Garrett Barber and Cole Hammer Win the 2018 Championship

Following four days of gray skies and rain, the sun finally made an appearance at Jupiter Hills Club on Wednesday.

Then again, the spotlight had been shining brightly on Cole Hammer, of Houston, Texas, and Garrett Barber, of Stuart, Fla., since they arrived on the property late last week.

Wind, rain, gray skies, blue skies ... it didn't matter.

These two 18-year-old stalwarts weathered every challenge from the outset of the championship. It all culminated with a 4-and-3 victory over Floridians Marc Dull, 32, of Winter Park, and Chip Brooke, 42, of Altamonte Springs, in the 18-hole final.

"Growing up watching U.S. Opens and U.S. Amateurs on TV, I just knew being a USGA champion is something that I desperately wanted," said Hammer, who qualified for a U.S. Open three years ago at 15. "And to finally do it, it feels incredible. It feels as good, if not better, than I thought it would. And especially being able to do it with Garrett. It's really cool to share this moment, and I'm sure we'll look back on this for a long time."

Added Barber: "Pretty cool. I mean the USGA, everybody knows it's a world-class organization, the best championships around the world. It means so much to be on that Wall [of Champions] in the [USGA] Museum [at Golf House]. I can't really put it into words."

Just how dominant were Hammer and Barber? In their five matches covering 71 holes, they only trailed for two holes – they lost No. 1 and halved No. 2 in their quarterfinal encounter against Texans Zach Atkinson and Brad Gibson – and shot the equivalent of 28 under par, with the usual match-play concessions. They also never played the 17th or 18th holes after stroke play, and they won 31 holes against eight losses.

The Nos. 52 (Hammer) and 57 (Barber) competitors in the World Amateur Golf Ranking™ combined for 10 birdies and two eagles in their two victories on Wednesday. They were 7 under par in the championship match. During the two rounds of stroke play, which included a championship-record 28 on the outward nine of the Hills Course – Jupiter Hills' Village Course was the stroke play co-host – they posted 9-under 131 to earn the No. 3 seed.

Hammer and Barber also are the second consecutive tandem of juniors to win the title following Frankie Capan and Shuai Ming (Ben) Wong, both of whom were 17-year-olds last year at Pinehurst Resort & Country Club.

Unlike last year's final when Capan and Wong had to rally to win, Hammer and Barber took control early. Although the sides split the first two holes – Brooke chipped in on No. 2 – the juniors slowly took control from No. 3 when Hammer, who shot the equivalent of 4-under 31 on the first nine, holed a 30-foot chip shot for a winning birdie. Dull said after the prize ceremony that the one shot he wanted back was the 12-foot birdie putt that stopped inches short to halve that hole.

Hammer continued his wizardry on No. 6, which was playing 285 yards with the tee moved up. Hitting his second shot from the pine straw, he perfectly judged a pitch, allowing his ball to go past the flagstick and then curl back from the sloping green to 3 feet for a conceded birdie that halved the hole. Two holes later, Hammer's 6-iron uphill approach into the wind from 167 yards landed 3 feet from the hole for a winning birdie and a 2-up advantage.

"I tugged it a little bit," said Hammer. "I didn't think it was going to get there. That was big."

Then on No. 13, Barber laced a towering 4-iron from 235 yards that stopped 3 feet from the flagstick for what became a conceded eagle-3 and a 4-up advantage.

"Cole didn't want me to hit 4-iron," said Barber. "He didn't think I could get it there. I was like, 'I got it.' So I hit it hard, hit pretty much a perfect shot. It was a crazy shot."

Two holes later and dormie-4, the final nail was struck by Hammer. With the tees moved up, he drove the green on the 370-yard, dogleg-left, par 4 and calmly two-putted for a birdie.

"Cole Hammer is a special player," said Brooke. "He did some things that – obviously he's going to Texas [and] I'm not saying he is Jordan Spieth, but there are certain things that he does.

"They're just a lot better than we are. I mean, there's no other way to say it. They're phenomenal players. We had a couple putts that we almost made, and who knows, with two, three holes left with pressure, you never know. But they beat us today, and we tried as hard as we could."

In the morning semifinals, a 40-yard holed flop shot for an eagle by Hammer on the par-5 fourth hole led to a comfortable 5-and-4 victory over fellow juniors and Idaho high school teammates Sam Tidd, 18, of Meridian, and Carson Barry, 17, of Eagle. Hammer and Barber registered five birdies and the eagle, while their opponents' two birdies came on the fourth (lost hole) and par-5 13th holes (halved).

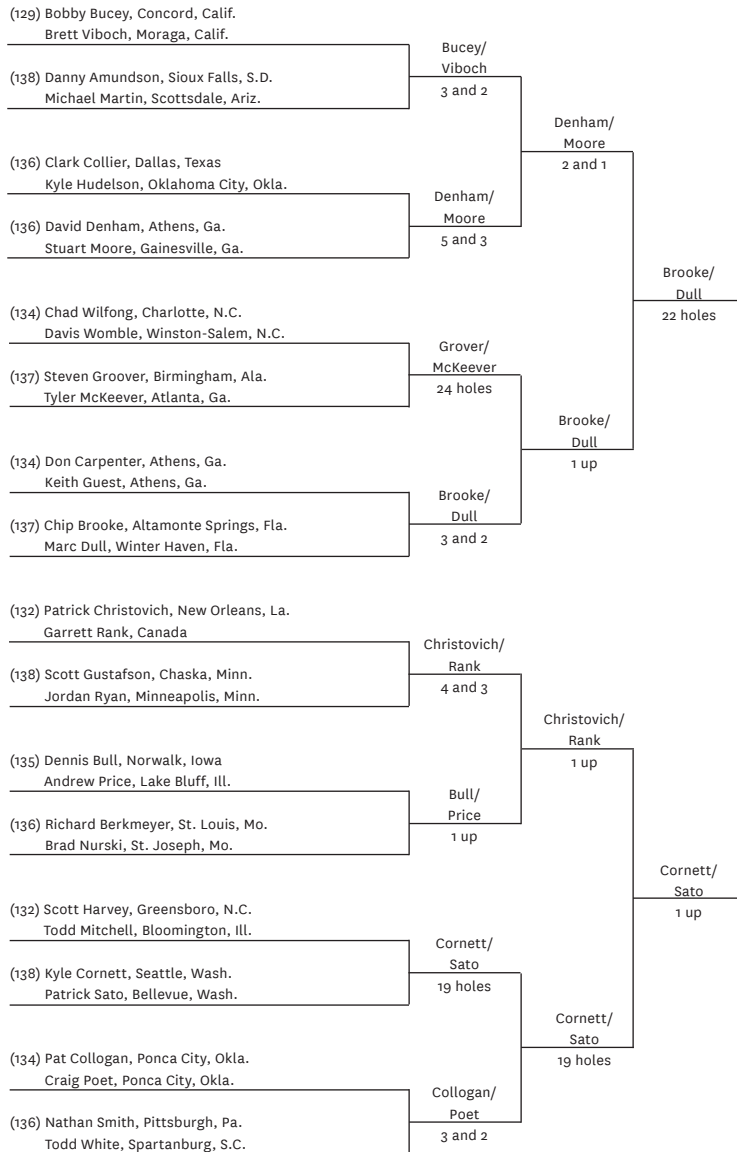

Dull and Brooke eliminated former Seattle University teammates Kyle Cornett, 23, of Seattle, Wash., and Patrick Sato, 23, of Bellevue, Wash., 3 and 2.

NOTABLE

Among the 50-plus texts that Hammer received following the win was from his instructor, Cameron McCormick, who also works with 2015 U.S. Open champion Jordan Spieth as well as USGA champions Noah Goodwin, Philip Barbaree, Will Zalatoris and Shuai Ming Wong. McCormick sent a video of Spieth and his caddie, Michael Greller, congratulating him.

Championship History

The U.S. Amateur Four-Ball Championships were first played in 2015 but the genesis of these USGA competitions was years in the making.

As part of its mission to provide the best in national championship competition, the USGA began the process of developing and deploying these championships at the suggestion of Chief Executive Officer Mike Davis.

Through extensive research and cooperation from the nation's many state and regional golf associations, the planning and implementation by the USGA's Rules & Competitions department produced a proposal to the Executive Committee, which was passed and ultimately announced at the USGA Annual Meeting in San Diego in 2013.

"We couldn't be more excited about the creation of national four-ball championships, given the popularity and enjoyment of this competitive format at the amateur level," said USGA Vice President and Championship Committee Chairman Thomas J. O'Toole Jr., at the time of the announcement. "Because the four-ball format lends itself to spirited team competition and aggressive risk-reward shotmaking, we are confident these championships will deliver exciting amateur golf to the national stage for both players and spectators alike."

In 2012, more than 150 championships, either strictly four-ball or as part of a competition format, were conducted in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

The first two sites for each championship were announced in July of 2013: 2015 Four-Ball at The Olympic Club in San Francisco, Calif., and 2016 Four-Ball at Winged Foot Golf Club in Mamaroneck, N.Y. and the 2015 Women's Four-Ball at Bandon Dunes Golf Resort in Bandon, Ore., and the 2016 Women's Four-Ball at Streamsong Resort in Streamsong, Fla.

It marked the first time in 25 years, since the establishment of the U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur in 1987, that the USGA had added a new championship.

The establishment of the Four-Ball championships was first and foremost a reflection of the Association's continued commitment to supporting and growing amateur competition well into the future. A critical factor was that four-ball is a very popular event, not only at the club level, but through our state and regional golf associations who conduct championships like this every year and have for many years.

This format, more than most other formats, promotes camaraderie and perhaps players traveling together. The risk-reward element involved in two balls in play on each hole can produce some exciting golf and likely more birdies and eagles, which is attractive to competitors and viewers.

In the inaugural year, 2015, the Four-Ball championships were the first USGA competitions to be televised by the Association's new broadcast partner, Fox Sports, with both championships receiving four hours of live broadcast coverage.
