

2015 US Women's Open Championship

Sunday, July 12

Flash Interview

Shiho Oyama

Q. How would you assess your round today?

SHIHO OYAMA: I had a good feeling on the putts for nine, but I hit it in the water on 12, and things did not go too smoothly after that.

Q. Overall, you shot yourself into a very nice position to finish. How do you feel about the entire week?

SHIHO OYAMA: Overall I feel really good. I didn't expect this kind of result before the competition. But I was in a very good position, but I still wanted to have more luck.

Q. You didn't expect this position, but you came in in a very good position coming into the final round. What was your mindset coming into this final round and were you looking at the leaderboard?

SHIHO OYAMA: I was 3-under for the round and actually I wanted to win, to play the final round.

Q. How do you feel going forward into the British Open?

SHIHO OYAMA: I'd like to make a revenge at British Open.

Q. How important is that to you, having a nice showing at the British Open?

SHIHO OYAMA: It's very important, just like this tournament