

Brooke Henderson Thursday Quick Quotes

Alright, Brooke, that was a very un-Brooke Henderson-like round out there, tell us kind of what happened out there today.

Brooke Henderson: Yeah I mean it was close, just a couple of mishit shots out there kind of put me in the wrong positions and I didn't have a lot of green to work with a lot of the time. You know, the first couple of bogeys were good, I had to make a couple of putts to make bogey, and then, you know, finishing the round with two bogeys was not really what I had planned. I was hoping to get it back to even by the end of the day, so it was just kind of a rough round, but hopefully I can clear some things up and be better tomorrow.

How would you describe your emotions right now? Frustrated, disappointed, or just optimistic for tomorrow?

Brooke Henderson: All of the above, I think. Yeah really disappointed with the round, but with that being said it wasn't far off from being really good. You know, I make a few more putts; I had a lot of birdie opportunities on my back nine before the two bogeys. You know, kind of do the same thing tomorrow, hopefully make a few putts and get a better score.

I know you were out here late last night – Wednesday night – working on the range, you were the last person to leave the range, were you looking for something there?

Brooke Henderson: Yeah, you know leaving the range last night, I was hitting my driver a lot better, and today I hit it pretty well with the exception of the last hole, which is something I have been kind of working on, I guess, just the last week or so, just not hitting it quite as well as I normally do. Still good, just not the way I like to see it, but I seemed to figure that out last night and felt pretty confident and comfortable with it today.
