Lara Tennant Wins the 2021 Championship

Lara Tennant, of Portland, Ore., the No. 1 seed and the two-time defending champion, outlasted seven-time USGA champion Ellen Port, 2 and 1, in the 18-hole final of the 59th U.S. Senior Women's Amateur Championship Thursday on the Dogwood Course at The Lakewood Club.

Tennant, who won this championship in 2018 and 2019 (the 2020 championship was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic), had a 1-up lead when the final resumed on Thursday morning, after drenching rains from Tropical Storm Nicholas postponed the match with just two holes completed the previous day. The course played to 5,491 yards and a par of 71 on Thursday, with the par-4 fourth hole playing as a par 3 due to course conditions.

"I love that trophy; it's so beautiful, and it's been at my house for quite a while, because of COVID and winning the two previous years, so I've gotten kind of attached to it," said Tennant, 54, at the post-match ceremony. "It'll go in the front entry, where it's been now for three years, as a beautiful reminder of how lucky I am."

The triumph makes Tennant the 11th player in USGA history to win a championship at least three consecutive times. Carol Semple Thompson, who won this championship four times in a row (1999-2002), is the last to do so in any championship. Thompson competed this week, but missed the cut by two strokes at age 72.

Tennant played like she didn't want to relinquish the trophy, affectionately dubbed "Big Bertha," as she birdied the fourth and fifth holes and barely missed making a third straight birdie on No. 6 that would have given her a 3-up advantage. But Port answered with her own birdie on No. 7 and won the ninth when Tennant found the water with her approach shot on the 346-yard par 4 and made double bogey.

It was Port who blinked on the back nine, however. With the match tied, she missed the green with a wedge approach on the par-5 12th, then came up short of the green on the par-4 14th, ending up in the penalty area. A routine two-putt par by Tennant restored her 2-up lead, and they traded bogeys on No. 15 (Port three-putted and Tennant failed to get up and down) and pars on No. 16 and 17, securing the three-peat for Tennant.

For Port, it was a second defeat in a USGA championship final against seven victories, most recently in the 2016 U.S. Senior Women's Amateur. The other defeat came in the 2002 U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur, to Kathy Hartwiger, who reached the quarterfinals this week.

"I was hoping to finish it off, but Lara had other plans," said Port. "The other time I lost in a final, it was a silent 11-hour car ride home. I've matured since then, but I want to apologize to [husband/caddie] Andy in case I'm a little quiet. He carried my bag and was my support through all this."

"When I won my first one, it was for my dad [George Mack, Sr.]," said Tennant, who played at the University of Arizona. "The second one [in 2019 at Cedar Rapids, Iowa] my husband Bob was able to be there and I won that one for him. This one, I won for my mom [Jan McHugh]."

Tennant's father caddied for her through the semifinals this week but was unable to stay through the delayed final match. Daniel Alldredge, the 12-year assistant pro at Lakewood, caddied for her the final day.

"Ellen Port is one of the greatest USGA champions of all time," said Tennant. "I don't know how to describe her to people because she has everything. She has tremendous skill, a tremendous mind on the golf course, and I feel fortunate to call her a friend. I was lucky in that I was able to play just a little bit better today than she did."

Notable

Tennant has 18 consecutive match wins in this championship. Her last – and only – loss came in the Round of 64 in 2017, when she was medalist and No. 1 seed on her home course, Waverley Country Club. Port has a 30-6 record in her nine starts in this championship.

Port was seeking her eighth USGA title, which would have put her in esteemed company with Jack Nicklaus and JoAnne Carner.

Tennant receives custody of the U.S. Senior Women's Amateur Trophy for one year, as well as a gold medal and a 10-year exemption into this championship. She also earns a two-year exemption into the U.S. Senior Women's Open Championship and an exemption into the 2021 and 2022 U.S. Women's Mid-Amateurs – this year's Women's Mid-Am is scheduled for Sept. 25-30 at Berkeley Hall Club in Bluffton, S.C. – and the 2022 and 2023 U.S. Women's Amateurs.

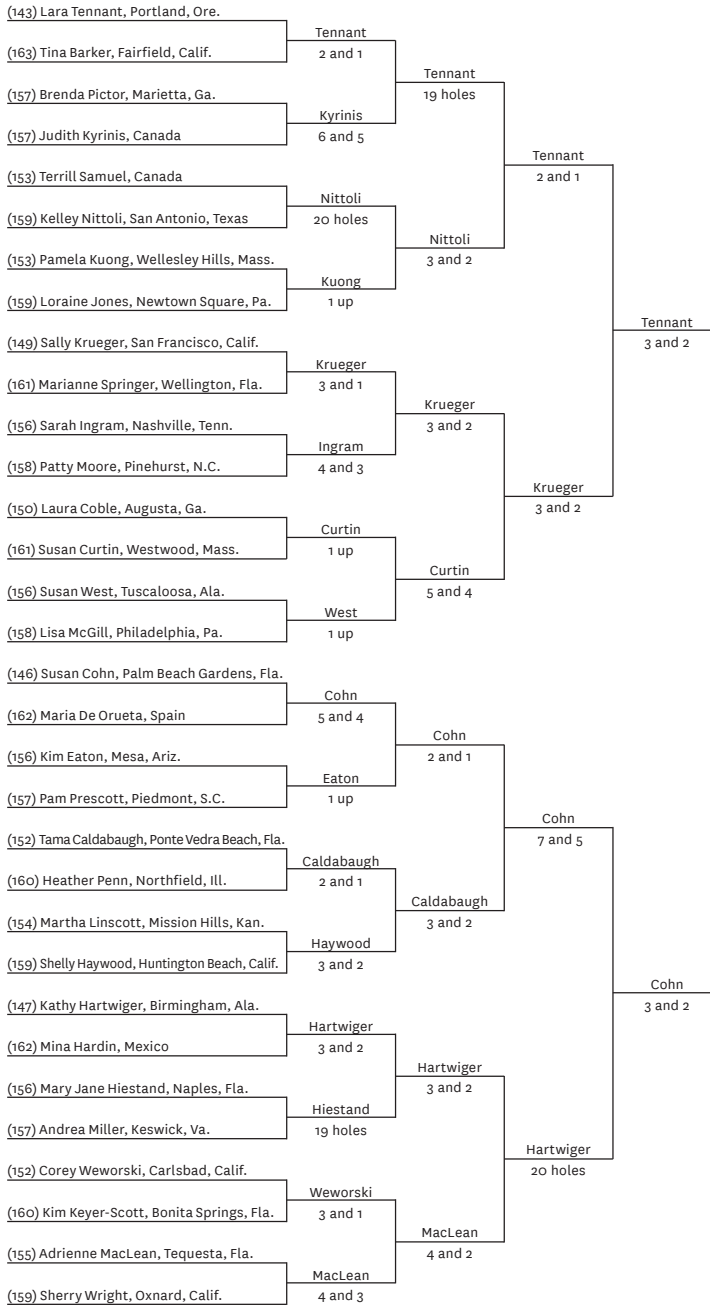

Port received a silver medal and a three-year exemption into this championship as well as an exemption into the 2021 U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur, the 2022 U.S. Senior Women's Open and the 2022 U.S. Women's Amateur.

The next two U.S. Senior Women's Amateurs will be played at Anchorage (Alaska) Golf Course (July 30-Aug. 4, 2022) and Troon Country Club in Scottsdale, Ariz. (Sept. 30-Oct. 4, 2023).

Tennant and Carol Semple Thompson are the only medalists to have won this championship in the match-play era, which began in 1997. Thompson did so in 2002, the last of her four straight wins.

Championship History

The U.S. Senior Women's Amateur Championship was inaugurated in 1962 for women golfers age 50 and older.

By the late 1950s, a number of senior women's golf organizations had been formed, principally to conduct tournaments, but there was no existing tournament to determine the national champion. The USGA was requested to step in, and in January 1962, the Executive Committee approved such a competition.

In its own quiet way, senior women's golf has flourished over the years. Several major competitions have sprung up throughout the country, and with the expansion of women's golf, the number of quality senior players has increased dramatically. Many women, age 50 and over, for the first time find they have the requisite time for top-level competitive golf. Additionally, some of the nation's finest amateurs have advanced into this age group and still seek to test their talent and experience on a championship level. Many women who enter these competitions also have been instrumental in the development of women's golf in this country, encouraging younger players and conducting tournaments at all levels.

The first Senior Women's Amateur Championship, in 1962 at the Manufacturers' Golf and Country Club in Oreland, Pa., was a stroke-play showdown of two longtime rivals. Maureen Orcutt, a four-time Curtis Cup player, finished with a 54-hole score of 240, seven strokes ahead of Glenna Collett Vare. In the 1920s and 1930s, Vare reigned as this country's finest woman player with a record six victories in the U.S. Women's Amateur.

Great players of the past have thus far dominated the Senior Women's Amateur. Carolyn Cudone, another former Curtis Cup Team member, won the championship five times in succession between 1968 and 1972.

Dorothy Porter won four Senior Women's Amateur Championships and is one of only four players to have also captured the U.S. Women's Amateur. In 1993, Anne Sander, the Women's Amateur champion in 1958, 1961 and 1963, won her fourth Senior Women's Amateur.

Marlene Stewart Streit, U.S. Women's Amateur champion in 1956, won the Senior Women's Amateur in 1985, 1994 and 2003, and was runner-up a record five times. The 47-year span between Streit's first and last USGA titles is the longest among all USGA champions.

Carol Semple Thompson won the 1973 Women's Amateur and the 1990 and 1997 Women's Mid-Amateurs, and captured her fourth consecutive Senior Women's Amateur title in 2002.

After 35 years of a stroke-play format, the 1997 championship was the first Senior Women's Amateur to be conducted at match play. It was the last of the USGA's 10 national amateur championships to adopt a match-play format.

In 2020, the U.S. Senior Women's Amateur was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Last year, Lara Tennant became the third player to win at least three consecutive U.S. Senior Women's Amateurs, joining Carolyn Cudone and Semple Thompson.
