Brandon Holtz Wins the 2025 Championship

News flash: It actually rained in the Arizona desert on Thursday. The dousing was quick, the remnants of a tropical storm. But after five consecutive days of glorious sunshine, it did come as a surprise during the 36-hole championship match of the 44th U.S. Mid-Amateur Championship at Troon Country Club.

A little extra moisture didn't bother 38-year-old Brandon Holtz, who played four seasons as a reserve shooting guard at Division I Illinois State University (2005-09) in Normal, just a couple of miles from his hometown of Bloomington. After all, just walking the hilly Tom Weiskopf design in the mid-90-degree heat all week created some perspiration.

So, why not sweat out a few more holes? Thirty-four to be exact.

The realtor and reinstated amateur – he tried the mini-tour circuit for six years and continued playing his state open until getting his status back in 2024 – delivered when he had to against Jeg Coughlin III, 28, of Dublin, Ohio, in a 3-and-2 victory. He becomes the second Illinois State graduate to win a title after Todd Mitchell (2019 U.S. Amateur Four-Ball). Mitchell was the Mid-Amateur runner-up 17 years ago at Milwaukee Country Club.

Holtz, competing in his first USGA championship, not only added his name to the illustrious champions on the Robert T. Jones Trophy, but also earned an exemption into next year's U.S. Open at Shinnecock Hills Golf Club, and a likely invitation to the Masters Tournament in April.

Those are nice perks for someone who admittedly has advanced to U.S. Open final qualifying more than a half-dozen times.

"Wild," said Holtz when asked what it meant to join the pantheon of legendary players as a USGA champion. "I kept my pro card for a while just because I liked to play for cash, and it got to the point where I just wasn't playing any events anymore, so decided to get my amateur status back last year. I didn't see this day. I'm glad it's here, though."

The coup de grace came on the downhill and drivable 308-yard, par-4 34th hole. Hitting second and showcasing the power in his arsenal, the 6-foot-2 Holtz, who is built like a linebacker, delivered the shot of the day, a drive to 7 feet left of the flagstick, to set up a match-winning eagle 2.

That was Holtz's philosophy the entire week: Tee it high and let it fly.

When most of the competitors were playing conservative with hybrids, irons and metal woods off the tee, Holtz pulled out his driver whenever possible. His favorite club answered virtually every time.

"The driver got me here," said Holtz, who watched Coughlin nearly hole a 60-footer for birdie on No. 34 after reaching the front of the green with his drive. "The driver is my strong club, and it's the reason I'm here. Honestly, when I was walking up to the [34th] tee, when [the USGA] had the tees moved up, it was going to be driver no matter what."

A dozen of those supporters were from Bloomington, 10 of whom jumped into a private jet arranged by Andy Dusman, one of Holtz's friends from Crestwicke Country Club. He and nine others flew to Arizona on Thursday morning, and they made their presence felt with plenty of noise. Two other friends, Gavin Halsey and Jimmy Brown, were on property all week, along with his wife, Liz, brother Brent, and his father, Jeff, who served as his caddie. His stepmom, Gina, flew home on Wednesday, while his two young children, 2-year-old Millie and 5-year-old son remained back in Illinois.

On Wednesday, Holtz rallied from 3 down with five to play to beat Justin Hueber in 19 holes. On Tuesday, he played 13-under golf over two matches with no bogeys.

The golf wasn't quite as sharp in the final as both players showed their nerves. Holtz won Nos. 4 and 6 with conceded eagle-2s after Coughlin found trouble off the tee. Holtz would still manage to shoot the equivalent of 4-under 67 (with concessions) and take a 3-up lead into the lunch break, thanks to a birdie on the closing par 4. Coughlin carded a 74 in the morning 18 and decided to do a little soul searching during the one-hour lunch break.

Before hitting a few balls on the range under the watchful eye of his caddie, two-time PGA Tour winner Kevin Streelman, Coughlin found a quiet space in the clubhouse and did some meditating with girlfriend Madelaine Fahlgren. He changed his shirt, too.

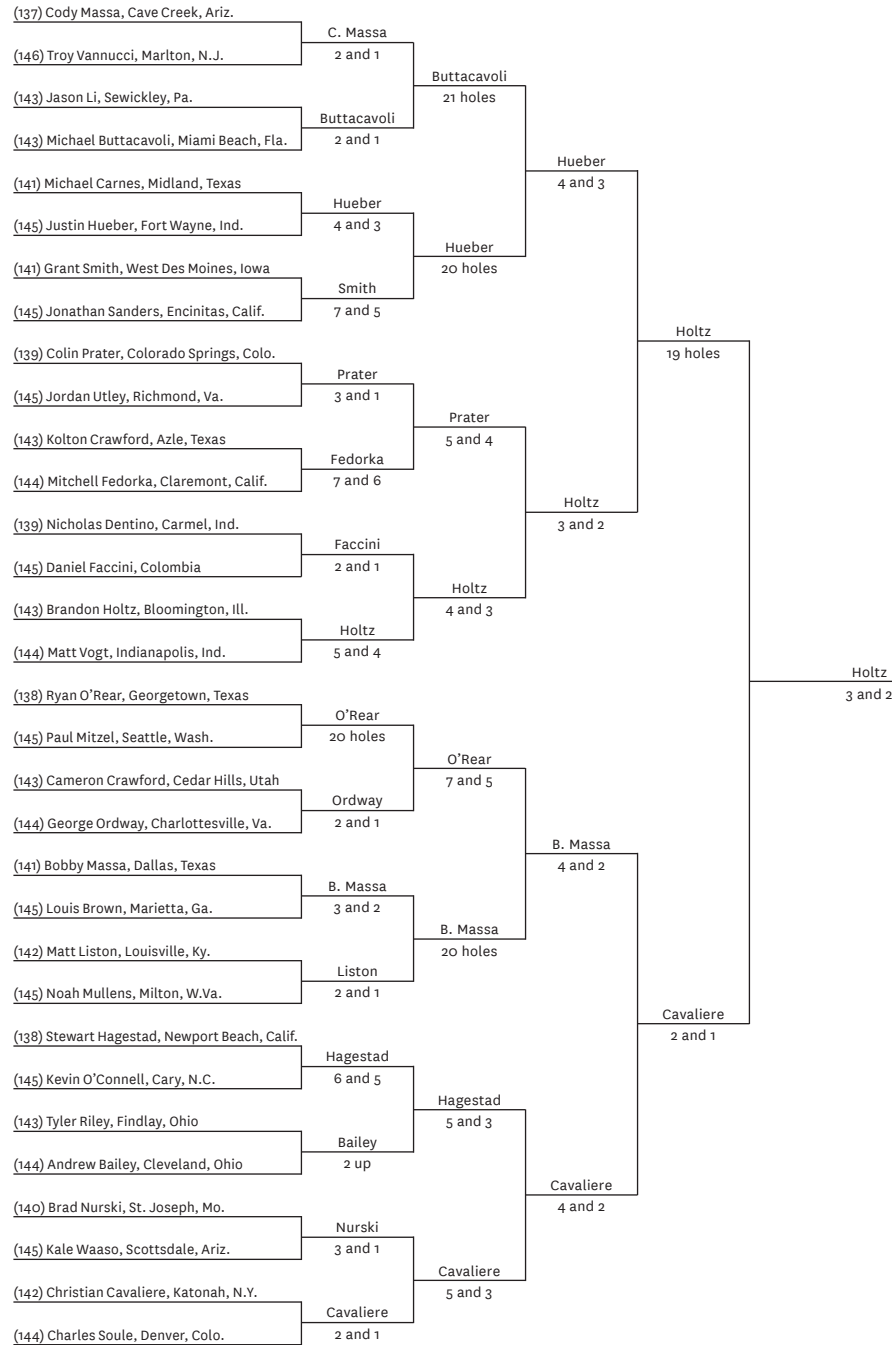

But it took a few holes to get going. Holtz won Nos. 19 and 20 with pars and lipped out a birdie putt on the 25th hole to go 6 up. Coughlin made a 12-footer on the next hole, and he was conceded a birdie on No. 27 after hitting his approach to 3 feet. Meanwhile, Holtz badly missed the fairway, right into the desert. That trimmed the margin to 2 up going to the final nine holes. Another birdie by Coughlin at 10 cut the margin to 1 up.

Suddenly, what looked like a possible rout was now a tight affair.

That would be as close as Coughlin would get. Holtz birdied the 29th hole, a par 5, and recorded a 2 on the par-3 31st, a hole that is modeled after the Postage Stamp Hole (No. 8) at Royal Troon. A hiccup on the 32nd – Holtz mis-clubbed from the fairway and airmailed the green into desert – led to a lost hole, setting up his heroics two holes later.

Championship History

In 1981, the USGA inaugurated its first new championship for amateurs in 19 years, the U.S. Mid-Amateur. The Mid-Amateur, for amateur golfers of at least 25 years of age, provides a formal national championship for the post-college amateur, for whom the game is truly an avocation.

Before the arrival of the Mid-Amateur, the post-collegiate player could compete in the Amateur Championship, sometimes successfully, but these older amateurs faced greater odds. While they fit their golf around their work and families, they were most often competing against college golfers, for whom the game is close to a full-time activity.

Only about 40 percent of those who qualify for the U.S. Amateur each year are at least 25, although several have been quite successful. For example, Bob Lewis Jr., then 35, reached the Amateur final in 1980, and the semifinals in 1981 and 1986. Jay Sigel won consecutive Amateur titles in 1982 and 1983 (at ages 38 and 39, respectively), and then added the Mid-Amateur title in 1983, 1985 and 1987. In 1986, Buddy Alexander, 33, a reinstated amateur, won the U.S. Amateur and in 1993, 41-year-old John Harris won the Amateur. Harris remains the last mid-amateur to win the U.S. Amateur.

In general, however, most post-collegiate amateurs found themselves at a disadvantage competing against college golfers. Thus, the Mid-Amateur Championship was born.

Played at the Bellerive Country Club in St. Louis, the first Mid-Amateur drew 1,638 entries in 1981. The field included three former Amateur champions: Gary Cowan (1966, 1971), Marvin "Vinny" Giles III (1972) and Fred Ridley (1975). Jim Holtgrieve, 33, of Des Peres, Mo., defeated fellow Walker Cup Team member Bob Lewis Jr., 37, of Warren, Ohio, in the final, 2 up. Holtgrieve and Lewis each later captained a pair of USA Walker Cup Teams.

Nathan Smith is the only four-time U.S. Mid-Amateur champion. He won his first title in 2003 after his opponent, Bryan Norton, withdrew due to injury after nine holes. Smith took back-to-back victories in 2009 and 2010, and won his fourth title in 2012, becoming just the 15th person to win the same USGA championship on at least four occasions.

In 1983, Sigel became the first golfer in 53 years to win two USGA championships in the same year when he added the Mid-Amateur Championship to the U.S. Amateur he had won just 32 days earlier. Sigel became the Mid-Amateur's first two-time winner when he again captured the championship in 1985. Sigel won his third Mid-Amateur in 1987. Combined with his two U.S. Amateur titles (1982, 1983), Sigel won five USGA championships.

In 1987's first qualifying round, Don Bliss made holes-in-one on the eighth and 10th holes at Brook Hollow Golf Club in Dallas, Texas. Bliss is the only player to score two holes-in-one in one round of a USGA championship.

The U.S. Mid-Amateur Championship has continued to grow in popularity and in 1989 topped 3,000 entries for the first time. In its short history, the championship's unique age qualification has inspired similar tournaments throughout the country and there are now mid-amateur events in nearly every state. The Mid-Amateur also has helped several players earn berths to the USA Walker Cup Team. Sigel, Smith, Tim Jackson, Scott Harvey, Todd White, Danny Green, George Zahringer, William Hoffer and Stewart Hagestad are among those selected to represent their country off the strength of performances in the Mid-Amateur.

For the first time in USGA championship history, two courses were used in a 36-hole championship match in the 2016 final between Hagestad and Harvey. The match at Stonewall, in Elverson, Pa., started with 18 holes on the par-70, 6,711-yard North Course, while the second 18 was played on the par-70, 6,870-yard Old Course.

Beginning in 2017, the U.S. Mid-Amateur champion received a full exemption from qualifying into the following year's U.S. Open field. Matt Parziale, a firefighter from Brockton, Mass., became the first player to earn that exemption.

In 2020, the U.S. Mid-Amateur was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
