Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 18, 19

With an English father and Portuguese mother, he is the first professional to play on the European and PGA Tour from Trinidad and Tobago. His Canadian wife was a former flight attendant who he met on a flight. Was a torchbearer for the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Winter Games and is part owner of several restaurants in Calgary, including the Vintage Chophouse & Tavern.

Has four PGA Tour wins, including the 2006 Players Championship and 2004 Cialis Western Open. Has amassed more than $19 million in career earnings. Surpassed the $2-million mark in season earnings four years in succession (2006 to 2009), but enjoyed his best year in 2004 when he earned $3,303,205 and was eighth on the money list, his highest finish. His best known win was in 2006 when he closed with Sunday's low round, a 5-under par 67, and cruised to a six-stroke win at The Players Championship for his second career victory. Broke through for his first win two years earlier at the 2004 Cialis Western Open at age 40. He won his 166th start on the PGA Tour, becoming the first player over 40 to capture initial Tour win since Brad Bryant at the 1995 Walt Disney World. Won twice in Europe and once on the Web.Com Tour. Member of the PGA Tour since 1997, he played on the European Tour from 1993 through 1997 and had three consecutive stints on the Nationwide Tour starting in 1990.

1991 Web.Com Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 23; in money - 14; top-10 finishes - five; scoring average 71.25 (ranked 18th); money $58,415 (ranked 8th); won the Pensacola Open.

2009 Web.Com Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 20; in money - 10; top-10 finishes - three; scoring average 71.53 (ranked 32nd); money $25,906 (ranked 58th); Best finish, fourth at the Greater Greenville Open.

After attending Qualifying School several times without success, he got his card by finishing T-3rd at the 1997 PGA Tour Qualifying School final stage.

2011 Notes: He finished outside of the top 125 (No. 139) on the official money list for the first time since joining the PGA Tour in 1998 and failed to finish inside the top-70 on the FedExCup points list for the first time in five years (No. 138). Only had two top-10 finishes, T-3rd at Puerto Rico Open and T-8th at the FedEx St. Jude Classic, which, to this date, was his 58th and last PGA Tour career top-10.

2012 Notes: Made the cut in seven of 20 events, with a T-16th at the Mayakoba Golf Classic, his best finish. Only had one other top-25 finish, T22nd at Humana Challenge. This was his first season on the PGA Tour without a top-10 showing and the first year of his career without double-digit made cuts.

2013 Notes: Made seven of 19 cuts on the PGA Tour, finishing 173rd in the FedExCup standings and 185th on the money race. It was his second consecutive season without a top-10 finish after recording at least one for 15 straight seasons (1997 to 2011). Best finish was a T-20th in his first start at the Sony Open in Hawaii.

2014 Notes: Played primarily on the PGA Tour for the first eight months of the year before turning his attention to PGA Tour Champions. Made his PGA Tour Champions debut with a T-15th at the Senior PGA Championship in late May, but did not play again until late August when he teed it up in his hometown of Calgary at the Shaw Charity Classic. Posted his only top-10 finish of the PGA Tour Champions season in October when he was T-6th at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic, thanks, in part, to a final-round, 6-under-par 65. Best finish in 18 PGA Tour starts was a T-16th at the Valero Texas Open.

2015 Notes: Had his best career finish on PGA Tour Champions, T-4th at the rain-shortened Greater Gwinnett Championship. In his last nine events he finished out of the top-10 just once. At the last full-field event at the Toshiba Classic finished T-9th and earned the 30th and last spot into the Charles Schwab Cup Championship where he finished T-6th. Had seven top-10 finishes as he 27th on the money list and 28th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Had his best PGA Tour Champions finish with a T-4th at the Tucson Conquistadores.

Began playing at age 5 with his grandmother. He played most sports, but his passion in high school was basketball. Though he was named all-state in basketball in high school, he knew he was not tall enough to play basketball in college, so he started to concentrate on golf. At Wake Forest University, he won four collegiate events and led the Demon Deacons to the 1986 NCAA Championship title. He was an All-America choice three times and played on the 1987 Walker Cup Team.

When he joined the PGA Tour in 1988, he improved every year until 1992, going from 134th place in the money race in his rookie year, improving to 69th in 1989, placing 64th in 1990, and jumping up to 14th in 1991. He broke through with his first win, at the 1991 Kemper Open, and then picked up his second seven days later at the Buick Classic. It was more than seven years before he won again, when he captured the Canadian Open in a playoff over Bob Friend. He captured his fourth and final PGA Tour win at the 2000 Invensys Classic at Las Vegas. He had an 18-year streak between 1989 and 2006 in which he finished in the top-125 of the money list, finishing in the top-100 16 of those 18 years. His last full year on the PGA Tour was 2009 when he finished 245th in the FedEx Cup playoff race and 242nd on the money list after making just two cuts in 17 starts. After that, he joined Golf Channel as a part-time on-course reporter.

2014 Notes: Turned 50 in January and joined PGA Tour Champions, finished T-46th in his PGA Tour Champions debut, at the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton. Earned his first top-10 the following week, finishing T-8th at the ACE Group Classic. Finished second at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic just two shots behind winner Jeff Maggert. He had his second runner-up at the Shaw Charity Classic, losing a playoff to Fred Couples. He was 27th in the Schwab rankings.

2015 Notes: He and teammate Joe Durant used a blistering 9-under-par 45 on the par-3 Top of the Rock Course at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf, and the pair had a three-stroke victory. It was the first PGA Tour Champions victory for both players. He also had top-10s at the U.S. Senior Open (T-5th), Mississippi Gulf Resort (T-7th), Constellation Senior Players (T-7th) and T-10th at the Principal Charity Classic. He won for the second time at the Boeing Classic and ended his year with a victory at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, defeating Bernhard Langer in a one-hole playoff. The win help him finish 4th in both the money list and the Schwab rankings. For the season he earned $1,533,919 which was his best career year on both the PGA Tour and PGA Tour Champions.

2016 Notes: Lost in a playoff to Esteban Toledo at the Allianz Championship. Two missed putts proved costly. Missed a 4-footer at the 54th hole which would have given him the win, and then saw his 6-foot par putt lip out on the third playoff hole. Finished third with teammate Joe Durant in defense of their title at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. The pair was among the leaders in the final round before a critical bogey at No. 14 proved costly. Was T-5th at the Insuperity Invitational after a closing-round 66 which included a double bogey at No. 17 and nine birdies. Also T-5th at the Senior PGA Championship. The next week finished T-2nd at the Principal Charity Classic, one back of Scott McCarron who birdied his final three holes. Also had a T-4th at the American Family Insurance Championship and T-9th at the Senior Open Championship.

Along with Brad Faxon, he runs Billy Andrade/Brad Faxon Charities for Children, Inc., which has raised more than $15 million for children in Rhode Island and Southeastern Massachusetts, largely through the CVS Caremark Charity Classic, which the duo co-hosts at Rhode Island Country Club each summer.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 21

Grandson of World Golf Hall of Famer Tommy Armour who won the 1927 U.S. Open, 1930 PGA Championship and 1931 Open Championship.

Began playing golf at age 10, joining his mother and father. Qualified for the PGA Tour in the 1982 season, but won just $4,254. He kept trying to get his card back, but didn't make it until the fall of 1987. Meanwhile, he traveled the world, spending most of his time on the European and Asian Tours, gaining the experience and patience he needed to play on the PGA Tour. The highlight of his career was victory at the 2003 Valero Texas Open, where he shot the lowest 72-hole score in PGA Tour history, 254, a record that still stands.

Attempted to regain playing privileges on the PGA Tour for 2012 by going through the fall qualifying process. After being the medalist at the second stage in Panama City, Fla., he advanced to the final stage in La Quinta, Calif., but withdrew after five rounds of the six-round event when he was out of contention. In his PGA Tour career, he played in 617 events, with two wins, seven runner-up finishes and 41 top-10s. He made 314 cuts and won $9,458,248. Played on the Web.Com Tour full time in 1994, winning twice and finishing seventh on the money list, which got him back to the PGA Tour in 1995. Has played a total of 33 Web.com events, posting two wins and five top-10 finishes.

Started his PGA Tour Champions career at the ACE Group Classic in 2010, where he was runner-up. His first year was a big success as he won $1,121,220 to finish 13th on the money list. It was his second best season in his entire career, along with three runner-up finishes. He also had a third-place finish and 10 top-10 finishes.

2011 Notes: Started slowly and was 50th on the money list after the U.S. Senior Open. Finished strong in his last eight starts with three top 10s, including a second-place finish at the Insuperity Championship. He finished the year 28th on the money list.

2012 Notes: Troubled by bone spurs early in the season, he missed almost two months following arthroscopic surgery for bursitis in April. He eventually returned to PGA Tour Champions in June, at The Principal Charity Classic, but did not record his first top-10 finish until late in the season when he closed with a 6-under par 66 to finish T-4th at the SAS Championship in October.

2013 Notes: Health issues limited his season to just 15 appearances, and he did not record a top-10 finish in those starts. Missed nearly three months over the summer with a back problem, which forced him to withdraw from June's Regions Tradition after just one round. His best finish was in late May at the Senior PGA Championship, where he was T-13th.

2014 Notes: Had his best finish of the season when he put together three straight sub-par rounds to finish T-8th at the Boeing Classic in late August. Was on the leaderboard throughout the final round, but fell out of contention with a 1-over par 37 on his back nine. Teamed with Billy Andrade for a T-10th finish in the Champions Division at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf in June. Following the official season, he won the Calloway Invitational at Pebble Beach for the third time by defeating Lee Janzen in a playoff.

2015 Notes: Started his year with a T-6th at the Allianz Championship and T-8th Greater Gwinnett Championship. Had his best finish in nearly three years when he was T-5th at the Shaw Charity Classic in August in Calgary. His performance included opening and closing rounds of 65. Finished his year 40th on the money list and 44th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Finished T-6th at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March, was T-7th at the Insuperity Invitational then T-3rd at the Regions Tradition followed by a T-5th at the Senior PGA Championship.

A former bank teller at a credit union who also worked in a supplies department at Eckerd Drug, Austin tried to earn a PGA Tour card at Qualifying School in 1987. During that Qualifying School, he tore tendons and cartilage in his left knee and was injured and out of action for two years. Austin first injured that knee as an 11-year-old playing Little League Baseball.

Austin qualified for the Web.com Tour in 1994. The next year, he succeeded to get on the PGA Tour when he was the medalist at the 1994 Qualifying School. He had two productive years, was Rookie of the Year in 1995 and won the Buick Open in a playoff over Mike Brisky before finishing 180th on the money list in 1997. He was not able to regain his card at Qualifying School and played on the Web.com Tour in 1998. He had success, finishing eighth on the money list and regaining his tour card for 1999.

He scrambled on Tour in 1999, 2000 and 2001, just able to stay inside the top-125. Dropped to 156th on the money list in 2002, but he was able to regain his card at Qualifying School. He finished 44th on the money list in 2003 with earnings of $1,518,707. Season was driven with a runner-up finish at the Heritage, where he lost a four-hole playoff to Davis Love III. The next year, Austin won the 2004 Buick Championship and had his best year in 2007 winning the St. Jude Championship and finishing 15th on the money list with earnings of $2,887,596. His great season earned him a spot on the Presidents Cup team. He had two more productive years before finishing 129th on the money list in 2010, then fell to 161st on the money list in 2011, losing his card and having to split his time on the Web.com Tour and PGA Tour in 2012 and 2013.

Regained full status on the PGA Tour by winning the 2013 Sanderson Farms Championship, beating Daniel Summerhays and Cameron Beckman with a birdie on the first playoff hole. The win came in his 507th PGA Tour start and at 49 years, 5 months and 25 days, it made him the eighth-oldest winner in PGA Tour history.

2008 Notes: Made the cut in 24 of 30 starts on his way to finishing No. 58th in the FedExCup standings. He surpassed $2 million in earnings for the second time in his career, thanks to six top-10 finishes (the most since a career-best seven during his rookie season in 1995).

2009 Notes: Had seven top-25 finishes, was 65th in the FedEx Cup and 82nd on the money list.

2013 Notes: In his 507th PGA Tour start, Austin won a playoff against Cameron Beckman and Daniel Summerhays to win the Sanderson Farms Championship. At 49 years, 5 months, 25 days, he became the eighth-oldest winner in PGA Tour history, becoming fully exempt on the PGA Tour through 2015. Did not qualify for the FedEx Cup playoffs.

2014 Notes: Even though he turned 50 in January, he did not play in his first PGA Tour Champions event until July as he played mostly on the PGA Tour the beginning of the year. Had just one top-25 finish (T-13th at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions) in 10 made cuts on the PGA Tour (22 starts), and ended his season ranked No. 168 in FedExCup standings. Began his PGA Tour Champions career with a T-3rd at the U.S. Senior Open (also had a third-place finish at the AT&T Championship). Managed to secure a spot among the PGA Tour Champions top-30 money-winners despite only making eight starts on the over-50 circuit. He finished 12th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: He played in a mixture of PGA Tour and PGA Tour Champions events. On PGA Tour Champions, he had ten top-10s including a third at the Senior PGA Championship and a T-3rd at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, also had a T-4th at the Encompass Championship and a T-5th at the Senior Open Championship & Mississippi Gulf Resort. Finished 17th on the money list and 10th in the Schwab rankings. Played primarily on the PGA Tour in the first part of the year making two cuts in eleven starts T-43rd at Sanderson Farms Championship and T-56th at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans.

2016 Notes: Has put all of his efforts toward PGA Tour Champions. Won his first title on the tour at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic by one stroke over Jim Carter. Key shot Sunday came at the 13th when he holed out from a bunker from 35 yards away for a critical eagle which proved to be the difference. Good play from the bunkers was key in the victory as he converted nine of 10 opportunities. Became the first multiple winner of the year when he beat Wes Short Jr. in a two-hole playoff at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic. The next week he partnered with Michael Allen to win the Bass Pro Shops Legends for his third win of the year. Was also T-7th at the 3M Championship.

Also mentioned having his wife Susan and his son Peter with him at the 2013 Seniors Amateur, conducted by The R&A, when he finished runner-up. Also has a daughter, Kate.

Played in the 2009 and 2010 U.S. Senior Opens, however he missed both cuts. Won the 2006 Pacific Northwest Mid-Amateur and was the MVP of the amateur squad at the 2008 Hudson Cup, a Ryder Cup-style event matching the top amateurs against the top professionals in the Pacific Northwest. Has played in three U.S. Mid-Amateurs, most recently in 2005. Represented Washington at the 1995 USGA Men's State Team.

2012 Notes: Brandes enjoyed a dominant season, as he took home the Washington State Men's Mid-Amateur Championship, the Washington State Senior Men's Amateur Championship, the Pacific Northwest Men's Mid-Amateur Championship, the Pacific Northwest Senior Men's Amateur Championship, and the Washington State Senior Men's Champion of Champions. The clean sweep in the mid-amateur and senior championships earned Brandes a spot on the team representing Washington State in the USGA Men's State Team Championship, held in Galloway, N.J. in September. He was also a quarterfinalist in the Pacific Northwest Men's Master-40 Amateur Championship and was runner-up at the Senior Washington Open. Was named the 2012 Washington State "Mid-Am Player of the Year."

Enjoyed more success in 2013 as he defended his Washington State Senior Amateur Championship and Pacific Northwest Senior Men's Amateur Championship. Finished runner-up at the Seniors Amateur, conducted by The R&A, and the Washington State Mid-Amateur. Won low amateur honors after finishing 7th overall at the Washington Senior Open. Was named to the 2013 Global Golf Post All-Amateur Second Team Senior category.

In 2014, Brandes once again won low amateur honors at the Washington Senior Open and finished 4th overall. He also was the runner-up at both the Pacific Northwest Senior Amateur and the Pacific Northwest Master 40 Match-Play Championships. He is also a 15-time Rainier Country Club Men's Champion. Brandes qualified for the U.S. Senior Open for the fourth time, where he missed the cut. Also in 2014, he played in the U.S. Senior Amateur and the U.S. Men's State Team.

Last year, Brandes enjoyed more success in USGA championships. He played in the 2015 U.S. Amateur Four-Ball with Mike Haack, where they finished stroke play in 16th and advanced to the Round of 32. He reached the finals of the U.S. Senior Amateur, falling to Chip Lutz, 5 and 3.

He was inducted to the PPGA Golf Hall of Fame and is a five-time PPGA Senior Player of the Year and six-time WSGA Senior Player of the Year.

Home: Nuneaton, England

Turned Professional: 1988

Senior Tour Victories: 2 - 2015 Prostate Cancer UK Scottish Senior Open, 2016 Senior Open Championship.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 10

Broadhurst did not have a long list of credentials when he turned professional in 1988. He won the 1988 Lytham Trophy and was low amateur at the '88 Open Championship. To finance his amateur career, he had to work as a van driver, a gardener and a technician in a fibre glass factory. Despite all of the jobs, when Broadhurst turned professional, he had only about $200 in the bank, so he knew he had to play well fast, to survive on the PGA European Tour. In his first tournament he missed the cut, but in his second event in 1989, the Desert Classic in Dubai, he finished third, three strokes behind winner Mark James. His seventh event, the Jersey Open he added another third-place finish behind Christy O'Connor, Jr. and in a span of seven weeks on tour banked over $40,000. But the best was yet to come, in his next event the Cannes Open, he scored his first victory with round of 65-70-72 proving good enough to secure a $50,000 jackpot when the fourth round was washed out by storms. Enjoyed the thrill of a lifetime in 1990 when he shot a 63 in The Open Championship at St Andrews to equal the then Old Course record. He went on to win Rookie of the Year honors. Played in the 1991 Ryder Cup at Kiawah Island, enjoying an unbeaten debut thanks to a four-ball win with Ian Woosnam over Paul Azinger and Hale Irwin and a singles victory over Mark O'Meara. Suffered a serious injury to his right hand during the second round of the 2000 Dubai Desert Classic which necessitated surgery that August. Played in 2001 on a full medical exemption but had to go to the Qualifying School Finals after finishing 157th on the Volvo Order of Merit. He was unable to gain a card but put that statistic right in 2002 at Emporda and Pals, a return trip to the Finals required after he finished 141st on the 2002 Volvo Order of Merit. Regained full exempt status in 2003 after finishing third in The Diageo Championship at Gleneagles.

Played his 500th European Tour event as a professional at the 2008 BMW PGA Championship, a fitting milestone for a stalwart of the Tour for more than two decades. Finished 85th in The 2009 Race to Dubai but the following season was blighted by a shoulder injury; he did not play an event after the beginning of September and was given a medical exemption for his first five events in 2011. Played a total of 588 European Tour events with six wins, nine runner-ups and a total of 72 top-10s. Won a total of 6,840,379 euro on the European Tour. Played on the European Ryder Cup team in 1991.

2015 Notes: Followed in the footsteps of Carl Mason's by winning both European and Senior Rookie of the year honors. Won that title on the Senior Tour when he became the tenth player to win a title in their Senior Tour debut as he beat Gordon Manson in a playoff at Archerfield Links Golf Club in the Prostate Cancer UK Scottish Senior Open. Finished T-4th in the French Riviera Masters before closing season with a T-10th in the MCB Tour Championship. Was 12th on the European Senior Tour Order of Merit. Did attend Champions Tour Q-School but finished T-30th.

2016 Notes: Was second in the SSE Enterprise Wales Senior Open and WINSTONGolf Senior Open. With his two-stroke win in The Senior Open Championship, conducted by The R&A, he leads the Senior Tour Order of Merit.

Browne, the 2011 U.S. Senior Open champion, did not start playing golf until he was age 19 and got hooked on the game while attending Occidental College in Los Angeles. Broke through with his first PGA Tour win at the 1998 Canon Greater Hartford Open, defeating Larry Mize and Stewart Cink on the first hole of sudden death.

Had arm surgery at the end of 1998 and was unable to play in the 1999 Mercedes Championship. Before getting his card on the PGA Tour, he competed on the Web.Com Tour, winning four times, a career total that ranks him ninth in Nationwide Tour history; exceeded only by Jason Gore with seven, Sean Murphy, Kevin Johnson and Matt Gogel with six, and Chris Smith, Chris Couch, Pat Bates and Gavin Coles with five. His father is from Chile, so when Browne won the 1993 Monterrey Open in Mexico, he gave his victory speech in Spanish.

Played full time on the Web.Com Tour in 1990, 1991, 1993 and 1995, making 104 starts and winning four times, including the 1991 Bakersfield Open, Hawkeye Open, 1993 Monterrey Open and 1996 Dominion Open. Had career earnings of $371,092. His best year was 1991 when he finished second on the Web.Com Tour money list with $106,406 in earnings. Played full time on the PGA Tour in 1992, 1994 and from 1996 through 2009. In 451 events played, he won three times, had 25 top-10 finishes and earnings of $8.5 million.

2011 Notes: Began the PGA Tour Champions season with five consecutive top-10 finishes, rounding out the year with eight, including a win at the U.S. Senior Open Championship at Inverness.

2012 Notes: Made 23 starts and had seven top 10s including two third-place results at the Constellation Senior and 3M Championship. Finished 21st on the money list with $773,896 in earnings.

2013 Notes: Season was limited to just 14 starts after he missed five months of the campaign due to a stress fracture in his back. Had two top 10s, and his best finish was T-2nd at the Greater Hickory Classic, where he lost a playoff to Michael Allen. Finished 39th on the money list with $385,113 in earnings.

2014 Notes: Turned in his strongest season since 2011. In four events, he finished among the top-six finishers. Made a strong run in Sunday's final round at The ACE Group Classic, firing a 6-under par 66 to get himself into position to win. However, despite birdies on two of his final three holes, he made a bogey at No. 14, which would later prove costly. He finished T-2nd, one shot short of Kirk Triplett's winning total of 16-under par 201. He had another strong showing at the Regions Tradition where he shared the first-round lead and was among the leaders all four rounds before eventually finishing T-3rd, two behind winner Kenny Perry. Capped his season with a solo sixth at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Arizona, finishing 21st in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Had his best season on PGA Tour Champions since the 2011, highlighted by winning the rain-shortened Greater Gwinnett Championship, his second career victory on the Tour. His 6-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole Saturday proved to be the difference over Bernhard Langer as heavy rain wiped out the final round at TPC Sugarloaf. His victory ended a drought of 3 years, 8 months, 18 days since his initial PGA Tour Champions triumph at the 2011 U.S. Senior Open. Had seven top-10 finishes as he finished 14th on the money list and 21st in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Finished T-5th at the Insuperity Invitational, then two weeks later was runner-up at the Regions Tradition. Also finished 6th at the Constellation Senior Players.

GREG BRUCKNER

Birth Date: September 22, 1959

Age: 56 Ht.: 6'0" Wt.: 195

Home: Phoenix, Ariz.

College: Arizona State

Turned Professional: 1985

Joined PGA Tour: 1990

Joined Champions Tour: 2014

Other Victories: 1985 Pacific Coast Amateur. 1988 Singapore Open. 2003 Arizona Open. 2010 Arizona Senior State Open Championship. 2010 California Senior State Open Championship. 2010 Texas Senior State Open Championship.

Web.Com Tour Victories: 1992 Ben Hogan New England Classic

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot a 65 at Arrowhead Country Club in Glendale, Ariz. to earn medalist honors.

Started playing golf with his dad and friends on a par-3 course near his home. Before gaining exempt status in 1990 after failing three previous times, Bruckner played on the Asian Tour where he was fourth on the 1988 Order of Merit with $68,000. After winning the Singapore Open, he received his $33,000 prize in cash, and spent a sleepless night with it stuffed in his hotel room mattress before mailing it home in a check.

Bruckner's shining moment came at the 1988 British Open, when he became the early leader, with a front-nine 31, thanks to back-to-back eagles at the sixth and seventh and a birdie at the eighth. His moment ended, however, with a 41 on the back nine. He did make the 36-hole cut, but finished T-67th.

Played on the PGA Tour between 1990 and 1992. Had a total of 72 PGA Tour starts, and his best finish was T-14th in the 1990 Texas Open. He made 34 cuts and had career earnings of $140,356.

Played the Web.com tour from 1992 to 1999 and in 2004. Throughout this time, he played in 208 events, winning once at the 1992 New England Classic - his only win of four top-three finishes. Had 20 top 10s, made 108 cuts and earned $307,132. Best year on the Web.com Tour was 1992 when he finished 30th on the money list with $45,725 in earnings.

Since turning 50, he has attempted PGA Tour Champions Qualifying School each year, finishing T53rd in 2010, T25th in 2011 and T25th in 2012. In 2013, he earned a conditionally-exempt spot for 2014 after finishing sixth. He was among five players T-4th after 72 holes. Missed on earning one of the two fully-exempt spots in a playoff, settling for sixth after making par on the third extra hole.

2014 Notes: Played in 11 events with only one top-25 finish - T-25th at the Senior PGA Championship. At the end of the year, he went back to PGA Tour Champions Qualifying School where he finished T-21st.

2015 Notes: With limited access played in six events, best finish T-21st at the Tucson Conquistadores. Returned to Q-School after the year and not getting a full card with his T-20th finish.

2016 Notes: Just two starts, T-46th at the Mitsubishi Electric and missed the cut at the Senior PGA Championship.

Older brother, Brad, is also a member of the PGA Tour Champions, and are one of only 12 winning brother combinations on the PGA Tour.

Played full-time on the PGA Tour in 1991, 1992, 1995 and 1996, and again from 2002 to 2012. In 317 starts, he won three times, was runner-up twice and had 16 top-10 finishes. He made 197 starts and earned a total of $9.7 million. Also played on the Web.com Tour in 1993.

1993 Web.com Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 21; rank on money list - ninth; top-10 finishes - one; stroke average - 72.33 (82nd); money earned - $10,255 (ranked 108th); best finish - T10 at the Yuma Open.

Throughout his time on the Web.Com Tour, he played in 43 events with five top 10s. His best finish was T-5th at the 1990 Dakota Dunes Open. He earned a total of $77,616.

Bryant underwent rotator cuff surgery in 1992, and in 2001 missed the first half of the season due to elbow surgery. Suffered a wrist injury near the end of the 2009 season and had a pair of subsequent surgeries that kept him out of action for almost three years. He returned midway through the 2012 season.

2013 Notes: Started the year playing at the PGA Tour Sony Open in Hawaii, where he finished T-41st. Finished T-33rd in his PGA Tour Champions debut at the Allianz Championship. Was a late addition to the field at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in April, and after being added just one day before the start of the event, he teamed with Ian Baker-Finch to win the Raphael Division crown. The pair went three extra holes before Baker-Finch's 10-foot birdie putt ended the playoff against Blaine McCallister and Keith Fergus in Savannah, Ga. Finished 18th on the money list thanks to 10 top-10 finishes.

2014 Notes: Was among the top-10 finishers in more than a third (eight) of his 22 starts, but he did not have a performance better than fifth place in any event. Played his best golf in the first half of the season and, in one stretch, was among the top seven in four of seven starts. In late May, he was a co-leader after 36 holes of the Senior PGA Championship and was in contention early on the front nine Sunday, before eventually finishing T-5th at Harbor Shores - his best finish of the year along with a fifth-place finish at the Encompass Championship. He finished the year 25th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: After opening his year with a pair of T-9th finishes at the Mitsubishi Electric and Allianz Championship, he lost to Lee Janzen in a playoff at the ACE Group Classic. He made another bid for a victory in his next start at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March, trailing Marco Dawson by just one shot after 36 holes. He closed with a 2-under-par 70, but fell two strokes short Sunday for his second straight runner-up finish. Added two more top-10s, T-10th at the Greater Gwinnett Championship and T-4th at the Encompass Championship. Was 20th on the money list and 25th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Teamed with his brother, Brad, to finish T-4th at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. Started a streak of four straight top-11 finishes with a T-11th at the Principal Charity. Next week was T-7th at the Constellation Senior Players. He was leading the American Family Insurance Championship through 14 holes, but made a triple bogey at 15 and finished T-2nd and two back of winner Mike Goodes. Was T-8th in next his start at Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 1, 3

Fully exempt into the 2015 U.S. Senior Open by way of his victory at the 2007 U.S. Senior Open at Whistling Straits.

Started playing golf at age 10, going to the course with his father. Obtained his PGA Tour card in 1978, and in the 1982 Players Championship, was tied for the lead after three rounds with Bruce Lietzke. Eventually tied for second with Scott Simpson behind Jerry Pate. Later in the year, he was runner-up at the Quad Cities Open. The following year, he was runner-up in the Byron Nelson Classic.

In 1984, he injured his left shoulder. Though he tried to play through it, he eventually underwent surgery in December 1985. His recovery was long and slow, but he returned to form in 1988.

In 1989, he finished 84th on the money list. Credits his success in part to work done with David Leadbetter. His nickname on tour is "Dr. Dirt" because of his "five o'clock" beard. In 1995, he recorded his first win after 474 tournaments at the Walt Disney Classic.

He played full-time on the PGA Tour from 1978-97 and again in 1999. Throughout this time, he played in 560 events, had one win, 49 top-10 finishes and earnings of $3.6 million.

He joined the Champions Tour in 2005, after finishing third at the National Qualifying Tournament. In 2006, he lost a three-hole playoff to Jay Haas in the Senior PGA Championship at Oak Tree National Golf Club. Then in 2007, he won the U.S. Senior Open at Whistling Straits with a final-round 68 and 6-under-par total to defeat Ben Crenshaw by three strokes.

2011 Notes: Finished among the Champions Tour's top-30 money-winners for a seventh consecutive season, placing 30th for a second straight season. His best finish was T-second at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

2012 Notes: Despite battling foot problems for much of the year, he again finished among the top 30 on the money list, the eighth consecutive season he's earned a spot in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Had nine top 10s in 19 starts, including a pair of third-place finishes and a runner-up at the Montreal Championship.

2013 Notes: Played in 17 events, with a pair of top-10 finishes. Teamed with Tom Purtzer for a T-fourth at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. The pair was among the leaders of the weekend after rounds of 65-64. Registered a fourth-place finish at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic after tying for the lead in the latter part of the front nine in the final round. Was 62nd on the money list with $230,516.

2014 Notes: Played in 10 events, his fewest starts since joining the Champions Tour in 2005. Best finish was during his first start of the season. Though he trailed Michael Allen by four strokes after 36 holes, he used a final-round 68 to finish T-fifth in the Allianz Championship. Effort in first start of the season was his best since he was fourth in the fall of 2013, at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn.

2015 Notes: Played in 17 events, but failed to post a top-10 finish for the first time in his Champions Tour career. Best finish was T-12th at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. Was also T-14th at the ACE Group Classic and 55th on the money list.

2016 Notes: Started his year with a T-sixth at the Allianz Championship. Joined his brother, Bart, to finish T-fourth at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April.

TOM BYRUM

Birth Date: September 28, 1960

Birthplace: Onida, S.D.

Age: 55 Ht.: 5'10" Wt.: 175

Home: Richmond, Texas

College: New Mexico State

Turned Professional: 1984

Joined PGA Tour: 1986

PGA Tour Playoff Record: 0-2

PGA Tour Victories: 1 - 1989 Booz Allen Classic

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot a 69 at Great Oaks Country Club in Rochester, Mich. to earn the second and final spot.

Byrum and older brother, Curt, were a talented and proven team on the PGA Tour. With his win in the 1989 Kemper Open and Curt's win seven weeks later in the Hardee's Golf Classic, they became the first brothers to win in the same year since Dave and Mike Hill performed the feat in 1972. He's involved with a nine-hole course, The Training Station, where golfers of all ages play three, six or nine holes. A full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1986-2008, he played in 603 events and made 330 cuts, including 41 top-10 finishes and six runner-up finishes. Competed on the Web.Com Tour off and on, making 52 career starts, 26 cuts and five top 10s. His best finish was T-second at the 1995 Tallahassee Open.

He has not yet qualified for the Champions Tour. In Qualifying School, he was T-28th at the end of 2010, T-25th at the end of 2011 and, again, T-25th at the end of 2012.

2012 Notes: Open-qualified for five of the nine events he played during the year, with a pair of top-10 finishes. Three straight sub-par rounds led to a Champions Tour career-best T-sixth finish at the Boeing Classic in August. Was T-ninth at the Insuperity Invitational and missed the cut at the True South Classic in his only PGA Tour start.

2013 Notes: Did not make his first start until late May, at the Senior PGA Championship, however, he played 11 events (three as an open-qualifier) over the final five months of the year, finishing 45th on the money list. Had a great showing at the inaugural Shaw Charity Classic when he open-qualified and then finished second overall in Calgary. Posted three straight rounds in the 60s, including a closing-round, 7-under par 64, for his best career finish in a Champions Tour event.

2014 Notes: Played in a career-high 21 events during the year, including three as an open-qualifier, finishing 39th on the money list, six spots higher than in 2013. His season earnings totaled $452,801, a Champions Tour personal best. Best finish was at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, where he finished second to John Cook by one shot after making bogey at the par-3 17th hole from the back of a greenside bunker. Performance on the Monterey Peninsula equaled his career-best Champions Tour finish. His other top-10 of the year happened when he received a sponsor exemption for the Insuperity Invitational and finished T-ninth at The Woodlands C.C. He finished 42nd in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Had his best outing in his final start of the year when he finished T-ninth at the Toshiba Classic with three consecutive rounds of 67. His other top-10 finish came in his second start of the year, when he finished T-10th at The ACE Group Classic. Was 45th on the money list and 63rd in the Schwab rankings. Regained fully exempt status for the 2016 season when he finished T-second at the Champions Tour Qualifying Tournament. Started the final round T-10th, but shot a bogey-free 8-under 63 at the TPC Scottsdale's Champions Course, equaling the low round of the event, to vault into second place.

2015 Notes: Started his year with a T-third finish at the Allianz Championship, and added two additional top-10s with a T-eighth at the Principal Charity and T-fifth at the Senior Open Championship.

Played golf every day as a teenager after his family moved from Laurel, Neb., to Palm Beach, Fla. During the summer, he played as many as 72 holes a day. He turned professional in 1981 and qualified for the PGA Tour, but struggled during his first four years and had to return to Qualifying School after every year. When he failed to qualify for the 1986 season, he caddied for his friend, Ken Green, in a handful of tournaments and practiced more than ever. He qualified for the Doral tournament that year, leading the first round with a 65 and tying for eighth. By the end of the summer, he had a conditional card and ended the season 58th on the money list.

The highlight of his career, which included 13 PGA Tour victories, was in 1989 when he won the Open Championship at Royal Troon Golf Club by defeating Greg Norman and Wayne Grady in a four-hole playoff. His daughter, Britney, was born three weeks after that victory.

A member of the 1987, 1989, 1991 and 2002 Ryder Cup Teams and a member of the 1998 Presidents Cup Team, he finished in the top-50 on the money list every year from 1987-2001 and finished 53rd on the 2002 money list. He retired from the PGA Tour at the Memorial right before his 50th birthday and plays full-time on the Champions Tour. A full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1982-2010, he played in 756 events, made 527 cuts and posted 142 top-10 finishes with 27 runner-up finishes.

He turned in a stellar first complete full season on the Champions Tour in 2011, earning the Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest stroke average (69.04). He won once and finished second in official earnings with more than $1.8 million.

2012 Notes: Enjoyed another successful year, adding another victory at the Montreal Championship along with 11 top-10 finishes and a sixth-place finish on the season-ending money list with earnings of $1,361,067 - topping the $1-million mark for the second consecutive year. He was T-ninth in his 26th Open Championship start, making his 19th cut in the event - his first top-10 at that championship since a T-10th in 1997.

2013 Notes: Missed playing in just one Champions Tour event despite battling a series of nagging injuries most of the season. Best run during the year was in the first half when he was among the top-five for four out of five tournaments, concluding with a T-third at The Principal Charity Classic in early June, his best performance of the season. He ended the season ranked 24th on the money list.

2014 Notes: Saw his string of top-30 finishes come to a close at four when he finished 32nd on the final money list. Was 28th with two full-field events remaining, but was forced to withdraw at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic and then finished 72nd at the AT&T Championship, falling four spots. In 23 starts had three top-ten finishes all in the spring. Best finish was second at the Regions Tradition, and he was the 36-hole leader before falling three back after 54 holes following a 2-over par 74. Battled his way back into contention with birdies on four of his first eight holes on Sunday before seeing his chances slip away with costly bogeys on No. 9 and 13, which left him one shot behind Kenny Perry. Made six of eight PGA Tour cuts while utilizing his one-time exemption in the top 50 on the Tour career money list. Best finish was a T-34th at the Zurich Classic. Finished 39th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Suffered a serious injury during a fall on Thanksgiving (2014) morning when his hand went through a plate-glass window, cutting a tendon on top of his hand. Underwent surgery to reattach the tendon in early December and was unable to play in a tournament until the end of March at Tucson. Teamed with Steve Lowery at the Bass Pro Shop Legends of Golf for a T-third finish at Big Cedar Lodge. The pair was 12-under par over the weekend. His comeback was completed when he ended nearly a three-year victory drought by winning The Principal Charity Classic by one stroke over Brian Henninger and Joe Durant. Using a store-bought putter for the first time in an event, he managed to hold off a string of challengers Sunday. His only bogey on Sunday was on No. 14, and it dropped him back into a tie for the lead with Davis Love III at 11-under par, but he immediately chipped to two feet for a birdie on the following hole and never relinquished his lead. The victory came in his 67th start since his previous win on the Champions Tour in Montreal. Finished 36th on the money list and 35th in the Schwab rankings.

ROGER CHAPMAN

Birth Date: May 01, 1959

Birthplace: Nakuru, Kenya

Age: 57 Ht.: 6'0" Wt.: 185

Home: Ascot, England

Turned Professional: 1981

Joined PGA European Tour: 1981

PGA European Tour Playoff Record: 1-0

Joined Champions Tour: 2012

PGA European Tour Victories: 1 - 2000 Brazil Rio De Janeiro 500 Years Open

Champions Tour Victories: 2 - 2012 Senior PGA Championship, U.S. Senior Open

Other Victories: 1979 English Amateur Championship. 1981 Lytham Trophy, Lake Macquarie Amateur. 1998 Zimbabwe Open. 2000 King Hassan II Trophy.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 1, 2, 9

In 2012, he made history by becoming the first Englishman to win the Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid, earning a two-stroke victory over John Cook at Harbor Shores, in Benton Harbor, Mich. Barely two months later, he returned to Michigan to capture the U.S. Senior Open title at Indianwood in Lake Orion, becoming the first Englishman to win a USGA event since Tony Jacklin in the 1970 U.S. Open. He became only the fourth player after Gary Player (1987), Jack Nicklaus (1991) and Hale Irwin (1998) to collect the "senior major double" in the same season. Those were his maiden Champions Tour titles after multiple runner-up finishes.

On the European Senior Tour in 2011, Chapman was runner-up in the Mauritius Commercial Bank Open and joint runner-up in the Travis Perkins Senior Masters. He also posted two top-10 finishes to end the 2011 season in 11th position on the Order of Merit.

After working as a Tour Rules Official in 2007 and 2008, he joined the Senior Tour in 2009 and began by leading both the Son Gual Mallorca Senior Open and Irish Seniors Open in association with Fáilte Ireland and AIB Bank going into the final round, before finishing third and tying for third, respectively. Had a hole-in-one on his Senior Major Championship debut and just missed out on the Rookie of the Year award, when Mike Harwood won the final event of the season.

Won his maiden European Tour title on his 472nd start, defeating Pádraig Harrington at the second hole of a playoff for the 2000 Brazil Rio de Janeiro 500 Years Open. A six-time runner-up on the European Tour before winning in Brazil, he then went into the winner's circle late in 2000, capturing the Hassan II Trophy in Morocco. Reached 600 European Tour appearances in the 2005 Jazztel Open de Espana en Andalucia.

When he turned professional in 1981, it was with an impressive amateur pedigree, including an English Amateur Championship and a Walker Cup appearance in 1981, when he beat Hal Sutton twice in one day at Cypress Point.

2009 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 13; top-10 finishes - six; €97,663 (ranked 12th); Best finish - third at the Son Gual Mallorca Senior Open.

2010 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 17; top-10 finishes - five; €127,426 (ranked 13th); Best finish - T-second at the Handa Senior Masters.

2011 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 11 top-10 finishes - four; €129,816 (ranked 15th); Best finish - second at the Mauritius Commercial Bank Open.

2012 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - nine; top-10 finishes - four; €356,751 (ranked first); Best finish - won the Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid and the U.S. Senior Open.

2013 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - four; top-10 finishes - one; €25,717 (ranked N/A); Best finish - T-fourth at the MCB Tour Championship.

2013 Notes: After becoming the biggest surprise story on the Champions Tour of all time, he went from being a conditionally-exempt player to having fully-exempt status through 2014. He took advantage of that status by playing in 25 of the Champions Tour's 26 2013 events, posting one top 10, a T-10th at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, and he finished the year 50th on the money list.

In 2014, he had one top-10, T-sixth at the Encompass Championship.

2014 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - three; top-10 finishes - none; €21,827 (ranked N/A); Best finish - T-19th Senior Open Championship.

2014 Notes: After finishing 50th on the money list in 2013, bounced back with a much-improved season. Made a late run for a spot in the top 30, but fell short, finishing 34th on the money list and 49th in the Schwab Rankings. Got as high as 32nd with two full-field events remaining after a T-third at the Nature Valley First Tee Open, his best finish of the year and best Champions Tour effort since winning the 2012 U.S. Senior Open.

2015 Notes: Finished T-fifth with partner, Russ Cochran, at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April. A month later, he finished T-13th at the Senior PGA Championship. Finished 53rd on the money list and 74th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Teamed with David Frost to finish second by one shot back of Michael Allen and Woody Austin at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. His 25-foot chip on the final hole for birdie lipped out moments before Allen sank an 18-foot birdie putt for the win. Rebounded from an opening-round 2-over-par 74 at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic with rounds of 66-69 on the weekend to finish T-ninth.

Other Victories: 1983 Magnolia Classic, Greater Baltimore Open. 1991 Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic. 2011 Lime Jamaica Open.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 11, 18

Started playing golf when he was 10 by going to a neighboring golf course with his older brother. Naturally left-handed, he started using women's clubs because they were the only left-handed clubs he could find.

After playing for the University of Kentucky golf team, his goal was to play on the PGA Tour. Went to Qualifying School, but didn't make it until his third try in 1982. With the advent of the Tournament Players Series in 1983, he had another avenue to gain professional experience. In 18 starts on the TPS, he won two tournaments (Magnolia Classic and Greater Baltimore Open) and led the series in money won with $100,863. In 1984, he won $133,342, which placed him 51st on the money list. He was in the top 125 every year from 1984-2000, except 1995 and 1999.

Played full-time on the PGA Tour from 1983-2004, making 598 career starts, 356 cuts and recording 58 top-10 finishes. Best finish was a win at the 1991 Western Open.

Has found success on the Champions Tour, finishing third at the 2009 U.S. Senior Open at Crooked Stick and T-third at the 2010 Senior Open. Recorded wins at the Posco E&C Songdo Championship and the SAS Championship in 2010.

2011 Notes: Made 18 appearances and was sidelined from late April until early July with a right wrist injury, returning to action at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Still managed to finish among the top-five money-winners for a second consecutive year, thanks to top-5 finishes in five of his first seven tournaments and eventually the biggest victory of his career in late July at the 2011 Senior Open in England.

2012 Notes: Despite back problems, which caused him to miss nearly three months of the season, he posted six top-10 finishes, earning a spot in the top 30 for the fourth consecutive year. His best finish was in June when he was the opening-round leader at the Montreal Championship before eventually finishing T-third. Withdrew after two rounds at the U.S. Senior Open with a back problem, which subsequently kept him out of the Senior Open, denying him the opportunity to defend his title. Did not return to the Champions Tour until the SAS Championship in early October.

2013 Notes: Won multiple titles in a season for the first time since 2010, finishing fifth on the final money list - the third time in the last four years he's placed among the top five in single-season Champions Tour earnings. Ended an almost-two-year victory drought at The Principal Charity Classic in Iowa. Edged Jay Don Blake by one stroke when Blake three-putted the 17th green to fall out of a tie for the lead at the Wakonda Club in Des Moines, Iowa. Victory ended a run of 35 tournaments since his last triumph in England at the 2011 Senior Open Championship. Added a second win in mid-October when he edged David Frost by one stroke at the SAS Championship, the same event he won three years earlier.

2014 Notes: Was one of only two players (David Frost) to play in every tournament. In the 26 events he played, his best finish was third at the Constellation Senior Players when he missed a playoff spot with Bernhard Langer and Jeff Sluman by a shot. Finished 17th on the money list, it was the sixth time he has been in the top 30. Also finished 18th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Finished T-fifth with partner Roger Chapman at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April. Closed with a 4-under par 68 for a T-sixth finish at the Tucson Conquistadors Classic in March. Also finished T-ninth at the Insperity Invitational, thanks to a 69 on Sunday at Woodlands C.C. Finished third at the Constellation Senior Players for the second consecutive year, thanks to four rounds of par or better at Belmont C.C. Finished 30th on the money list and 29th in the Schwab rank.

2016 Notes: Cochran has endured injuries for years to his back, but an elbow issue sidelined him, and he didn't make his first start until the Senior Open Championship where he finished T-66th.

GREG CONDON (a)

Birth Date: December 16, 1961

Birthplace: Orange County, Calif.

Age: 54 Ht.: 5'8" Wt.: 160

Home: Monte Vista, Colo.

College: Adam State College

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot a 69 to grab the second and final qualifying spot from UNM Championship Golf Course in Albuquerque, N.M.

Condon will be making his fourth USGA championship appearance after qualifying to three U.S. Amateur Public Links Championships (2010, 2012 and 2013). In the first of his three appearances, Condon reached the round of 64 at Bryan Park in Greensboro, N.C. He made a name for himself in 2012 at Soldier Hollow Golf Course in Midway, Utah, by defeating the 2011 U.S. Junior Amateur runner-up Chelso Barrett in the round of 64, and giving former University of Florida All-American T.J. Vogel all he could handle in the round of 32. Vogel held him off, winning 1 up. Following the match, Vogel said, "That was an incredible performance. I can't say enough about the guy." Condon made the round of 32 again the next year at Laurel Hill Golf Club in Lorton, Va.

Condon stopped playing golf for a while, but when his son, Luke, began to play, Condon pushed back into the game. Luke, a college golfer at Colorado Christian University, caddies for Greg, and will again at the U.S. Senior Open. Condon plays in events in the Sun County Section, like the Pacific Coast Amateur, an event he's played in multiple times. He also has won the New Mexico State Amateur.

Condon works in sales at the C&L Container Company, which is a potato packaging supplier. Away from golf, Condon likes spending time with his family, camping and fishing.

He and his wife, Kana, have two children, Luke, 24, and Arika, 22.

He is playing in his first U.S. Senior Open.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 19, 22

He was born in Ohio, but grew up in Southern California. His high school sporting interests included golf, basketball and football. After deciding he was too light for football and too short for basketball, he began concentrating solely on golf. In 1974, he won the World Junior, and, on the advice of Jack Nicklaus and Tom Weiskopf, chose to play college golf at Ohio State. He was an All-American selection there for three years, leading the team to the 1979 NCAA title. In 1978, he won the U.S. Amateur, 5-and-4, over Scott Hoch at Plainfield (N.J.) Country Club. In the 1979 U.S. Amateur, he lost in the finals to Mark O'Meara.

He turned professional after that championship and won the 1981 Crosby in his second year on the PGA Tour. After several years of playing through hand pain, he had an operation on his right hand in 1989. He returned slowly to competition, losing playoffs twice in 1990. In 1992, he won three times, finishing second at both the Open Championship and PGA Championship, and ended up third on the money list. He was a member of the 1993 Ryder Cup Team and played full-time on the PGA Tour from 1980-2007 in 704 events. He won 11 times, finished in the top-10 98 times and notched earnings of more than $12.6 million.

2011 Notes: Finished third in his only PGA Tour appearance of the year at the Mayakoba Golf Classic at Riviera Maya-Cancun. He also finished third on the official Champions Tour money list for the third consecutive season and was among the top-5 money-winners for a fourth straight year. Won three official events in a year for the first time since the 1992 PGA Tour season, tying Tom Lehman for most Champions Tour victories.

2012 Notes: Surpassed the $1 million mark in yearly earnings for the fifth-consecutive year, but his five-year streak of winning at least one event in a season was halted.

2013 Notes: Started his season with a playoff victory over David Frost at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship. Started his final round two strokes behind Frost and trailed throughout the final round before finally pulling even with a 15-foot birdie on No. 18 to set up the playoff, which he won on the second hole with a birdie. After that, he had eight additional top 10s, including a runner-up finish at the Boeing Classic. Finished 11th on the Champions Tour money list, marking the first time in his six years playing on the Tour that he failed to finish inside the top 10.

2014 Notes: Despite missing 10 weeks and five events throughout the season due to an injury (left-rib fracture to his ninth rib), he managed to rebound and secure a spot among the top-20 on the final money list for a seventh straight year. Ended a 20-month victory drought by edging Tom Byrum by a shot at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. It was one of his five top-10 finishes for the year. Finished 18th on the money list and 22nd in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Teamed with former college teammate, Joey Sindelar, to claim a T-fifth finish at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April. The pair led after the opening round and trailed by two after 36 holes, but could not maintain their momentum in the final round, finishing five shots back. Was also T-fifth at The Principal Charity Classic. Failed to finish among the top 30 for the first time in his Champions Tour career, troubled early in the year with a rib injury. Went on to finish 50th on the money list and 57th in the Schwab ranking.

2016 Notes: Another slow start to his year, his best finish so far is T-12th at the Bass Pro Shops Legends with partner Joey Sindelar.

Daly started to play golf at age 4 when his father gave him a set of cut-down clubs. He won the 1983 and '84 Missouri and Arkansas State Amateurs and the 1987 Missouri Open. After he turned professional in 1987, Daly competed on the South African Tour and then played on the Ben Hogan Tour in 1990. He won the Ben Hogan Utah Classic and finished ninth in earnings on the Hogan Tour, then got his PGA Tour card by finishing 14th at the 1990 Q-School. Daly had a most auspicious rookie year on the Tour, dazzling everyone with his length and winning the 1991 PGA Championship at Crooked Stick as the ninth alternate and without benefit of a practice round. Won the 1992 B.C. Open, and then after a very public struggle with alcohol, won his first tournament sober, the 1994 BellSouth Classic in Atlanta. Captured the 1995 Open Championship at St. Andrews, defeating Italy's Constantino Rocca in a four-hole playoff. Always a crowd-pleaser, Daly is one of the longest hitters golf has ever seen. Between 1991 and 2002, he led the Tour's driving-distance category 11 of the 12 years.

2012 Notes: Competing on a sponsor's exemption, collected his first top 10 of the season, a T-5 at the Reno-Tahoe Open, an event that used the modified Stableford scoring format. The T-5 was his first top 10 on the PGA Tour since a T-9 at the 2011 RBC Canadian Open and his best finish on the PGA Tour since he finished runner-up to Tiger Woods in a playoff at the 2005 World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship. Briefly held the lead after an eagle on the par-5 13th in the third round, but he followed with three consecutive bogeys and never regained a share of the lead. In mid-December, finished T-15 at the rain-shortened Iskandar Johor Open in Malaysia, 10 strokes off Sergio Garcia's winning total. Did have a top 10 in his only Web.com Tour start, T-6 at the News Sentinel Open.

2013 Notes: Made four of 12 cuts, finishing 235th in the FedExCup standings. In his 12th start of the season, at The Greenbrier Classic, was forced to withdraw due to an elbow injury. A week later, underwent season-ending elbow surgery in Fayetteville, Ark. Was able to play again in October; in his first start, finished T-48 at the BMW Masters on the European Tour.

2014 Notes: Played in 20 events on the PGA Tour, European Tour and Web.com Tour, best finish was T-32nd at the Sony Open in Hawaii. Finished 76th in his only Web.com Tour start of the year at the South Georgia Classic.

2015 Notes: Had a T-10 in Puerto Rico, his first top 10 since the 2012 Barracuda Championship (T-5th). Suffered a collapsed lung Aug. 29 on the 18th tee at a pro-am event at Deerfield CC in Canton, Miss. Was treated at Baptist Medical Center in Jackson, Miss., and was back on the golf course the next day. Had a lingering rib injury since 2007 that caused severe pain and affected his breathing. Also made six starts on the European Tour and made three cuts.

2016 Notes: In his much-anticipated PGA Tour Champions debut at the Insuperity Invitational, posted rounds of 70-73-71—214 (2-under) to finish T-17th. Was T-15th in his next start, the Regions Tradition. Had a T-11 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

Home: Lakeland, Fla.

College: Florida Southern

Turned Professional: 1985

Joined PGA Tour: 1991

Joined Champions Tour: 2014

Champions Tour Victories: 2 - 2015 Tucson Conquistadores Classic, Senior Open Championship

Web.Com Tour Victories: 2002 LaSalle Bank Open.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 10, 18, 22

Started playing golf at age 9 after his family moved to a house on a golf course in Coral Springs, Fla. He was a teammate of two-time U.S. Open champion Lee Janzen and six-time PGA Tour winner Rocco Mediate at Florida Southern, graduating in 1985 before turning professional. Dawson has enjoyed a long career playing both the PGA and Web.com Tours. Competed on the PGA Tour from 1991 to 1997, 2000 to 2001, 2003 to 2008 and 2012, making 413 starts. Was runner-up in the 1995 Greater Milwaukee Open, finishing three strokes behind Scott Hoch. Also posted a third-place finish in the 1996 Buick Invitational, one of 18 career top-10 performances on the PGA Tour, earning a total of $4,321,879. He has competed in 161 Web.com Tour events, winning the 2002 LaSalle Bank Open, on 29 career top-10 finishes on the developmental circuit. He finished third on the money list in 1999 and eighth in 2002. Competed in Champions Tour Qualifying School in November 2013, finishing tied for 31st.

2013 Notes: Went to the Champions Tour's National Qualifying Tournament, but did not earn exempt status for 2014 after finishing T-31 at TPC Scottsdale. Made eight of 17 cuts on the Web.com Tour, posting both of his top-20 finishes within his first four starts on the Tour. Was T-13th at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open and T-19th at the Colombia Championship.

2014 Notes: Started the season as a non-exempt player, but open-qualified for four events early in the season and eventually played his way into fully-exempt status for 2015. Key to his season was a stretch just past the mid-point in the year when he was among the top five in four of five tournaments. Easily earned the most he's ever made in a single season in professional golf, his $952,814 surpassing the 2003 PGA Tour season when he earned more than $600,000. It appeared he was headed for his first victory in late October when he was the 36-hole leader, ahead of Michael Allen by three strokes with four holes remaining at the AT&T Championship. However, bogeys at No. 16 and 18 derailed his chances, leaving him in second place, two shots back. Prior to his finish in San Antonio, he was T-3 in August at the 3M Championship after open-qualifying for the event, the fourth time during the season he successfully played his way into the field. He then finished T-4 at the Dick's Sporting Goods and T-5th at the Boeing Classic. He finished the year 15th on the money list and 11th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Broke through for his first career win on the Champions Tour with a two-shot win at the inaugural Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March. Made a key 18-foot birdie putt on No. 16 which resulted in a two-shot lead over Bart Bryant, who eventually finished second. Posted three rounds in the 60s to end a victory drought of 12 years, 7 months, 11 days since his Web.com Tour victory in 2002. Since the win, he added a pair of top 10s — first a T-9 at the Senior PGA Championship and a T-7 at the Constellation Senior Players. He earned the signature win of his professional career in July when he won The Senior Open Championship at Sunningdale GC. Earned a career-best check of $319,090 as well as a berth in the 2016 Open Championship at Royal Troon. The next week back in the United States he finished 5th at the 3M Championship. Was 13th on the money list and 6th in the Schwab rankings. His winnings of $1,073,227 was the best year he had ever had, including his years on the PGA Tour.

2016 Notes: Finished T-4 in defense of his title at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic. Also was T-11 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Played in his first Open Championship finishing T-68, the next week in defending his Senior Open Championship title at Carnoustie was T-60.

PGA Tour Victories: 1 - 1999 Verizon Heritage

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 9

Day was born in Mobile, Ala., and raised in Poplarville, Miss., by his mother Jeanne Bass Day. Jeanne was widowed at the age of 28 when Glen was approximately 2 years of age. His grandfather Glyndol Bass, was young Glen's primary male role model. Bass, an avid golfer and member at Pearl River Valley Country Club just outside Poplarville, started Glen playing golf when he was 2 to 3 years of age. By the age of 10, he held a 5 handicap and was able to regularly shoot par. He graduated from Poplarville High School in 1983, attended the University of Oklahoma, then turned professional in 1988.

After several seasons in Asia and on the European Tour, Day gave up those cards to play in the United States, finishing T-11 at 1993 PGA Tour Q-School. He credits his grandfather with encouraging his pursuit of his golf career, in fact his grandfather co-signed a loan so he could play in Asia and Europe. He played on the PGA Tour full-time between 1994 and 2010 and had his best finish in 1998. He earned $638,938 in three spring tournaments, The Players, Zurich Classic of New Orleans and Heritage Classic, more than he had made in his 1996 and 1997 seasons combined. He finished 15th on the money list with $1,283,416. The next year (1999) he finished 34th on the money list with earnings of $1,109,513. Even though he made more money in '98 than '99, the latter had to be his best year on tour since he won the Heritage Classic. Played a total of 474 events on the PGA Tour with one victory, four runner-ups and five third-place finishes. He made 277 cuts and had 38 top 10s with earnings of $9,241,922. Day also played on the Web.com Tour in 2006, '10, '12-'15. In 92 starts, his best finish was 2nd in the 2006 Xerox Classic and Albertsons Boise Open. He finished in the top 10 21 times and made 47 cuts, earning $361,741.

On turning 50, Day went to the Champions Tour Q-School in 2015 but finished T-46th.

2016 Notes: Between sponsor exemptions and Tuesday qualifying, Day has been in several tournaments, his best finish was T-5th at the 3M Championship and T-6 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic & the Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

Birth Date: July 15, 1966

Age: 50 Ht.: 5'11" Wt.: 190

Home: Barry, Wales

Turned Professional: 1990

Joined PGA European Tour: 1995

PGA European Tour Playoff Record: 1-0

PGA European Tour Victories: 3 - 2005 Volvo China Open, Irish Open; 2006 European Open

Other Victories: European Challenge Tour Win: 1992 Bank Austria Open

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 27

Started out by searching for golf balls as an 11-year-old at Brynhill Golf Club in Wales, before enjoying a successful amateur career – the highlight being victory in The Amateur Championship in 1989. That gave him the opportunity to play in the 1990 Masters Tournament at Augusta National, where he played with Sandy Lyle and Curtis Strange.

The quiet-spoken Welshman enjoyed a sensational 2005, notching his first and second European Tour victories, playing a part in Great Britain and Ireland's Seve Trophy success over Continental Europe at The Wynyard Club and winding up his campaign with a glorious victory alongside Bradley Dredge in the WGC Algarve World Cup in Portugal. Finished tied 15th on his debut in the Volvo Masters in 2004 and used that performance as the springboard for his European Tour breakthrough in the following week's Volvo China Open, the first event of the 2005 season. Followed that with a second success in May when he won the Nissan Irish Open in a playoff with David Howell. The two victories, along with four other top-10 finishes, helped him to a career-high 17th place on the Order of Merit. Was not a stranger to success in his amateur days, winning the Amateur Championship at Royal Birkdale in 1989, the same season that Great Britain and Ireland pulled off a spectacular Walker Cup victory over the United States at Peachtree in Georgia. A Nottingham Forest fan, he has a dislike of flying but regards it as a "necessary evil." Coached by Terry Hanson, professional at Cardiff.

Played pretty much full-time on the European Tour between 1995 and 2013, played in 364 events and made 200 cuts. Has 26 top 10s, including three wins, he has earned euro 4,372,743.

Turned 50 in time to play in the Senior Open Championship at Carnoustie, where he finished T-14. Just before that, in order to get ready for senior golf played on the EuroPro Tour and won the HotelPlanner.com Open, beating Adam Hodkinson in a playoff.

Dunlap was born in Pittsburgh, Pa. He received an athletic scholarship to attend the University of Florida, where he played for the Gators men's golf team from 1982 to 1985, helping them to the 1985 Southeastern Conference championship. The same year, he was recognized as a first-team All-SEC selection, All-American and Golfweek Male Amateur of the Year. He received his bachelor's degree in finance in 1986, the same year his younger sister, former LPGA player and Vanderbilt head women's golf coach Page Dunlap [now Halpin], won the NCAA Women's Golf Championship as a member of the Gators women's golf team.

Dunlap played on the Web.com Tour in 1990, 1998 and from 2003 to 2013, notching two victories – the 2004 Mark Christopher Charity Classic and 2008 Panama Movistar Championship. He played on the PGA Tour in 1996, 1997, 1999 to 2002 and 2012. In 204 starts, his best performances on the PGA Tour include a trio of third-place finishes at the 1996 Bell Canadian Open, 1999 Doral-Ryder Open, and 2000 The Players Championship. His performance in the 2000 Players helped propel him to a career-best 44th-place finish on the PGA Tour money list. He has notched 10 top-10 finishes in his career on the PGA Tour, collecting $2,930,471 in earnings.

2013 Notes: Open-qualified for the AT&T Championship, the PGA Tour Champions' final full-field tournament. Finished T-15 in San Antonio. Had 22 starts on the Web.com Tour with a trio of top-10 finishes. Two of those were in his first four starts when he was T-4 at the Panama Claro Championship and T-6 at the Brasil Classic. Earned fully-exempt status for the Champions Tour in 2014 by virtue of his fourth-place finish at the National Qualifying Tournament at TPC Scottsdale. Closed with a 1-over par 73, and was one of five players to finish T-4 through 72 holes. Secured one of the two remaining fully-exempt positions by making par on the first playoff hole.

2014 Notes: Earned Rookie of the Year honors on the Champions Tour, thanks to a victory and pair of second-place finishes all within a four-event stretch in the latter third of the season. Earnings of $1.1 million were a personal best, surpassing his 2000 PGA Tour season ($1,040,244). The highlight of his year was in August when he defeated Mark Brooks in a one-hole playoff at the Boeing Classic. His win at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge came in his 16th start on the Champions Tour, and ended a victory drought of more than six years since a title in Panama on the Web.com Tour. For the win, he earned a check for $300,000, the largest of his career. Two weeks after winning the Boeing event, he nearly won again in Quebec City with an eagle on the last hole to appear to earn at least a playoff spot, but saw Wes Short Jr. finish fast with a birdie-birdie-eagle run to edge him by a shot at the Quebec Championship. His strong play continued in his next outing in Hawaii two weeks later. Had birdies on six of his first 12 holes Sunday to take the lead at one point at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship. A bogey at No. 13 would prove costly and lead to an eventual T-2 finish with Fred Funk, one stroke behind Paul Goydos. Finished the year 10th on the money list and 14th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Had 10 top-10 finishes in 22 starts, with a pair of runner-up finishes in the 3M Championship and the San Antonio Championship. Best finish in a major was T7 at the U.S. Senior Open. Was 10th on the money list and 13th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Had a runner-up finish at the Mississippi Gulf Resort and T-3 at the Chubb Classic.

Elliott is one of the more accomplished amateurs in USGA competition, despite not being a champion. Elliott is playing in his 25th USGA championship, 11 of them being U.S. Mid-Amateurs. In his first 10 Mid-Amateurs, Elliott reached match play in all of them, but the streak was ended in 2015 when he missed the cut. His furthest trek in the Mid-Amateur came in 2006 when he reached the quarterfinals. He represented Iowa in the 2014 USGA Men's State Team Championship, helping them to a third-place finish. Last year, he played in the U.S. Amateur Four-Ball with partner Mike McCoy, a USGA champion. They reached match play after finishing ninth in stroke play. They fell, however, in the round of 32 to Sherrill Britt and Greg Earnhardt, eventual runners-up.

Elliott, who owns Elliott Sanitation Company and Elliott Equipment Company, had open-heart surgery in 2000.

He is playing in his first U.S. Senior Open.

He played in three PGA Tour Champions events during the year prior to his victory at the Q-School. Open-qualified at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, where he finished T-45. Also qualified for the U.S. Senior Open at Oak Tree National GC but missed the cut after rounds of 75-82. Finished T-39 at the Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid.

2015 Notes: Played in 12 events with one top 10, T-7 at Boeing Classic. Was 70th on the money list and 65th in the Schwab rankings. Tried to regain his status at Champions Tour Q-School but finished T-53rd.

MIKE FINSTER (a)

Birth Date: June 17, 1965

Birthplace: Washington, D.C.

Age: 51 Ht.: 6'2 Wt.: 210

Home: St. Petersburg, Fla.

College: Northwestern University

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot a 70 to earn the second and final qualifying spot at Belleair Country Club's West Course in Belleair, Fla.

His father introduced him to the game at age 12. Before Finster played his first round, his dad made sure he knew the rules and etiquette.

Will be playing in his second U.S. Senior Open. He played in the 2015 U.S. Senior Open, where he made the age cut by five days. He made the cut, shooting 76-69-79-73, finishing 71st.

Personal mantra is, "Why not me!" Decided to qualify after his wife said, "Get off the couch. Get in the game."

Member of Tampa Jesuit High School Hall of Fame. Has a bachelor's degree in communication studies and political science from Northwestern University, where he graduated in 1987 and was captain of the golf team for three years. Finished in the top 10 of the Big Ten Championships twice, with his best finish third place. Claims 6 1/2 holes in one. The 'half' was from a collegiate tournament in Miami where he hit his first tee shot on No. 5 in the water, but re-teed and knocked his second ball in the hole with actor Don Johnson (Miami Vice) and Don Strock (Dolphins quarterback) as witnesses. Has made two double eagles and shot 59 twice.

His immediate family members include his wife, Marybeth; daughters, Heather, Ashley and Julia; and sons, Ryan and Joseph. All of his children, except Joseph, will attend the 2016 U.S. Senior Open because Finster jokingly fears he will try to do a sand angel in the first bunker he sees. Finster says all his children are very good swimmers and have made multiple Junior Olympic Trials.

Has played on the Sunshine PGA Tour in South Africa. He qualified through Qualifying school in Japan. He has traveled to Japan 32 times for golf tournaments, playing with Woody Austin, Eduardo Herrera and Rick Gibson, all of whom are in the 2016 U.S. Senior Open field. Has traveled to more than 30 countries for business and golf.

He has been employed by GAF, North America's largest roofing manufacturer, for the last 17 years. He currently plays golf once every 10 days or so and mostly in scramble-format tournaments with customers.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 23

Has been one of the best regular players on the European Seniors Tour since turning 50 in 2009. Has been in the top 15 of the order of merit since he led that list in 2011.

Captured his third Senior Tour title with victory in the 2013 French Riviera Masters as he finished in the top five on the Order of Merit for a third consecutive season. Recorded six top-five finishes in 2012, including runner-up in the Travis Perkins Plc Senior Masters and joint runner up in the MCB Tour Championship, as he finished fourth on the Order of Merit. The previous year in Mauritius, he lifted the John Jacobs Trophy after topping the 2011 Senior Tour Order of Merit following a fine campaign in which he won twice and finished in the top 10 13 times in 18 appearances. Claimed his first Senior Tour title in the ISPS Handa Senior Masters presented by The Stapleford Forum – his first victory in 18 years. Did not take long to make it two victories, coming from seven shots back in the final round of the Bad Ragaz PGA Seniors Open the following month. Became the third Australian to win the John Jacobs Trophy, following in the footsteps of Noel Ratcliffe and Ian Stanley. Initially struggled upon joining the Senior Tour after suffering a career-threatening back injury in practice before his Senior Tour debut in 2009. Played just four times that year, but worked tirelessly to recover and finished 29th on the Order of Merit in 2010. Won the Australian Open in 1983 and then finished second on The European Tour no fewer than six times between 1984 and 1992, before finally making his winning breakthrough in capturing the 1993 BMW International Open in Munich. Individual and Team winner of the World Cup in 1989 when partnering with Wayne Grady for Australia. But after his success in 1993, he struggled to find the same form and went back to the Qualifying School Final Stage four times, successfully graduating in 1999 and 2001 to regain his European Tour card. Began to show some of his old form in 2002, finishing 63rd on the Order of Merit. Improved on that performance in 2003, finishing 45th, helped by three top-10 finishes in his first six starts. Lost his card at the end of 2006, but bounced back via the 2007 Challenge Tour Rankings, taking the 18th card. Played on the European Tour between 1983 and 2008 and in 522 starts won once at the 1993 BMW International and was runner-up eight times. He finished 43 times in the top-10 and earned a total of euro 3,278,320.

Introduced to golf at age 14, when he would caddie for his dad and play a few holes. Played in his first South African Amateur when he was 18. At 20, he won the Western Province match-play title in Cape Town as an amateur in 1980. While still an amateur, he lost in the finals of the South African Match Play Championship. Also played in the British Amateur that year.

Turned professional in 1981 and ventured to the United States to play on the mini-tours, but didn't find much success. Went back to South Africa and finished second in the South African Order of Merit in the 1982-1983 season. Played on the European Tour in 1983 and 1984, winning the Cannes Open in 1984, thanks to two 20-footers on the final two holes. Planned to play in Europe for four years, but was so successful in his first two that he moved to get his PGA Tour card for the 1985 season. Was winless in his first three years on tour, but twice lost in playoffs, to Tom Kite in the 1986 Western Open and to Seve Ballesteros in the 1988 Westchester Classic. Broke through in 1988, winning the Southern Open in a playoff over Bob Tway and then the Tucson Open a month later. That same week, he won the unofficial Merrill Lynch Shoot-out Finals. Ended the 1988 season with 11 top-10 finishes in 25 starts. Won the 1989 NEC World Series of Golf, and in 1990 won the USF&G Classic in rather spectacular fashion. Needing a par on the final hole to tie Greg Norman, he hit his second shot in a greenside bunker, some 50 feet from the hole. From there, he holed his shot for a birdie and a one-stroke win. Since then his best year was 1993, when he won twice and passed $1 million in earnings. Dropped back to 20th on the money list in 1994, 50th in 1995, 54th in 1996, 50th in 1997 and 148th in 1998.

A full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1985 to 2005, he played in 531 events, made 333 cuts and posted 84 top-10 finishes with 13 runner-up finishes. From 1987 to 1996, he ranked among the top 25 players in the world every year but one, and won nine of his 10 PGA Tour titles and nine of his 12 international events during that span.

Prepared for the Champions Tour by playing on the European Tour in 2007, 2008 and 2009. Has a 300-acre estate in South Africa with a 100-acre vineyard.

2010 Notes: Broke through for his first Champions Tour victory when he lapped the field by seven strokes at the 3M Championship in August. Closed his rookie year on a high note when he finished T-3 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Earned $194,500, which pushed him past the $1 million mark in season earnings, with $1,186,992.

2011 Notes: Did not earn a victory in his second full Champions Tour season, but was in contention on the last day several times and managed to register seven overall top 10s among his 23 starts. Best finish was T-2 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. Also defended his MTB Tour Championship title at the end of the year and finished second to Tom Lehman in Mauritius.

2012 Notes: Enjoyed his finest year since joining the Champions Tour in late 2009. Recorded multiple victories in a season for the first time since 1993 on the PGA Tour and had his highest finish on the money list (ninth) in his three full-time seasons on the circuit. The first of his two wins came in April when he teamed with Michael Allen to win the Legends Division at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. Late in the year, he won the AT&T Championship in San Antonio, making a 10-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole to defeat Bernhard Langer. Closed out his competitive season by claiming the MCB Tour Championship in Mauritius on the European Senior Tour in December. Survived a double bogey and triple bogey in his final round en route to a one-stroke win over Barry Lane and Peter Fowler.

2013 Notes: Had his best season on the Champions Tour, with more than $1.8 million in earnings and a fourth-place finish in the final Charles Schwab Cup standings. Was among the top three six times in 25 appearances and won twice, including his first major win, the Regions Tradition.

2014 Notes: Went winless for the first time since 2011 and was the only player with more than seven figures in single-season earnings who did not have a victory. Joined Russ Cochran as the only other player to appear in all 26 events. Still managed to record nine top 10s, with five of those performances coming in the latter third of the season. Had his best outing of the season in July when he finished T-3 in the U.S. Senior Open. Ended the year 13th on the money list and in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Won for the first time in almost two years at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, his sixth career Champions Tour victory. Despite incurring a one-stroke penalty on the 17th green when he dropped his ball and it moved his coin, he sank a key 6-foot par putt on the last hole to preserve a one-stroke margin over Tom Lehman and Kevin Sutherland. Also had a runner-up at the Emcompass Championship, finishing three shots back of winner Jerry Smith. Frost also had a T-3 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, finishing four back of winner Jeff Maggert. Was 19th on the money list and 23rd in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Teamed with Roger Chapman to finish 2nd to Michael Allen and Woody Austin at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. Chapman's 25-foot chip on the final hole for birdie lipped out moments before Allen sank an 18-foot birdie putt for the win. Had a nice showing in his next start, finishing T-2 at the Insuperity Invitational, four behind Jesper Parnevik. Was T-7 at the Senior PGA Championship, T-5th at the 3M Championship.

Started to play golf at about age 10, picking up the game on his own. By 14 he knew he wanted to play on the PGA Tour. He tried for his Tour card in 1984, 1985 and 1986 with little success, and his dream of playing on the Tour suffered a serious setback when he tore a rotator cuff in 1987. He became the golf coach at the University of Maryland, and was successful competing as a PGA club professional, winning the 1984 FootJoy National Assistants Championship and the Maryland State Open in 1984 and 1987.

In 1988, he finally succeeded at Qualifying School, and then succeeded again the next year. In the 1990 season, had three top-10 finishes, and continued to improve, winning for the first time in 1992 at the Houston Open. Led the PGA Tour in driving accuracy in 1995, 1996, 1999, 2000 and 2003. Between 1990 and the end of the 2006 season, he played in 534 PGA Tour events, more than any other player in that time period.

In 2007, found success on both the PGA Tour and Champions Tour. Became just the second Champions Tour player (the first was Craig Stadler) to win an event on the Champions Tour and PGA Tour in the same season; at 50 years old he had his eighth PGA Tour victory at the Mayakoba Golf Classic in Mexico and won the Champions Tour's Turtle Bay Championship that year.

In 2008, was plagued by knee problems through much of the year, and he underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee in mid-

May before returning to action in early June. At the end of 2008, he suffered a staph infection in his right knee, which forced his 2009 season to start late.

Won the 2009 U.S. Senior Open at Crooked Stick when he blew away the field, winning by six shots. Fired a bogey-free 7-under par 65 on Sunday to win the title, the largest victory margin in the championship since 1987. Victory occurred after he lost two Champions Tour events in playoffs at The Principal Charity Classic and Senior Open Championship.

Won the Champions Tour's 2010 JELD-WEN Tradition, defending his 2009 JELD-WEN title. At the end of 2010, he underwent a clean-up procedure on his right knee.

2011 Notes: His season was cut short by injuries, with his last start coming in late July at the U.S. Senior Open. Days later, he underwent surgery to repair a torn ligament in his left thumb at the Cleveland Clinic. Three days later, he had surgery in Jacksonville, Fla., to repair scar tissue in his right knee. Regardless, he had four top-10 finishes, including a runner-up at the ACE Group Classic in Naples.

2012 Notes: Won multiple Champions Tour titles, finishing fourth on the money list and claiming the fifth spot in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race, along with its $100,000 annuity. Birdied four of the last five holes to win the Insperity Championship and became the first player since Tom Watson, in the 2007 Senior Open Championship at Muirfield (Scotland), to win a PGA Tour and Champions Tour event at the same venue, the Tournament Course at The Woodlands C.C. in Houston, Texas. Five months later, he won the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn.

2013 Notes: Battled through a case of vertigo during the year, but still played in 24 events and had three top-three finishes. He and his teammate, Mike Goodes, finished T-2 at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. Was the only player to record four consecutive par-or-better scores at the U.S. Senior Open, but still finished second, five strokes behind the winner, Kenny Perry, at Omaha (Neb.) C.C. It marked his second consecutive runner-up finish in the event and along with his victory in 2009 and a runner-up finish in 2008, he has finished either first or second four times in the last six years. Late in the year, he closed with a 67 to finish T-3 at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio, Texas, and ended the season 15th in the money race.

2014 Notes: Turned in six of his eight top-10 performances on the season starting in early June when he teamed with Jeff Sluman to win the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf. In September, he nearly won a second when he battled Scott Dunlap and eventual winner Paul Goydos throughout the final round at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship before finishing T-2, one shot back. He finished 38th on the money list and 35th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Closing with a 66 at the Allianz Championship, including an eagle on the last hole, he finished T-3. He finished T-9 at the Regions Tradition and T-6 at the Encompass Championship. Was 33rd on the money list and 37th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Started the year T-11 at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, his best finish of the year. His only top-10 was a T-8 at the American Family Insurance.

DOUG GARWOOD

Birth Date: March 31, 1963

Birthplace: Van Nuys, Calif.

Age: 53 Ht.: 6'3" Wt.: 195

Home: Chatsworth, Calif.

College: Fresno State

Turned Professional: 1989

Joined Champions Tour: 2013

Champions Tour Playoff Record: 0-1

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot a 68 and won a playoff to grab the first alternate spot at Annandale Golf Club in Pasadena, Calif. Father got him started in the game. Held various retail and insurance jobs during time away from the golf course. Says making it to the final stage of the PGA Tour National Qualifying Tournament was his biggest thrill in golf. He got to the final stage twice, in 2001 and 2003. Has played on the Web.com Tour where he played full time between 2002 and 2005. In 95 events his best finish was T-2 at the 2002 State Farm Open, losing in a four-man playoff in an event eventually won by Andy Miller. Garwood did have four top-10 finishes and earned $167,958. His best year on that tour was in 2002 when he finished 49th on the money list in 27 starts.

Attended the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament in November 2013 and finished eighth overall. Saw his opportunity to earn one of the five fully-exempt positions available slip away when he three-putted for bogey on the final hole of regulation and fell back into a T-4 with four others. Eventually dropped four spots when he made a double bogey on his second playoff hole.

2013 Notes: Made five official starts on the PGA Tour Champions after turning 50 in March. Finished 57th on the money list, aided by two strong showings during the year. First open-qualified for the Champions Tour at The Principal Charity Classic, where he was T-7. His second top-10 came in September at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, where he claimed a T-2 finish after open-qualifying earlier in the week. Returned to Champions Tour Q-School and T-4th getting his card for 2014.

2014 Notes: Troubled by bulging-disc issues in the latter part of the season but took advantage of his conditionally exempt status at the start of the season to play his way into a full exemption for 2015. Was among the top 10 in a third of his 18 starts even though he did not play in an event from mid-February through mid-May. Nearly won his first Champions Tour title when he lost in a two-hole playoff to Tom Pernice Jr. at The Principal Charity Classic. Backed up his performance in Iowa with a 4th-place finish at the Encompass Championship. Was again in the mix in mid-August at the Boeing Classic when he had a T-5. One week later, was T-9 at the Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary and then three weeks later, finished T-7 at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship. Cemented his spot among the top 30 on the money list when he was T-6 at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic in October. Was 26th on the money list and 28th in the Schwab ranking.

2015 Notes: Back issues (bulging disc) caused him to miss most of the season before he returned to action in October at the San Antonio Championship where he finished T-62. In his next start in the final full-field event, was T-9 at the Toshiba Classic.

2016 Notes: Got his year going with a T-6 in his first event at the Allianz Championship. Was also T-9 at the Regions Tradition.

Age: 54 Ht.: 6'3" Wt.: 175

Home: Bushy, England

Turned Professional: 1981

Joined PGA European Tour: 1991

PGA European Tour Victories: 1 - 2003 Open de France Alstom

European Senior Tour Victories: 2 - 2013 Speedy Services Wales Senior Open, 2014 French Riviera Masters

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 23

Golding was born in Luton, England, and was a promising cricketer for the Middlesex Colts before starting golf at age 17. He turned professional in 1981, becoming an assistant at his local golf club at Arkley in his home county of Hertfordshire. Golding has been a regular fixture at the European Tour's Qualifying School, where in 2008 he stretched his record to 19 appearances. He has often won a tour card, but up to the age of 40, he had never done well enough on the Tour to retain his card automatically.

In 2003, Golding won the Open de France, one of Europe's most prestigious events, on his 201st tour start. Golding claimed the emotionally-charged victory at Le Golf National, birdieing the final hole to beat David Howell by a shot. His prize of Euro 416,660 was more than twice as much as he had ever won in a complete season before that year, and he finished the season with a career-best 32nd place on the Order of Merit. After falling away again in 2004 he had a solid season in 2005, with a pair of top-10 finishes. He returned to Qualifying School again in 2006 and 2007. In 2008, he was again unable to retain his place on the elite tour, and dropped to the Challenge Tour in 2009. He played full-time on the European Tour between 1994 and 2008 and has played 341 events with 10 top-10 finishes and earnings of €1,700,054.

After a promising start to his Senior Tour career in 2012, with two runner-up finishes, Golding claimed his first title in June 2013, overcoming tough conditions at Royal Porthcawl with a superb closing 66 to win the Speedy Services Wales Senior Open. It was at the same tournament in 2012 that he rewrote the record books, carding an opening-round 64 to match the weekend rounds he posted the previous weekend in the SSE Scottish Senior Open – the first time a hat-trick of 64s had been achieved on the European, Senior or Challenge Tour. However, on both occasions he missed the title, finishing runner-up to Anders Forsbrand in Scotland and Barry Lane in Wales, respectively. He ended the 2013 Senior Tour season in sixth on the Order of Merit, with eight top-10 finishes. He was consistent throughout 2014 with seven top-10 finishes. After losing a three-way playoff at the WINSTONgolf Senior Open, he went one better in the following event by winning the French Riviera Masters for his second Senior Tour victory. He came close again with his third T-2 of the season at the Dutch Senior Open, the very next event.

2012 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 7; top-10 finishes - 2; €95,302 (ranked 17th); Best finish - second at the Speedy Services Wales Senior Open and SSE Scottish Senior Open.

2013 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 14; top-10 finishes - 8; €152,166 (ranked 6th); Best finish - won the Speedy Services Wales Senior Open.

2014 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 14; top-10 finishes - 7; €189,117 (ranked 4th); Best finish - won the French Riviera Masters.

2015 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 12; top-10 finishes - 4; €108,127 (ranked 5th); Best finish 2nd Swiss Senior Open.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 9, 19, 22

His uncle, Bob Goalby, won the 1968 Masters. At age 5, Haas took his first swings with a short, broken club that Goalby had regripped. Under Goalby's watchful eye, he placed third in the first tournament he ever entered, the National Pee Wee championship. Had a successful amateur career, capped by playing on the 1975 Walker Cup USA Team and winning the 1975 NCAA Championship.

Earned his PGA Tour card in the fall of 1976 and won $32,326 his first year on tour. In 1978, won the Andy Williams-San Diego Open by three strokes. Would have big seasons in both 1981 and '82, winning twice each year and moving up to 15th and 13th on the money list. He was a member of the Ryder Cup Team for the first time in 1983 (he would play again in 1995 and in 2004).

In 1987, he won the Houston Open. Since joining the tour in 1977 and up to 2004, has finished in the top 60 on the money list 21 times and the top 100 every year but one (2000). In his PGA Tour career, which spanned from 1977 to 2005, he played in 799 events winning nine times, runner-up 14 times and third 12 times. He has career earnings of $14.4 million.

Became a full-time member of the Champions Tour in 2005. Owns 15 Champions Tour victories and was the Tour's leading money winner in 2006 and 2007.

2011 Notes: He won the 3M Championship in Minnesota. This was his 15th career victory, but his first in 22 months, and ended a winless streak of 41 events.

2012 Notes: Finished among the top 30 money winners for a seventh consecutive year, and his seventh-place showing in earnings marked the fifth time in eight full-time Champions Tour seasons he was among the top 10. Surpassed the $1 million mark for the sixth time in eight years. Won for the 16th time in his Champions Tour career at The Principal Charity Classic in June. Teamed with Morgan Pressel in June to win the CVS/Caremark Charity Classic by one stroke over Corey Pavin and Lexi Thompson. Teamed with his son, Bill, in late August to post an eight-stroke victory at the Umpqua Bank Challenge in Portland, Ore.

2013 Notes: Was among the top 30 money winners on the Champions Tour for a ninth consecutive year, finishing 21st and six of his seven top-10 efforts during the season came in the first half of the season. Played his best golf during a stretch of four events when he was not outside the top seven. Best effort during that run was a T-2 at the Senior PGA Championship at Bellerive. Shared the first-round lead and was in contention all four rounds in May in St. Louis. The week after, he finished T-7 in defense of his Principal Charity Classic title. He and teammate Fred Couples finished T-4 at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in April. One week later, he matched the low Sunday round at the Insuperity Championship, and his 67 jumped him to a T-6. Other than that four-event stretch, he played well starting in mid-March when he closed with rounds of 66-67 at the Toshiba Classic to finish T-3. Was also T-4 at the 3M Championship, thanks to a final-round 65. Served as a captain's assistant to Fred Couples on the victorious Presidents Cup USA Team at Muirfield Village.

In 2014, going into the Constellation Senior Players Championship, he played 11 events with only one finish outside of the top 10. Of his 10 top 10s, his best finish was T-2 at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf in which he teamed with Peter Jacobsen - they missed a playoff by one shot.

2014 Notes: Had perhaps the most remarkable season by a player over age 60, finishing third in both earnings and Charles Schwab Cup points, thanks to 17 top 10s, the most he's had in a single season since 2007 (18). Was among the top 30 money-winners for a 10th consecutive year. Incredibly, only two of his 64 rounds during the season were over par, the fewest ever by a player in a full Champions Tour season. Ranked second only to Bernhard Langer in scoring (68.39) and birdie average (4.41), while being the leading player in the All-Around category (91). Went from the final day of the Regions Tradition (May 18) through the second round of the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship (October 31) without an over-par round. His 38 scores of par or better during this stretch set an all-time Champions Tour mark, eclipsing Loren Roberts' 37 consecutive during the 2006-2007 seasons. During this run, he also had a season-best streak of 28 consecutive sub-par scores. After several brushes with victory early in the year, he won the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn. It was his third victory in the event, making him just the 18th player in Champions Tour history age 60 or older to win a tournament. At 60 years, 10 months, 17 days, he also became the 10th-oldest winner in Champions Tour history. Nearly added a second win two weeks later when he fell in a four-hole playoff to Tom Pernice Jr. at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship on the Cochise Course at the Desert Mountain Club. Was also a second-place finisher in June when he teamed with Peter Jacobsen to finish second by one shot at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf. Prior to his Legends performance, had been among the top five in nine of his first 10 starts in 2014, finishing third in five events.

In his 1,000th combined-career Tour start, shot rounds of 65-66 on the weekend to move into a T-6 finish at the Constellation Senior Players Championship. During the week of the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf, was named captain for the 2015 Presidents Cup USA Team.

2015 Notes: With duties as the captain of the USA Presidents Cup team, he played in just 15 events, the fewest he has played in a season since 2005. Posted his lone top-10 finish, a T-6 at the Allianz Championship. Led the USA to victory at The Presidents Cup in South Korea in September.

2016 Notes: Started the year finishing T-4 at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Hasn't had a top 10 since, best finish T-14 at Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

GARY HALLBERG

Birth Date: May 31, 1958

Birthplace: Berwyn, Ill.

Age: 58 Ht.: 5'10" Wt.: 160

Home: Castle Rock, Colo.

College: Wake Forest

Turned Professional: 1980

Joined PGA Tour: 1980

PGA Tour Playoff Record: 0-2

Joined Champions Tour: 2008

PGA Tour Victories: 3 - 1983 Buick Invitational; 1987 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee; 1992 Buick Challenge

Champions Tour Victories: 1 - 2010 Ensure Classic at Rock Barn

Web.Com Tour Victories: 1 - 2002 Northeast Pennsylvania Classic.

Other Victories: 1979 NCAA Championship (indiv.). 1981 Lille Open. 1982 Chunichi Crowns Invitational. 1986 Chrysler Team Championship [with Scott Hoch].

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot a 65 to earn medalist honors at North Hills Country Club in Menomonee Falls, Wis.

Started playing the game at age 9 when his dad brought home a set of old clubs. When he was 15, he and his dad turned some of their 15 acres into a course where he could play and practice at home all the time. With all of his hard work, he earned a scholarship to Wake Forest, where he became the first four-time, first team All-American selection. He was the NCAA champion in 1979, won a total of 14 college tournaments and played on the 1977 USA Walker Cup Team.

Turned professional in 1980 and was the first player to earn his Tour card by winning the minimum $8,000 needed at that time to obtain playing privileges without going through Q-School. In his first 11 tournaments, he won $64,244 and finished the year with six top-10 finishes. Also won the PGA Tour Rookie of the Year in 1980. Won the 1983 Andy Williams-San Diego Open, thanks to a 8-foot birdie putt on the last hole. He nearly won the same title again the next year, but Gary Koch shot a final-round 65 and beat him on the second playoff hole with a birdie. In 1987, he won the Greater Milwaukee Open, thanks to chipping in from 50 feet on the 17th hole during the final round.

Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1980 and 2006. In 567 events played, he won three times and had earnings of $2.5 million.

Earned his first and only Champions Tour victory at the 2010 Ensure Classic at Rock Barn with a sizzling final-round 61, giving him a one-stroke victory over Fred Couples.

2011 Notes: Played in every event except the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship and finished 48th on the money list. That forced a visit to the 2011 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament in Scottsdale, Ariz., and he finished T2, earning exempt status for the 2012 season.

2012 Notes: Finished among the top 30 money-winners for the first time in his five seasons on the Champions Tour with six top-10 finishes. Enjoyed his best finish since his victory at the 2010 Ensure Classic when he was second to Fred Couples at the Senior Open Championship at Turnberry.

Has four top 10s on the Champions Tour this season.

2013 Notes: A year after finishing 20th on the money list, dropped to 43rd, with just one top-10 finish for the year. That top 10 did not come until October, at the SAS Championship, when he worked his way up the leader board with three straight rounds in the 60s and eventually finished 4th. Only other top-20 outing came in April, at the Greater Gwinnett Championship (T-17).

2014 Notes: Finished outside the top 50 for the first time since 2009 when he placed 57th on the money list and 64th in Schwab rankings in 21 starts. Turned in his best performance in almost a year when he was among the leaders after two rounds of the 3M Championship. Started the week as the second alternate, as he eventually finished T9. Closed with rounds of 68-69 at Prestonwood CC to finish T-10 at the SAS Championship. Underwent surgery for prostate cancer in December.

2015 Notes: Bounced back from his surgery and came back on tour at the ACE Group Classic. In 13 starts didn't have a top 10, best finish was T-15 at the Greater Gwinnett Championship. Was 81st on the money list and tried to get his tour status back at Champions Tour Q-School. Finished T-36th, had a disappointing 73 in the last round that dropped him out of the top 30.

2016 Notes: T-7 at the Regions Tradition.

Started playing golf at the age of 7. Member of the Canadian Tour from 1988-89. Member of the Asian Tour from 1992-2002. 1992 Asian Tour Order of Merit champion. Winner of the 1992 Thailand Open, Singapore Rolex Masters and Korean Open. Hamilton joined Japan Golf Tour after winning Asian Tour Order of Merit in 1992, before that he was thinking of quitting the game but didn't and gained eligibility to the Japan Tour. Three-time NCAA All-American.

Secured his place in golf folklore with a stunning victory in The Open Championship at Royal Troon in 2004, holding off Ernie Els during a four-hole playoff to win the Claret Jug. His win sparked the biggest celebrations ever seen in his former home of Oquawka, Ill., a sleepy town whose previous claim to fame was the circus elephant buried in the town square. Prior to his Open triumph, the American was one of the world's most prolific winners, having won four times in Japan the previous year. Played the Asian and Japan Tours, winning 14 times, prior to winning his US PGA Tour card at his eighth attempt at the end of 2003.

College: USC

Turned Professional: 1983

Joined Champions Tour: 2012

Web.Com Tour Victories: 1 - 2000 Steamtown Classic

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shared medalist honors at Vista Valley Country Club in Vista, Calif. after carding a 68.

Played on the PGA Tour in 1985, 1989, 1990, 1996, 1997, 2001 and 2005. In 181 starts, he finished in the top 10 once, T-4 at the 1988 Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic. Regained his PGA Tour card by virtue of his career-best 15th-place finish on the 2000 Nationwide Tour money list. Had nine top-25 finishes that year, including his first career win at the inaugural Steamtown Classic. Opened with rounds of 72-70 at Glenmaura National and then tied the course record with a 5-under par 65 in Saturday's round to join three others in first place. Posted a 68 on Sunday to win by one over Ian Leggatt. He won in his 209th professional event (129 PGA Tour, 80 Nationwide). First-place check of $81,000 vaulted him from No. 31 to No. 8 on the season money list.

On the Web.com Tour in 2004, finished 85th on the money list in 14 starts. Two top-10 finishes were a T-5th at the Rheem Classic and T-4 at the Cox Classic. Had a double eagle during the third round in Omaha, Neb., one of five posted during the season.

Rejoined the PGA Tour in 2005 after his fourth successful trip through PGA Tour National Qualifying Tournament in 2004. Ended the season with nine made cuts in 23 starts. A T-25 finish at the Buick Championship represented his only top-25 finish. Made one cut in three starts in 2009 on the Web.com Tour and finished T-11 at the Soboba Classic.

On the Web.com Tour, he played in 179 events, winning once and recording 22 top-10 finishes and earnings of $538,633.

2011 Notes: Earned exempt status through the 2012 reorder by finishing fourth at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament in Scottsdale, Ariz., in November. Qualified for four events during the year, with his best effort coming in the year's final full-field event. He recorded three straight rounds in the 60s to finish T-6 at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio.

2012 Notes: Played in 19 events with three top-20 finishes. Best showings were a pair of T-13s at the Encompass Insurance Pro-Am and Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Also T-16 at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship. He finished 47th on the money list with $278,013. Returned to Champions Tour Qualifying School and finished T-11, not enough for his card in 2013.

2013 Notes: Started the season conditionally exempt. However, parlayed solid play during a three-event run in the early summer, which netted him nearly half his season earnings and helped him in the late-season reshuffle. Finished the year 40th on the money list with two top-10 finishes. Matched his best career Champions Tour finish when he was T-6 at the Constellation Senior Players Championship in Pittsburgh, Pa., followed by a T-14 at the U.S. Senior Open in Omaha, Neb., where he shot 65 in the final round. Was T-8 at The Senior Open Championship at Royal Birkdale, closing with

3-under 67. Regardless, he was forced back to Champions Tour Qualifying School, and was among five players at T-4 by the end of regulation. By making par on the first playoff hole, which earned him the fifth spot, he became fully exempt for the 2014 season.

2014 Notes: Finished 42nd on the money list, posting career-bests for earnings in a season ($417,513) and notched four top-10 finishes in 22 starts. His four top-10 outings surpassed his totals for his four previous years combined. Posted the best finish of his Champions Tour career when he was T-5 at the Toshiba Classic on the strength of three straight rounds in the 60s. Also had a pair of T-10 finishes at The Principal Charity Classic and SAS Championship.

2015 Notes: Turned in his best performance on the Champions Tour with a T-3 at the Regions Tradition, the first major championship of the year. After opening with a 1-under-par 71, he shot rounds of 69-68-69 to finish just three back of winner Jeff Maggert. Played bogey-free over his final 54 holes and had just two bogeys in the event, the fewest by a player in event history. Earned $151,225, a career best as a professional. Had a second top-10 performance in a senior major when he was T-7 at the Constellation Senior Players Championship, thanks to four consecutive sub-par rounds. His last top 10 was a T-9 at the SAS Championship. Was 38th on the money list and 32nd on the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Was T-9 at the Regions Tradition.

Three-time Aloha Section PGA Senior Player of the Year. 2010 Aloha Section Teacher of the Year.

Before becoming the golf professional at Hilo Municipal, he was the golf pro at the Mauna Kea Beach Resort Hotel in Waikoloa, and also at Pearl Country Club in Honolulu.

A member of the first graduating class from Waiakea High School, he remembers a time when there were only 385 students and 17 teachers in the entire school. The small Waiakea golf team helped Kevin develop his interest in golf because he got a lot of playing time as a starter. His role model is Alan Yamamoto. Before Kevin started playing golf at age 14, he played baseball and tennis.

He attended the University of Hawaii at Hilo, University of Hawaii at Manoa, and Oregon State University. During his first year at Oregon State he was on the pre-med track. After that he moved back to Hawaii and went to UH, majoring in economics. He worked part-time at a store called The Golf House and started playing in tournaments. During his last year in college, Kevin started playing in and winning more and more golf tournaments. Pearl Country Club offered him a job as their golf professional. After discussion with his family, he decided to leave college and become a professional. Although he now competes mainly in Hawaii, his career has allowed him to play golf all over the world, including Japan and Pakistan.

Has played in eight PGA Professional Championships, his best finish coming in 2004 at T27.

1998, 2001, 2003, 2005, 2006 and 2007 Aloha PGA Player of the Year.  Played for 30 years on the PGA Tour and joined the PGA Tour

Champions in 1995. Has won 20 times on the PGA Tour in three decades of golf. The list includes three U.S. Opens (1974, 1979 and 1990), the 1971 and 1973 Heritage Classic, 1975 Western Open, 1983 Memorial Tournament and the 1984 Bing Crosby Pro-Am. His victories have come on some of the most difficult courses in the world, including Winged Foot, Inverness, Harbour Town, Butler National, Riviera, Pinehurst No. 2, Muirfield Village and Pebble Beach. Has played on five Ryder Cup Teams (1975, 1977, 1979, 1981 and 1991).

Full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1968 to 1995, he played in 662 events, made 526 cuts and recorded 165 top-10 finishes with 25 runner-up finishes.

Joined the PGA Tour Champions in 1995 and owns 45 victories, the most all-time and 16 more than the next player on the list (Lee Trevino, who has 29). PGA Tour Champions' all-time money leader, with more than $26.8 million; was that Tour's money leader in 1997, 1998, and 2002, when he earned $3,028,304, the most money earned by a player in one season on the senior tour.

2012 Notes: Just seven days shy of his 67th birthday, he played his last four holes in 4-under par to move into sole possession of third-place at the Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid, his best performance in a senior major since finishing second at the 2005 Ford Senior Players Championship. Overall, it was his 207th top-10 finish of his Champions Tour career and 26th top-five performance in senior majors. At 66 years, 11 months, 24 days, he extended his record as the oldest player to record a top-five finish in a senior major. Recorded his 208th career top-10 finish with a T-6th at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

2013 Notes: Completed his 19th PGA Tour Champions season. Posted his 209th career top-10 finish when he opened his year with a T-9th at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Playing in his 400th career Tour event, it was his eighth top-10 showing in the Big Island tournament, one shy of Tom Watson's record of nine in the tournament. It was his only top 10 on a year that he played in 19 events and finished 73rd on the money list. Had a masterful final round at the Shaw Charity Classic in early September when he bettered his age by four strokes, shooting a 7-under 64 at the first-year event. It was the second time in his career he had bettered his age.

2014 Notes: Completed his 20th season as a PGA Tour Champions member. Three consecutive rounds in the 60s helped him to a T-9th finish at the 3M Championship (best finish on the year) in August, his 210th career top 10. Highlight of the event was bettering his age in all three rounds (68-66-68) to become the first player to do so in all three rounds since Gary Player at the 2009 Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Bettered his age eight times during the year, finishing 72nd on the money list.

2015 Notes: Made his record 20th appearance in the Constellation Senior Players Championship and matched his age in the third round for the first time since turning 70. This was the ninth time he matched his age on the senior circuit. Matched his age for the 10th time two weeks later when he posted an even-par 70 in the first round of the U.S. Senior Open in Sacramento. Made the cut and completed all 72 holes for the 16th time, tying Gil Morgan for the most cuts made in Senior Open history. He has also played 72 rounds in this event which places him third in that category, behind Arnold Palmer (83) and Dale Douglass (80). In his final start of the 2015 season, he bettered his age in the second and third rounds at the Toshiba Classic, marking the 10th and 11th times he had bettered his age.

2016 Notes: Teamed with Wes Short, Jr., to finish T-4th at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. It was his 211th top-10 finish in his career. He bettered his age at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship, Allianz Championship, Tucson Conquistadores and Regions Tradition for a total of 15 times.

Lee Janzen spent most of his childhood in Baltimore, Md., where he played Little League baseball. When Janzen was 12, his father's company transferred him to Florida, and his parents started him in golf and tennis. He won his first golf tournament at age 15 as a member of the Greater Tampa Junior Golf Association. Janzen chose to attend a small college – Florida Southern. In 1985 and 1986, Florida Southern won the Division II national team championship. Janzen was the individual medalist in 1986 and was first-team all-American in 1985 and 1986. He turned professional later that same year. For two years played in mini-tour events, was the leading money-winner on the U.S. Golf Tour in 1989. At the end of 1989 finished T-10th at PGA Tour Q-School, which help get him on the PGA Tour in 1990. Was good enough to keep his tour card, winning for the first time at the 1992 Northern Telecom Open.

Won eight times in his PGA Tour career, with a pair of U.S. Open titles and a Players Championship to his credit. Claimed his first U.S. Open title in 1993 in a head-to-head battle with Payne Stewart at Baltusrol G.C. Shot 67-67-69-69 to equal the U.S. Open scoring record set by Jack Nicklaus in 1980. Went on to defeat Stewart by two strokes. Won his second U.S. Open title, in 1998, by recording the best final-round comeback in a U.S. Open in 25 years, coming from five strokes back of Stewart, the 54-hole leader. Closed with 68 to win by one over Stewart, who closed with 74 at The Olympic Club. Five-stroke comeback was the best in the championship since Johnny Miller came from six back to win in 1973. It was his first victory on Tour since 1995 and eighth career win. Victory at the 1995 Players was the first of three titles that season and led to his career year, eventually finishing third on the money list ($1,378,966). Janzen played on the PGA Tour between 1990 and 2014 and in 627 events made 407 cuts, finished in the top-ten 66 times, was third eight times and was runner-up seven times. He earned $16,038,979.

2014 Notes: Debuted on the PGA Tour Champions in early September at the Quebec Championship. A final-round 72 led to a T-23rd finish. In his third Champions start had his best finish for the year with a T-6th finish at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Following the official season, finished second in the Callaway Invitational, losing in a playoff to Tommy Armour III at Pebble Beach.

2015 Notes: Returned to the winner's circle for the first time in nearly 17 years when he won in a one-hole playoff with Bart Bryant at The ACE Group Classic in February. Made a clutch, 8-foot birdie putt on the 54th hole to force a playoff and then two-putted from 40 feet on the first extra hole for the win after Bryant's second shot landed in the water. The victory was his first since winning the 1998 U.S. Open at The Olympic Club, and it came in his 413th start since that win in San Francisco. The Naples victory ended a drought that lasted 16 years, 7 months, 25 days. He finished 6th at the Constellation Senior Players, then T-5th at the U.S. Senior OPena and T-6th at the Encompass Championship. Ended his year with a T-5th at the SAS Championship and T-7th at the Toshiba Classic. Was 16th on the money list and 14th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: T-8th at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic.

One of seven brothers, Jimenez started playing golf at age 15 while picking up balls at the range and caddying. Inspired by watching the likes of Seve Ballesteros, Sandy Lyle and Sam Torrance when he was caddying at the 1979 Spanish Open at Torrequebrada (Malaga), Jimenez decided to compete seriously. Has represented Spain 14 times in World Cups and has played in the Ryder Cup four times — 1999, 2004, 2008 and 2010. Is nicknamed “The Mechanic” for his preference for driving, rather than repairing, high-performance vehicles, especially his gleaming red Ferrari. He is also a lover of fine wines and Havana cigars. Jimenez first played on the European Tour in 1988 and improved steadily over the next few seasons. His first win on the tour came at the Piaget Belgian Open in 1992. During a fairly up-and-down career, he has so far had four main periods of success. He has finished inside the top-100 on the European Tour Order of Merit every season since 1989. In 1994, he finished 5th on the list. One highlight was scoring an exceptionally rare double eagle during the 1994 Volvo Masters at Valderrama when he holed his 3-iron second shot on the par-5 17th hole.

After some weaker seasons, he bounced back in 1998 and 1999, finishing fourth on the Order of Merit in consecutive years and winning four tournaments, including the prestigious Volvo Masters.

In 1999, he finished runner-up to Tiger Woods at the WGC-American Express Championship and made his Ryder Cup debut. The next year, he again finished runner-up to Woods, this time at the U.S. Open at Pebble Beach.

In 2004, he emerged as the season's most prolific champion when he claimed four titles en route to finishing 4th on the European Tour Order of Merit. That mark matched his highest position.

The 2008 season was productive, too, with a pair of wins, including the BMW PGA Championship at Wentworth, where he defeated Oliver Wilson in a playoff. His performances earned a spot on the 2008 Ryder Cup team. He finished the season ranked 4th on the Order of Merit once more.

In February 2010, Jimenez won the Omega Dubai Desert Classic, defeating Lee Westwood in a playoff, and in July, added the Alstom Open de France title, defeating Alejandro Canizares and Francesco Molinari on the first playoff hole. He won his third event of the year at the Omega European Masters, finishing three strokes ahead of Edoardo Molinari.

Jimenez became the oldest winner in European Tour history when he won the 2012 UBS Hong Kong Open at age 48 and 318 days. That was his 19th European Tour victory and first since the Omega European Masters in 2010.

2013 Notes: While skiing in southern Spain on Dec. 29, 2012, Jimenez fell and suffered a right tibial-plateau fracture, which required surgery and kept him out of competition for several months. He played in the Open de Espana in April 2013, but missed the cut and returned to the European Tour in late May, finishing T-4th at the BMW PGA Championship. He was the second-round leader at the Open Championship before finishing T-13th.

2014 Notes: Turned 50 in January, then got married in April just after finishing fourth at the Masters. That performance placed him behind Sam Snead for best finish of a player over 50. Snead finished T-3rd in 1963. A week after his Masters finish, Jimenez played in his first Champions Tour event, winning on his first try at the Greater Gwinnett Championship. A month later, won the Open de Espana and at the age of 50 years and 133 days became the oldest champion in European Tour history. At the Lyoness Open, he finished T-5th, and at his second Champions Tour event, the Senior Open Championship, he finished T-8th. On the European Tour, started the year winning the Hong Kong Open. In 25 events, had two wins and seven top 10s. Ended the year 21st in The Race to Dubai and was one of European Ryder Cup captain Paul McGinley's vice-captain.

2015 Notes: Started the year with a sixth-place finish at the Nedbank Golf Challenge, then in only his third Champions Tour event, won the Mitsubishi Electric Championship. In 8 career Champions Tour starts, the Spaniard has won twice. Had a two-week stretch in May where he was runner-up at the Open de Espana and the next week at the BMW PGA Championship. Also T-10th at the Aberdeen Asset Management Scottish Open, 4th at the Senior Open Championship at Sunningdale. One the European Tour played in 24 events and made 21 cuts. He finished 30th in the Race to Dubai thanks to his pair of runner-up finishes.

2016 Notes: On the European Tour best finish was T-13th at the Shenzhen International. On the PGA Tour T-18th at the British Open. On the Champions Tour won the Mississippi Gulf Resort and was runner-up at the Principal Charity Classic and Constellation Senior Players. Was T-3rd at the Senior Open Championship. Was runner-up and lost to Joe Durant on the first hole of a playoff at the 3M Championship when Durant made eagle.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Earned medalist honors with a 68 at Great Oaks Country Club in Rochester, Mich.

Played on the golf team at UCLA with Scott McCarron. Member of 1988 NCAA Championship team while at UCLA. Professional career started on the Canadian Tour, then the Asian Tour and then the Japan Golf Tour. In 1999 joined the PGA Tour as special temporary member in September. Had first two career top-20s in major championships with T-14th at Masters and T-16th at PGA Championship. Played on the Japan Golf Tour from 1995-1999 with six victories and a pair of runner-up finishes.

In 2004 played in only 9 PGA Tour events due to left wrist problems after 2003 surgery when he shattered hook of left hamate bone right before the 2003 Western Open. These injuries were bothersome for the next couple of years but the mother of all injuries came in November of 2006 in a freak home accident. While sweeping his garage the broom handle broke and severed the tip of his left index finger and base of his left thumb. Had to endure several surgeries, lucky that when the accident happened he put the parts of his finger into a bag and took it to the hospital where they were sown on. Before the 2010 season decided to play on the Nationwide Tour, where he made 12 of 23 cuts and finished 30th on the money list. Moved over to the PGA Tour in 2011 with a T6 finish at Q-School in 2010.

2010 Nationwide Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 23; in money - 12; Top-10 finishes - 5; scoring average 69.50 (ranked 10th); money $194,176 (ranked 30th); Best finish, T-2nd WNB Golf Classic.

2011 Notes: Collected eight top-25 finishes in 28 starts, with four top-10 performances. Finished T-7th at the Puerto Rico Open, notching his first top 10 since a T-4 at the 2006 Memorial Tournament. Second top-10 came following rounds of 68-68 on the weekend to finish T8 at the Shell Houston Open. Finished T-2nd at the Memorial Tournament, one stroke behind winner Steve Stricker. Notched his first top-three showing since the 2005 season. With the finish, he registered his fourth runner-up performance in 283 starts on Tour without a victory. Finished year 51st on both the FedEx Cup standings and money race.

2012 Notes: Followed an opening-round 76 by going 69-67-66 to finish T-9th at the Puerto Rico Open for his top finish. Made only 17 other starts due to herniated disc in July in which he didn't play again for the rest of the season.

2013 Notes: Started year on a major medical extension, failed to meet the terms of his extension in 10 starts. Also fell $12,790 short of securing conditional status and will play out the rest of the season as a Veteran Member. Played 19 times, best finish was T-13th at the Reno-Tahoe Open.

2014 Notes: Played in 4 events on the Web.com Tour, making the cut in two of those tournaments. Was T-2nd at the Price Cutter Charity Championship in Springfield, Mo. Closed with a 7-under-par 65 to finish one stroke behind eventual winner Cameron Percy. Was also T-24th at the Midwest Classic near Kansas City in July. Did not make a start on the PGA Tour for the first time since 1989. Non-Exempt Medical Extension earned him a spot in the Web.com Tour Finals, where he missed the cut at the Hotel Fitness Championship and was a WD from the Chiquita Classic. Had 10 events during the 2014-15 PGA Tour season to earn either 438 FedExCup points or $712,345 as part of his Non-Exempt Medical Extension.

Edged out Tom Byrum, Jose Coceres and Willie Wood by a shot, earning a $30,000 first-place check.

2016 Notes: Finished T-6th at the Chubb Classic, T-5th at the Senior Open Championship, 4th at the Constellation Senior Players and T-3rd at the Senior PGA Championship.

Started playing golf at age 14 with his father. His dad bought him clubs from a newspaper advertisement and he managed to break three of them the first week. Turned pro at 16 and worked as an assistant pro at Downshire Golf Club for eight years mostly teaching and repairing clubs. Played in many Pro-Ams and one-day events in South England.

Attended European Tour Qualifying School seven times, receiving his card after the third of seven attempts. Did not have a sponsor for the first two years, so only played UK tournaments.

In 1986, finished seventh at Qualifying School and played the European Tour until 2011. Played in 684 events, including five wins, 84 top-10s and earnings of €6,974,637.

First win was the 1988 Scottish Open, and then it took four more years to win for the second time - 1992 Mercedes German Masters. He then won three more European tournaments. In the United States, he won one World Match Play Championship.

Finished runner up on the Senior Tour Order of Merit in consecutive seasons, first to Peter Fowler in 2011 and then Roger Chapman in 2012. Won his fourth Senior Tour title in the Speedy Services Wales Senior Open and also finished tied for third in the Senior Open Championship presented by Rolex at Turnberry. In 2011, he successfully defended the Scottish Senior Open where he eagled the closing hole to finish two shots clear of American Gary Koch, before claiming the Casa Serena Open the following month. Won his maiden Senior Tour title in Scotland in 2010, just four events into his Senior Tour career, having finished joint runner-up in his Senior Tour debut in the De Vere Collection PGA Seniors Championship. That victory, at Fairmont St. Andrews Resort, was 22 years after also winning his first European Tour title on Scottish soil in the 1988 Scottish Open. Has been balancing life on the Senior Tour with his continued career on The European Tour, where he reached a major milestone of 600 appearances at the 2008 Commercialbank Qatar Masters presented by Dolphin Energy. He is second on the all-time list behind Sam Torrance, who has played in 706 European Tour events.

In 2004, he won the British Masters title at the Marriott Forest of Arden - his first victory in 10 years. His previous four victories were between 1988 and 1994, including the 1993 European Masters, which cemented his place in that year's Ryder Cup at The Belfry. Won $1 million in the 1995 Accenture World Championship of Golf – a far cry from his early days as a professional.

Langer's Czech-born father settled in Bavaria after jumping from a Russian train filled with prisoners of war bound for Siberia. Started golf at age 9 as a caddie in Anhausen, Germany, and spent the next seven years practicing and playing as much golf as he could between caddie duties. At 15, took a job as an assistant professional at the Munich Golf and Country Club. Joined the European Tour at age 18, winning for the first time in 1980 at the Dunlop Masters. In 1981, he led the Order of Merit and won three times, including the German Open, where he was the first native to win in the event's 70-year history. After 1985, he split his time between Europe and the United States, having his best year on the PGA Tour in 1985 with wins at the Masters and the Heritage Classic seven days later.

Captained the 2004 European Ryder Cup team. A member of 10 European Ryder Cup teams (1981, '83, '85, '87, '89, '91, '93, '95, '97 and 2002). Was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 2002, shortly before claiming his 42nd title on the European Tour at the Volvo Masters Andalucia at Club de Golf Valderrama. There, he tied with Colin Montgomerie following a superb final-round, 67, becoming the only player in Tour history to share a victory in two events. He had a similar playoff experience with Seve Ballesteros in 1986, when the Trophee Lancome was abandoned due to darkness.

Led the European Tour Order of Merit twice (1981 and 1984) and was among the top-30 money-winners every year except one (39th in 1996) from 1980 to 2002.

Finished as the PGA Tour Champions' money leader in 2008, '09, '10, '12, '13 and '14. His 2010 season was highlighted by wins at the Senior British Open at Carnoustie and the U.S. Senior Open at Sahalee Country Club in Sammamish, Wash., where he defeated Fred Couples by three strokes.

In 2011, he made 14 PGA Tour Champions appearances due to left-thumb surgery that kept him out of action from late March until mid-June. Highlight of his year came in his third start when he won the ACE Group Classic.

2012 Notes: Became the Champions Tour's first four-time winner of the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner when he passed the $2-million mark ($2,140,296) for the fourth time in the last five years. Finished in the top-10 in 14 of his last 15 starts, and placed second to Tom Lehman in the year-long Charles Schwab Cup race, losing by 435 points, though he took two titles that season. Won the Nedbank Champions Challenge in November in South Africa.

2013 Notes: Returned to the winner's circle at the ACE Group Classic and Gwinnett Championship, winning his fifth money title in the last six years, earning $2,448,428 in official money, $200,000 more than runner-up Kenny Perry. In 24 starts, had 18 top-10 finishes.

2014 Notes: Earned Player of the Year honors for an unprecedented fourth time (2008-2010 and 2014), on the strength of five victories, the most by a player in a season since he won five in 2010. Two of the wins were in majors, at the British Senior Open and then defeating Jeff Sluman to win the Constellation Senior Players. With fellow countryman Martin Kaymer winning the Players Championship a month before, it was the first time professionals from the same country other than the United States have held both tours' Players Championship titles in the same year. Also won the Mitsubishi Electric Championship, Insuperity Invitational and the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. In 21 PGA Tour Champions starts, had 18 top-10 finishes, winning the Charles Schwab Cup and the money race. Ended his year in fine fashion in December when he teamed with his son, Jason, to win the PNC Father/Son Challenge in Orlando, Fla., by two strokes over Davis Love III and son, Dru.

2015 Notes: Earned his 24th victory when he successfully defended his Constellation Senior Players title at Belmont CC near Boston, with a six-shot win over Kirk Triplett. Became the first player since Arnold Palmer (1984-1985) to win consecutive Constellation Senior Players. Also tied Miller Barber for fourth place on the all-time victory list. Shot four consecutive rounds in the 60s and went wire-to-wire, joining Palmer (1985) and Jack Nicklaus (1990) as players to win the Constellation Senior Players leading from start to finish. His fifth career major title came in his 157th start and extended to nine his streak of consecutive years winning at least one PGA Tour Champions event, matching the second-longest streak in PGA Tour Champions history. At 57 years, 9 months, 18 days, he became the second-oldest winner of the Constellation Senior Players (Raymond Floyd, 57 years, 10 months, 12 days in 2000). Victory ended a drought of just over nine months, and it was the first time since 2012 that he had not won a title before the start of June. Finished T-5th at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship, five shots behind winner Miguel Angel Jimenez. Earned his second top-10 of the year with a T-9th finish at the Tucson Conquistadores. He was runner-up at the Greater Gwinnett Championship, finished T-5th at the Regions Tradition, 6th at the Senior PGA Championship and T-3rd at the U.S. Senior Open. Was 2nd at the Senior Open Championship, 3M Championship and Boeing Classic. Finished T-3rd at the SAS Championship, won the San Antonio Championship, and lost a playoff to Billy Andrade at the Charles Schwab Cup. Finished the year 1st in the Schwab rankings for a third time and led the money list for a seventh time.

2016 Notes: Langer won early, at the Chubb Classic in February. He also won again at the Regions Tradition and the wins were his 26th and 27th on the PGA Tour Champions. The victory moved him into 3rd place on the all-time wins list behind Hale Irwin (45 wins) and Lee Trevino (29 wins). Had an impressive showing at the Masters Tournament. Was T-3rd, just two strokes shy of 54-hole leader Jordan Spieth, but a closing-round 79 left him T-24th at the finish in his 33rd appearance in Augusta. T-8th with Tom Lehman at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. Played in his 25th Players Championship but missed the cut after consecutive rounds of 72. Won the Regions Tradition and the next week finished T-3rd at the Senior PGA Championship. Won for the third time in 2016 at the Constellation Senior Players. Finished 3rd at the 3M Championship, 2 shots back of the Playoff.

Started playing golf at age 5 in a small farm town north of Minneapolis. He was a walk-on at the University of Minnesota, earning his tour card after college in 1983.

Played on the PGA Tour for three years, returning to Qualifying School after each season. Unable to get back on the PGA Tour for the 1986 season, he played in Asia and South Africa and in a variety of mini-tour events he could qualify for in the United States. His game finally started showing stronger promise in 1990 and 1991, when he was able to play regularly on the Ben Hogan Tour, winning four tournaments, three of them in 1991. That year he was the Hogan-leading money winner with $141,934, thereby securing his PGA Tour card for 1992.

He had nine top-10 finishes in 1992, six more in 1993, and finished third, and then second at the Masters before he finally broke through with his first win. Won the 1994 Memorial Tournament with four rounds of 67. His best year was 1996, when he won the British Open at Royal Lytham & St. Annes and the Tour Championship at Southern Hills. He also swept the year-end honors, winning the Vardon Trophy, the money list and Player of the Year. In April 1997, he was, for one week, the No. 1-ranked player in the world.

Injured his shoulder at the 1998 British Open, requiring surgery in November of that year. Made a successful return from the shoulder surgery. Member of the 1995, 1997 and 1999 Ryder Cup Teams. Captain of the 2006 Ryder Cup Team and member of the 1994, 1996 and 2000 Presidents Cup Teams.

A full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1983 to 1985 and then between 1992 and 2009, playing 481 events, making 344 cuts, and recording 97 top-10 finishes with five victories and 19 runner-up finishes. Competed on the Web.com Tour in 1990 and 1991 and made 47 career starts, making 39 cuts with 16 top-10 finishes including four victories.

In 2010, marked his second victory on the PGA Tour Champions by capturing the Senior PGA Championship at the Colorado Golf Club, defeating David Frost and Fred Couples in a one-hole playoff.

2011 Notes: Was the PGA Tour Champions Player of the Year, making him the first to collect top honors on not only the PGA Tour Champions, but also the Web.com Tour (1991) and PGA Tour (1996). Also earned his first Charles Schwab Cup, holding off Mark Calcavecchia by just 74 points at the season's final event. Took the Schwab Cup lead after the second event of the season (Allianz Championship) and never relinquished it. Was also the tour's only $2-million man, earning the Arnold Palmer Award with a personal-best $2,081,526. Along with John Cook, led the PGA Tour Champions with three victories and claimed all three of his wins within the first seven of his 21 starts last year. Highlight of his year was winning his second career major championship on the PGA Tour Champions, and third title of the season, at the Regions Tradition.

2012 Notes: Capped another highly successful campaign by winning the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in his hometown by six strokes over Jay Haas, adding a second consecutive Charles Schwab Cup title to his career record. Became the first player to win successive Charles Schwab Cup titles, as well as being the fifth to win that honor twice, joining Hale Irwin (2002 and 2004), Tom Watson (2003 and 2005), Jay Haas (2006 and 2008) and Loren Roberts (2007 and 2009). Earlier in the year, he won his first tournament in just over a year when he repeated at the Regions Tradition by two shots over Bernhard Langer and Chien Soon Lu. For the year, he played in 19 events and had 12 top-10 finishes. He was 2nd on the money list.

2013 Notes: Didn't win for the first time as a member of the PGA Tour Champions, but was still among the top-10 in nine of his 17 appearances. Best effort of the season was in late April when he closed with a bogey-free 67 that included birdies on three of his last four holes to finish T-2nd at the inaugural Greater Gwinnett Championship, three strokes behind Bernhard Langer. Finished the year 20th on the money list.

2014 Notes: Scattered seven top-10 finishes over his 20 starts, the highlight of his year coming midway through the season when he claimed his first PGA Tour Champions victory in almost 18 months, holing a 12-foot birdie putt to win the Encompass Championship. Had a chance to pick up a second victory late in the season when he played in the final group at the SAS Championship and got within two strokes of eventual-winner Triplett before finishing solo second, three shots back. Finished the year 12th on the money list and 15th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Finished his final round at the SAS Championship birdie-birdie-eagle-birdie, for a two shot win over Joe Durant and Bernhard Langer. Was T-2nd, along with Kevin Sutherland, at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, one shot back of David Frost. Again finished T-2nd, at the Insuperity Invitational, losing in a playoff to Ian Woosnam, an overtime that also included Kenny Perry. Also was T-5th at the Regions Tradition and at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf along with teammate Jeff Sluman. Was 7th on the money list and 11th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: In the season opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai finished 2nd, a shot back of Duffy Waldorf who birdied three of the final six holes (including birdie at 18). Finished 5th in his next start at the Allianz Championship. Back-to-back weekend rounds of 67 were instrumental in his T-4th effort at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic in April. One week later was T-8th with Bernhard Langer at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. Was T-6th at the Principal Charity Classic.

An avid Alabama Crimson Tide football and Atlanta Braves baseball fan, he received the 1995 Singleton Award as Outstanding Professional Athlete in Alabama. Enjoys quail hunting in south Alabama and snow skiing in Beaver Creek, Colo.

A full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1988 to 2010, he played in 599 events, made 382 cuts and recorded 65 top-10 finishes with three victories and nine runner-up finishes. Sometimes competed on the Web.com Tour, making 29 career starts and 23 cuts, with eight top-10 finishes and a win at the 1992 Tulsa Open. Finished third on the money list in 1992, propelling him back onto the PGA Tour.

Began playing PGA Tour Champions events in 2010. In the last two events he finished T-21st at the Administaff Small Business, then T-11th at the AT&T Championship.

2011 Notes: He made 20 starts in his PGA Tour Champions rookie season and had three top-10s. Flirted with the top of the leaderboard in the final round at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach before eventually finishing T-5th after a final-round, 73.

2012 Notes: In his 20 starts, he finished in the top-20 in two of those. Was T-14th at the Constellation Senior Players Championship in June and T-17th at the U.S. Senior Open.

2013 Notes: Had three top-25 finishes in 21 starts, and two of those were in the late summer when he was T-20th at the Boeing Classic and T-22nd the next week at the inaugural Shaw Charity Classic. 2014 Notes: After earning $164,493 and finishing 72nd on the 2013 money list, had the most productive year of his Champions Tour career, earning $488,087 and finishing 37th on the final earnings' chart. Buoyed by a closing-round, 6-under 64 at the Shaw Charity Classic, he finished T-3rd in Calgary for his career-best Champions Tour showing. His 64 matched his career-low round, and it came at the same venue where he shot his career-best round on the PGA Tour Champions a year earlier. Played in the last grouping at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, a first since the 2010 AT&T Championship. Dued eventual-winner Bernhard Langer midway through the back nine before going double bogey and bogey on No. 14 and 15 at En-Joie G.C. to fall out of contention and T-4th.

2015 Notes: Thanks to a 12-under par effort over the weekend, he and teammate, Mark Calcavecchia, finished T-3rd at Bass Pro Shop Legends of Golf. His second top-ten was at the Principal Charity Classic when he finished T-10th with a final round 66. Was 61st on the money list and 53rd in Schwab rankings.

When he did not earn his PGA Tour card, Maggert played overseas for a number of years. He returned to compete on the Web.com Tour in 1990. Maggert earned his exemption to the PGA Tour after being named the Player of the Year, and as the leading money winner on the Web.com Tour that year with $108,644, he was the first player to surpass the $100,000 mark on the Web.com Tour. Won the 1980 Texas State Junior, and he was an All-American at Texas A&M in 1986.

Member of the 1995 and 1997 Ryder Cup Team and member of the 1994 Presidents Cup Team.

1990 Web.com Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 22; in money - 17; top-10 finishes - 13; scoring average 70.02 (ranked first); money $108,644 (ranked first); won the Knoxville Open & Buffalo Open.

Has played full time on the PGA Tour between 1991 and 2014. Between 1991 and 2007, he finished in the top-125 of the money list. He has played in 615 events with three wins, 16 runner-up finishes and 12 third-place finishes. He has made 369 cuts and finished in the top-10 176 times, accumulating earnings of $19.4 million.

Became the 17th player in PGA Tour Champions history to win in his debut when he edged Billy Andrade by two strokes for the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic title. Holed a 45-foot, uphill, left-to-right breaking putt for a birdie at Fallen Oak's 17th hole just moments before Andrade made bogey in the group behind him. As a result, Maggert went on to win by two shots. Became the first debut winner on the PGA Tour Champions circuit since Rocco Mediate at the 2012 Allianz Championship. At 50 years, 1 month, 3 days, he became the youngest winner since John Huston at the 2011 Dick's Sporting Goods Open. The win in Mississippi also ended a drought of more than seven-plus years since his last PGA Tour title at the 2006 FedEx St. Jude Classic and also made him just the seventh player to win tournaments on all three Tours.

2014 Notes: Joined the PGA Tour Champions in late March playing in 12 events and finishing among the top 10 in half of his starts with his big win at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. Finished T-3rd at the 3M Championship in August in Minnesota. In September, finished fifth at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship, a performance that helped him clinch a spot among the top-30 money-winners. He finished 21st on the money list and 19th in the Schwab Rankings. Made 19 PGA Tour appearances and eight cuts. Was in contention down the stretch at the Travelers Championship, eventually finishing T-7th.

Won his first event of the year, and first major championship when he defeated Kevin Sutherland in a one-hole playoff at Shoal Creek. Claimed his second major title when he held off a handful of challengers Sunday at the U.S. Senior Open at Del Paso CC. Began the final round tied for the lead with Bernhard Langer, with four other major championship winners all within one stroke of the lead. Shot 5-under-par 65 for the victory that earned him a check for $675,000, the largest of his Champions career. The win was also worth an invitation to the 2016 U.S. Open at Oakmont CC. Added a third victory at the Shaw Charity Classic. Claimed his fourth win of the year two starts later when he prevailed by two shots at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Win also put him past the $2-million mark and for the year earned $2,240,836 (2nd best) his biggest single-season earnings in his career. Played at the PGA TOUR's Puerto Rico Open but missed the cut. Named the GWAA Senior Player of the Year.

McCarron played golf from the age of 3, and was a member of the UCLA golf team that won the 1988 NCAA Championship. He turned professional in 1992 and played on the Canadian Tour in 1993 and the Hooters Tour in 1994.

He joined the PGA Tour in 1995 after finishing 31st in Q-School. He almost lost his Tour card in 1995, when he stood at 212th on the money list going into the final two events. However he finished 3rd in Las Vegas and was able to retain his card when he finished T38th and won $4,620 at the last event in Texas. Between 1995 and 2005 he finished in the top 125 of the money list, but hurt his elbow and had a poor 2006 season.

While out of action following elbow surgery in 2007, McCarron worked as an analyst for Golf Channel and when he had a bone spur removed from left thumb in 2012. He returned to Tour after his problems in 2008 but never finished higher than 92nd on the money list and 82nd on the FedEx Cup list.

In his PGA Tour career he played in 442 events, making the cut in 254 of them. He won $12.6 million with three wins, six runner-ups and 39 top-25 finishes.

2015 Notes: Made his PGA Tour Champions debut in July, finishing T-25th at The Senior Open Championship at Sunningdale GC. Late in the year he shared the 36-hole lead at the San Antonio Championship with Michael Allen before eventually finishing T-3rd with Allen, four shots behind Bernhard Langer despite posting a 70 in the final round. In next start at the Toshiba Classic, he shared the 18-hole lead with Steve Pate after an 8-under-par 63, his low round on the PGA Tour Champions. He followed with rounds of 68-70 to eventually T-9th. For the year, in 8 events, he was 49th on the money list and 45th in the Schwab rankings.

2016: McCarron placed 6th at the Regions Tradition, then T-7th at the Senior PGA Championship and finally tasted victory at the Principal Charity Classic. The win came thanks to making birdies on his final three holes to beat Billy Andrade and Miguel Angel Jimenez by a shot. He came close to winning again at the Senior Open Championship; he was among the leaders all four days at Carnoustie but bogeys at 16 and 18 on the final day dropped him 2 strokes behind winner Paul Broadhurst.

MICHAEL MCCOY (a)

Birth Date: November 21, 1962

Birthplace: Des Moines, Iowa

Age: 53 Ht.: 6'1" Wt.: 205

Home: Des Moines, Iowa

College: Wichita State

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 13, 16

Began playing the game of golf around the age of 7 and credits his uncles for introducing him to the game. Says his most memorable golf experience was winning the U.S. Mid-Amateur and playing in the 2014 Masters. Has four children: Nate, Megan, Danny and Erin, and enjoys collecting golf books. Works at Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. Insurance.

The insurance executive was 50 years old and playing in his 38th USGA event without a title when he defeated Bill Williamson, 8 and 6, in the 36-hole final of the 2013 U.S. Mid-Amateur Championship at the C.C. of Birmingham. The victory made him the second-oldest U.S. Mid-Amateur champion behind Randal Lewis, who was 54 when he won in 2011. It was the championship's third-largest margin of victory since adopting the 36-hole final format in 2001. McCoy had advanced to the semifinals twice, in 2005 and 2008.

The Iowan has played in 46 USGA championships, including 16 U.S. Amateurs and 15 U.S. Mid-Amateurs. His best finish in the U.S. Amateur was in 1998, when he advanced to the third round. He won the U.S. Mid-Amateur in 2013 at the age of 50, becoming the second-oldest champion. Additionally, in 2005 and '08, he advanced to the semifinals, and in '09, he earned co-medalist honors in stroke play. McCoy was the low amateur in the U.S. Senior Open in 2012 and 2013, and tied for the lowest 72-hole score by an amateur in the latter, with a 2-over 282.

McCoy, a six-time member of the Iowa Men's State Team, has won the Iowa Amateur five times and the Iowa Mid-Amateur six times. He has triumphed at the Trans-Mississippi Championship twice (2000 and '08), and is a four-time winner of the Crump Cup at Pine Valley Golf Club in New Jersey. He is also a four-time winner of the Herman Sani Invitational, and three-time champion of the Fort Dodge Amateur.

In 2012, McCoy won the Iowa Masters Championship, as well as the Trans-Miss Four-Ball Championship with Gene Elliott.

Since the inception of the Iowa Golf Association Player (IGA) of the Year award in 1960, no other competitor has won it more than three times. McCoy won his first in 1983 and his 10th 27 years later, in 2010, he now owns that award 11 times. McCoy is also a member of the IGA Hall of Fame.

McCoy's son, Nate, also is an accomplished golfer who has reached the second stage of qualifying on the Web.com Tour.

McCoy has multiple victories to his name besides the big U.S. Mid-Am including: five-time Iowa Amateur Champion, 2-time Trans-Miss Champion, 2-time Coleman Champion, four-time Crump Cup Champion and most recently in 2014, victories at the Lupton Invitational and the George C. Thomas Invitational, where he finished with a three-day total of 211.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 9, 19, 21, 22

Took up golf while in high school after years of playing baseball. His game did not come together until he was in college, when PGA Tour Champions member Jim Ferree helped get him started. Florida Southern coach Charlie Matlock then became the main influence for Mediate. He started using the long putter to save his back, and became the first player to win on the PGA Tour with a long putter, at the 1991 Doral-Ryder Open. Missed most of 1994 season with ruptured disk, which was surgically repaired in July 1994.

In 2008, he came close to becoming the oldest U.S. Open champion, at age 45, before he lost in a memorable playoff to Tiger Woods at Torrey Pines. Mediate finished regulation at 1-under-par 283 and held the clubhouse lead as Woods and Lee Westwood, both one stroke back, played the par-5 18th hole. Woods made birdie to force an 18-hole playoff. In the Monday playoff, he made three consecutive back-nine birdies to take a one-stroke lead over Woods to the last hole. Woods made birdie to tie and force sudden death as both players shot even-par 71s. Woods parred the par-4 seventh hole, the first sudden-death hole, as Mediate made bogey after driving into a fairway bunker and missing a 20-foot par putt.

His career totals on the PGA Tour are 640 starts, with six wins, 10 runner-ups and six third-place finishes. Had 64 top 10s and made 412 cuts with earnings of $16.8 million dollars.

2013 Notes: Became the 16th player in history to win his first PGA Tour Champions event, when he was a two-stroke winner over Tom Pernice Jr. and Bernhard Langer in the 2013 Allianz Championship. Led after 36 holes by three following a career-best and tournament-record, 11-under-par 61. Then held off a final-round charge by Pernice and Langer. Was tied with Pernice heading to No. 17 but took the lead for good when Pernice made a bogey on the second-to-last hole. He added a birdie at No. 18 to finish with a 54-hole total of 17-under-par 199, matching the tournament mark set in 2010 by Langer and John Cook. Coincidentally, his first PGA Tour win also came in south Florida, at the 1991 Doral-Ryder Open. Added a second title during the latter part of the summer, in Canada, when he blitzed the field at the inaugural Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary. Played in 23 events and finished with the two wins, one 3rd and had seven top 10s. Finished the year 10th on the money list with $1,341,098 in earnings.

2014 Notes: Narrowly missed a berth in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, finishing 31st in single-season earnings. Was among the top 30 through the first eight months of the season but slipped outside after the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach in late September and was never able to regain a spot. His best finish of the year was a fifth-place showing at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, the first event of the season. He married Jessica Somers the day after the tournament at Hualalai. Made three starts on the PGA Tour, missing the cut at the Frys.com Open and the Wyndham Championship. Also withdrew at the Farmers Insurance Open after one round.

2015 Notes: Was 3rd at the Greater Gwinnett Championship after rounds of 68-67 at TPC Sugarloaf. Was three shots back after 36 holes before heavy rain cancelled the final round. Got his season off to a nice start at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Was the 18-hole leader and shared the 36-hole lead with eventual winner Miguel Angel Jimenez. Saw his chances slip away in a four-hole stretch Sunday, with bogeys on Nos. 8, 9 and 11 and eventually, finished 4th. Was 34th on the money list and 40th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Ended a nearly three-year victory drought when he went wire-to-wire to win the Senior PGA Championship at Harbor Shores in Michigan. Tied the tournament record for best opening-round score (9-under-par 62), and then shattered records for best 36-hole score (14-under-par 128) and best 54-hole total (14-under-par 199). His 72-hole score of 19-under-par 265 surpassed the previous mark of 268 by Sam Snead in 1973. He became the first player to go wire-to-wire in the event since Jack Nicklaus in 1991. The win ended a 55-event victory drought on the Champions Tour. Followed up his victory in Michigan with a T-6th at the Principal Charity Classic the following week in Iowa.

Mize first picked up a golf club at age 9. His father was a scratch player and helped him get started. Worked on a Masters scoreboard at the third hole at Augusta National during his early teen years. Played college golf at Georgia Tech, where he won the Atlanta Amateur Championship.

Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1982 and 2008. In 608 events, won four times, was runner-up 11 times, 3rd nine times and recorded 86 top-10 finishes. Had earnings of just under $7.9 million. Most lucrative season came in 1993 when he won twice and earned $724,660. Biggest win of his career came in 1987 when he won the Masters in a dramatic playoff after birdieing the final hole to force a playoff with Greg Norman and Seve Ballesteros. Ballesteros was eliminated on the first extra hole, and Mize chipped in for birdie from the right side of No. 11 green, the second playoff hole, to defeat Norman. Member of the 1987 U.S. Ryder Cup Team.

In 2009, he enjoyed a productive first full season on the PGA Tour Champions with 11 top-10s in 20 appearances, including three top-5s in major championships. Went over the $1-million mark in official earnings for the first time in his Tour career, and his 15th-place finish on the 2009 money list was his highest standing since he was 13th on the 1993 PGA Tour earnings list.

In 2010, Mize claimed his first PGA Tour Champions victory in the inaugural Montreal Championship. Win came in his 36th career PGA Tour Champions start and ended a victory drought of 16 years, 10 months, 26 days. A month prior to his victory, he parlayed some strong play on the weekend into a T-6th finish at the Senior PGA Championship. Fired consecutive rounds of 70 on the weekend at the Colorado Golf Club.

2011 Notes: Dropped from 19th to 37th on the money list and had just two top-10 finishes over the final four months of the season.

2012 Notes: Managed to secure a spot inside the top 30 on the money list after the final full-field event, the AT&T Championship, earning a trip to the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship for the third time in four seasons. Shot a final-round 66 at the AT&T Championship to vault from T-65th after 36 holes into a T-25th finish. With a T-15th finish at the Charles Schwab Cup, secured the 29th position in season earnings.

2013 Notes: Was 46th on the PGA Tour Champions money list with a pair of top-10 finishes. He and teammate Hal Sutton posted a T-4th finish at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. Finished T-9th in his first start of the season, at the Allianz Championship. Made his 30th start at the Masters, but missed the cut.

2014 Notes: In his 21 starts, finished among the top 25 four times, with his best showing coming late in the year, a T-14th at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship. Was also T-15th at the Greater Gwinnet Championship near Atlanta in April. Played in his 31st Masters and made the cut, finishing 51st. It was the first time he had played on the weekend at Augusta National since 2009.

2015 Notes: Played in 18 events during the year, with one top-10 finish, finishing 64th on the money list and 70th in the Schwab rankings. Shot 67-68 on the weekend at En-Joie GC to finish T-8th at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, his first top-10 effort on the Champions Tour since his first start of the 2013 season. Teamed with Hal Sutton to T-15th at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April.

2016 Notes: Finished T-9th at the Regions Tradition.

Was one of the most consistent players on the PGA European Tour. Montgomerie led the Order of Merit for a record eight years, and seven years in a row between 1993 and 1999 (Also led it in 2005). He played college golf in the United States at Houston Baptist University, and enjoyed a fine amateur career, winning the 1987 Scottish Amateur and the 1985 Scottish Stroke Play Championship. He also was a member of the 1985 and 1987 Great Britain & Ireland Walker Cup Team. Named the 1988 Rookie of the Year in Europe and recorded his first victory in 1989 at the Portuguese Open, winning by 11 strokes.

One of the preeminent Ryder Cup players of all time, Montgomerie represented Europe eight times, in 1991, 1993, 1995, 1997, 1999, 2002, 2004 and 2006. In 2006, he became the second European to win the contest five times. Was top scorer at the The Belfry in 2002 with 4½ points out of five, and holed the winning putt at Oakland Hills in 2004. Victory over David Toms at The K Club in 2006 ensured he remained unbeaten in eight Ryder Cup singles matches stretching back to 1991. In total he has secured 23½ points from 36 matches and is the third-highest points scorer in European history. His total Ryder Cup record is 20 wins, 9 losses and 7 halves.

To top off his Ryder Cup career, he captained Europe to a Ryder Cup win against the United States at The Celtic Manor Resort in October 2010. He inspired his team to a 14½-13½ victory as the Ryder Cup spilled into Monday for the first time in its history after torrential rain in Wales, and called it the finest moment of his career.

In 71 majors, Montgomerie has five runner-up finishes, two of them being losses in playoffs. He has at least one runner-up in every major except for the Masters, where his best finish was T-8th.

In 138 career PGA Tour starts, he never won and only has two unofficial wins in the United States, the 1998 Andersen Consulting World Championship and the 2000 Skins Game. That changed with his win at the 2014 Senior PGA Championship.

One of his proudest moments came in May 2013 when he was inducted in the World Golf Hall of Fame. After never wanting to move to America and join the PGA Tour, he now plays a full schedule on the PGA Tour Champions.

2013 Notes: Joined the PGA Tour Champions in late June, making his debut at the Constellation Senior Players Championship and finishing T-9th after weekend rounds of 69-65. Went on to compete in 10 events and was 47th on the final money list with his best finish being a T-3rd at the AT&T Championship.

2014 Notes: Had a great first full season on the PGA Tour Champions. Was second only to Bernhard Langer in both Charles Schwab Cup points (3,307) and single-season earnings ($2,064,381). Notched 11 top 10s in his 18 starts, claiming the two biggest events in senior golf with wins at the Senior PGA Championship and the U.S. Senior Open. Got his first official win in the U.S. and first major championship when he won the Senior PGA Championship at Harbor Shores, Mich. In July, he got his next major championship victory when he defeated Gene Sauers in a three-hole aggregate playoff in the U.S. Senior Open at Oak Tree National in Edmond, Okla. Became the first player since Roger Chapman in 2012 to record his first two PGA Tour Champions wins in major championships. He became the fifth player to win the Senior PGA Championship and the U.S. Senior Open in the same year, joining Chapman (2012), Hale Irwin (1998), Jack Nicklaus (1991) and Gary Player (1988). He then birdied the last two holes to finish second at The Senior Open Championship at Royal Porthcawl, 13 strokes back of Langer. He has also enjoyed success on the European Senior Tour. He defended his Travis Perkins Senior Masters title in late August, winning by a tournament-record 10 strokes at Woburn G.C. One week later, added a second title to his list of accomplishments on that tour when he fired a final-round, 7-under-par 65 to win the Russian Open Golf Championship in Moscow. Won that circuit's John Jacobs Trophy as leading player on the Senior Tour Order of Merit. Later in the year made his 600th career start on the European Tour at November's Turkish Airlines Open, where he finished 70th.

2015 Notes: Kicked off his Champions Tour campaign with a T-5th at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship. Was the 18 and 36-hole leader at The ACE Group Classic but saw his chances slip away when he made three bogeys on his back nine Sunday and finished fifth. Was T-5th at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic and T-9th at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic.

Won his third major championship with a second consecutive Senior PGA Championship on The Pete Dye Course at French Lick Resort. At the U.S. Senior Open, he finished 2nd, two shots back of winner Jeff Maggert and was 3rd at the Senior British Open, three shots back of winner Marco Dawson. For the year had 12 top-10s and despite a terrible finish to his year finished 3rd on the money list and 2nd on the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Used three consecutive sub-par rounds at the Allianz Championship to T-6th in the year's first full-field event. Was T-4th at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic in April where he posted weekend rounds of 66-69. Was T-4th in his next start with partner Mark O'Meara at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. Was in the running for his third straight Senior PGA Championship, but finished runner-up 4 shots back of winner Rocco Mediate. Went back to England and qualified to play in the British Open at Royal Troon, where his father was the longtime club secretary, and finished 78th.

Morgan started playing golf at age 15, and holds a doctor of optometry degree. He still keeps a current license even though he has never practiced.

Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1974 and 1996, and in 511 events he won seven times, was runner-up 21 times, 3rd 21 times, and finished in the top 10 119 times. Had earnings of $5.3 million.

He played a key role in one of the great U.S. Opens of all time in 1992. At Pebble Beach, became the first player in U.S. Open history to reach 10-under-par early in third round, then climbed to 12-under through 43 holes before falling to an eventual T13th finish.

Biggest of his seven PGA Tour triumphs came in the 1978 World Series of Golf. Defeated Hubert Green in a playoff to emerge as the year's No. 2 money-winner behind Tom Watson. Member of the 1979 and 1983 Ryder Cup teams. With his win in the Ralph's Senior Open 11 days after his 50th birthday, Morgan became the youngest winner in PGA Tour Champions history at the time. In 2001, Bobby Wadkins broke his record by winning 10 days after his 50th birthday (Mark Wiebe also tied Wadkins record with 2007 SAS win).

At the end of 2009, at the age 63 years, 1 month, 4 days, became the oldest to compete in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup. In 2010, missed nearly two months in June and July due to a pinched nerve in his neck. Was sidelined for another lengthy stretch in September and October after undergoing surgery on his left knee on September 3.

In 2011, matched his age for the first time in his career when he fired a 7-under-par 64 in the second round at the Toshiba Classic. It was the lowest score by someone shooting his age since Raymond Floyd shot a 63 as a 63-year-old in 2006 at The Boeing Championship at Sandestin. Best finish was a T11th with partner Tom Kite at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

2012 Notes: Was one of four players tied for the first-round lead at the 3M Championship when he posted 7-under 65 Friday, matching his age for the second time in his Champions Tour career. Eventually was T10th after closing with 67 at TPC Twin Cities. It was his best tournament effort since he turned in a T-10 at the 2010 JELD-WEN Tradition. It was also the 160th top-10 performance of his PGA Tour Champions career. Ranks fourth on the all-time PGA Tour Champions list in that category.

2013 Notes: Completed his 18th PGA Tour Champions season, playing in 17 events. Teamed with Tom Kite to finish T-16th at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Three consecutive sub-par rounds led to a T21 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in August. Nearly matched his age twice late in the year, missing by one stroke at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic and the AT&T Championship, his final two starts of the year.

2014 Notes: Limited his season to just 12 events, teamed with Tom Kite to finish T-12th at Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf for his best finish of the year.

2015 Notes: Teamed with Tom Kite to finish T-10th at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf, the 161st top-10 of his Champions Tour career. It was his first top-10 finish since he was T-10th at the 2012 3M Championship.

2016 Notes: Teamed with Tom Kite to finish T-12th at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf.

Born in Gunma Prefecture and attended the Nippon Sport Science University. Earned the nickname "Ironman," because of his strength in both body and competitiveness. After graduating, he became a golf teaching instructor and was well liked in Japan because of his easy, simple tips to help amateur golfers. While teaching, he kept trying to become a touring professional. He obtained his Japan Golf Tour card after four tries at qualifying school after 1982.

First win on the Japan Golf Tour came in 1991; but his best season money-wise was 1992, where he finished sixth on the Order of Merit list, earning $980,000 (U.S.) for the season. He had a total of six career wins on the Japan Tour between 1991 and 2003. Won many tournaments all over Japan, including non-Order of Merit events and pro-ams.

In seven career PGA Tour events, his three best finishes came in 1993 at the United Airlines Hawaiian Open, where he finished T-66th; in the 1994 Nissan Los Angeles Open, where he finished T-20th; and at the 1994 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic, where he finished T-28th.

Lettered in baseball and basketball in high school and attended Southern Tech for a year before he was drafted and spent two years serving in Vietnam. After his discharge in 1968, he tried school again and also worked as an illustrator at Lockheed. One day during his lunch break in 1969, he drove by a practice range and liked hitting balls so much that he went to work in a golf shop in Kennesaw, Ga. He turned professional six months after that and in 1973, just three years after taking up the game, finished second in the Florida State Open. Later that year he gained his Tour card.

Captured 10 PGA Tour titles, including three majors. Won the 1981 PGA Championship at Atlanta Athletic Club. Opened with a 70, then shot consecutive 66s for a four-stroke lead after 54 holes. Finished with a 71 and four-stroke victory over Fuzzy Zoeller.

Trailed Tom Watson and Seve Ballesteros by one stroke after three rounds of the 1983 U.S. Open at Oakmont, but fired a closing 67 for a one-stroke win over Watson. At the 1987 PGA Championship at PGA National Golf Club in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., he used three different configurations of irons over four days in oppressive heat but still managed to defeat Lanny Wadkins in a playoff.

Full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1974-1997, playing 569 events and making 370 cuts, having 93 top-10 finishes with 11 runner-up finishes. Made his PGA Tour Champions debut at the 1997 Boone Valley Classic, just two days after turning 50. Owns 19 PGA Tour Champions victories. Bestowed with the PGA Distinguished Service Award, the Association's highest annual honor, the evening before competing in the 93rd PGA Championship. He was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in November 2006.

2014 Notes: Played in just 10 events, fewest since his rookie season in 1997. Finished T-24th at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Teamed with Bruce Fleisher for a second-place finish in the unofficial Legends Division in June's Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf.

2015 Notes: Teamed with Bruce Fleisher to go wire to wire and win in the Legends Division of Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April. The pair finished with a 45-hole total of 12-under-par 139, three shots ahead of Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player. Bettered his age for the first time on the PGA Tour Champions when, at age 67, he shot a 6-under-par 66 in the second round of the 3M Championship. Earlier in the season, matched his age for the second time in his career by shooting a 67 on the last day of the Allianz Championship.

Nielsen was a member of the PGA Tour from 1978–1983 but did not win any tournaments. He has won over 30 other tournaments, though, most of which were in New York. Has made 142 starts on the PGA Tour, making 76 cuts and placing in the top-10 twice. Best finish in a major was T-11th in the 1986 PGA Championship.

Nielsen became a member of the PGA Tour Champions upon reaching the age of 50 in the summer of 2003, and has enjoyed plenty of success. runner-up, at the JELD-WEN Tradition, earning $220,000. He made $694,212 in 2006, 27th on the money list. He finished as the runner-up three times in 2008, but couldn't win. He made the cut in all 27 events, once again, and finished 11th on the money list, the best of his career. Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 18, 19

O'Meara, who played in his 32nd Masters this year, started to play the game when he was 13, after his family moved to a house in California on a golf course. Would slip onto the course to play and quickly became hooked on the game. As a freshman at Mission Viejo High School, he made the golf team, and in his junior year, the team won the state championship. Earned a scholarship to Long Beach State and was an All-America selection in 1979. Won the California State Amateur that year and also won the Mexican Amateur. But his biggest victory, in 1979, came at the U.S. Amateur in Cleveland, where he defeated defending champion John Cook, 8 & 7, in the final.

Turned professional the next year and earned 1981 PGA Tour Rookie of the Year honors. Between 1984 and 1992, he placed in the top 30 in earnings. With his win at the 1994 Argentine Open, he became the fifth player to win in the U.S., Europe, Japan, Australia and South America (the others are Gary Player, David Graham, Hale Irwin and Bernhard Langer).

Member of the 1985, '89, '91, '97 and '99 U.S. Ryder Cup Teams. Member of the 1996 and '98 Presidents Cup Teams. Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1981 and 2006, won 16 times in 658 events, was runner-up 22 times, 3rd 18 times and recorded 119 top-10 finishes. Best season was 1998, when he won the Masters and the British Open. Has earnings of more than $14.1 million. Was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 2015.

In 2010, won the PGA Tour Champions' fifth major, the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship, in a playoff over Michael Allen. Teamed with Nick Price to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

2011 Notes: On the PGA Tour Champions, had nine overall top-10s in 20 starts. Played his best golf in the second half of the year when he posted five top-10 efforts in his last nine starts, including a pair of runner-up showings. Waged a head-to-head weekend battle with Olin Browne at the U.S. Senior Open at Inverness before eventually finishing 2nd, three shots back.

2012 Notes: Tore cartilage in his rib cage while preparing for the 2012 Masters and missed four months of the season. In his abbreviated year, was able to finish in the top 10 at five Champions Tour events. Best finish was 2nd at the Boeing Classic, where he lost in a playoff to Jay Don Blake.

2013 Notes: Had nine top-10s in his 22 starts, the most appearances he's made in a Champions Tour season. Best result came in his final start of the season when he finished T-2nd at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Also had a T-3rd at the Encompass Championship. Ended the year 17th on the money list. Had finished in the top 30 five straight years.

2014 Notes: Highlight of his season was being voted into the World Golf Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2015. Received notification in mid-October and was inducted at St. Andrews in July along with David Graham, Laura Davies and A.W. Tillinghast. Despite recording only four top-10 finishes, the fewest he's had in a year on the PGA Tour Champions since 2008, he earned a spot among the top-30 money-winners for the fifth time in the last six years. Best finishes in 22 events were a T-2nd at Dick's Sporting Goods, T-5th at Toshiba Classic, T-6th at Mitsubishi Electric and T-6th at the Constellation Senior Players. Finished 30th in the Schwab rankings and 25th on the money list. Made his 30th start at the Masters in April, but didn't make the cut.

2015 Notes: Started his year with a runner-up finish at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship, one shot behind winner Miguel Angel Jimenez. Thanks to a closing 6-under-par 66, the day's low round, he finished 3rd at the inaugural Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March. Turned in the best finish by a player over 50 at the Masters, a T-22nd, his best showing since 2003 (T-8th). Also finished T-4th at the Greater Gwinnett Classic. Had been suffering from pain in his right foot, which prevented him from playing in the Constellation Senior Players and the U.S. Senior Open. Had a memorable week at St. Andrews with a T-78th finish at the British Open just days after being inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame. Was T-3rd at the Shaw Charity Classic and Boeing Classic before ending his year T-4th at the Charles Schwab Cup. He finished 15th in the Schwab ranking and on the money list.

2016 Notes: Started the year T-8th at the Mitsubishi Electric. Was T-4th at the Bass Pro Shops Legend, teamed with Colin Montgomerie.

Son of Sweden's most popular impressionist-comedian, Bosse Parnevik. At age 15, Parnevik spent 10 days in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, and developed an appreciation for life in the United States; he later moved to Palm Beach County, Florida, to attend Palm Beach Junior College in Lake Worth, Florida.

Parnevik turned professional in 1986 and scored four wins in his early years on the European Tour. Based in Florida, he joined the PGA Tour in the 1994, subsequently winning five events in his 393 career PGA Tour starts (also was runner-up ten times and has 55 top-ten finishes). His playing career also includes three Ryder Cup appearances representing Europe (1997, 1999, and 2002) and two runner-up finishes in The Open (1994 and 1997). Jesper is most famous for his runner-up finish in the 1994 British Open and his trademark cap with an upturned peak sporting his sponsor's logo. His career best world ranking of seventh, which he attained on May 14, 2000, was the highest world ranking achieved by a male Swedish golfer until Henrik Stenson reached the top five in February 2007.

In late 2000, Parnevik underwent hip surgery at the persuasion of Greg Norman, who had undergone similar surgery. This sidelined him for two months but his career has been slowed in recent years due to various injuries, neck, hand, hip, back and ribs.

Parnevik finished second in the Valero Texas Open in October 2007, losing to Justin Leonard in a playoff. In 2009, after a T-17th at the SAS Masters in Sweden, Parnevik underwent further hip surgery in Vail, Colorado, United States, which cut short his 2009 season on the PGA Tour. He also cited the hip injury as the reason for his withdrawal from the PGA Tour Q-School in December 2009.

In 2010, Parnevik missed cuts in his first three tournaments and had to withdraw again after a first round 68 at the Northern Trust Open because of an ailing back. He had emergency surgery where it was discovered that he had a broken lumbar vertebrae that could put his career in jeopardy.

Parnevik played the 2011 PGA Tour season on a fully exempt status for his Top 50 All-Time Earnings ranking. He was allowed to reuse this one-time exemption after being able to play only five tournaments in 2010. He played the 2012 and 2013 seasons on a Medical Extension after suffering a severe injury to his right hand in a boating accident, with the consequences for his career being unknown. He was able to fight back and, in 2014, made just one cut in three PGA Tour starts. Finished T-65th at the Puerto Rico Open. Season ended in July when he broke a rib when driving a Segway around a tree, lost his balance and fell on the handle.

On turning 50 in 2015 he played in his first PGA Tour Champions event at Tucson and finished T-42nd. Finished T-4th at the rain-shortened Greater Gwinnett Championship after posting rounds of 68-69 and the next week finished T-10th at the Bass Pro Shops Legends, teamed up with Tommy Armour III. For the year Parnevik finished 51st on the money list and 55th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Earned his first PGA Tour Champions victory in early May when he was a four-shot winner over David Frost, Jeff Maggert and Mike Goodes at the Insuperity Invitational. Shared the 36-hole lead with Maggert but made five birdies in an eight-hole stretch to take command and win for the first time in a Tour event since his 2001 win at the Honda Classic, a span of 15 years, 1 month, 27 days.

Champions Tour Victories: 4 - 2009 SAS Championship; 2013 3M Championship; 2014 Principal Charity Classic, Charles Schwab Cup Championship

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 18, 19, 22

Was an All-American golfer in 1981 and '82 and was the Pac-10 Conference Player of the Year in 1981. Teammates at UCLA included Jay Delsing, Corey Pavin, Steve Pate and Duffy Waldorf.

As a full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1986-1990 and 1997-2010, he played in 588 events and made 317 cuts, with two victories (1999 Buick Open and 2001 The International) and four runner-up finishes among his 47 top 10s. In 1989, went into the final round of the U.S. Open with a chance to win and shot 74 to finish T-14th. At age 51 was 2nd in the 2011 Viking Classic. Competed on the Web.com Tour periodically, with 79 career starts, making 42 cuts, recording seven top-10 finishes with his best finish being a T-3rd at the 1992 Hawkeye Open.

In 2009, became only the 15th player in PGA Tour Champions history to win in his first start. Won the SAS Championship and didn't play again that year. Victory came 22 days after he turned 50, tying him with Gary Player as the ninth-youngest winner in PGA Tour Champions history.

Had a stellar 2010 campaign on the PGA Tour Champions, with nine top-10 finishes in 10 starts.

2010 Notes: He played the majority of his golf on the PGA Tour, competing in 22 events compared to 10 on the PGA Tour Champions.

2011 Notes: Split his time between the PGA Tour and PGA Tour Champions. On PGA Tour, claimed two top-10s in just 12 starts, including one at year's end which altered his plans for 2012. Beginning the week of the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic as the fifth alternate and ranked 143rd on the money list, he capitalized on his opportunity in the season's final official event. Had a final-round, 3-under 69 and waited until virtually the last putt dropped Sunday to see if it was good enough to elevate him to within the top 125. Finished T-3rd at the tournament, worthy of a 121st place money-list finish and fully exempt status for 2012, at age 52, the oldest to ever earn exempt status from the top-125 category the previous year. He was last exempt on the PGA Tour in 2009 after finishing No. 80 on the 2008 money list. In mid-July, nearly became the second-oldest winner of a PGA Tour event when he finished T-2nd at the Viking Classic in Mississippi.

Enjoyed a solid PGA Tour Champions season, garnering six top-10 finishes in 16 starts.

2012 Notes: Played just 10 PGA Tour Champions events due to fully exempt status on the PGA Tour, where he played 23 times.

Missed the PGA Tour Playoffs for the fourth consecutive season, finishing No. 186 in the FedEx Cup standings. Best PGA Tour Champions effort was a T3rd at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, his first Tour start of the season. Played in the final grouping Sunday, with Bernhard Langer, at the U.S. Senior Open at Indianwood, but a final-round 75 dropped him into a T-15th. Posted his only PGA Tour top-10 of the year in his 18th start, a T-8th at the Reno-Tahoe Open, the first PGA Tour event to use the Modified Stableford scoring format since 2006. Finished with 30 points, 13 behind J.J. Henry's winning total. Competed at the PGA Tour's National Qualifying Tournament, where he finished T-87th. Was T-17th after 90 holes, but a final-round 79 dropped him 70 places and he failed to earn his 2013 card.

2013 Notes: Played his first full season as a Champions Tour member and finished seventh on the money list, with more than $1.4 million in earnings, thanks to 12 top-10 finishes that included six performances where he placed third or better including a win at the 3M Championship. He was runner-up at Allianz Championship and the Greater Gwinnett Championship. Was third at the ACE Group Classic, Mississippi Gulf Resort and Encompass Championship.

2014 Notes: Had perhaps his finest season in professional golf, claiming multiple titles in a season for the first time. Winnings of over $1.5 million were a PGA Tour Champions personal best, and he secured the fifth spot on the Charles Schwab Cup points list, earning a $100,000 annuity. Became the last of seven multiple winners when he won the season ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, defeating Jay Haas on the fourth hole of a sudden-death playoff at Desert Mountain Club in Scottsdale. In early June, won his third career victory at The Principal Charity Classic, defeating Doug Garwood on the second hole of a playoff. At The Senior Open Championship in Wales, he shot a first-round 78 but improved by 14 shots in Round 2 with a course-record 64 at Royal Porthcawl. Steady play on the weekend moved him into a T-3rd, his personal best in a senior major. Shot the low round of his career in the opening round at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship, a 12-under-par 60 at Kapolei G.C. The round included 12 birdies, which matched the PGA Tour Champions 18-hole record. However, followed with rounds of 72-70 to finish T-7th.

2015 Notes: Had another nice showing in Arizona just months after capturing the 2014 Charles Schwab Cup Championship when he finished T-4th at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March. Also T-4th at the rain-shortened Greater Gwinnett Championship. Was T-9th at the Regions Tradition, T-7th at the Senior PGA Championship and T-5th at the Principal Charity Classic. His last top-10 was a T-10th at the San Antonio Championship, he finished 21st on the money list and 22nd in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Best finish was T-3rd at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic.

Started playing golf when he was 7 years old, when his father first showed him the game. He played his first competitive competition at 11, and went on to win the 1978 Kentucky State High School Championship. In 1995, Perry bought 142 acres of land and borrowed more than $2.5 million to design and build the only public course in his hometown, called Country Creek. He designed it for mid-to-high handicappers and has kept it affordable. Member of the 1996, 2003, '05 & '09 Presidents Cup teams and the 2004 & '08 Ryder Cup teams. Member of the PGA Tour from 1987 to the present, playing 613 events and making 451 cuts, having 104 top-10 finishes with 10 runner-up finishes. Has earned $31.7 million on just the PGA Tour. Since 1987 has never been out of the top 125 of the money list and only outside of the top 100 once, in 2006, when he had surgery on his right knee.

2011 Notes: Split time between the PGA Tour and PGA Tour Champions, making 10 appearances on the senior circuit. Was among the top-10 seven times and late in the year, experienced a bittersweet first career win on the PGA Tour Champions when he won the SAS Championship one day after his sister Kay passed away from breast cancer. Win in Cary, N.C., came in his 11th career PGA Tour Champions start and made him the fourth player in SAS history to claim his first title at the event. Also became the fifth of six first-time winners on the 2011 PGA Tour Champions. Made 13 PGA Tour appearances, making five cuts. Best finish T-38th at Viking Classic, also finished T-39th at The Players Championship in May and was T-39th at The Greenbrier Classic during the summer.

2012 Notes: Finished in the top 10 in half of his 18 starts on the PGA Tour Champions but registered just one victory early in the season. Ran away from the field at The ACE Group Classic, claiming his second career Champions Tour title by five strokes over Bernhard Langer. Finished second to Michael Allen at the Encompass Insurance Pro-Am in Tampa. Closed with a 64 at TPC Twin Cities to finish T-3 at the 3M Championship, three strokes back of Bernhard Langer. At Harbor Shores in Benton Harbor, Michigan, set the 18-hole Senior PGA Championship scoring record with a 62 in the final round, finished ninth. Made only five PGA Tour starts, the first time he had less than 13 appearances on that tour since 1987. Best effort was a T-29th at the Transitions Championship. Teamed with Sean O'Hair to win the Franklin Templeton Shootout by one stroke over Charles Howell III and Rory Sabbatini. It was his third victory in the event. He was a 2005 winner with John Huston and a 2008 winner with Scott Hoch.

2013 Notes: Was a banner year which led him to win the PGA Tour Champions Player of the Year. Played in 20 events, winning three times with two of them the U.S. Senior Open and the Constellation Senior Players being majors. The last win was at the end of the year in a playoff at the AT&T Championship. Also had three runner-up finishes and was second in earnings. Also played three times on the PGA Tour making two cuts, best finish T-33rd at the HP Byron Nelson. Making the year even more powerful was the fact that after the ACE Group Classic in February underwent surgery on his left-knee for a torn meniscus and was out of action until mid-April.

2014 Notes: Continued his streak of winning senior majors with a victory at the Regions Tradition. The streak was broken the next week when he finished T-13th at the Senior PGA Championship. Finished fourth at the Constellation Senior Players Championship, his six top-ten finish of the year. Broke that streak with a T-14th at the U.S. Senior Open. Won again at the 3M Championship he finished the year with nine top-tens, 4th in the Schwab Rankings and fifth on the money list.

2015 Notes: Played frequently on the PGA Tour in the first half of the year (a total of 9 events) and best effort came when he posted four rounds in the 60s to T-16th at the AT&T Byron Nelson. Said goodbye to his PGA Tour career at the Memorial Tournament where he missed the cut, with rounds of 71-73. Made a full-time transition to the PGA Tour Champions in early June and recorded his only victory when he successfully defended his 3M Championship, becoming the first player in its 23-year history to repeat as winner. Earlier in the year, was T-2nd at the Insuperity Invitational, losing in a playoff, along with Tom Lehman, to Ian Woosnam who birdied the first extra hole. Played final 12 holes of Sunday's round with back problems but managed to get into the overtime at The Woodlands CC after posting a 66, the lowest round of the week. Also finished T-3rd at the SAS Championship he was in the top-10 in seven of his 14 CPGA Tour Champions starts. Was 12th on the money list and 12th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Started his year with a T-6th at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Month later had his second top-10 of the year with a T-3rd at the Chubb Classic. Was T-10th with partner Scott Hoch at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf.

His father was a sales representative for Spalding Golf for over 30 years. Plumb quit playing professional golf in 1999 due to back surgery and to spend more time with his family. During that time, he became a PGA Tour representative for Nike Golf. He worked other various jobs that included an assistant professional for Don Kotnik, the 1993 PGA Pro of the Year, at Toledo Country Club.

Three years ago, at the urging of his fiancé, who is now his wife, he returned to golf as an instructor and clinician at Indian Hills Country Club in Bowling Green, Ky.

He is playing in his first U.S. Senior Open.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 19

Did not start to play golf seriously until he was 16 years old. In high school he played a lot of tennis and baseball until his golf coach convinced him to concentrate on golf. After high school, attended Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo, where he played varsity golf for two years before the school dropped its golf program. He then turned professional and worked as an assistant at San Luis Obispo Country Club. Credited his victory in the 1979 FootJoy PGA Assistant Professional Championship for jump-starting his career.

Regarded as one of the hardest workers on tour, as well as one of the best putters, he had been in the top 100 of the money list every year between 1988 and 2005. Prior to his win in the 1994 Nestle Invitational, he was the leading money-winner on the PGA Tour without a victory. Almost pulled a double victory in 1994 when he lost in the playoff for the U.S. Open. He is nicknamed "Boss of the Moss" for his great putting skills. Roberts has had to deal with problems with a bulging disc in his back the last several years. Missed the Masters in 1998 when he broke ribs while sneezing.

Member of 1995 Ryder Cup Team and 1994 and 2000 Presidents Cup Teams.

Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1981 and 2005, in 633 events won eight times, was runner-up 10 times, third, 10 times and finished in the top 10 94 times. Had earnings of $15.2 million.

When he turned 50 he made a smooth transition to the PGA Tour Champions, where he has won 13 times in 144 events. Since his first full season on tour in 2006, has finished in the top 10 in yearly earnings every year but 2011 when he finished 21st in a season when he suffered trouble with shoulder and upper back.

2012 Notes: Showed that he is healthy again with a win at the Toshiba Classic. Also had 15 other top-25 finishes to go with the win for the year.

2013 Notes: Saw his string of top-30 money-list finishes end at eight consecutive years when he slipped to 35th. Posted just two top 10s in 21 starts and was in the top 25 just eight times, fewest in his PGA Tour Champions career. Played in the final group Sunday at the Insperty Championship in May. His even-par 72 in the final round led to a T-4th finish, his best effort since winning the 2012 Toshiba Classic. His other top-10 finish did not come until September when he finished eighth at the Montreal Championship.

2014 Notes: Slipped to 48th on the final money list, with earnings totaling $347,083. Had three top 10s, was two strokes off the lead after 36 holes of the Quebec Championship and carded a final-round 71 to finish T-7th. Had his initial top-10 finish in his fourth start of the year when he was T-10th at the Toshiba Classic. Also T-10th at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach when he birdied four of his last six holes to post a 7-under 65, equaling the low round of the tournament.

2015 Notes: Teamed with Mark Wiebe to finish T-3rd at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April. The pair was 12 under par on the par-3 Top of the Rock Course. Got his second top-10 with a T-9th at the SAS Championship, was 46th on the money list and 50th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Was T-6th at the Tucson Conquistadores.

Turned 50 on July 17, 2004, and just five days later made an impressive European Senior Tour debut at the Senior British Open, where he tied for 2nd. Sealed his first Seniors Tour win at Wentworth Club in August 2005 when he dominated in an eight-shot victory at the Travis Perkins Senior Masters. Became the third-oldest winner on the European Tour behind Des Smyth and Neil Coles when, just three days before his 48th birthday, when he won The 2002 Barclays Scottish Open at Loch Lomond, his eighth European Tour title. Known as El Gato - "The Cat." because of the way he stealthily stalks and overcomes opponents.

The son of a club professional in Cordoba, where he still lives, he earned his PGA Tour card in 1994 but returned after only one season to rejoin his many friends in Europe. Close friend of fellow Argentine Angel Cabrera, with whom he finished second in the WGC World Cup in their native country in December 2000. Used his own money to help sponsor Cabrera on the European Tour and was rewarded when his protégé won the 2001 Open de Argentina and followed that with victory in the 2002 Benson and Hedges International Open. Attributed his success to improved concentration, thanks to the study of an Indian yoga technique, Rhami Hayat. Has been very successful on the PGA Tour Champions, with five victories, including two major wins in the 2006 Jeld-Wen Tradition and in the 2008 U.S. Senior Open, where he defeated Fred Funk by four strokes.

In 2011, played in just 15 events as a result of limited-exempt status and finished 40th on the money list. Was third in the Insuperity Championship.

RICK SANDERS (a)

Birth Date: August 26, 1963

Birthplace: Huntington Park, Calif.

Age: 52 Ht.: 6' Wt.: 205

Home: La Mirada, Ca.

College: Long Beach State

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot a 69 and won a 2-for-1 playoff for the first alternate spot at Vista Valley Country Club in Vista Valley, Calif.

Sanders is making his second USGA championship appearance after qualifying for the 1999 U.S. Mid-Amateur. After a break from the game, Sanders got back into it as his son, Ben, began playing in earnest. Ben, a freshman in high school, will be on the bag for Sanders. Sanders, a member of Hacienda Golf Club in La Habra Heights, Calif., started taking lessons again after he entered for the U.S. Senior Open. He wasn't happy with how he was playing and even told his son that he should just stay home and work rather than play in the qualifier. He apparently found something on the range before hitting 16 of 18 greens and shooting a 69, good enough to be the first alternate.

Sanders has won 10 club championships at Hacienda. Away from golf, Sanders is an insurance broker and is married to his wife, Katie, and, together, have two children: Amanda, 19, and Ben, 15.

He is playing in his first U.S. Senior Open.

Short became a professional golfer in 1987. He worked as a club pro in the Austin area before becoming a tour professional in 1997. He started out on the mini-tours and eventually qualified for the Web.com Tour for the 1998 season. He was a member of the Web.com Tour again in 2002–03 and has played a total of 96 events on that tour. His best finish on that Tour was a T-2nd at The Reese's Cup Classic in 2003. After that year, he went and finished T-7th at the PGA Tour Q-School.

Finally earned the opportunity to play on the PGA Tour in 2004 as a 40-year-old rookie. That year wasn't very successful as he finished 222nd on the money list. Since he didn't go back to the qualifying tournament, he had to play in Monday qualifiers in 2005. His only PGA Tour win came in 2005 at the Michelin Championship at Las Vegas, where he defeated Jim Furyk on the second hole of a sudden-death playoff. The win was also notable because Short was an alternate and it was only his 26th PGA Tour event. After the victory, he struggled, finishing 161st on the money list in 2006 and then 232nd in 2007. At this time he started to suffer from back problems, which hampered him between 2007 and 2012.

He attempted to restart his PGA Tour career in 2013. Short made the cut in the 2013 Shell Houston Open, his first on the PGA Tour since 2007. He was unable to satisfy his medical extension, making five cuts in 15 events, and was demoted to Priority Ranking 32, which represents past champions and veterans outside the top 150 on the previous season's money list. The good news of 2013 was that he went to PGA Tour Champions Q-School and tied the 72-hole record of 20-under-par 264 and waltzed to a five-stroke win over Jim Rutledge and Mike Reid on the Champions course, thus becoming fully exempt on the PGA Tour Champions in 2014.

2014 Notes: Had seven top-10 finishes, six of them coming after July. Finished his rookie season 18th on the money list, with earnings of more than $900,000. Had his three best performances of the season in consecutive events in late summer. After shooting 65-64 on the weekend in Calgary and finishing fifth in the Shaw Charity Classic, won the Quebec Championship the following week, becoming the fourth of five rookies to win during the year. Came from three strokes back with a birdie-birdie-eagle finish to overtake Scott Dunlap by a shot. His hybrid second shot from 251 yards and subsequent eagle putt from 8 feet made him the first player since Bernhard Langer in the 2010 Allianz Championship to eagle the final hole for victory. Win was his first in almost nine years. Put together three more rounds in the 60s in his next start to claim a sixth-place finish in the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship.

2015 Notes: In his second year on the PGA Tour Champions, he played in all 24 events and finished seven times in the top 10. Highlight of year was third-place effort in the Encompass Championship. Was 24th on the final money list and 27th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: At 52, he became the oldest player to qualify for a U.S. Open, shooting 7-under 135 in Powell, Ohio, sectional to earn his first U.S. Open start. He missed the cut in the U.S. Open at Oakmont. On the PGA Tour Champions, he was the 36-hole leader in the Mitsubishi Electric Classic but missed a 6-foot birdie attempt on the final hole to fall back into a playoff with Woody Austin. After both made par at the first playoff hole, Austin won the event with a par on the second extra hole. One week later was T-4th with Hale Irwin in the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. Became the 10th player in PGA Tour Champions history to record three eagles in a round when he did so in the second round of the Tucson Conquistadores. Finished 5th at the Constellation Senior Players Championship and 2nd at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Also T-7th the Senior Open Championship.

Got started in golf through his father, Joe, who was an accomplished amateur player. Father lost to Bo Williams in the final of the 1989 USGA Senior Amateur at Lochinvar in Houston. Played on victorious USA Walker Cup Team in 1977 and was an NCAA champion and All-American selection at USC in 1976 and '77. Was one of the first PGA Tour players to live in Hawaii and commute, but travel got to be too much and he moved back to San Diego in 1994.

Played on the PGA Tour regularly from 1979-2005. Had 600 career starts with seven wins, 15 runner-ups, 10 third-place and 77 top-10 finishes. Accumulated earnings of over $6.8 million. One of the most consistent players on tour, he finished in the top 125 on the money list between 1979 and 1996 and in 11 of those years was in the top 50.

His biggest victory came at the 1987 U.S. Open, where he trailed Tom Watson by one stroke heading into the final round at The Olympic Club. He closed with a 68, which included three birdies on the back nine that led him to a one-stroke victory. Also won the Greater Greensboro Open that year on way to a fourth-place finish on the money list, his highest ranking ever.

Lost an 18-hole playoff to Payne Stewart in the 1991 U.S. Open at Hazeltine National. Last Tour victory came in the 1998 Buick Invitational, when he defeated Skip Kendall with a birdie on the first playoff hole. Posted a final-round 64 and came from eight strokes back entering the final round, at the time matching the PGA Tour's best comeback since 1970. Victory came with former San Diego Chargers quarterback Stan Humphries on his bag.

His first tour victory came in 1980 Western Open, by five strokes over Andy Bean. Won second tournament on Tour by five strokes as well at the 1984 Manufacturers Hanover Westchester Classic.

Defeated Bob Tway in playoff to win the 1989 BellSouth Atlanta Classic. Was unable to play on the PGA Tour in 2000 due to a broken ankle he suffered while skiing during the New Year's holiday. Underwent surgery in August 2000, which involved placing seven screws into the ankle.

Earned first and only PGA Tour Champions victory at the 2006 Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. In 2011, played in all 21 official events for which he was eligible but did not post a top-10 finish for the first time for six full PGA Tour Champions seasons.

2012 Notes: Played in 20 events, finishing in the top 25 twice. Teamed with Loren Roberts to finish T-13th in the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. Was T-24th at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn.

2013 Notes: Was 64th on the money list in 23 starts. Only top 10 came in March when he closed with a 65 on Sunday at the Toshiba Classic to move into a T-8th. It was his best PGA Tour Champions finish since a T-6th in the 2010 First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

2014 Notes: Top-10 finish in 21 starts came in September when he was on the leader board through 36 holes of the Quebec Championship. Contended early in the final round at La Tempete before eventually posting a 71 and placing T-10th. Teamed with Wayne Levi for a T-15th finish at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf.

2015 Notes: Only played in 7 events, best finish T-26th at the Bass Pro Shops Golf with Wayne Levi. Also made the cut at the U.S. Senior Open in Sacramento, finishing T-50th.

2016 Notes: Only has played in 7 events, with his best finish a T33rd at the Bass Pro Shops Legends with Wayne Levi.

Other Victories: 1981 New York State Open

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 19

Born in Fort Knox, Ky., where his father was serving in the Army. Has lived in New York for most of his life. He was a childhood friend and high school golf rival of fellow PGA Tour Champions player Mike Hulbert. As an 18-year-old in 1976, teamed with Hulbert to defeat newly appointed Syracuse University basketball coach Jim Boeheim and his partner to win the C.C. of Ithaca best-ball event. Struck up a lasting friendship with Boeheim and remains a huge Syracuse fan.

Attended Ohio State and while there was a distinguished member of the school's golf team. A three-time All-America selection, member of the 1979 NCAA Championship team, and Ohio State's Athlete of the Year in 1981. He was inducted into the Ohio State Varsity Hall of Fame in 1992. Son Jamie plays golf at Ohio State.

Won the last of his seven PGA Tour titles in the 2004 Wachovia Championship in a two-hole playoff over Arron Oberholser. This win ended a span of 370 events since his previous Tour win, the 1990 Hardee's Classic. Collected the winner's check of $1,008,000 to surpass the $1 million mark in a single season for the first time in his 22-year career. Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1984 and 2007. In 699 events played, he won seven times, was runner-up nine times, third eight times and finished in the top 10 83 times. Had accumulated earnings of $11.2 million.

Had a banner season on the PGA Tour Champions in 2009, going over the $1 million mark and falling just short of $2 million in earnings. Was runner-up in the 2009 U.S. Senior Open at Crooked Stick.

2010 Notes: Teamed with former Ohio State teammate John Cook to finish second to Mark O'Meara and Nick Price in the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April. The two teams finished the 54-hole event tied at 28-under-par 188, but despite not making a bogey in regulation, the pair each bogeyed the second playoff hole to finish second.

2011 Notes: Finished among the top-30 money-winners for a fourth consecutive year and played his best golf in the middle part of the season when he was among the top eight four times in a stretch of five appearances. Was in contention on the back nine at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open and eventually finished T-4th at En-Joie GC. Followed his effort the next week with three more rounds in the 60s and a third-place finish at the Montreal Championship. He enjoyed a successful return to Ohio for July's U.S. Senior Open at Inverness, finishing T-4th on the strength of four straight under-par scores. The following week, was T-8th in the 3M Championship on the strength of a final-round 65 at the TPC Twin Cities. Was out of action for just over a month with a lower-back injury. Initially was forced to withdraw from the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf after the first round and teammate John Cook subsequently withdrew from the better-ball team event. Did not return to the circuit until early June at The Principal Charity Classic in Iowa where he finished T-16th.

2012 Notes: Made just 15 starts during the year, the fewest in a season on the PGA Tour Champions, and missed on a chance to finish in the top 30 because of chronic back trouble. Last appearance of the year came at the SAS Championship where he withdrew prior to completing the first round. Underwent back surgery on Nov. 1 at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York. Came close to posting his first career PGA Tour Champions win when he and teammate John Cook finished one stroke shy of the winning team of Michael Allen-David Frost in the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in Savannah.

2013 Notes: Spent most of the season working to regain his form after undergoing back surgery in November 2012. Made two starts early in the year before missing more than four months with the back issue. Returned in late June, at the Constellation Senior Players Championship, and played a dozen events after his return. Best showing came near his home when he was T-30th at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open after successive rounds of 70.

2014 Notes: Played his first full season in more than a year as he continued his comeback following back surgery in November 2012. His 23 starts were the most since 2010. In those 23 starts, his lone top 10 came in October, finishing T-10th at the SAS Championship. Was 55th on the money list and 77th in Schwab rankings.

2015 Notes: Teamed with his former Ohio State teammate John Cook for a T-5th finish at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. Finished the year 66th on the money list and 74th on the Schwab ranking.

2016 Notes: Had his best finish in a stroke-play event in nearly five years when he finished T-4th at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic near Atlanta. Was able to top that with a T-3rd at the Regions Tradition.

Singh is Fiji's first and only world-class golfer. Has won in Malaysia, France, Nigeria, Ivory Coast, Morocco, Zimbabwe, Singapore, Spain, Germany, England, South Africa, Sweden, Taiwan, Canada, South Korea and U.S. He learned the game from his father, an airplane technician who also taught golf. Admired Tom Weiskopf while growing up and used his swing as an early model for his own. Noted for his rigorous practice routine. Once held a club professional position in Borneo. Of Indian ancestry, first name means "victory" in Hindi. Completed a major achievement in 2003 with four victories, plus 14 top-10 finishes in only 27 starts. Finished No. 1 on the PGA Tour money list for the first time with $7,573,907, ending Tiger Woods' four-year reign at the top. Was even better in 2004, when he won nine times and repeated as money leader. It was part of a remarkable run in which he finished in the top 5 every year, from 1998 to 2008. A truly international golfer, he has won titles all over the globe. Graduated from the European Tour Qualifying School in 1988 and played seven seasons before making his base in America. Was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 2006. Member of 1994, '96, '98, '00, '03, '05, '07 and '09 Presidents Cup teams. Was named Player of the Year in 2004.

2008 Notes: Lost a playoff to Steve Lowery at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Defeated Sergio Garcia with a birdie on the second extra hole to win The Barclays. Won four of his last eight starts, including an unofficial win at the Chevron World Challenge.

2009 Notes: Underwent right knee surgery to repair a torn meniscus in mid-January. His No. 68 position on the money list, after 11 consecutive seasons of top-5 finishes on the money list, was his lowest as a Tour member.

2010 Notes: After finishing 11 consecutive years in the top 5 of the money list, fell to 68th in 2009 and 66th in 2010.

2011 Notes: Finished 28th in the FedEx Cup standings and on the money list. For the first time since 1989, fell out of the top 100 in the world rankings, but finished the year 78th on the list.

2012 Notes: Made 23 of 27 cuts and had five top-10s, but only one top-5, a T-4th at the Frys.com Open. Finished 33rd in the FedEx-Cup standings and 51st on the money list.

2013 Notes: Turned 50 in February to become eligible to play on the PGA Tour Champions. Still played a full season on the PGA Tour, but posted only one top-25 finish, a T-20th at the Sony Open in Hawaii. Missed the FedEx Cup Playoffs for the first time in his career and failed to record a top-10 on Tour for the first time since 1991. Ended a streak of 20 consecutive years inside the top 70 on the final money list. Finished 146th in the FedEx Cup standings and 162nd on the money list. Made his Champions Tour debut in September at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship, finishing T-6th at Kapolei GC after a final-round, 1-over-par 73. Ended his year with a 3rd-place finish at the Talisker Masters in Australia, four strokes behind winner Adam Scott.

2014 Notes: Broke his top-10 drought with a runner-up finish at the Frys.com Open. It marked his first top-10 on the PGA Tour since a T-4th at the 2012 Frys.com Open. At the 2014 U.S. Senior Open, his second Champions Tour start, he finished T-5th. Was T-7th at the 3M Championship in Minnesota. Finished 87th in the FedEx Cup rankings and 97th on the money list.

2015 Notes: Opened up the Northern Trust with a 66 to lead, then shot 74-69-72 to finish T-12th, just three shots out of the playoff. At the Valspar Championship, shot 69-70-70-71 to finish T-10th, six shots out of the playoff. Finished the year 119th in the FedEx Cup standings and 124th on the money list. Played twice on the Champions Tour, finishing T-3rd at the Nature Valley First Tee and T-39th at the Toshiba Classic.

2016 Notes: T-6th at the Honda Classic, on the PGA Tour Champions, T-8th at the Mitsubishi Electric. Even at 53, plays full time on the PGA Tour over the PGA Tour Champions. With rounds of 68-66-71-65, finished in 2nd, three shots behind Billy Hurley III at the Quicken Loans National. His final-round 65 marked his best final-round score since a 65 in the final round of the 2011 Wyndham Championship, where he eventually finished T-4th. The runner-up performance was the 28th of his career and first since the 2013 Frys.com Open.

Earned his Tour card in fall of 1982, but finished 171st on the money list in 1983 and was forced to return to Q-School. Regained his Tour card in 1984 and won the 1985 Tallahassee Open when it was part of the Tournament Players Series. Finished in the top 100 of the money list between 1985 and 2006. In 1988, shot a final-round 65 to win the PGA Championship by three strokes over Paul Azinger, propelling him to his fourth-best season to date, winning $503,321 (ranked 18th). Before his win in the 1998 Tucson Classic, he had won more money than anybody else in the 1990s, without a win. Has been a Chicago Bulls season ticket holder since 1996 and loves Formula 1 auto racing. Big fan of the Florida State Seminoles, Chicago Bears and Chicago Cubs. Serious wine collector, owns about 2,000 bottles, some dating back to 1957. Co-owner with Dudley Hart of Lakeshore Golf Club in Rochester, N.Y., a course he played regularly growing up. Good friend of 1986 Indianapolis 500 winner Bobby Rahal.

Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1983 and 2007 and in 700 events played, won six times, was runner-up 15 times, finished third 10 times and finished in the top 10 105 times. Had accumulated earnings of $18.2 million.

In 2011, reclaimed a spot among the top-10 money-winners after a year's absence, finishing sixth on the money list for the second time in the last three seasons. Along with Rod Spittle, played in all 24 official events. Won his fourth career title overall and his third in the last four years in early July, at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Victory was his third in the last four years on the Monterey Peninsula.

2012 Notes: For the second consecutive year, played in every event and was among the top 10 in a third of his 24 appearances, highlighted by two third-place efforts in a span of three tournaments during the spring. Best finish was T-3rd at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. Then the following month he and teammate Brad Faxon earned a T-3rd finish at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in Savannah.

2013 Notes: Won his fifth career PGA Tour Champions title when he and teammate Brad Faxon were one-stroke victors over the teams of Fred Funk-Mike Goodes and Kenny Perry-Gene Sauers in the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in Savannah in April. With his $230,000 first-prize check, he surpassed the $25-million mark in career earnings in PGA Tour event. For the third straight year, played in every PGA Tour Champions event and was among the top-20 on the money list for the fifth consecutive season as he finished the year 16th on the money list.

2014 Notes: Missed just one event during the year and it came late in the season in the AT&T Championship, ending a streak of PGA Tour Champions appearances at 102 consecutive dating to when he skipped the 2010 Ensure Classic. Had a victory and two second-place finishes during the season, earning more than $1.2 million, the largest amount he's made in a season since 2011. Had a big month in June that extended into mid-July when he was among the top six in four straight events. Started stretch with the highlight of his season when he was able to defend his title at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf, teaming with a new partner (Fred Funk) to prevail in a tight battle with Jay Haas-Peter Jacobsen. Later in the month, finished second to Bernhard Langer in the Constellation Senior Players Championship losing on the second hole of a play-off. Was T-5th in his next start in mid-July, at the U.S. Senior Open at Oak Tree National in Oklahoma, site of his 1988 PGA Championship victory. For the year finished ninth on the money list and seventh in Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Fell short in his bid for a third consecutive title at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. He and teammate Tom Lehman finished T-5th at Big Cedar Lodge. A closing-round 5-under-par 67 led to a T-6th at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic. Was T-7th at the Senior PGA Championship and ended his year with his best finish, T-4th at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Finished outside the top-20 money-winners on the Champions Tour (was 22nd) for the first time but still managed to post top-10s in a third of his 24 starts.

2016 Notes: Was T-3rd at the Allianz Championship and T-8th at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. Also was T-8th at the Principal Charity Classic and T-9th at the Constellations Players Championship.

ROD SPITTLE

Birth Date: July 18, 1955

Birthplace: St. Catharines, Ontario, Canada

Age: 61 Ht.: 6'5" Wt.: 230

Home: Dublin, Ohio & Dunedin, Fla.

College: Ohio State

Turned Professional: 2004

Joined Champions Tour: 2007

Champions Tour Playoff Record: 1-0

Champions Tour Victories: 1 - 2010 AT&T Championship

Other Victories: 1977 Canadian Amateur. 1978 Canadian Amateur.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot a 72 to snatch the final qualifying spot at Scioto Country Club in Columbus, Ohio.

Turned professional in 2004 after spending 25 years selling corporate insurance. Starred as a collegian at Ohio State University, where he was a teammate of John Cook and Joey Sindelar. A two-time winner of the Canadian Amateur (1977-78), he also won the Ohio Mid-Amateur three times.

One of six players to finish T-12th at the 2009 PGA Tour Champions National Qualifying tournament but missed on one of the two conditionally-exempt spots when he made a par on the second playoff hole. Did not play in a PGA Tour Champions event in 2009 after making 26 starts in the previous four years, including nine in 2008 and 13 in 2007. Recorded his then-career-best PGA Tour Champions finish at the 2007 Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. A second-round, 8-under par 64 was a career low and moved him into second place, three strokes back of R.W. Eaks after 36 holes. Finished tied for second with Jay Haas, two strokes behind Eaks, after making birdies on three of his last five holes. His $128,000 check vaulted him into the top-50 on the money list for the first time. Earlier in the season, he had finished T-6th at the Regions Charity Classic in Alabama after shooting a final-round 66 at Ross Bridge. Lone top-10 effort in 2008 was a T-6th at the 3M Championship.

In 2010, won the PGA Tour Champions' AT&T Championship with a playoff victory over Jeff Sluman.

In 2011, joined Jeff Sluman as the only two professionals to play in every official PGA Tour Champions event and managed to finish among the top-30 money winners for the first time, thanks to four top-10 efforts, all coming in the first half of the year. Earnings of $731,144 almost equaled his career earnings on the Tour prior to the season ($780,698). Had his best finish of the year in his second start, nearly winning the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton.

2012 Notes: Played in all 23 events for which he was eligible and was among the top-10 in two tournaments in the first third of the season. Shot 66-69 on the weekend at TwinEagles to finish tied for ninth at The ACE Group Classic. In early May, closed with a round of 69 to finish tied for ninth at the Insuperity Championship.

2013 Notes: Narrowly missed finishing in the top-30 on the money list and earning a spot in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Played in 21 events where his best finish was a T-4th in the 3M Championship. Had four additional top-10s and finished 31st on the money list. Turned in a strong performance at the Senior PGA Championship in May in St. Louis when he finished T-6th which marked his best showing in a PGA Tour Champions major championship.

2014 Notes: Dropped from 31st on the 2013 money list to 50th, with just one top-10 over his 23 appearances. Posted three straight sub-par rounds at the Insuperity Invitational and finished T-9th at The Woodlands. Secured fully exempt status for 2015 after placing 5th at the PGA Tour Champions Q-School. Final-round 70 included a clutch, 5-foot par putt on the last hole that avoided a playoff and maintained his position among the top five in the standings.

2015 Notes: Had his best performance in nearly two years when he finished 4th at The Principal Charity Classic. Carded a second-round 66 at the TPC Sugarloaf to move up into a T-8th at the rain-shortened Greater Gwinnett Championship. Shared the 36-hole lead at the Allianz Championship and briefly held the lead early in the final round. Rebounded from a 10 at the par-5 6th hole, to shoot 73 and finish T-9th. Narrowly missed qualifying for the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship when he stumbled on his 54th hole at the Toshiba Classic, the year's final full-field event of the year. Needing only a par to secure the 30th spot, he made a bogey on the final hole and finished T-9th in the tournament and 32nd overall on the money list.

2016 Notes: Best finish T-12th at the Senior PGA Championship.

LANCE TEN BROECK

Birth Date: March 21, 1956

Birthplace: Chicago, Ill.

Age: 60 Ht.: 6'3" Wt.: 195

Home: Singer Island, Fla.

College: Texas

Turned Professional: 1977

Joined PGA Tour: 1980

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot a 68 in Scioto Country Club in Columbus, Ohio to earn medalist honors by three strokes.

Ten Broeck was born in Chicago and grew up in Beverly, Ill., a community on the southwest side. He attended the University of Texas, and was a member of the golf team from 1975 to 1976. He was a two-time All-America selection and winner of the Masingill Trophy in 1975. He turned pro in 1977.

Broeck played in 349 PGA Tour events in his career, making the cut 159 times and added 10 top-10 finishes. His best finish in an official PGA Tour event was a stand-alone second in the 1991 Chattanooga Classic. His best finish in a major was a T-31st in the 1991 U.S. Open. He won the 1984 Magnolia State Classic before that tournament became an official PGA Tour event.

After his playing days were over, he began work as a caddie. His clients have included several big-name players, notably Robert Allenby and Jesper Parnevik. Since he made more than 150 cuts in his career on the PGA Tour, Broeck is exempt from qualifying, although near the bottom of the list in eligibility. He frequently commits to playing in events in which he is scheduled to caddie, just in case the unlikely happens and more players drop out than there are alternates at the course. In 2008, he returned to the PGA Tour for the first time since 1998 in the Legends Reno-Tahoe Open, a tournament played opposite the WGC-Bridgestone Invitational. In May 2009, he caddied for Jesper Parnevik and also played in the Valero Texas Open, where he missed the cut but finished ahead of Parnevik. He attempted to repeat the feat in February 2010 at the Mayakoba Golf Classic at Riviera Maya-Cancun. He caddied for Richard S. Johnson in the morning then played in the afternoon (replacing Notah Begay III). After shooting 5-over-par, he withdrew from playing the second round.

Broeck says that he has earned more in his best season working as a caddie ($235,000) than in his best season as a player ($146,568 in 1989).

Began playing on the PGA Tour Champions in 2008, entering just one event in both '08 and '09. Entered two events in 2010 and his best finish was a T-29th at the Home Care & Hospice First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Did not play in 2011, but entered seven events in 2012, recording one top-10 finish, a T-9th at the U.S.

Senior Open. Also added one additional top-25 finish, a T-16th at the 3M Championship.

2013 Notes: He competed in four events with his best finish a T-61st at the U.S. Senior Open. Went back to PGA Tour Champions Q-School and unfortunately didn't get his card after finishing T-18th.

2014 Notes: Played in three PGA Tour Champions events, T-14th at the U.S. Senior Open, T-77th at Nature Valley First Tee and T-47th at AT&T Championship.

2015 Notes: Played in five PGA Tour Champions events, missing cut at U.S. Senior Open, 58th at the Encompass Championship, T-51st at the Senior Open Championship, 70th at the Boeing Classic and T-20th at Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

2016 Notes: A player and a caddie, he has been on Freddie Jacobson's bag this year.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 18, 19, 21, 22

The youngest of 11 children, Toledo fished golf balls out of a pond at Mexicali Country Club as a youngster and then sold them back to golfers. Learned to play golf while working at a driving range in Mexico. First club was a 7-iron, which he found and used to hit rocks. Was a professional boxer for four years with a 12-1 record before a bout of appendicitis ended his ring career.

In January 2007, while riding in a car on a Los Angeles freeway, he rescued two sisters after their car collided with another, then crashed into a divider, flipped, rolled over twice and stopped on its roof. He pulled them from the wreck, called 911 and controlled the situation until paramedics arrived.

Played both the PGA Tour and Web.com Tour between 1990 and 2010. Was on the PGA Tour in 1994, then 1998 to 2004. He played in 289 events, was runner-up twice and finished in the top 10 11 times. Made 148 cuts and earned $3.7 million. He finished in the top 125 of the money list six times, where his best finish was in 2000 when he was 69th with earnings of $673,387. That year he was runner-up at the B.C. Open and runner-up at the 2002 Buick Open.

Played on the Web.com Tour from 1990 to 1993, 1995, 1997 and between 2005 and 2010. Played 323 events and won once at the 2005 Lake Erie Charity Classic. Had 30 top 10s and made 193 cuts, ultimately earning $900,492.

2012 Notes: His PGA Tour Champions debut came at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, where he finished T-72nd after shooting 66 in the open qualifier. Received a sponsor exemption into the AT&T Championship and finished T-20th in San Antonio. Earned conditionally exempt status on the 2013 PGA Tour Champions by virtue of securing the seventh position at the National Qualifying Tour. Finished 72 holes in a T-4th but he first lost out with a par on the first playoff hole and then lost out for the sixth spot in a playoff.

2013 Notes: On Cinco de Mayo, became the first player from Mexico to win on the Champions Tour when he claimed the Insuperity Championship near Houston. Defeated Mike Goodes and Gene Sauers in a playoff, and the win came in his ninth career Champions Tour start. Added a second title in early September when he chipped in from 35 feet on the third playoff hole to defeat Kenny

Perry at the Montreal Championship. Started the final round four strokes behind 36-hole leader Bernhard Langer and trailed Perry by two late in the final round. Playing in a group one ahead of Perry, he made a birdie at No. 16 to pull within one, and minutes later, Perry dropped into a tie after a bogey at No. 17, leaving the pair tied at 5-under-par 211 at the end of regulation. After each made pars on No. 18 twice, he chipped in for the win at No. 10 for the win. Played 25 times and had nine top-10's. Finished 12th on the money list with earnings 2014 Notes: Managed to sneak into the top-30 money-winners at the final full-field event of the season, the AT&T Championship. Birdied his final three holes to shoot 68 and move into the top 30 on the money list to claim a spot at the season finale, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, bumping Rocco Mediate from the field.

His best finish came in early September when he was the 36-hole co-leader at the Quebec Championship but carded a final-round 71 to finish T-3rd in defense of his title. At the Insuperity Invitational finished 4th and a T-6th finish at the Encompass Championship. For the year was 27th on the money list and 24th in Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Birdied four of his final six holes in the final round and with a bogey-free, 6-under-par 66, finished 3rd at The ACE Group Classic. Turned in his best performance in a senior major when he finished 2nd at the Senior PGA Championship. Battled Colin Montgomerie for most of the final round, getting within a stroke of the lead twice, before eventually finishing four back on The Pete Dye Course at French Lick Resort. Performance in Indiana was his best since winning in Canada in 2013. Won his third time but a shot over Tom Watson at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Was 9th on the money list and 8th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Beat Billy Andrade in a playoff to win the Allianz Championship.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 18, 22

When he was going to college, his goal was to be an engineer and he never thought about being a professional golfer. He earned his degree in civil engineering but decided to try golf for a while. It was a tough haul after he turned professional in 1985, since he didn't make it through Q-school and was forced to play on the Australasian, Asian and Canadian Tours before getting his PGA Tour card in 1989. Between 1990 and 2004 never dropped out of the top-125 and in 10 of those years, never finished higher than 65th. Problems arose in 2005 when an elbow injury required surgery on damaged tendons. This led to other injuries that hampered him in 2009. The injuries kept him from playing and he hasn't finished in the top 125 of the money list since 2007.

Best season was in 2000, when he finished 11th on the money list with just over $2 million in earnings. He got his first of three wins at the Nissan Open in Los Angeles. Also was a member of the 2000 Presidents Cup Team.

Played on the PGA Tour between 1990 and 2011 with 501 starts and making the cut 330 times along with finishing in the top-10 67 times. Won three times, was runner-up eight times and finished 3rd eight times; ultimately earning $14.1 million.

Highlight of his 2011 season was making history with his first Web.com Tour victory in late August at the News Sentinel Open in Knoxville. At 49 years, 4 months, 25 days, became the oldest player to win on that circuit, and his 21-under 267 total was two strokes better than Marco Dawson. Only other top-15 finish in 10 Web.com Tour appearances was a T-12th at the BMW Charity Pro-Am near Greenville, S.C. Made eight overall starts on the PGA Tour and finished among the top 25 in back-to-back starts in July. Put together four consecutive sub-par scores and was T-18th at the Viking Classic. The week prior at the John Deere Classic, he was T-22nd thanks to a final-round 67 at the TPC Deere Run.

In getting ready for the PGA Tour Champions, played in 18 Web.com Tour events in 2010, '11 & '12. Had four top-10 finishes including a win in the 2011 News Sentinel Open.

Turned 50 in March of 2012 and made his first start at the Encompass Insurance Pro-Am and was in contention on the back nine on Sunday until a pair of double bogeys dropped him into a T-8th finish. Recorded five top 10s in his 18 starts. Got his first PGA Tour Champions victory in his eighth start, coming from four strokes back on the final day to win the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. The victory made him the sixth player to win events on the PGA Tour, Web.com Tour and Champions Tour, becoming the first since Olin Browne joined that group in 2011.

2013 Notes: Teamed up with Craig Stadler for a T-4th finish at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in April. The pair was among the leaders all three days before falling two strokes shy Sunday. Three straight rounds in the 60's led to a T-5th finish to start his year in Hawaii at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship. Later in the year, successfully defended his Nature Valley First Tee Pebble Beach title. With his second straight win at Pebble Beach, it made him the first player to successfully defend a PGA Tour Champions title since Tom Lehman went back to back at the 2011 and 2012 Regions Tradition.

2014 Notes: Earned multiple titles in a season for the first time in his career and also had three other top-three finishes. Earnings of more than $1.4 million were the most he's made in a season since 2004 on the PGA Tour. That year, collected a personal-best $1.5 million. In his second start of the year, won The ACE Group Classic, making a key 6-foot par putt on the 18th hole Sunday to edge Bernhard Langer, Duffy Waldorf and Olin Browne by one shot. In mid-October, became the fifth of seven multiple winners on the 2014 PGA Tour Champions when he recorded a three-shot victory over Tom Lehman at the SAS Championship. His runner-up finishes came at the Encompass Championship and the Greater Hickory Kia Classic.

2015 Notes: Opened the year with a T-11th finish at the Mitsubishi Electric. Had a T-10th at the Principal Charity Classic, the next week shot a final round 64 at the Constellation Senior Players to finish runner-up six back of winner Bernhard Langer. Ended his year with a T-6th at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, was 23rd on the money list and 19th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Had a T-7th at the Inspire Invitational, then two weeks later was T-3rd at the Regions Tradition followed by a T-7th at the Senior PGA Championship. Weekend rounds of 66-65 helped him win the inaugural American Family Insurance Championship, his first victory since the 2014 SAS Championship. Started the final round three strokes back of 36-hole leader Jean-Francois Remesy and his 4-under-par on the back nine was the difference as he made birdies on four of his final six holes to win by two shots over Bart Bryant and Mike Goodes. Win was extra special since his son, Sam, was his caddie.

PGA European Tour Victories: 1 - 1986 PGA Championship

Other Victories: 1996 Mexican Open, 1978 Trans-Mississippi Amateur, 1985 Oklahoma Open, 1987 Oklahoma Open.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 19

Introduced to golf at age 5, following his father and grandfather around course. Played his first tournament at age 7. His son Kevin, the 2005 U.S. Junior Amateur winner, played at Oklahoma State, and has since turned professional. Bob caddied for Kevin in the 2008 U.S. Open at Torrey Pines, where he missed the cut. Has a brother, Scott, who caddies for Scott Verplank.

Longtime member of the PGA Tour, with 683 career starts, eight wins, 11 runner-ups, 10 thirds, and 103 top-10 finishes to his credit from 1981-2009. One of the busiest players on Tour, with at least 20 starts per season from 1985-2008. His best year was 1986, when he won four times and earned PGA Player of the Year honors. Captured the 1986 PGA Championship at Inverness Club in Toledo, Ohio, where he holed a greenside bunker shot on the 72nd hole to defeat Greg Norman, and finished the year second on the PGA Tour money list with $652,780. For the next four years he stayed in the top 50 of the money list. Finished 52nd in 1991 and the next year dropped to 179th. After another tough year in 1994, Tway came back the following year to record his best year financially. He won his first event in five years, an emotional playoff victory at the MCI Classic. Three-time All-American selection at Oklahoma State and member of two national championship teams in 1978 and 1980, he joined the Champions Tour in 2009.

2011 Notes: Made a strong bid for his first PGA Tour Champions career victory win in June when he was the 18 and 36-hole leader at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn before a closing-round, 1-under-par 71 left him T-8th. The week included an opening-round 9-under-par 63.

2012 Notes: Lone top-10 finish in 21 events was a T-3rd at the Montreal Championship. Was the 36-hole leader at Richelieu Valley after a second-round, 7-under 65 that included a run of six straight birdies, matching the PGA Tour Champions' longest birdie run of the season. Final-round 70 wasn't good enough to hold off a streaking Mark Calcavecchia (64) and he eventually finished five strokes back.

2013 Notes: Played another full schedule and finished 53rd on the money list. Best finish came in June when he played in the final grouping at the inaugural Encompass Championship. But a closing-round 73 at North Shore CC dropped him to a T-10th, his only top-10 of the year.

2014 Notes: Played in 23 of the 24 events for which he was eligible and finished 53rd on the money list. Was second after the opening round at The Senior Open Championship and hung in to eventually finish T-6th at Royal Porthcawl. Performance in Wales was his best in a stroke-play event in more than two years. Also finished T-5th in June at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf along with teammate Tom Pernice, Jr.

2015 Notes: Had his best finish in 21 starts at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf where he teamed with Tom Pernice, Jr., to finish T-14th. He was 75th on the money list.

2016 Notes: Best finish was T-12th at the Bass Pro Shops Legends with partner Tom Pernice, Jr.

Waite was born in Palmerston North, New Zealand, but has played most of his golf in America. A three-time All-American at the University of Oklahoma, was twice the Australian Junior champion. A veteran on the PGA Tour, playing full-time on the circuit in 1990 and again from 1993-2004 he has played in 411 events. He has made 205 cuts, been in the top-10 22 times and along with his win in the 1993 Kemper Open has been runner-up five times. He got his card at Q-School at the end of 1989, finishing T-20th. He played poorly on tour in 1990 and spent the next couple of years roaming the world for a place to play. At the end of 1992 he again finished T-20th at Q-School and in 1993 had a very successful year on tour winning the Kemper Open and finishing 35th on the money list. After 1993 it was a struggle to keep his card but had his most successful year on tour in 2000, he he earned $1.15 million and finished 38th on the money list. He came close to winning twice in back to back weeks first at the Air Canada Championship. He finished second on shot back of Rory Sabbatini. The next week at the Canadian Open he again finished 2nd when Tiger Woods pulled off an incredible shot on the final hole from a fairway bunker to beat Waite by a shot. In 2005, Waite moved to the Web.Com Tour. In 106 starts on that tour never finished higher than his T-3rd finish at the 2006 BMW Charity Pro-Am.

At about that time Waite was becoming more popular on tour as a swing guru, helping players like Mike Weir. Waite open up some academies to help players with their swings, but he decided to give the PGA Tour Champions a run when he turned 50 in August of 2014. He played in three events, in his debut was T-49th at the Quebec Championship, then open-qualified to make the field at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, where he finished T-10th. Then he finished T-38th at the AT&T Championship. After that went to PGA Tour Champions Q-School and finished second, four strokes back of eventual winner Frank Esposito Jr. so he can play on the PGA Tour Champions in 2015.

2015 Notes: Played his first full season on the PGA Tour Champions having an impressive showing at the U.S. Senior Open at Del Paso CC in Sacramento. Was the only player to post four consecutive rounds in the 60s, and that performance led to a T-3rd finish, his best effort in his Champions Tour career. Was also T-13th at the Encompass Championship. He was 44th on the money list and 33rd in Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: T-17th at the Insuperity Invitational and Principal Charity Classic.

Received his nickname, "Duffy," from his grandparents when he was small because he tagged along on the golf course, so they called him "Little Duffer." An avid wine collector, Waldorf can often be spotted on the course by his colorful Hawaiian shirts and hat. His family and friends write good-luck wishes on his golf balls that he uses.

As an amateur, won the 1984 California State Amateur and the Broadmoor Invitational. Earned first-team All-America honors at UCLA in 1985 and was the Pac-10 Conference's Player of the Year that same season. Was a member of the 1985 USA Walker Cup Team.

While competing on the PGA Tour from 1987-2012, played in 592 events, winning four and finishing runner-up eight times. He made 369 cuts, finishing in the top10 62 times and earning $11,902,599. His PGA Tour career was sidelined in 2008 with knee problems, which required surgery and forced him to miss the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

2012 Notes: Waldorf made appearances on all three tours, joining the PGA Tour Champions in late August at the Boeing Classic, where he tied for eighth. His best finish was at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, where he finished second. He rallied from four strokes back that Sunday to catch Fred Funk late on the front nine, but Funk birdied the final hole to win the event. Played 11 events on the PGA Tour on a Major Medical Extension (knee surgery). Best effort was a T-21st at the True South Classic. Also made 11 appearances on the Web.com Tour and was in the top 10 twice. Finished tied for second in the TPC Stonebrae Championship, closing his week with a 31 on his final nine holes to challenge for the win. It was his first top 10 in a PGA Tour-sponsored event since a tie for third at the 2006 Chrysler Classic of Tucson on the PGA Tour and his highest finish since finishing runner-up at the 2003 FBR Capital Open.

2013 Notes: Played in 24 events, was the only player among the top 10 on the Charles Schwab Cup points list without a victory, and his 12 top 10s were also the most by a player during the season without a victory. Best finish was a T-2nd at the Constellation Senior Players Championship where he finished two shots back of winner Kenny Perry.

2014 Notes: Registered five of his six top-10 performances before mid-June and had his two best weeks of the season in his first two starts in Florida in February. First lost in a playoff to Michael Allen at the Allianz Championship when he couldn't get up and down from a greenside bunker for birdie on the second extra hole after Allen two-putted for birdie. Missed a 7-foot birdie putt to extend the overtime. Made another run the following week at The ACE Group Classic. Posted three rounds in the 60s and was among four players who battled down the stretch before his chances ended with a bogey on the final hole. Was T-2nd along with Olin Browne and Bernhard Langer, one shy in the final standings to Kirk Triplett, who sank a six-foot par putt on the final hole for the win. Had three more top-tens, first at the Greater Gwinnett Championship with a T-5th finish.. Then finished T-10th at the Principal Charity Classic followed by the following with a T-7th when he joined forces with former UCLA teammate Corey Pavin at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf. He finished the year 24th on the money list and 31st in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Became a winner for the first time with a 2 shot win over Joe Durant at the Toshiba Classic, the final full-field event of the season. An 11-under-par 60 effort Saturday was the impetus for his win, which came in his 73rd start on the PGA Tour Champions. Flirted with the magical number 59 in the second round at the Newport Beach CC, needing a birdie on his final two holes, but failed to convert those opportunities. Followed his Toshiba Classic victory with a T-9th at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. In late April, was T-5th with former UCLA teammate, Corey Pavin, at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. One week later, used a final-round 67 to move into a T-6th at the Insperty Invitational. Also T6 at the Encompass Championship after three consecutive sub-par scores at North Shore CC. Rebounded from a 2-over-par 72 in the opening round of the U.S. Senior Open with three consecutive rounds in the 60s to finish T-10th Made his first start in a PGA Tour event in nearly two years but missed the cut at March's Puerto Rico Open, but finished T-23rd at the Barbasol Championship in July. Was 18th on the Champions Tour money list and 20th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Earned the first win of the year when he sank a 25-foot birdie putt on the final hole to beat Tom Lehman at the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. The victory was his second in his last three starts, dating back to 2015 when he won the Toshiba Classic, the final full-field event of the year. Was T-4th with teammate Corey Pavin at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April. Three consecutive rounds in the 60s led to T-6th finish at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March. Was T-7th at the Insperty Invitational and the Regions Tradition. T-4th at the Principal Charity Classic, he was 4 back of winner Scott McCarron.

Birth Date: August 19, 1963

Birthplace: Marceline, Mo

Age: 52 Ht.: 6'3" Wt.: 210

Home: Leawood, Kan.

College: Stanford

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY: Shot a 66 to earn medalist honors at Indian Hills Country Club in Mission Hills, Kan.

Walsworth graduated from Stanford University where he played golf for four years. He will be making his seventh USGA championship appearance. He qualified for the 1986 U.S. Amateur, and played in the U.S. Open twice, in 1994 and 1995. He made the cut and finished 44th in his first appearance. He also played in the 2004 and 2009 U.S. Mid-Amateur, but failed to make the cut for match play. Most recently, in the 2014 U.S. Amateur Four-Ball, he and partner Jon Troutman reached the round of 16 after finishing match play as the No. 15 seed. The pair lost to Austin Connelly and Sam Burns, who reached the semifinals.

In 1985, he won the Missouri Amateur and then the Pac-10 Conference Championships in 1986. After turning professional, Walsworth played nine years on what is now the Web.com Tour as well as stints on the Asian and Nike Tours.

His son, Tripp, will caddy for Walsworth and is the reason he attempted to qualify. He kept mentioning what an experience it would be to be together at the Senior Open, which pushed the senior Walsworth to try his hand. Away from golf, Walsworth is a printer of high school and college yearbooks and a commercial printer of catalogs and magazines.

He is playing in his first U.S. Senior Open.

Has been a runner-up 32 times in his PGA Tour career. After numerous close calls, including almost winning the 1974 U.S. Open, Watson started working with Nelson, and that helped him immediately with his first victory at the 1974 Western Open. Winner of eight major championships (1975, '77, '80, '82, and '83 British Open); '77 and '81 Masters, and '82 U.S. Open). In 1982, became one of only six players to win the U.S. Open and British Open in the same year (Bobby Jones, Gene Sarazen, Ben Hogan, Lee Trevino and Tiger Woods are the others). Was the PGA Tour's leading money-winner five times, including four years in a row (1977-80, '84). In 1980, became the first player to earn $500,000 in a season when he captured six PGA Tour events to go along with a third British Open title. In 1987, won the season-ending Tour Championship and earned $360,000. After a nine-year absence from the winner's circle, claimed the 1996 Memorial Tournament. Finished 25th on the money list, his highest ranking since 1987, and made his first trip to the Tour Championship since winning it in 1987. Earned 39th PGA Tour title with a victory at 1998 MasterCard Colonial. At 48, became the oldest player ever to win the event (previous oldest: Ben Hogan was 46 when he captured his last of five Colonial titles). The stretch between his first victory (1974) and last victory (23 years, 11 months, 24 days), is the third-longest in Tour history. Winner of three Vardon trophies (1977-79). Six-time PGA Tour Player of the Year (1977, '78, '79, '80, '82 and '84). Played on four U.S. Ryder Cup teams (1977, '81, '83 and '89) and captained the 1993 squad to victory at the Belfry. Captained the American team again in 2014, but this time his team lost in Scotland. Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1972 and 1999. In 615 events, Watson won 39 times, was runner-up 32 times, 3rd 23 times and finished in the top-10 219 times. Had earnings of $11,069,517. Became a member of the PGA Tour Champions in 1999. In 2004, was troubled by hip and shoulder problems throughout the season. Did not register an official victory for the first time in his PGA Tour Champions career and also finished outside the top 30 money-winners for the first time. Was planning on having both his left hip and right shoulder operated on at the end of the year, but reconsidered and opted for rehab instead. Played in his 31st Masters, learning about the death of his longtime caddie, Bruce Edwards, just hours before his scheduled first-round tee time. Had his left hip replaced in October 2008, and nine months later, almost pulled off one of the all-time greatest stories in sports when he lost a four-hole playoff to Stewart Cink at the British Open at Turnberry, Scotland. Had problems with his right arm in 2012, which made gripping the club difficult because the hand was weak. Was forced to miss defending his title at the 2012 Senior PGA Championship. In December 2012, was named Captain of the 2014 U.S. Ryder Cup Team. Turned 65 prior to the Ryder Cup, making him the oldest to be named a Ryder Cup Captain for either an American or European Team. At his appointment, surpassed British legend J.H. Taylor, who was 62 when he guided Great Britain to victory in 1933. Watson passed Ben Hogan for the longest period between Captain roles, at 21 years. Hogan served in 1947, '49 and '67.

2013 Notes: Played at his 40th Masters, 36th British Open and 32nd PGA Championship. Played a limited schedule on the Champions Tour. In eight starts, had two top-10s, a T-4th at the Legends of Golf (playing with Andy North) and a 5th at the Toshiba Classic.

2014 Notes: Battled Colin Montgomerie down the stretch before finishing 2nd at the Senior PGA Championship at Harbor Shores, Mich., despite a final-round 65. The performance was his best PGA Tour Champions effort since winning the same championship at Valhalla in 2011. It was also his 17th top-3 finish in a senior major. Played a total of seven events and had four top-10 finishes. Played at his 41st Masters, his 40th in succession, tying Jack Nicklaus in that category. Did not make the cut after rounds of 78-81. Captained the U.S. Ryder Cup team for a second time, with the U.S. losing to Europe team at Gleneagles in Scotland.

2015 Notes: Nearly won his first event in four years when he made a final-round charge at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach in late-September. Rebounded from a 4-over-par 75 at Poppy Hills in his opening round with weekend scores of 65-67 at Pebble Beach to eventually finish 2nd, one behind Esteban Toledo. His only other top-10 was T-7th at the U.S. Senior Open, leading after a first round 66. Made his final appearance at the British Open, posting rounds of 76-80 at St. Andrews, but missed the cut. Also played at the European Tour's KLM Open in The Netherlands in September, and finished T-47th, with four rounds in the 60s. At age 66 years, 7 days, became the second-oldest player to make the cut in a European Tour event. Bob Charles remains the oldest, at 71 years, 261 days (2008 New Zealand Open).

2016 Notes: Played in his last Masters missing the cut. It was his 43rd and 42nd Masters in succession. Bettered his age for the third time in his career when he posted a 7-under-par 65 in the second round at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Trailed by just two shots after 36 holes before eventually finishing T-11th.

PAUL WESSELINGH

Birth Date: October 11, 1961

Birthplace: Liverpool, England

Age: 54 Ht.: 6'1" Wt.: 205

Home: Derby, England

Turned Professional: 1985

Other Victories: European Senior Win: 8 - 2012 Handa PGA Seniors Championship, 2013 Handa PGA Seniors Championship, Bad Ragaz PGA Seniors Open, Fubon Senior Open and MCB Tour Championship, 2014 WINSTONgolf Senior Open and MCB Tour Championship, 2015 SSE Enterprise Wales Senior Open

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 23

Born in Liverpool, Wesselingh turned professional in 1985 but opted for a career as a club professional rather than attempting a touring career, due to his desire to stay close to his young family. His club career culminated in a position as senior professional at Kedleston Park Golf Club in Derbyshire, where he succeeded former European Tour player David J. Russell. During this stage of his career, Wesselingh won the European Club Professionals Championship and played three times in the British Open. He would go on to compete on six Great Britain & Ireland teams against the USA in the PGA Cup, the Ryder Cup-like match for the club professional.

Capped a remarkable rise from longtime club professional through to the summit of the Senior Tour ranks when he claimed the John Jacobs Trophy after winning four times in 2013 en route to topping the Order of Merit. Sealed the top spot in style after ending the season with back-to-back victories in the Fubon Senior Open followed by the MCB Tour Championship. Also won twice in four events at the start to the 2013 season, successfully defending his title in the ISPS Handa PGA Seniors Championship with a magnificent final-round 64, before triumphing in the Bad Ragaz PGA Seniors Open, defeating compatriot Kevin Spurgeon in a playoff. Was named rookie of the year in 2012 after finishing fifth on the Order of Merit. Finished runner-up in the Mallorca Open Senior on his debut before winning the ISPS Handa PGA Seniors Championship, holding off the challenge of defending champion Andrew Oldcorn. After what was looking like a very poor season in which his best finish was a T-14th in his first 10 starts he got hot and won his sixth Senior Tour event by beating Philip Golding and Bernhard Langer in a three-way playoff at the 2014 WINSTONgolf Senior Open. After finishing T-14th at the French Riviera masters, he won the last event of the year, at the MCB Tour Championship beating Barry Lane on the sixth hole of a playoff.

Had spent five years preparing for the Senior Tour, and claimed the second card at the Qualifying School with an impressive performance at Pestana Golf Resort's Vale da Pinta. Represented Great Britain & Ireland in the PGA Cup between 1998 and 2009. Winner, 2002 European Club Professionals Championship and the 2006 Glenmuir Club Professionals Championship.

2012 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 14; top-10 finishes - 8; €s 191,663 (ranked 5th); Winner Handa PGA Seniors Championship.

2013 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 16; top-10 finishes - 9; €s 311,644 (ranked 1st); Winner Handa PGA Seniors Championship, Bad Ragaz PGA Seniors Open, Fubon Senior Open and MCB Tour Championship.

Player Notes: ELIGIBILITY CODE: 10

Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1984 and 2002, playing in a total of 499 events. Won two times, was runner-up eight times and finished in third five times. Finished in the top 10 47 times and made 288 cuts. Had career earnings of $4,314,460.

Joined the PGA Tour Champions in 2007 and made history in his first week on Tour, winning in his first start at the SAS Championship. Became the 12th player on Tour to win in his debut and the first since Mark McNulty in the 2004 Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. The SAS win matched Bobby Wadkins' mark as the youngest winner ever, claiming the title 10 days after turning 50. Became the first player to win on a sponsor's exemption since Christy O'Connor Jr. in the 1999 State Farm Senior Classic.

In 2010, was the only player to tee it up in all 26 official PGA Tour Champions events.

In 2011, won the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in a playoff over James Mason. He was also runner-up at the Toshiba Classic and recorded third-place finishes at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf and the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Underwent back surgery on November 7 in Denver, the day after the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. The microdiscectomy was done to alleviate a herniated-disc issue that was causing discomfort in his lower right leg.

2012 Notes: Played his best golf in the second half of the season, recording four of his five top-10 finishes after the first week of July. Posted two third-place efforts in back-to-back weeks in October to lock up a spot among the top 30 money winners for the fifth straight season. Was 34th on the money list but posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s to claim a solo third-place finish at the SAS Championship, an event he previously won in his first PGA Tour Champions start in 2007. As the defending champion at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, birdied the final hole to finish solo third. Performance in Hickory earned him a six-figure check that sealed a spot among the top 30, and he went on to finish 23rd on the money list.

2013 Notes: Spent the first part of the season recovering from elbow and lower-back issues and had not registered a top-10 performance all season prior to the Senior Open Championship. There, he claimed the first of two titles on the year and it was the biggest of his career. Came from four shots back on Sunday at Royal Birkdale with a final-round 66 and then outlasted Bernhard Langer in a five-hole playoff. Got into the playoff when Langer double-bogeyed the 18th hole. Won the playoff Monday morning with a par when darkness forced the suspension of play Sunday night after both players halved two holes with pars. After both made a par and a bogey on the third and fourth extra holes, Wiebe two-putted from 35 feet for his par on the fifth while Langer chipped 12 feet past the hole and then missed his par effort. Seven events later, defeated Corey Pavin in a playoff for the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship. Holed a 20-foot par putt on the second extra hole and then watched Pavin miss his 10-foot par attempt moments later. Went on to finish 22nd on the money list in his 25 starts.

2014 Notes: Suffered through an injury-plagued season as he still has pain from his 2011 back surgery. So he played in just 18 events without a top-25 finish on his record and dropped from 22nd to Pain was so bad at the Senior Open Championship that he only played four events the rest of the year and finished 98th on the final money list. Teamed with Loren Roberts to finish T-28th in the Champions Division at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf, his best finish on the year.

2016 Notes: Best finish T-23rd in the Bass Pro Shops Legends teamed with Loren Roberts.

Woosnam became the first player to win the Order of Merit on both the European Tour (1987 and '90) and the European Senior Tour, earning 320,120 in his rookie year of 2008 to land the John Jacobs Trophy. Almost defended the European Senior Tour Order of Merit crown, but was edged by his old friend, Sam Torrance, in 2009. Missed most of the 2007 season while recuperating from a viral ailment, and he continued to battle the rheumatic disease, ankylosing spondylitis, a condition he was first diagnosed with in 1987. That did not stop him being one of Europe's greatest golfers, with 29 official European Tour titles to his name, including that memorable day in April 1991, when he won the Masters. The Ryder Cup Matches have also been a huge part of his career. He has played eight. In 1993, he became the first European to claim the maximum four points from the two foursomes and two four-ball matches, a feat matched by Sergio Garcia at The K Club in 2006. That was the year Woosnam captained Europe to a nine-point victory, his team winning all five sessions for the first time in the biennial contest. Received the Order of the British Empire in 2007 in recognition of the feat. Both parents are Welsh and he learned the game on the local Llanmynech course (15 holes in Wales, three in England) on the border. Worked on the family farm for six months after leaving school. Credits his stocky but powerful physique to lifting heavy hay bales. A rival of Sandy Lyle in Shropshire County golf.

In his youth, Woosnam was more devoted to sport than school. He was torn between soccer and golf, and did not know what profession to choose. When he left school at 16, he picked golf because it was physically less destructive than soccer. When he was 18, he traveled the European Tour in a borrowed Volkswagen Caravanette, existing on fast food and borrowed money because he did not have a sponsor. He promised himself five years to make it in golf, and months away from that self-imposed deadline, the 5-foot, 4-inch Welshman did well on the Safari Tour. He played solid golf on the 1982 European Tour, too, winning his first tournament (Swiss Open) and placing 8th on the Order of Merit. Between 1983 to 1986, he won three other tournaments on the European Tour and placed between 4th and 9th on the Order of Merit. In 1987, he found the winner's circle five times and led the Order of Merit. His best year was 1990, when he won five tournaments and again placed 1st on the Order of Merit. Was a member of eight European Ryder Cup teams (1983, '85, '87, '89, '91, '93, '95 and '97), and captain of the 2006 team in Ireland.

2015 Notes: Won for the first time on the Champions Tour when he made a 30-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole to defeat Tom Lehman and Kenny Perry for the Insperity Invitational title. Victory near Houston came at 57 years, 2 months, 1 day, making him the third-oldest, first-time winner in PGA Tour Champions history and the oldest first-timer since Bruce Devlin won the 1995 FHP Health Care Classic a little more than four months past his 57th birthday. Became the first player from Wales to win on the PGA Tour Champions. The week prior to winning, was second at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf at Big Cedar Lodge. He and teammate Sandy Lyle were leading by two strokes after 36 holes but couldn't hold off a final-round charge by the team of Billy Andrade-Joe Durant.

After finishing T-45th at the Senior PGA Championship, went back and played twice on the European Senior Tour, finishing T-2nd at the SSE Enterprise Wales Senior Open, two shots behind winner Paul Wesselingh. The next week, had a home start at the Acorn Jersey Open, finishing 42nd.

2015 European Seniors Tour Summary: Tournaments Entered - 5; Top-10 Finishes - 1; Money - 41,804 (rank 32nd); Best Finish - T-2nd, SSE Enterprise Wales Senior Open.
