

U.S. Women's Open Championship 2016

Saturday, July 9, 2016

Amy Yang

Flash Interview

Q. Did 1-under hurt you too much or is that okay still just the plus 1?

AMY YANG: Being plus 1 today? No, no. It's not -- it was hard to play out there. The wind started, picked up by the time we teed off first tee. It's been tough round out there, so 1-over still -- I mean, I'm in contention, so it's not hurting that much.

Q. The game is solid, you think?

AMY YANG: Yeah, yeah. It's so windy out there, it wasn't easy. I had to try to save pars up-and-downs quite a lot, but I save it. I save some good up-and-downs. I'm still hitting it good. So I'm looking forward to it.

Q. Do you have to be a little extra aggressive tomorrow perhaps or not?

AMY YANG: Not if the weather is like this and the course. It's tough out there, so yeah.

Q. You will stay the course and let others --

AMY YANG: I'll just keep trying to do what I've been doing.

Q. Which would be more important for you to win, this tournament or a gold medal in Brazil?

AMY YANG: Wow, both are big. Both first places are very important. It's hard to decide.

Q. Which do you think in Korea would be -- which do you think people in Korea would be more excited about, you winning this or winning gold medal?

AMY YANG: I think it can be both. The last couple years, I had a couple second finishes, past few years. And also Olympics is -- the Olympic games, golf in Olympic games in 112 years, so both of them are huge for me.

Q. So you are not going to pick?

AMY YANG: No, no. I can't.

Q. Are you having fun? Is this fun?

AMY YANG: Yes.

Q. Or is it work? Fun or work?

AMY YANG: It's fun. It's fun.

Q. What's the most fun?

AMY YANG: Most fun? I'm enjoying this nervousness out there. I like to play golf, so I know what it takes out there tomorrow. Just got to go out there, trust what I've been working on and continue what I've been doing.