Evan Beck Wins the 2024 Championship

The USGA redemption tour for Evan Beck is officially complete. In dominating fashion, the 34-year-old from Virginia Beach, Va., finally put his name on a USGA trophy with a 9-and-8 victory over Bobby Massa in Thursday's 36-hole U.S. Mid-Amateur championship match at Kinloch Golf Club.

A two-time USGA runner-up, including last year's 3-and-2 defeat to Stewart Hagestad at Sleepy Hollow Country Club, in Scarborough, N.Y., and a 2008 shellacking (10 and 8) from Cameron Peck in the U.S. Junior Amateur final at Shoal Creek, in Alabama, Beck became the first Virginian to hoist the Robert T. Jones Jr. Memorial Trophy, and the first from the Commonwealth to capture any USGA title since Lauren Greenlief's triumph in the 2015 U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur.

Beck also became the first medalist – he shared those honors in stroke play with Segundo Oliva Pinto at 8-under 133, and was seeded second for match play – to win since Scott Harvey a decade ago at Saucon Valley Country Club, in Bethlehem, Pa.

The fourth competitor to reach consecutive finals since the championship's inception in 1981, Beck joined George Zahringer (2001-2002) as players to have captured a title a year after losing in the final.

His margin of victory was the second largest in championship history after Kevin Marsh's 10-and-9 decision over Carlton Forrester in 2005 at The Honors Course, in Ooltewah, Tenn.

With his triumph, Beck, a Wake Forest University graduate who is No. 32 in the World Amateur Golf Ranking®/WAGR®, earned an exemption into the 2025 U.S. Open at Oakmont (Pa.) Country Club as well as a likely invitation into next April's Masters Tournament.

"It's pretty sweet," said Beck of finally ascending to the top of the USGA mountain. "I've always dreamt of winning one of these. It's incredible that it happened so close to home.

"To get all the way there and come up short [twice] is gut-wrenching. To be able to push through and prove that you can do it to yourself, more than anything, it's pretty awesome."

After closing out Stephen Behr Jr. in the semifinals on Wednesday afternoon, Beck talked about getting off to a fast start in the final, something he failed to do in the loss to Hagestad last September. At one point in that match, Beck faced a 7-down deficit.

The narrative completely flipped in 2024. Beck played a flawless opening 18, shooting the equivalent of 3-under 68 with no bogeys. While he didn't have a birdie after the seventh hole of that opening 18, he played fairways-and-greens golf against his more powerful and much longer opponent.

Massa, a professional trainer from Dallas, Texas, who advanced to the quarterfinals of last month's U.S. Amateur at Hazeltine National Golf Club, in Chaska, Minn., never could replicate the magic he showed in winning his semifinal match over Drew Kittleson when the long-hitting 36-year-old shot a first-nine 29 with five birdies, an eagle 2 and a three-putt bogey.

In the morning round, he only managed one birdie – a 5-footer on No. 11 after a perfectly executed wedge approach to cut his deficit to 4 down – in shooting the equivalent of 5-over 76 and an 8-down deficit. When he lost the second hole to a Beck birdie, it was the first time Massa had trailed in 65 holes. Prior to Thursday's final, he only had trailed for three holes the entire championship and that was in his Round-of-32 encounter against Richmond, Va., native Jordan Utley.

Massa, a former University of Texas-Arlington standout who tried professional golf for eight years before regaining his amateur status in 2018, had two great chances to make a dent in Beck's lead on Nos. 12 and 13, only to miss birdie putts inside of 10 feet. His 7-footer on the par-5 12th slid to the right. Then he drove the green at the 306-yard, 13th hole, leaving a delicate shot from just above the putting surface. But the ensuing pitch drifted 9 feet past the flagstick, and he missed the comebacker for birdie.

From there, his game continued to slide with three consecutive bogeys where he failed to get up and down, missing from 7 feet (No. 14), 20 feet (No. 15) and 5 feet (No. 16).

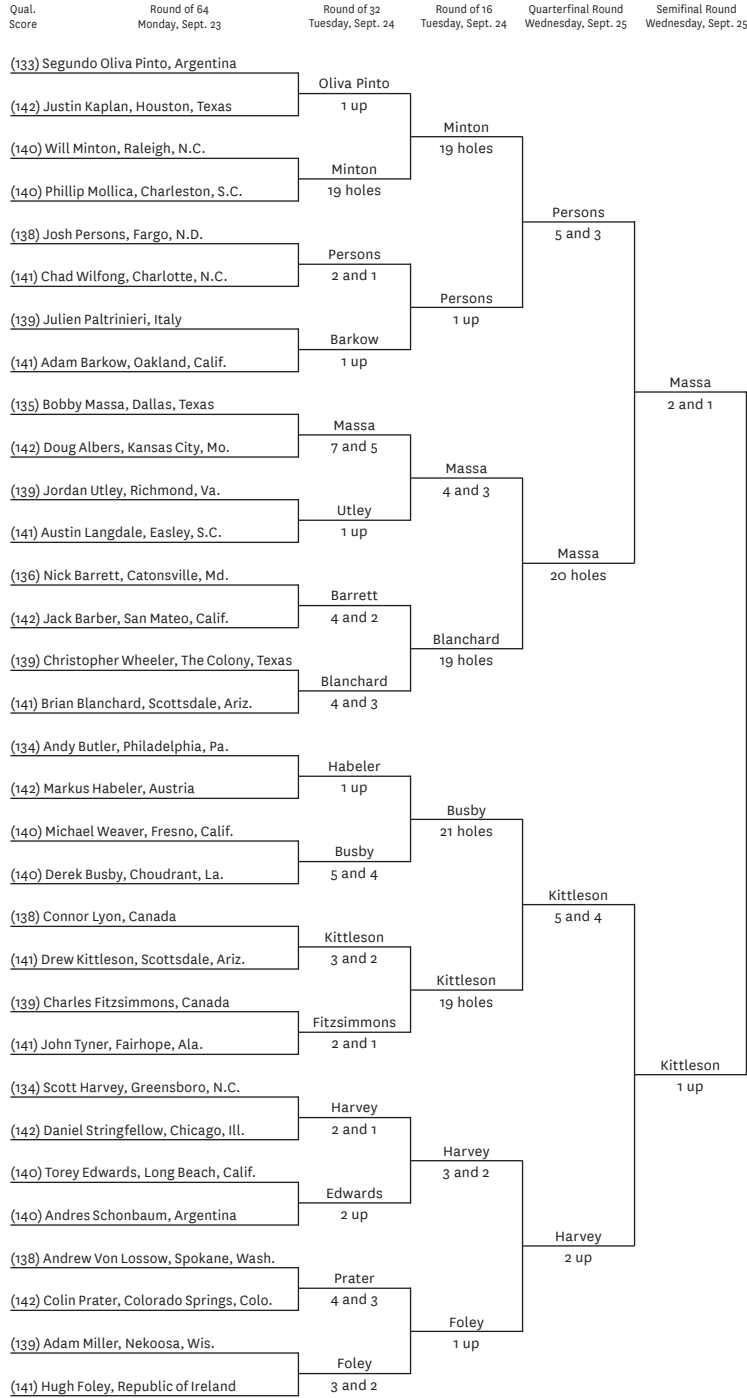

Another bogey at the par-5 18th following an errant drive and a poorly executed pitch shot from right of the green left Massa in a deep hole going into the lunch break.

Beck, an associate portfolio manager in the Washington, D.C., office for Baltimore-based Brown Advisory, certainly can relate to what it's like to lose – and big in a USGA final. In 2008 at Shoal Creek, he made a run to the U.S. Junior Amateur finals as an alternate into the field, defeating future three-time major champion Jordan Spieth in the semis before running into Peck in the final. Similar circumstances occurred a year ago against the world's top mid-amateur, Hagestad.

Beck, now 12-2 in match play at the U.S. Mid-Amateur, trailed for only five holes the entire week, all in his 21-hole, Round-of-16 victory over recently reinstated amateur Michael Buttacavoli. And he didn't trail against Massa on Thursday, despite giving up 20 to 30 yards off the tee.

He built a 5-up lead in the morning 18, thanks to birdies on two, four and seven, and winning pars on eight and nine. And by lunch, he owned an 8-up lead. Not resting on his laurels, Beck holed a 40-foot birdie on the par-4 19th hole to go 9 up. And while Massa finally converted his second birdie on the par-4 21st hole, he immediately gave it back with his eighth bogey of the match on No. 22.

Championship History

In 1981, the USGA inaugurated its first new championship for amateurs in 19 years, the U.S. Mid-Amateur. The Mid-Amateur, for amateur golfers of at least 25 years of age, provides a formal national championship for the post-college amateur, for whom the game is truly an avocation.

Before the arrival of the Mid-Amateur, the post-collegiate player could compete in the Amateur Championship, sometimes successfully, but these older amateurs faced greater odds. While they fit their golf around their work and families, they were most often competing against college golfers, for whom the game is close to a full-time activity.

Only about 40 percent of those who qualify for the U.S. Amateur each year are at least 25, although several have been quite successful. For example, Bob Lewis Jr., then 35, reached the Amateur final in 1980, and the semifinals in 1981 and 1986. Jay Sigel won consecutive Amateur titles in 1982 and 1983 (at ages 38 and 39, respectively), and then added the Mid-Amateur title in 1983, 1985 and 1987. In 1986, Buddy Alexander, 33, a reinstated amateur, won the U.S. Amateur and in 1993, 41-year-old John Harris won the Amateur. Harris remains the last mid-amateur to win the U.S. Amateur.

In general, however, most post-collegiate amateurs found themselves at a disadvantage competing against college golfers. Thus, the Mid-Amateur Championship was born.

Played at the Bellerive Country Club in St. Louis, the first Mid-Amateur drew 1,638 entries in 1981. The field included three former Amateur champions: Gary Cowan (1966, 1971), Marvin "Vinny" Giles III (1972) and Fred Ridley (1975). Jim Holtgrieve, 33, of Des Peres, Mo., defeated fellow Walker Cup Team member Bob Lewis Jr., 37, of Warren, Ohio, in the final, 2 up. Holtgrieve and Lewis each later captained a pair of USA Walker Cup Teams.

Nathan Smith is the only four-time U.S. Mid-Amateur champion. He won his first title in 2003 after his opponent, Bryan Norton, withdrew due to injury after nine holes. Smith took back-to-back victories in 2009 and 2010, and won his fourth title in 2012, becoming just the 15th person to win the same USGA championship on at least four occasions.

In 1983, Sigel became the first golfer in 53 years to win two USGA championships in the same year when he added the Mid-Amateur Championship to the U.S. Amateur he had won just 32 days earlier. Sigel became the Mid-Amateur's first two-time winner when he again captured the championship in 1985. Sigel won his third Mid-Amateur in 1987. Combined with his two U.S. Amateur titles (1982, 1983), Sigel won five USGA championships.

In 1987's first qualifying round, Don Bliss made holes-in-one on the eighth and 10th holes at Brook Hollow Golf Club in Dallas, Texas. Bliss is the only player to score two holes-in-one in one round of a USGA championship.

The U.S. Mid-Amateur Championship has continued to grow in popularity and in 1989 topped 3,000 entries for the first time. In its short history, the championship's unique age qualification has inspired similar tournaments throughout the country and there are now mid-amateur events in nearly every state. The Mid-Amateur also has helped several players earn berths to the USA Walker Cup Team. Sigel, Smith, Tim Jackson, Scott Harvey, Todd White, Danny Green, George Zahringer, William Hoffer and Stewart Hagestad are among those selected to represent their country off the strength of performances in the Mid-Amateur.

For the first time in USGA championship history, two courses were used in a 36-hole championship match in the 2016 final between Hagestad and Harvey. The match at Stonewall, in Elverson, Pa., started with 18 holes on the par-70, 6,711-yard North Course, while the second 18 was played on the par-70, 6,870-yard Old Course.

Beginning in 2017, the U.S. Mid-Amateur champion received a full exemption from qualifying into the following year's U.S. Open field. Matt Parziale, a firefighter from Brockton, Mass., became the first player to earn that exemption.

In 2020, the U.S. Mid-Amateur was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
