Steve Stricker Wins the 2019 Championship

Going into the final round of the 40th U.S. Senior Open Championship at Notre Dame's Warren Course, anyone other than Steve Stricker must have felt like one of those early season Fighting Irish football opponents. Yes, they were going to get a nice experience playing in the shadow of the Golden Dome, but their chances of winning were slim.

With a six-stroke lead and his game seemingly on autopilot, Stricker wasn't about to go down in history as the guy who succumbed to final-round, major-championship pressure.

Obliterating the 36- (126) and 54-hole (192) championship scoring records and matching the 18-hole mark with a first-round 62, Stricker finished off his historic week with a championship-tying, six-stroke margin of victory over good friend Jerry Kelly and defending champion David Toms. Gary Player and Fred Funk also won by six in 1987 and 2009, respectively, the latter also in Indiana at Crooked Stick Golf Club (Carmel).

Although his Sunday effort over the 7,004-yard layout was the highest of the week (69), the 52-year-old Madison, Wis., native still set a new 72-hole scoring mark of 261, and his 19-under total was one off the record by Funk.

More importantly, his name will be inscribed on the Francis D. Ouimet Memorial Trophy alongside some of the greats in the game, including Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Lee Trevino and Billy Casper. The 2020 USA Ryder Cup captain now owns two senior major championships in 2019, having claimed the Regions Tradition in May.

"It was just a dream week," said Stricker, who came into the championship off a disappointing playoff loss to Kelly in the previous week's American Family Insurance Championship in Madison, a PGA Tour Champions event he hosts. "There's been a lot of years trying to get one of these [USGA trophies]. To get this gold medal and the trophy in a USGA event means a lot."

Just how machine-like was Stricker?

He played 57 consecutive bogey-free holes – from hole 6 on Thursday to the 10th hole on Sunday – and registered just two for the entire week, which matched the championship record by Craig Stadler (2004).

Stricker's ball-striking wasn't as stellar as the first three days – he hit just 9 of 18 greens – but he did what all USGA Open champions need to do when holding a significant margin: make a ton of pars. He birdied the opening hole and chipped in from 46 feet on the par-3 12th. He immediately fist-bumped with his caddie/wife, Nicki, one of the few outward signs of emotion he displayed.

"Nicki and I had been talking that we've been looking for a chip-in," said Stricker, "and I said right before I chipped it, I'm still looking for that chip-in, and she's like, 'I am, too.' So maybe the power of us both thinking about it, it came true."

When the championship was sealed on 18, Stricker celebrated with Nicki and his two daughters, Bobbi and Izzi. After 21 U.S. Open starts, two U.S. Amateurs, one U.S. Junior Amateur and now one U.S. Senior Open, he finally was a USGA champion.

"It was a challenge, especially today when you come out with a six-shot lead, you have everything to lose and nothing to gain," said Stricker, who got emotional in his post-round interview with Fox's Joel Klatt. "And I played that way today. I played very cautiously and tried not to make a mistake. This game is hard when you play that way. I really didn't have the freedom like I had the first three days, and rightfully so. I am trying to win this tournament and I am glad that I did."

None of his pursuers – most notably Kelly and Toms – could make Stricker sweat enough on a day when temperatures crept into the mid-80s. Kelly, who shared second last year at The Broadmoor, made consecutive birdies on Nos. 9 and 10, but didn't make another until the par-5 17th. He settled for a 69. Toms, who shot 68, made back-to-back birdies on 6 and 7, only to give shots back on 9 and 12.

Bob Estes (70) was the only other player to finish double-digits under par at 10-under 270. Kirk Triplett, the runner-up in 2017, finished fifth, shooting a final-round 69 for a 72-hole total of 8-under 272.

NOTABLE

Steve Stricker is the eighth player to win the U.S. Senior Open in his first attempt, and third wire-to-wire champion with ties, joining Simon Hobday (1994) and Olin Browne (2011). He is the first player to win with four rounds in the 60s since Roger Chapman (2012).

Tom Watson, the 1982 U.S. Open champion who made it a record 17-for-17 in cuts made in the U.S. Senior Open this week, matched or bettered his age (69) for the third time in four rounds. Watson carded a 2-under 68 for a 72-hole total of 278.

At 250 yards, the fifth hole measured as the longest par 3 in U.S. Senior Open history. The previous long was the 12th hole on the East Course at The Broadmoor, which played 244 yards during Round 1 in 2008.

Scott McCarron, the current leader of the Charles Schwab Cup standings, carded the round of the day, a 6-under 64, moving from a tie for 46th to a tie for sixth.

Qualifiers Doug Garwood and Fran Quinn each posted even-par 70s to earn a share of 14th and a spot in the 2020 U.S. Senior Open. The low 15 and ties are exempt into the next year's championship.

Tommy Armour III, who started the final round tied for fifth, withdrew after nine holes on Sunday.

Championship History

The first U.S. Senior Open Championship was played June 26-29, 1980, on the East Course of Winged Foot Golf Club in Mamaroneck, N.Y. The championship was conducted for golfers 55 and older, with a handicap limit of eight strokes for amateurs.

Established as a result of the remarkable growth in senior golf, both at the professional and amateur levels, the championship attracted 631 entries. The final two rounds of the U.S. Senior Open were broadcast live on national television beginning with the inaugural championship, and it has been telecast nationally ever since.

The 1980 field included former U.S. Open champions Lew Worsham, Julius Boros, Ed Furgol, Jack Fleck and Tommy Bolt. Former U.S. Amateur champion William C. Campbell was also a competitor. Roberto De Vincenzo, a national hero in his native Argentina, won with a 1-over 285, four strokes ahead of runner-up Campbell.

In 1981, the USGA lowered the age minimum to 50 to make the championship more competitive. The USGA also believed that lowering the minimum age would place the Senior Open in the mainstream of other senior competitions.

The second Senior Open was won by another national hero, Arnold Palmer, 51, at Oakland Hills Country Club in Birmingham, Mich. Palmer won in an 18-hole playoff with Bob Stone and Billy Casper. With his victory, Palmer joined JoAnne Gunderson Carner as the only players to win three different USGA championships (Jack Nicklaus, Carol Semple Thompson and Tiger Woods have since accomplished this feat).

In 1982, at Portland (Ore.) Golf Club, Miller Barber won the first of his three Senior Open titles. Barber shot a final-round 65 and set the 72-hole scoring record of 282. He also won the 1984 and 1985 championships.

Dale Douglass broke Barber's record in 1986 with a 72-hole score of 279. In 1987, Gary Player lowered Douglass's record by a remarkable nine strokes when he shot a 72-hole score of 270 at Brooklawn Country Club in Fairfield, Conn., to win. He was the only player to shoot four rounds in the 60s until Tom Weiskopf turned the trick in his 1995 victory on the Blue Course of Congressional Country Club in Bethesda, Md.

Don Pooley and Tom Watson staged the first three- or four-hole playoff in 2002, after the format was installed in 1999. Pooley won with a birdie on the fifth hole. His 63 in the third round was the lowest score in Senior Open history until Loren Roberts shot a 62 in the third round at Prairie Dunes Country Club, in Hutchinson, Kan., in 2005. Kirk Triplett and Brandt Jobe also carded 62s in the first and third rounds, respectively, of the 2017 Senior Open at Salem Country Club, in Peabody, Mass.

Kenny Perry became the sixth player to win multiple U.S. Senior Opens in 2017 when he established the championship scoring record of 16-under 264. He joined Barber, Player, Nicklaus, Hale Irwin and Allen Doyle on the list of multiple winners.

U.S. Open champions have performed extremely well in the U.S. Senior Open, winning 10 of the 40 championships. U.S. Open champions who have also won the Senior Open are Arnold Palmer (1960 U.S. Open; 1981 Senior Open), Billy Casper (1959, 1966 U.S. Open; 1983 Senior Open), Gary Player (1965 U.S. Open; 1987, 1988 Senior Open), Orville Moody (1969 U.S. Open; 1989 Senior Open), Lee Trevino (1968, 1971 U.S. Open; 1990 Senior Open), Jack Nicklaus (1962, 1967, 1972, 1980 U.S. Open; 1991, 1993 Senior Open) and Hale Irwin (1974, 1979, 1990 U.S. Open; 1998, 2000 Senior Open).
