

2016 U.S. SENIOR OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP

MEDIA NOTES

Saturday, August 13

PLAYER WITHDRAWAL: Kenny Perry, Franklin, Ky.

KENNY PERRY has withdrawn from the 2016 U.S. Senior Open Championship on Saturday, August 13, due to a back injury.

Perry, who withdrew midway through the third round, shot 70 and 74 in the first two rounds. Perry won the 2013 U.S. Senior Open Championship, held at Omaha (Neb.) Country Club. He was one of seven past U.S. Senior Open champions to make the 36-hole cut this week.

Perry, who was competing in his fifth U.S. Open, started from 10th tee at 7:55 a.m. and was playing with Miguel Angel Martin and Paul Goydos.
