United States of America Wins the 2025 Championship

The United States of America won its 15th Espirito Santo Trophy on a tiebreaker over Spain and defending champion Republic of Korea at the 31st Women's World Amateur Team Championship on Saturday at Tanah Merah Country Club in Singapore.

The Americans, Koreans and Spaniards tied at 18-under 558, but after comparing non-counting scores, it was Megha Ganne's third round, even-par 72 that would win it for USA. Spain's non-counting score in the third round was a 2-over 73. As a result, Spain and Korea each received a silver medal. England and the People's Republic of China finished tied-fourth, two strokes back.

"We are beyond happy. We don't get to do this often, to play for country, so we were just excited to be here," said Ganne, the reigning U.S. Women's Amateur Champion. "We were so impressed at the level of golf from Korea and Spain. It's a heart-breaking tiebreaker for them, but we knew that the third score yesterday and today could matter."

Catherine Park, who was originally the first alternate for USA this week, sank an 8-foot birdie putt on the 18th to finish 1 under par on Saturday, matching Carolina López-Chacarra's non-counting, final round 1-under 71 and forcing the tiebreaker to go to the third round. Korea's Seojin Park posted a non-counting 2-over in the final round, which eliminated them from contention in the tiebreaker.

"With my rules official background, I was very conscious of the tie-breaking element," said USA captain Kendra Graham, who worked in Rules and Competitions for the USGA for more than 10 years. "The first phone call I had with each of them, I told them every single player was in it every single day...if it ever comes to a tiebreaker, we are going to that score."

The USA, which entered the final round three strokes back from the Koreans, surged back into its first-round form with a bogey-free round from Ganne. Park, a senior at the University of Southern California, recorded three birdies on her last three holes, while O'Keefe posted a 1-under 71 in the final round.

Spain, who have now finished inside the top five in the last three competitions, began the final round four shots off the pace and battled its way back into a share of the lead, even reaching 19 under par. But a third consecutive heartbreak in the championship would arrive after a bogey 5 on No. 17 from Stanford's Paula Martín Sampedro brought Spain back to 18-under, leaving the decision to the tiebreaker.

"We gave ourselves a chance today, we put [up] three really good scores," said Martín Sampedro, who won The R&A's Women's Amateur Championship over USA's Farah O'Keefe earlier this summer. "It's a shame that only two scorecards count... [I'm] super proud of the team, and I just think the important thing is that we gave ourselves a chance."

World No. 14 Soomin Oh had a chance to bring the Koreans ahead on the 18th as well, nearly chipping-in for birdie from the fringe to bring the defending champions back to 19-under but rolling it just a few inches by the cup. Republic of Korea would have become the first team to successfully defend the title since it last did so in 2012 after winning in 2010.

Host country Singapore finished T-15 after posting a 1-under 142 in the final round, led by 16-year-old Xingtong Chen, who finished runner-up in the U.S. Girls' Junior this summer. It marks their best finish in eight appearances in the championship.

Quotable

Chris Zambri, USA Coach: "I'm over the moon. I'm so happy for the girls. They all contributed big time. I mean, unbelievable the way each one of them played...I didn't say much going into the round. I don't give pep talks. I just said, just do what you do. You're all really great."

Catherine Park, USA: "I'm just so happy. The pressure of making that 8-footer and then knowing we won was unbelievable. It was been a dream being here with [the team], winning this trophy."

Xingtong Chen, Singapore: "Overall, I'm really, really happy... Having a crowd around...I'm really grateful to have the home crowd following us."

Murray Smit, Singapore Coach: "Yeah, I think it's a really, really good week for the girls. There'll be things we obviously will look back on...but as a team, they really dug in and fought hard, especially today, after a tough start. I mean, our previous best finish was in Abu Dhabi, where we finished 20th. So finishing in tied-15th is a massive step forward for Singapore women's golf, and we can look to build from here in Morocco, hopefully, in two years' time."

Notable

With their 15th gold medal in the competition, USA is now one gold medal away on the women's side from matching the men's total of 16. USA will look to become the first team since 1994 to win both the men's and women's competition in the same year, with the World Amateur Team Championship for the Eisenhower Trophy being contested at Tanah Merah next week. The last country to accomplish the feat was also USA.

Korea now has ten medals in their 18 WWATC appearances – five gold, three silver and two bronze. Its previous five gold medals came in 1996, 2010, 2012, 2016 and 2023. This is Korea's eighth consecutive top-10 finish in the Espirito Santo Trophy.

Spain's silver medal is its second all-time and brings its total medal count to seven, moving it into a tie with Great Britain & Ireland. It also marks a second consecutive podium appearance in the championship following their bronze-medal performance in 2023.
