

DISCLOSURE FORM TO DONATE EXPENSES TO AN AMATEUR GOLFER

(FILE THIS DISCLOSURE FORM WITH YOUR STATE OR REGIONAL GOLF ASSOCIATION AFTER THE COMPETITION)

Instructions: An amateur golfer may accept up to $300 in actual expenses to defray reasonable expenses to a golf competition directly from the source of the funds. If the amount of the expense assistance is more than $300, the funds must be paid through the state or regional golf association. The golf association will then disburse the funds to the player after the competition and the appropriate disclosure form is filed by the player. Before any money in excess of $300 is disbursed to a player, the donor must complete this disclosure form and make payment to the appropriate golf association. Junior golfers are not required to apply for expenses to competitions limited exclusively to junior golfers.
