Natalie Yen and Asia Young Win the 2025 Championship

For the fifth consecutive year, a teenage duo captured the first USGA title of the season. Natalie Yen, 18, of West Linn, Ore., and Asia Young, 16, of Bend, Ore., rolled to a commanding 5-and-3 victory — the second-largest margin in a final in the championship's young history — to win the 10th U.S. Women's Amateur Four-Ball on a hot and windy Wednesday at Oklahoma City Golf & Country Club in Nichols Hills, Okla. The duo defeated 17-year-old Kentucky residents Athena Singh and Keira Yun in the final match.

Teeing off just 45 minutes after wrapping up their 2-and-1 semi-final win over Fay Jia and Cherry Zhang, Yen and Young wasted no time finding their rhythm, taking a 1-up lead on the opening hole, thanks to Young's steady two-putt par. True to the form they showed all week, both players contributed when it counted. After Young found trouble on the par-4 fourth — landing in a fairway bunker and needing two more shots to reach the green — Yen stepped up, sinking a 10-foot birdie putt from the fringe to push their lead to 2 up.

"I think overall, we trust each other to play our games, and we know we're trying our best," said Yen, who is headed to Texas A&M this fall. "We may have different styles on certain holes. But at the end of the day, I think we both know that we're both able to score."

After a tough fourth hole, Young bounced back in impressive fashion, becoming the only player in the group to reach the par-5 fifth green in two shots. Capitalizing on her length — she and Yen had been consistently outdriving their opponents all match — she tapped in for birdie to extend the side's lead to 3 up, before draining a 30-foot birdie putt on the next hole for a commanding 4-up lead through six holes.

"We won those three holes in a row from 4 to 6, and I think my putt on 4 really helped us kind of feel like, okay, now we can really start firing," said Yen.

"Being up a little with momentum on your side just lets you play a little more fearlessly," added Young, a rising junior at Laurel Springs High School, in Bend."

Singh and Yun briefly halted their opponents' momentum by tying holes 7 through 11, but the eventual champions delivered a decisive blow on the 12th, winning the hole with a routine par to go 5 up. Singh and Yun managed to take their only hole of the match with a par on No. 14, but the contest came to a dramatic close on the par-3 15th. Young nearly aced her tee shot, landing it near the hole before running out about 15 feet. With composure well beyond her years, the 16-year-old calmly drained the birdie putt to clinch the match — and a USGA title — in spectacular fashion.

"Honestly, in this match we weren't going in with high expectations," said Singh. "We were just kind of in disbelief that we got to the final match, so I think both us and our parents, all of us were pretty much saying, 'We got here; doesn't matter how we play; just try to play our own game and see how it goes.'"

The runner-up finish does come with its perks, and the duo is exempt into the next three iterations of the championship, provided the side remains intact.

"I couldn't ask for a better partner, so just knowing I get to play another three years with her and how far we made it this time, hoping maybe one time we can come back with a win," said Yun.

Earlier in the day, Yen and Young edged out California teenagers Fay Jia and Cherry Zhang, 2 and 1, in a closely contested match that went back and forth until the 13th hole, when the eventual winners pulled ahead for good. In the other semifinal, Singh and Yun led from start to finish, also winning 2 and 1 over the 17-year-old Floridian duo of Bella Dovhey and Sophia Dyer.

Notable

By winning the championship, Natalie Yen and Asia Young became the 749th and 750th unique champions in USGA history. The USGA began conducting championships in 1895.

Both semifinalist sides of Fay Jia and Cherry Zhang, and Sophie Dyer and Bella Dovhey, received bronze medals and are exempt into the championship for the next two years, provided the sides remain intact.

The 5 and 3 margin in the final match is the second-largest in championship history. The largest came in 2021, when Savannah Barber and Alexa Saldana defeated Jillian Bourdage and Casey Weidenfeld, 5 and 4, at Maridoe Golf Club, in Carrollton, Texas. Barber and Saldana lost in the Round of 32 in this year's event.

Quotable

"It was just really fun to play this kind of format, especially playing match play. It's just such a different game, especially with the added teammate part. That was just super cool." - Semifinalist Sophia Dyer on her main takeaways from the week playing alongside partner Bella Dovhey

"I think my biggest takeaway is all the top tournaments that I've played, like amateur events and U.S. Open qualifiers, all of their greens are very hard, so you can't just land it there like junior tournaments do. You have to roll it up and you have to hit fades and draws and avoid the bunkers. So I think the more I play -- I mean, I played more than a week here and I've learned how to control that, so I think going into the SCGA (Southern California Golf Association) Women's Amateur and some top tournaments like that, I think it'll really help me because I've learned a lot in this past week." - Semifinalist Fay Jia on her biggest takeaway from playing at Oklahoma City G. & C.C.

Championship History

The U.S. Amateur Four-Ball Championships were first played in 2015 but the genesis of these USGA competitions was years in the making.

As part of its mission to provide the best in national championship competition, the USGA began the process of developing and deploying these championships at the suggestion of Mike Davis, who served as the USGA's chief executive officer from 2011-21.

Through extensive research and cooperation from the nation's many state and regional golf associations, the planning and implementation by the USGA's Rules & Competitions department produced a proposal to the Executive Committee, which was passed and ultimately announced at the USGA Annual Meeting in San Diego in 2013.

"We couldn't be more excited about the creation of national four-ball championships, given the popularity and enjoyment of this competitive format at the amateur level," said USGA Vice President and Championship Committee Chairman Thomas J. O'Toole Jr., at the time of the announcement. "Because the four-ball format lends itself to spirited team competition and aggressive risk-reward shotmaking, we are confident these championships will deliver exciting amateur golf to the national stage for both players and spectators alike."

In 2012, more than 150 championships, either strictly four-ball or as part of a competition format, were conducted in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

The first two sites for each championship were announced in July of 2013: 2015 Four-Ball at The Olympic Club in San Francisco, Calif., and 2016 Four-Ball at Winged Foot Golf Club in Mamaroneck, N.Y. and the 2015 Women's Four-Ball at Bandon Dunes Golf Resort in Bandon, Ore., and the 2016 Women's Four-Ball at Streamsong Resort in Florida.

It marked the first time in 25 years, since the establishment of the U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur in 1987, that the USGA had added a new championship.

The establishment of the Four-Ball championships was first and foremost a reflection of the Association's continued commitment to supporting and growing amateur competition well into the future. A critical factor was that four-ball is a very popular event, not only at the club level, but through our state and regional golf associations (now Allied Golf Associations) who conduct championships like this every year and have for many years.

This format, more than most other formats, promotes camaraderie and perhaps players traveling together. The risk-reward element involved in two balls in play on each hole can produce some exciting golf and likely more birdies and eagles, which is attractive to competitors and fans.

In the inaugural year, the Four-Ball championships were the first USGA competitions to be televised by the Association's then broadcast partner, Fox Sports, with both championships receiving four hours of live broadcast coverage.

In 2020, the U.S. Women's Amateur Four-Ball was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
