Rianne Malixi Wins the 2024 Championship

Back in March, Asterisk Talley and Rianne Malixi were roommates at the Sage Valley Junior Invitational. Talley won the event, and Malixi finished runner-up, six shots back. Last month, Malixi got her revenge at the 2024 U.S. Girls' Junior with an 8-and-7 victory over Talley in the 36-hole final match.

On Sunday afternoon, the pair settled their friendly-yet-competitive stalemate in the 36-hole championship match of the 2024 U.S. Women's Amateur at Southern Hills Country Club in Tulsa, Okla.

Malixi, 17, became the fourth female to win two USGA titles in the same year with her 3-and-2 defeat of Talley and the first native of the Philippines to win the U.S. Women's Amateur. She is also just the second player in history to win the U.S. Girls' Junior and U.S. Women's Amateur in the same year, a feat previously only accomplished by Eun Jeong Seong in 2016. In total, now nine women have won both championships, with Rose Zhang (2020 U.S. Women's Amateur, 2021 U.S. Girls' Junior) being the last to do so.

"Honestly I just wanted to play good golf. That's it," Malixi said of her expectations for the year. "I wasn't expecting to win the Australian Master of Amateurs in January and then win U.S. Girls' last month and then this one. I was so surprised. Even though I was playing good golf, I was just not expecting it."

Talley, 15, held a 1-up lead following the opening 18 holes, which were contested on Saturday afternoon to combat the inclement weather in the Tulsa area on Sunday morning. The Chowchilla, Calif., native played the equivalent of an even-par 71 with normal match play concessions while Malixi came in at 2-over 73 (with an early conceded hole before she reached the 12th green).

Hours of rain in the morning softened the course a bit by the time the players returned to Southern Hills on Sunday afternoon, but it didn't make the tricky track any easier to navigate for the players. Par won the first four holes of the final 18, including the opener where Talley extended her lead to 2 up. Then Malixi took advantage of some Talley mistakes and claimed the next four holes to flip the match in her favor. The 2025 Duke University commit made the first birdie of the day at the par-5 fifth hole to go 2 up and held that margin over the next two holes after the pair traded pars and birdies on Nos. 6 and 7.

Malixi, the No. 10-ranked amateur in the world, took the first 3-up lead of the day after a Talley three putt on the par-3 eighth, but the rising high school sophomore responded with a dart on No. 9 that was conceded for birdie to cut Malixi's lead to 2 up at the final turn through 27 holes.

Talley rode that momentum for two more wins to start the last nine and squared the match with a birdie and par on Nos. 10 and 11, but missed a chance to retake the lead on the 12th. She flagged her approach within five feet from the rough but hit the edge with her birdie putt and settled for a tie with par.

"I just hit it too hard. Maybe just misread it a little bit," Talley said of her missed opportunity.

The momentum flipped like a switch as Malixi made three straight birdies - the most impressive being a long, curling putt from outside 20 feet on No. 14 - to take a 3-up lead with three holes to play.

"I think on the 12th hole we tied, and then I was like, 'Just treat the next six, seven holes as your last four holes like I did with training with my dad,'" Malixi said of her closing stretch. "And then just flipped the switch there and just kept on making birdies, and I was hitting really good shots and then putts happened to drop."

"It was crazy seeing her birdieing four holes in a row," Talley said of Malixi's run. "I mean, I was just trying to make birdies to tie the holes and hopefully I could win a couple on the last."

From the bunker guarding the right side of the par-5 16th green, Malixi hit the bottom of the pin and nearly holed out for the win. Talley then stepped up and made her putt to apply some pressure to Malixi, who remained calm and made her four footer to claim her second USGA championship of the summer in a span of just 22 days.

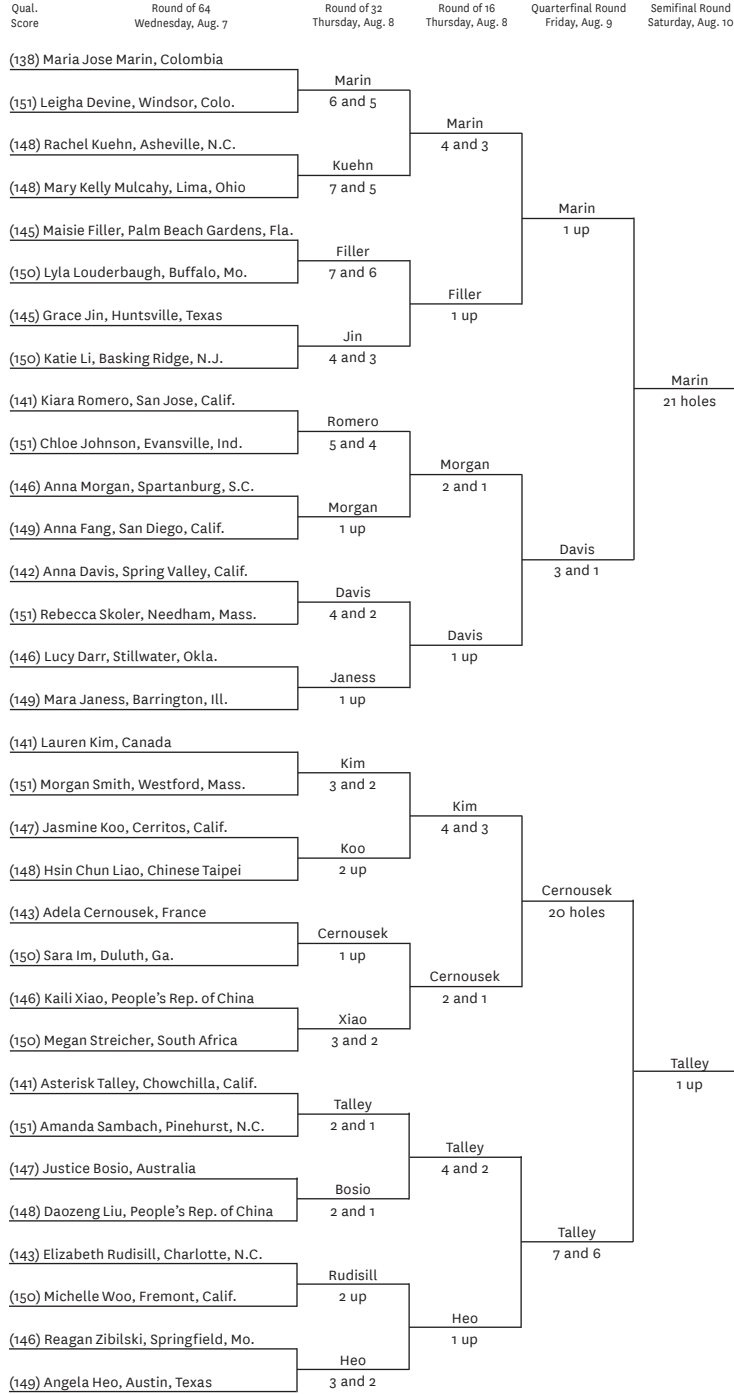

"Just to be my first Women's Am and being able to make it this far was really cool. I feel like I can take a lot from this week just knowing that," Talley said after the match. "And I'm still young. I have some time left. And that I can -- even this early in my career, that I can play as well as I did."

While many amateurs don't play very many 36-hole matches, Malixi, a four-time participant in the U.S. Women's Amateur, learned from her past experiences and worked on both her mental and physical game to prepare for her major moments.

"Honestly, it's all part of training. I think I told someone 22 days ago at (the U.S. Girls' Junior) that it was part of my training to play with a pro, my dad's friend," she said of her practice back home. "I would have match play with him for 36 holes and it was almost the same thing as this week, and it helped a lot."

"I'm thankful for my dad who kept on pushing me beyond my limits," she added. "I know I was kind of self-deprecating last year and then my dad just kind of like pep talked me. He tried to let me stay on the positive side of things. Everything is just all about perspective and I kind of realized that at the beginning of the year. Yeah, everything just went skyrocket."

Championship History

The U.S. Women's Amateur Championship marks the beginning of women's competitive golf in this country. Along with the U.S. Amateur and the U.S. Open, the Women's Amateur was one of the USGA's first three championships.

The first Women's Amateur Championship was arranged one month after the 1895 Amateur and Open Championships.

The following small item appeared in the social column of a New York newspaper shortly after the completion of play: "Thirteen ladies played 18 holes of golf at the Meadow Brook Club, in Hempstead, recently. Mrs. Charles S. Brown, whose husband plays at the Shinnecock Hills Club, in Southampton, L.I., made the best score and thus won the United States championship for lady golfers."

Few early golf clubs encouraged women to play. There were exceptions, of course, most notably Shinnecock Hills, whose private property the Women's Amateur title would become for the first four years. When Lucy Barnes Brown elected not to defend in 1896, Shinnecock came up with a replacement in Beatrix Hoyt, who would become its best-known player. Hoyt, the granddaughter of Supreme Court Chief Justice Salmon P. Chase, won the next three championships.

Although a stroke-play format was selected for the first championship, the Women's Amateur became a match-play competition in 1896 and has remained so since.

The most noteworthy champion is Glenna Collett Vare, a lifelong amateur who won the Cox Trophy a record six times. In the 1920s and 1930s, Vare was the darling of the sports world, much as Bob Jones was during that era.

Second only to Vare is JoAnne Gunderson Carner, who won five U.S. Women's Amateur Championships. Combined with her two wins in the U.S. Women's Open and one victory in the U.S. Girls' Junior, Carner's record of eight USGA titles is eclipsed only by Jones and Tiger Woods, who have each won nine.

Beatrix Hoyt, Alexa Stirling, Vare, Virginia Van Wie and Juli Simpson Inkster have all won the U.S. Women's Amateur three times consecutively. Another seven champions — Genevieve Hecker, Dorothy Campbell, Margaret Curtis, Betty Jameson, Kay Cockerill, Kelli Kuehne and Danielle Kang — have won twice in succession.

The U.S. Women's Amateur has long identified some of golf's greatest female players, many of whom have gone on to successful professional careers. In addition to the champions listed above, Patty Berg, Babe Didrikson Zaharias, Louise Suggs, Marlene Stewart Streit, Anne Quast Sander, Barbara McIntire, Catherine Lacoste, Carol Semple Thompson, Beth Daniel, Morgan Pressel and Lydia Ko have secured a place in golf history.

In 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic forced the cancellation of qualifying for the U.S. Women's Amateur. The championship was conducted with an all-exempt field.
