes: Won for the first time on the Champions Tour when he sunk a 30-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole to defeat Tom Lehman and Kenny Perry for the Insuperity Invitational title. Victory near Houston came at 57 years, 2 months, 1 day, making him the third-oldest first-time winner in Champions Tour history and the oldest first-timer since Bruce Devlin won the 1995 FHP Health Care Classic a little more than four months past his 57th birthday. Became the first player from Wales to win on the Champions Tour. The week prior to winning, was second at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf at Big Cedar Lodge. He and teammate Sandy Lyle were leading by two strokes after 36 holes but couldn't hold off a final-round charge by the team of Billy Andrade-Joe Durant.

After finishing T-45th at the Senior PGA Championship, went back and played twice on the European Senior tour finishing T-2nd at the SSE Enterprise Wales Senior Open, two shots back of winner Paul Wesselingh and the next week had a home start at the Acorn Jersey Open finishing 42nd.
